

CHAPTER 1

An Act to amend the Thames Conservancy Act 1932 to extend the powers and make further provision for the revenue of the Conservators of the river Thames and for other purposes. [28th July 1950.]

WHEREAS the Conservators of the river Thames (hereinafter referred to as "the Conservators") are by virtue of the Thames Conservancy Act 1932 (whereby the enactments which prior to the passing of that Act were in force relating to the powers and duties of the Conservators were consolidated and amended) the authority charged with the conservancy of the Thames above the landward limit of the port of London and certain powers and duties with respect to the conservancy preservation and regulation thereof and the preservation and maintenance of the flow and purity of the water of the Thames and its tributaries above the said limit are thereby conferred and imposed upon the Conservators: 22 & 23 Geo. 5.
c. xxxvii.

And whereas the Conservators are also the drainage board of the Thames catchment area under and for the purposes of the Land Drainage Act 1930: 20 & 21 Geo. 5.
c. 44.

And whereas it is expedient that the provisions of the said Act of 1932 should be amended and that the powers and duties of the Conservators should be extended as provided by this Act:

And whereas by the said Act of 1932 the Conservators are entitled to levy certain tolls and charges in respect of merchandise conveyed on and vessels using the Thames and the locks thereon:

And whereas the Metropolitan Water Board the South West Suburban Water Company the West Surrey Water Company the Woking and District Water Company the mayor aldermen and citizens of Oxford the mayor aldermen and burgesses of the borough of Banbury the urban district council of Witney and the rural district councils of Faringdon and North Cotswold are respectively authorised to abstract water from the Thames or its tributaries for waterworks purposes upon terms and under conditions as to payment to the Conservators and otherwise prescribed by various statutory enactments as varied in the case of the Metropolitan Water Board the said water companies and the urban district council of Witney by orders or directions made by the Minister of Health under the Defence (General) Regulations 1939:

And whereas certain county councils and corporations are authorised and required by the said Act of 1932 to contribute towards the revenues of the Conservators:

And whereas it is expedient that the provisions contained in this Act with regard to the said tolls and charges the payments to be made by the Metropolitan Water Board and the said water companies and authorities and the contributions to be made by the said county councils and corporations should be enacted:

And whereas it is expedient that such further provisions should be made and such further powers be conferred upon the Conservators as are in this Act contained:

And whereas the purposes of this Act cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament:

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

53.—(1) Every officer or servant of the Conservators to whom subsection (8) of section 79 of the Act of 1930 applies shall in addition to being entitled under the said subsection to a superannuation allowance upon resigning or ceasing to hold office in the circumstances mentioned in the said subsection also be entitled to payment to him or to or on behalf of his widow children or dependants of all such other superannuation allowances or benefits as would be payable under the Superannuation Acts to or in respect of persons in the permanent civil service of the State and notwithstanding anything contained in the said subsection such other superannuation allowances or benefits shall be payable in any circumstances (including death) in which the same would be payable under the Superannuation Acts and shall be made upon the terms and conditions and according to the scale for the time being applicable to persons in the said civil service.

(2) Every officer or servant of the Conservators who was in the permanent whole-time service of the Conservators on the thirty-first day of March one thousand nine hundred and forty-nine having then been continuously in such service from a date prior to the sixteenth day of March one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six and who is not otherwise legally entitled to any pension or superannuation allowance shall be entitled to payment of the like superannuation allowances or other benefits to him or to or on behalf of his widow children or dependants as those to which an officer or servant of the Conservators to whom subsection (8) of section 79 of the Act of 1930 applies is entitled under the said subsection (8) as extended by subsection (1) of this section. Provided that in its application to an officer or servant to whom this subsection applies the said subsection (8) shall have effect as if the words “having been in the service of the Conservators for a period of not less than five years prior to the commencement of this Act” were omitted therefrom.

(3) Where under the Superannuation Acts the right of a person in the said civil service to payment to him or to or on behalf of his widow children or dependants of a superannuation allowance or other benefit is dependent upon the payment of contributions the right of an officer or servant of the Conservators under subsection (8) of section 79 of the Act of 1930 as extended by subsection (1) of this section or under subsection (2) of this section to payment to him or to or on behalf of his widow children or dependants of a superannuation allowance or other benefit shall be dependent upon payment to the Conservators of the like contributions.

(4) In their application to an officer or servant of the Conservators to whom subsection (8) of section 79 of the Act of 1930 or subsection (2) of this section applies the provisions of sections 10 and 11 of the Superannuation Act 1949 shall have effect as if for the references therein to the date of the passing of the said Superannuation Act there were substituted references to the commencement of this Act. 12 & 13 Geo. 6.
c. 44.

(5) For the purposes of this section the expression "Superannuation Acts" means the Superannuation Acts 1834 to 1949.

54.—(1) In this section unless the subject or context otherwise requires the following words and expressions have the meanings hereby assigned to them (namely):—

"Act of 1937" means the Local Government Superannuation Act 1937;

"Act of 1944" means the Middlesex County Council Act 1944;

"admission agreement" means the agreement dated the thirteenth day of February one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven and made between the county council and the Conservators in pursuance of section 5 of the Act of 1937 which agreement was approved by the Minister of Health on the eighteenth day of the said month of February;

"county council" means the county council of the administrative county of Middlesex;

"superannuation fund" means the superannuation fund maintained by the county council under the Act of 1937 as modified by the provisions of Part XVII of the Act of 1944.

nuation.
1 Edw. 8. &
1 Geo. 6. c. 68.
7 & 8 Geo. 6.
c. xxi.

Except as hereinbefore provided words and expressions to which meanings are assigned by the Act of 1937 have in this section the same respective meanings.

(2) An officer or servant of the Conservators to whom this section applies shall be deemed on ceasing to be employed by them and becoming entitled to a superannuation allowance under the Act of 1937 (as modified by the provisions of Part XVII of the Act of 1944) to be the subject of a resolution passed under subsection (6) of section 404 of the Act of 1944 substituting in respect of each year of his non-contributing service with the Conservators before the first day of April one thousand nine hundred and fifty-one an annual allowance of one-eightieth of his average remuneration for the annual allowance of one one-hundred-and-sixtieth of his average remuneration referred to in sub-paragraph (i) of paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of the said section 404 and a cash payment calculated at the rate of one-thirtieth of his average remuneration for the cash payment calculated at the rate of one-sixtieth of his average remuneration referred to in sub-paragraph (ii) of the said paragraph (b).

(3) This section applies to any officer or servant of the Conservators who—

- (a) was in the permanent whole-time service of the Conservators on the thirty-first day of March one thousand nine hundred and forty-nine ; and
- (b) entered such service on or after the sixteenth day of March one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six ; and
- (c) whether before or after the commencement of this Act is admitted to participate in the benefits of the superannuation fund under the terms of the admission agreement ; and
- (d) is in the permanent whole-time service of the Conservators and a contributory employee immediately before the date on which he becomes entitled to such superannuation allowance as aforesaid :

Provided that this section shall not apply to—

- (a) any such officer or servant in whose permanent whole-time service with the Conservators there has been a break after the thirty-first day of March one thousand nine hundred and forty-nine and before he is admitted to participate in the benefits of the superannuation fund ;
- (b) any such officer or servant who at any time after becoming a contributory employee by being admitted to participate in the benefits of the superannuation fund under the terms of the admission agreement either—
 - (i) suffers a disqualifying break of service ; or
 - (ii) fails to qualify for entitlement to the benefit of subsection (1) of section 13 of the Act of 1937 owing to non-compliance with the proviso to such subsection ; or
 - (iii) fails in the circumstances mentioned in subsection (2) of the said section 13 to repay the sum therein mentioned.

(4) The provisions of subsection (2) of this section shall not apply to the non-contributing service of an officer or servant of the Conservators before the date of his re-entering the permanent whole-time service of the Conservators after a break therein occurring before the thirty-first day of March one thousand nine hundred and forty-nine or (if there have been more than one such break) before the date of his re-entering such permanent whole-time service after the break therein which occurred last before the said thirty-first day of March.

(5) For the purposes of this section there shall be deemed to be a break in permanent whole-time service with the Conservators if the officer or servant concerned ceases to be employed by the Conservators and is then after a period re-employed by them therein.

(6) If in relation to an officer or servant to whom this section applies the scale of superannuation allowances specified in section 404 of the Act of 1944 ceases to apply and the officer or servant becomes subject to a different scale of superannuation allowances by virtue of any Act passed in this session of Parliament or of any enactment passed or made after the commencement of this Act the references in subsections (2) and (3) of this section to a superannuation allowance under the Act of 1937 (as modified by the provisions of Part XVII of the Act of 1944) and the references in subsection (2) of this section to a resolution under subsection (6) of section 404 of the Act of 1944 and to the maximum rate of the annual allowance (one-eightieth of the average remuneration) and the maximum rate of calculation of the cash payment (one-thirtieth of the average remuneration) determinable under the said subsection (6) shall in relation to such last-mentioned officer or servant be construed as references to any corresponding superannuation allowance and resolution or other decision or determination and maximum rate of annual allowance or of calculation of cash payment respectively specified or referred to in any Act passed in this session of Parliament or in any enactment passed or made after the commencement of this Act as the case may be.

(7) The provisions of this section and the administration thereof shall not impose any charge upon the county council or the superannuation fund and any sums paid by the county council or out of the superannuation fund as the result or in consequence of those provisions or the administration thereof shall be repaid by the Conservators.

(8) Nothing contained in this section shall derogate from the powers of the county council to pass a resolution at the request of the Conservators under subsection (6) of section 404 of the Act of 1944 (or under the corresponding provisions of any Act passed in this session of Parliament or of any enactment passed or made after this Act) in relation to any officer or servant of the Conservators who is a contributory employee including any such officer or servant who is an officer or servant to whom this section applies.

55. The Conservators may—

(a) make reasonable contributions to the funds or towards the expenses of any association committee council conference congress or other organisation dealing with any matter of general interest to the Conservators in relation to any of their statutory functions; and

- (b) pay any reasonable expenses of the attendance of any Conservator or officers of the Conservators at conferences or meetings of any such association or other organisation and the cost of purchasing reports of any such conference or meetings:

Provided that the sum expended by the Conservators under this section shall not in any financial year exceed five hundred pounds.

PART XI

BYELAWS

As to byelaws. 56.—(1) Byelaws made in pursuance of the Act of 1932 shall not have effect until confirmed by the Minister and at least one month before application for confirmation of any byelaw is made notice of the intention to apply for confirmation shall be given in the London Gazette and one or more local newspapers circulating in the area to which the byelaws will apply and a copy of the byelaws shall be sent to every local authority whose county or borough or district is wholly or partly within that area.

(2) For at least one month before application for confirmation is made a copy of the byelaws shall be deposited at the principal office of the Conservators and shall at all reasonable hours be open to public inspection without charge and the Conservators shall supply printed copies thereof free of charge to any person appearing to the Conservators to be interested.

(3) The Minister with or without a public local inquiry may refuse to confirm any byelaw submitted under this section for confirmation or may confirm the byelaw either without modification or (subject to the consent of the Conservators) with such modification as he thinks fit and the Conservators shall if so directed by the Minister cause notice of any proposed modification to be given in accordance with such directions.

(4) The Minister may fix the date on which any byelaws are to come into operation and if no date is fixed the byelaws shall come into operation at the expiration of one month from the date of their confirmation.

(5) A copy of the byelaws when confirmed shall be printed and deposited at the principal office of the Conservators and shall at all reasonable hours be open for public inspection without charge and a copy thereof shall on application be furnished to any person on payment of such reasonable sum as the Conservators may determine.

(6) The Minister if he considers that the revocation of any byelaw is necessary or desirable may after giving notice to the Conservators and considering any objections raised by them and if so required by them holding a public local inquiry revoke that byelaw.

—cont.

(7) The production of a printed copy of a byelaw purporting to be made by the Conservators upon which is endorsed a certificate purporting to be signed by the secretary stating—

(a) that the byelaw was made by the Conservators ;

(b) that a copy is a true copy of the byelaw ;

(c) that on a specified date the byelaw was confirmed by the Minister ; and

(d) the date (if any) fixed by the Minister for the coming into operation of the byelaw ;

shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated in the certificate and without proof of the handwriting or official position of any person purporting to sign the certificate.

(8) In this section the expression “ the Minister ” means in the case of byelaws relating to fisheries and fishing the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries and in the case of any other byelaws the Minister of Transport.

PART XII

MISCELLANEOUS
