Cap. clxxi.

An Act to continue the Winchcomb District of Turnpike Roads Trust in the County of Gloucester; and for other Purposes.

[29th June 1865.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Third Year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for more effectually repairing the Roads from Swell Wold to the Turnpike Road leading from Tewkesbury to Stow, and from Cheltenham to Sedgborough, and from Winchcomb to the said Turnpike Road from Tewkesbury to Stow, and also for making a new Branch from the said Road in Winchcomb to the Turnpike Road leading from Cheltenham to London, at Andoversford in the Parish of Dowdeswell in the County of Gloucester, and herein-after called "the recited Act;" and it was thereby enacted, that the said Act should commence on the passing thereof, that is to say, on the Twenty-ninth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, and should continue in force for the Term of Thirty-one Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament: And whereas by "The Annual Turnpike Acts Continuance Act, 1864," the recited Act is to continue in force until the First Day of November One thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and no longer, unless Parliament shall in the meantime continue the same:

3 W. 4. c. xi.

27 & 28 Vict. c. 75. (Public.)

And

The Winchcomb Roads Act, 1865.

And whereas considerable Sums of Money, amounting in the whole to Six thousand five hundred Pounds, or thereabouts, are now due on the Credit of the Tolls arising on the Roads comprised in the recited Act: And whereas the Sums aforesaid cannot be paid off unless a further Term and further Powers be granted: And whereas it is expedient that the recited Act should be repealed, and further and more effectual Powers granted in lieu thereof; but the Purposes aforesaid cannot be effected without the Authority of Parliament: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows; (that is to say,)

First-recited
Act repealed.

1. Upon the Fourth Wednesday next after the passing of this Act the recited Act shall be repealed, and this Act shall thereafter be put into execution during the Term and for the Purposes hereinafter mentioned.

Interpretation of Terms.

2. In this Act the following Words and Expressions shall have the several Meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the Subject or Context repugnant to such Construction; (that is to say,)

The Expression "the Trustees" or "the said Trustees" shall mean the Trustees for the Time being acting in execution of this Act:

The Expression "the old Trustees" shall mean the Trustees acting under the recited Act:

The Expression "the Road" or "the Roads" shall mean the Roads by this Act authorized to be maintained:

The Expression "Toll Gate" or "Toll Gates" shall include any Turnpikes, Bars, Chains, or Side Gates from Time to Time continued or set up, upon, across, or by the Side of the Road, or across any Highway or other Carriageway or Bridleway communicating with the Road:

The Word "Lands" shall include Messuages, Tenements, and Hereditaments of any Tenure.

Short Title.

3. This Act may be cited for any Purpose as "The Winchcomb Roads Act, 1865."

General Saving of Rights under repealed Act.

4. Notwithstanding the Repeal of the recited Act, and except only as is by this Act otherwise expressly provided, everything before the Commencement of this Act done, suffered, and confirmed respectively under or by virtue of the recited Act shall be as valid as if that Act were not repealed; and the Repeal thereof and this Act respec-

respectively shall accordingly be subject and without Prejudice to everything so done, suffered, and confirmed respectively, and to all Rights, Liabilities, Claims, and Demands, both present and future, which, if the Repeal had not happened and this Act were not passed, would be incident to and consequent on any and every thing so done, suffered, and confirmed respectively; and with respect to all such Things so done, suffered, and confirmed respectively, and all such Rights, Liabilities, Claims, and Demands, the Trustees shall to all Intents represent the old Trustees: Provided always, that the Generality of this Provision shall not be restricted by any of the Clauses and Provisions of this Act.

5. Notwithstanding the Repeal of the recited Act, all Rents and Arrears of Rents, Monies due to, and all Property, Lands, Books, Accounts, Papers, Writing, and other Things, and all Choses in Action and Rights vested in or belonging to, the old Trustees, shall immediately on the Commencement of this Act be vested in and belong to the Trustees for executing this Act; and such last-mentioned Trustees may sue for and recover the same, and act in respect thereof, as effectually as if the same had been vested in and belonged to them under the said recited Act; and they shall be liable to all the Debts and Engagements to which the old Trustees may be liable at the Repeal thereof, except in so far as those Debts and Engagements are reduced or varied by this Act.

Monies and Property to vest in new Trustees.

6. Notwithstanding the Repeal of the recited Act, all the Provisions of any and every Act of Parliament (other than the recited Act) relating to the old Trustees and their Officers and Servants respectively, and on the Commencement of this Act in force, shall be of the like Force as if the Repeal of the recited Act had not happened, and may be exercised, enforced, and enjoyed, by and against the Trustees and their Officers and Servants respectively, in as full and beneficial a Manner to all Intents as the same respectively might be exercised and enforced and enjoyed by and against the old Trustees, and their Officers and Servants respectively, as if this Act were not passed.

7. Notwithstanding the Repeal of the recited Act, any Action, Suit, Prosecution, or other Proceeding commenced by or against the old Trustees before the Commencement of this Act shall not abate or be discontinued or prejudiced by reason of the passing of this Act, or the Repeal of that Act, but shall continue and take effect in favour of and against the Trustees in the same Manner to all Intents as if this Act had not passed and such Repeal had not happened, save only that the Trustees shall be substituted therein for the old Trustees.

Actions, &c. not to abate.

8. Notwith-

Contracts,
&c. preserved.

8. Notwithstanding the Repeal of the recited Act (and except as is otherwise hereby expressly provided), all Purchases, Sales, Leases, Mortgages, Securities, and Contracts before the Commencement of this Act made under the recited Act, or with reference to the Purposes thereof, shall be as effectual to all Intents, for, against, and with respect to the Trustees, as if the same had been made by, to, or with respect to the Trustees instead of the old Trustees, and may be proceeded on and enforced in like Manner to all Intents as if the Trustees had been party or privy thereto, or referred to therein, instead of the Party actually party or privy thereto, or referred to therein.

Debts to be paid.

9. Notwithstanding the Repeal of the recited Act (and except only as is by this Act otherwise expressly provided), all Persons who immediately before the Commencement of this Act owed any Money to the old Trustees, or to any Person on their Behalf, shall pay the same, with all Interest (if any) due and payable or accruing for the same, to the Trustees; and all Monies which immediately before the Commencement of this Act were owing by or recoverable from the old Trustees, or for the Payment of which they would, but for this Act, be liable, shall be paid by or be recoverable from the Trustees.

Byelaws,
Resolutions,
&c. continued.

10. Notwithstanding the Repeal of the recited Act, all Resolutions, Orders, and Proceedings of Meetings of the old Trustees which immediately before the Commencement of this Act were in force shall, but subject to the Provisions of this Act, continue in full Force and be available for the Purposes of this Act.

Books, &c.
continued in Evidence.

11. Notwithstanding the Repeal of the recited Act, all Documents, Books, and Writings by the recited Act directed or authorized to be kept, and which if this Act were not passed would be receivable in Evidence, shall be admitted as Evidence in all Courts of Law and Equity and elsewhere accordingly.

Officers continued.

12. Notwithstanding the Repeal of the recited Act, every Officer and Servant appointed by virtue of or acting under the recited Act shall hold and enjoy his Office and Employment, with the Salary thereunto annexed, and be deemed an Officer and Servant of the Trustees, until he be removed from the Office and Employment, and he shall have the like Powers and Authority for the Purposes of this Act, and be subject to like Power of Removal, Regulations, Pains, and Penalties, as if he were appointed under this Act.

Appointment of new Trustees.

13. All Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the Time being acting for the County of Gloucester, together with William John Agg, Turnpike Road from Wyman's Brook in the Parish of Prestbury, and terminating at the Turnpike Road in the Parish of Sedgeberrow in the County of Worcester; also the present Turnpike Road from the Town Hall in Winchcomb, and terminating at the Tenth Milestone on the Turnpike Road leading from Tewkesbury to Stow at or near a Place called New Town.

Present
Tolls continued for a Term.

17. Notwithstanding the Repeal of the said recited Act, the several Tolls now payable shall continue to be paid at the Toll Gates to be continued or erected on or on the Sides of the Road, until and inclusive of the Twenty-first Day of May One thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

Power to take new Tolls.

18. Upon and after the Twenty-second Day of May One thousand eight hundred and sixty-six the Trustees may, subject to the Provisions herein-after contained, demand and take at their several Toll Gates such Tolls as the Trustees shall direct, not exceeding the Sums herein-after specified; (that is to say,)

For every Horse or other Beast drawing any Carriage or Vehicle of any Description, the Sum of Sixpence:

For every Horse or Mule not drawing, Twopence:

For every Ass not drawing, One Penny:

For every Drove of Oxen, Cows, or Neat Cattle, Tenpence per Score, and so in proportion for any greater or less Number:

For every Drove of Calves, Hogs, Sheep, or Lambs, Fivepence per Score, and so in proportion for any greater or less Number:

For every Four-wheeled Carriage in any Manner fixed to and drawn by any Waggon, Wain, Cart, or Carriage, the Sum of Two Shillings:

For every Two-wheeled Carriage in any Manner fixed to and drawn by any Waggon, Wain, Cart, or Carriage, the Sum of One Shilling and Threepence.

As to Fraction of One Halfpenny
in Tolls.

19. In all Cases in which there shall be a fractional Part of a Halfpenny in the Amount of Tolls by this Act authorized to be collected the Sum of One Halfpenny shall be taken in lieu of such fractional Part.

Limit of Number of Tolls.

20. Except as in this Act otherwise provided for passing and repassing on the same Day with the same Horses or other Animals, Carriage or Thing, liable to Toll, through all the Toll Gates on the Road, no more than Three full Tolls shall be taken.

Persons who have paid Tolls to return Toll-free.

21. Except as in this Act otherwise provided, all Horses, Carriages, Animals, and Things in respect of which Tolls shall have been paid for passing through any Toll Gate upon the Roads shall, upon the Production

The Winchcomb Roads Act, 1865.

Production of a Ticket denoting such Payment, be permitted, in going and returning during the same Day through the same and every other Toll Gate upon the Roads which the Ticket for such Payment shall free, to pass Toll-free at all Times during the same Day.

22. The Tolls hereby made payable shall be paid for all Horses or other Animals let for Hire, and for all Horses or other Animals drawing any Carriage travelling for Hire, as often as any new Hiring shall take place, in the same Manner as if no previous Payment of Toll in respect of such Horses or other Animals had been made on the same Day. As to Post-chaises.

23. The Tolls hereby made payable for all Horses or other Animals drawing any Stage Coach, Omnibus, Van, Caravan, or other Stage Carriage conveying or employed for the Purpose of conveying Passengers or Goods for Hire or Reward, shall be paid for every Time of passing or repassing along the Road. As to Stage Coaches.

24. Provided always, That all Horses and Animals drawing any Stage Carriage conveying or employed for the Purpose of conveying Passengers or Goods for Hire or Reward, in respect whereof the Toll by this Act authorized to be taken shall have been paid at any Toll Gate, shall, upon Production of a Ticket denoting such Payment, be permitted to pass once Toll-free on the same Day through any other Toll Gate which such Ticket would free in the Cases of Horses or Animals drawing any other Stage Carriage, and no further or additional Toll shall be payable in respect of any Stage Carriage as aforesaid at any Toll Gate the Payment at which shall be freed by any such Ticket as aforesaid, on account only of their conveying other Passengers, or of the Horses or Animals drawing the same having been changed. Further Regulations as to Stage Coaches.

25. The Tolls hereby made payable shall be paid for and in respect of any Horse or other Animal drawing any Waggon, Cart, or such like Carriage, for every Third, Fifth, and subsequent alternate Time of passing (and in addition to the Tolls hereby authorized to be taken in respect of the First Time of passing) through any Toll Gate. Waggons, &c. to pay every alternate Time of passing.

26. The Tolls by this Act made payable in respect of all Horses and Animals drawing any Waggon, Cart, or other such like Carriage shall be paid for every Time during the same Day that any such Horse or other Animal shall pass through any Toll Gate on the Road drawing any laden Waggon, Cart, or such like Carriage, other than that which such Horse or other Animal shall have been employed in drawing at any former Time during the same Day when Tolls shall have been paid in respect of such Horse or other Animal. Tolls on Horses drawing different Waggons.

27. The

The Winchcomb Roads Act, 1865.

Tolls to be taken before passing.

27. The respective Tolls hereby made payable shall be taken before any Horse, Beast, Cattle, or Carriage whatsoever shall be permitted to pass through any Toll Gate.

Manure and Road Materials in certain Cases not exempted from Tolls.

28. No Exemption from Toll for Overweight in respect of any Horse or other Beast drawing any Waggon, Wain, Cart, or other Carriage laden with Manure shall be claimed or allowed, unless the Tires of the Wheels of the same respectively shall actually press the Breadth of Six Inches on a flat Surface, anything in any Act relating to Turnpike Roads in England to the contrary notwithstanding.

One-Horse Carts may be weighed.

29. And whereas it frequently happens that Carts drawn by One Horse passing along the Road carry a greater Weight than is by Law allowed for Carts drawn by Two or more Horses: Be it therefore enacted, That all Carts passing along the Road drawn by One Horse only shall and may be weighed at any Weighing Machine now erected or hereafter to be erected on the Road, and the like additional Tolls demanded, received, and recovered by the Overweight thereof as are by Law payable in respect of the Overweight of Carts drawn by Two or more Horses; and all the Powers, Regulations, Penalties, Matters, and Things now in force relating to the weighing of Carts drawn by more than One Horse shall be applicable to Carts passing on the Road drawn by One Horse only, and to the Drivers, Masters, and Owners thereof.

Respecting Toll Gates.

30. It shall be lawful for the Trustees to set up, in, upon, or across the Road, or on the Sides thereof, any Toll Gate or Toll House, and to remove the present or any future Toll Gates or Toll Houses, as they think proper: Provided always, that no Toll Gate or Toll House shall be removed, erected, or set up upon or across the Road, or on the Sides thereof, unless the same shall be ordered to be removed, erected, or set up at a Special Meeting of the Trustees holden for that Purpose in conformity with and after such Notices as are required to be given by the Fifth Section of an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend the Acts for regulating Turnpike Roads.

Provisions of 22 & 23 Vict. c. 59. to apply.

31. The Clauses and Provisions of "The Locomotive Act, 1861," with reference to Tolls and otherwise, shall apply to the Roads comprised in this Act.

Toll Houses may be pulled down.

32. If any Toll Houses and Toll Gates on the Road shall at any Time hereafter not be required for the Purposes of this Act, the Trustees shall cause to be pulled down, and shall sell and dispose of the Materials of the same, and throw the Sites of such Toll Houses into into the Road: Provided always, that if any such Toll Houses shall be situate on Lands adjoining any Road, so that such Toll Houses do not encroach upon such Road, the Trustees shall first offer to sell and may sell the same, and the Site thereof, if such Site shall have been purchased by the Trustees, for all the Estate and Interest of the Trustees therein, to the Person owning the Frontage of the Land immediately adjoining such Toll House; and if such Person refuse to purchase the same, the Trustees shall then cause the same House to be pulled down, as herein-before provided, and may sell the Site (if the same belong to the Trustees) of such Toll House for all the Estate and Interest of the Trustees therein, and shall first offer to sell the Site to the Person owning the Frontage of the Land immediately adjoining the same; and if such Person refuse to purchase, the Trustees may sell the same to such Persons, and in such Manner, and under such Conditions as they may think most advantageous, and may convey the same accordingly, on Payment of the Purchase Monies; and the net Proceeds arising from any such Sale or Disposition of the Toll Houses, Toll Gates, Sites, Materials, or Premises, shall in the first place be applicable to the Erection of any new Toll Houses or Toll Gates which the Trustees may think requisite, and, subject thereto, in the Order of Application of the Funds of the Trust herein-before prescribed.

33. All Monies which shall come to the Hands of the Trustees by virtue of this Act shall be applied as follows; (that is to say,) Application of Funds.

First, in discharging the Expenses of and incident to the obtaining and passing this Act:

Secondly, in defraying the necessary Expenses of Management of the Road, including Salaries of Officers, Repair of Toll Houses and Toll Gates, and incidental Expenses, but so that the total Amount to be expended in any One Year in defraying such Expenses (exclusive of the Salaries of Toll Collectors, and Proceedings at Law or in Equity, or before Justices of the Peace) shall not exceed the Sum of One hundred Pounds:

Thirdly, in paying Interest at the Rate of Two Pounds per Centum per Annum on the Principal Sums specified in the Schedule to this Act, or such Part of the same Principal Sums as shall for the Time being remain unsatisfied:

Fourthly, in repairing and maintaining the Road, but so that the whole Sum to be expended in any One Year for such Purpose shall not exceed the Sum of Three hundred Pounds:

Fifthly, in paying off, in manner herein-after provided, the said Principal Sums specified in the said Schedule, or such Part thereof as shall for the Time being be due and owing:

Lastly, in maintaining, repairing, and improving the Road.

The Winchcomb Roads Act, 1865.

Arrears of Interest extinguished.

34. All Arrears of Interest now due and owing in respect of the Principal Sums specified in the Schedule to this Act shall be and the same are hereby extinguished.

Interest postponed to Expenses of Act.

35. No Interest shall be paid, although the same may accrue on any of the Principal Sums due and owing on the Credit of the Tolls arising on the said Road, until the Expenses of and incident to obtaining and passing this Act shall have been fully paid or satisfied.

No further Monies to be borrowed.

36. It shall not be lawful for the Trustees to borrow any further Sums of Money on the Security of the Tolls hereby granted, or otherwise, for the Purposes of this Act.

Mortgagees not to take possession, except for Arrears of Interest.

37. Whenever and so long as the Interest after the Rate hereinbefore provided upon the Mortgage Debts for the Time being due according to the Provisions of this Act shall be duly paid within Three Calendar Months next after the same shall become due, no Holder of any Mortgage shall be entitled to enter into possession of any Toll Gate, Toll House, or Building upon the Road, or into the Receipt of the Tolls arising thereon, or of the Rent payable upon the letting of such Tolls; and every Mortgagee entering into possession of any Toll Gate, Toll House, or Building, or into the Receipt of any Toll or Rent, shall pay the Interest from Time to Time becoming due upon all these existing Mortgages, without any Priority or Preference, and may also reimburse himself all Costs to which he may be entitled; and every Mortgagee so in possession or receipt as aforesaid shall, within Twenty-one Days next after each of the Days whereon the Interest on such Mortgages shall be payable, render to the Clerk to the Trustees for the Time being a true and full Account of his Receipts and Expenditure while so in possession or receipt as aforesaid, with proper Vouchers for the same; and if it shall appear by any such Account that the Interest due on all such Mortgages up to the last of such Days, and all such Costs as aforesaid, have been fully paid and satisfied, then such Mortgagee shall, when thereunto required by the Trustees, pay over to their Treasurer the Balance (if any) remaining in his Hands, and deliver up Possession of all Toll Gates, Toll Houses, and Buildings to the Trustees or any Person appointed by them to receive the same, and discontinue the Receipt of the said Tolls and Rents as aforesaid, anything in this Act or in any Statute or Law in force relating to Turnpike Roads in England to the contrary notwithstanding.

As to Mode of discharging Debt.

38. When and so often as the Fund applicable to the Discharge of the Principal Sums due and owing on the Credit of the Tolls arising on the Road according to the Provisions of this Act shall amount to One hundred Pounds the Trustees shall, at some General Annual

The Winchcomb Roads Act, 1865.

Annual or other Meeting, of which Meeting and of the Objects thereof, so far as the same relate to the Application of such Sums, Ten Days previous Notice at the least shall be given in some Newspaper published in the County of Gloucester, or by Notice in Writing given to each Creditor or addressed and forwarded to him at his usual or last known Place of Abode, apply such Fund or a Portion thereof (as the Case may require) in or towards the Discharge of the Principal Monies for the Time being due to the Creditor who shall, by Proposal in Writing transmitted to the Clerk for the Time being of the Trustees before such Meeting, have offered to accept the lowest Composition in respect of such Monies; and after Payment to such Creditor as aforesaid, shall apply the Surplus (if any) of such Sum, or a Portion thereof, as the Case may require, in or towards the Discharge of other Part of the same Principal Monies to the Creditors who, by Proposal as aforesaid, shall have offered to accept the next lowest Composition in respect of such Monies, and so on in like Manner until the Sum applicable to such Payments shall be exhausted; and if and whenever Two or more Creditors shall by such Proposals as aforesaid have offered to accept an equal Rate of Composition, the Trustees may determine by Lot the Preference between or among such Creditors, or may divide the Sum applicable rateably between or amongst such Creditors, as the Trustees shall think fit; and if there be no such Proposal as aforesaid, or if there be any Surplus of any such Sum after applying the same, so far as may be necessary, in or towards the Discharge of the Debts to which all the Proposals relate, the Trustees may apply such Sum, or the Surplus thereof, (as the Case may be,) rateably amongst the Creditors entitled to the Monies, or may pay the same to such of them as may be determined by Lot, or to any of the Creditors, with the Consent of all the other Creditors, as the Trustees think fit.

39. The Trustees shall not lay out or collect any Money on any Part of the Road within the Limits of any Act of Parliament passed for the Improvement of any Town.

No Money to be taken, &c. within certain Limits.

40. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to exempt the Road comprised in this Act from the Provisions of any General Act relating to the Consolidation or other improved Arrangement of Turnpike Roads which may pass during the present or any future Session of Parliament.

Road not exempt from General Acts.

41. This Act shall commence on the Fourth Wednesday next after the passing thereof, and shall continue in force for a Term of Seven Years, and from thence to the End of the Session of Parliament which shall then next follow.

Commencement and Term of Act.
