New shares or stock to be sold by auction or tender.

(2) All shares or stock so to be issued shall be offered for sale by public auction or tender in such manner at such times and subject to such conditions of sale as the Company shall from time to time determine Provided as follows:—

(A) Notice of the intended sale shall be given in writing to the clerk of each urban district council and rural district council whose district or any portion of whose district is within the limits of supply and to the secretary of the London Stock Exchange at least twenty-eight days before the day of auction or the last day for the reception of tenders as the case may be and shall also be duly advertised once in each of two consecutive weeks in one or more local newspapers circulating within the limits of supply:

(B) A reserve price shall be fixed and notice thereof shall be sent by the Company in a sealed letter to be received by the Board of Trade not less than twenty-four hours before but not to be opened till after the day of auction or last day for the receipt of tenders as the case may be:

(c) No lot offered for sale shall comprise shares or stock of greater nominal value than one hundred pounds:

(D) In the case of a sale by tender no preference shall be given to one of two or more persons tendering the same sum In the case of a sale by auction a bid shall not be recognised unless it is in advance of the last preceding bid:

A.D. 1913.

(E) It shall be one of the conditions of sale that the total sum payable by the purchaser shall be paid to the Company within three months after the date of the auction or of the acceptance of the tender as the case may be.

(3) Any shares or stock which have been so offered for sale and are not sold may be offered at the reserve price to the holders of ordinary shares or stock of the Company in accordance with the provisions of sections 18 19 and 20 of the Companies Clauses Act 1863 and to the employees of the Company and to the consumers of gas supplied by the Company in such proportions as the Company may think fit or to one or more of these classes of persons only. Provided in the case of an offer to holders of shares or stock that if the aggregate amount of shares or stock applied for shall exceed the aggregate amount so offered as aforesaid the same shall be allotted to and distributed amongst the applicants as nearly as may be in proportion to the amounts applied for by them respectively.

(4) Any shares or stock which have been offered for sale in accordance with subsection (2) or with subsections (2) and (3) and are not sold shall be again offered for sale by public auction or by tender in accordance with the provisions of this section and any such shares or stock then remaining unsold may be otherwise disposed of at such price and in such manner as the directors may determine for the purpose of realising the best price obtainable.

(5) As soon as possible after the conclusion of the sale or sales the Company shall send a report thereof to the Board of Trade stating the total amount of the shares or stock sold the total amount obtained as premium (if any) and the highest and lowest prices obtained for the shares or stock.

Privileges
capital.

23. Except as is otherwise by this Act provided the additional capital created by the Company under this Act shall be part of the general capital of the Company and the new shares therein and the holders thereof respectively shall be entitled to the like rights of voting and any other rights qualifications and privileges in proportion to the amount of their shares and be subject to the like provisions and liabilities as the holders of shares of the same class issued in substitution for existing shares under this Act.

create a special purposes
fund.

A.D. 1913. the paid-up capital of the Company including premiums to a fund to be called "the special purposes fund."

(2) The special purposes fund shall be applicable only to meet such charges as a chartered accountant or an incorporated accountant being an auditor of the Company or appointed for the purpose by the Board of Trade shall approve as being—

(A) Expenses incurred by reason of accidents strikes or circumstances which due care and management could not have prevented; or

(B) Expenses incurred in the replacement or removal of plant or works other than expenses requisite for maintenance and renewal of plant and works.

(3) The maximum amount standing to the credit of the special purposes fund shall not at any time exceed an amount equal to one-tenth part of the paid-up capital of the Company including premiums.

(4) The moneys forming the special purposes fund or any portion thereof may be invested in securities in which trustees are authorised by law to invest or may be applied for the general purposes of the Company to which capital is properly applicable or may be used partly in the one way or partly in the other.

(5) Resort may from time to time be had to the special purposes fund notwithstanding that the sum standing to the credit of the fund is for the time being less than the maximum allowed by this section.

(6) The money or securities standing to the credit of any renewal fund of the Limited Company at the date of transfer shall be credited to the special purposes fund.

Application of excess of profits.

27. If the clear profits of the undertaking in any half-year (after appropriating and setting apart such sum or sums (if any) as may be determined upon under the powers of this Act to any fund or funds thereby authorised) amount to a larger sum than is sufficient to pay the dividends on the preference capital and the dividends at the authorised rates on the ordinary capital of the Company the excess shall be carried to the credit of the profit and loss (net revenue) account of the undertaking for the next following half-year :

Provided that the sum standing to the credit of such profit and loss (net revenue) account to be carried forward to the next following half-year shall not at any time exceed the amount required to pay one year's dividends at the authorised rates on the preference and ordinary capital of the Company. A.D. 1913.

BORROWING POWERS.

28. The Company may subject to the provisions of this Act borrow on mortgage of the undertaking any sum or sums not exceeding in the whole (inclusive of the aggregate sum of two thousand eight hundred and fifty pounds already borrowed by the Limited Company) one-third part of the amount of the capital of the Company which at the time of borrowing has been actually issued or raised by the Company under the powers or in pursuance of the provisions of this Act but no sum shall be borrowed in respect of any capital so raised until the Company have proved to a justice of the peace before he gives his certificate under the fortieth section of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act 1845 that the whole of the shares or stock at the time of issue together with the premiums (if any) realised on the sale thereof has been fully paid up. Provided that such gas engines apparatus fittings and appliances have upon them respectively a distinguishing metal plate affixed to a conspicuous part thereof or a distinguishing brand or other mark conspicuously impressed or made thereon sufficiently indicating the Company as the actual owners thereof.

(2) Nothing in this section shall affect the amount of assessment for rating of any premises upon which any gas engines apparatus fittings and appliances are or shall be fixed.

Gas consumers to give notice to Company before removing.

64. At least twenty-four hours' notice shall be given to the Company by every gas consumer either personally at the office of the Company or in writing before he shall quit any premises supplied with gas by meter by the Company and in default of such notice the consumer so quitting shall be liable to pay to the Company the money accruing due in respect of such supply up to the next usual period for ascertaining the register of the meter on such premises or the date from which any subsequent occupier of such premises shall require the Company to supply gas to such premises whichever shall first occur. Notice of the effect of this enactment shall be endorsed upon every demand note for gas charges payable to the Company.

65. The Company may take hold and use patent rights or licences and authorities (not being exclusive) under any letters patent for the use of any invention relative to the manufacture conversion utilisation or distribution of gas and residual products.

A.D. 1913.
Power to hold licences under letters patent.

66. If any person is required by the Company to give to them security in respect of any supply of gas or for the payment of the price or rent of a meter and such security is made by way of deposit the Company shall pay interest at the rate of four pounds per centum per annum on every sum of ten shillings deposited by way of such security for every six months during which the same remains in their hands.

Company to pay interest on money deposited as security for gas.

67. If a person requiring a supply of gas from the Company has previously quitted premises at which gas was supplied to him by the Company without paying to them all gas charges and meter rent due from him to the Company they may refuse to furnish to him a supply of gas until he pays the same.

Company may refuse to supply gas in certain cases.

68. Where any person has for the purposes of a stand-by only a supply of gas laid on by the Company to any premises for which he has at the same time a separate supply of electricity or gas for power or other purposes (not being domestic purposes) the Company shall be entitled to charge and receive from him in respect of the supply of gas so laid on such minimum sum as shall be fixed by them not exceeding twenty-five shillings for any one quarter of a year notwithstanding that the ordinary charge for the gas actually consumed in such quarter would amount to a lower sum Provided that in fixing the amount of such minimum charge the Company shall have regard to the probable maximum supply of gas which might at any time be required for such premises Provided also that in respect of any premises for which the whole supply of gas afforded by the Company is taken through a meter having a nominal capacity of less than ten lights the amount of the minimum charge shall not exceed five shillings for any one quarter of a year.

Minimum charge for gas laid on to premises having a supply of electricity or power gas.

69. In order to enable the Company to ensure a satisfactory supply of gas to their consumers the following provisions shall have effect:—

As to construction and placing of pipes &c. between mains and meters.
