

CHAPTER ix.

An Act for empowering the Berwick Harbour Commissioners A.D. 1872. to make a Wet Dock and other Works, and for conferring other powers on those Commissioners, and for extending and amending the enactments relating to them ; and for other purposes. [13th May 1872.]

WHEREAS the Berwick Harbour Commissioners (in this Act 25 & 26 Vict. called the Commissioners) are incorporated by the Berwick- c. xxxi.
upon-Tweed Harbour Act, 1862 (in this Act called the Harbour Act of 1862) :

And whereas it would be of great local and public advantage if a wet dock and other works were constructed for the improvement of the harbour of Berwick-upon-Tweed and the accommodation of vessels resorting thereto, and for facilitating communication along the southern shore of the harbour :

And whereas the Commissioners are desirous of undertaking the execution of those works and improvements on being authorised so to do and on the maximum rates and duties leviable by them being increased, and it is expedient that provision be made accordingly :

And whereas the Commissioners have paid off all money borrowed by them under the Harbour Act of 1862, and it is expedient that they be empowered to borrow money for the purposes of this Act :

And whereas the objects aforesaid cannot be attained without the authority of Parliament :

And whereas plans and sections describing the lines and levels of works authorised by this Act, and a book of reference to those plans containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of lands in the line of those works or within the limits of deviation defined on the plans, have been deposited with the clerk of the peace for the county of the borough and town of Berwick-upon-Tweed (which are in this Act referred to as the deposited plans, sections, and book of reference) :

A.D. 1872. — May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows; (that is to say,)

Short title. 1. This Act may be cited as the Berwick-upon-Tweed Harbour Act, 1872.

Provisions of general Acts herein named incorporated.

2. The following enactments (as far as they are applicable for the purposes of and not varied by or inconsistent with this Act) are hereby incorporated with this Act; (namely,)

The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869:

The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847 (except with respect to the election and rotation of Commissioners where they are to be elected by the ratepayers or other like class of electors, and except sections eighty-four and eighty-five, relating to a sinking fund and to mode of payment off of mortgages):

The Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847:

Sections thirteen, eighteen, and nineteen (under the heading Protection of Navigation) in Part I. of the Railways Clauses Act, 1863.

Interpretation of terms.

3. With respect to the interpretation of terms in and for the purposes of this Act the following provisions shall have effect; (namely,)

In this Act "the harbour" means the harbour of Berwick-upon-Tweed:

For the purposes of this Act the words "company," and "work," and "railway," which occur in the sections of the Railways Clauses Act, 1863, incorporated with this Act, shall be taken to mean respectively the Commissioners and the works below high-water mark authorised by this Act:

In this Act, and for the purposes of this Act in any enactment incorporated with this Act, "person" or "party" shall be taken to include a corporation aggregate or sole, and any commissioners or other public body not incorporated:

Terms to which meanings are assigned in enactments incorporated with this Act, or which have therein special meanings, have in this Act the same meanings; and in this Act, and for the purposes of this Act in any enactment incorporated with this Act, the term "court of competent jurisdiction" shall have effect as if the debt or demand with respect to which it is used was a common simple contract debt, and not a debt or demand created by statute; and the term "superior courts" shall be taken to include any court of competent jurisdiction. A.D. 1872.

4. Subject and according to the provisions of this Act and of the enactments incorporated with this Act, the Commissioners may make and maintain in and according to the lines and levels shown on the deposited plans and sections the following works; (namely,) Power for Commissioners to make wet dock and other works, take lands, use water, &c.

(1.) A wet dock on the shore of Tweedmouth between Berwick Bridge and Saint Bartholomew's Church;

(2.) An embankment below high-water mark at ordinary spring tides extending from the west end of Berwick Bridge in a curved line to the landward end of the Carr Rock Pier;

(3.) A quay or quays, an entrance into the dock, a gangway, and an access to the quay, respectively shown on the deposited plans; with all necessary and proper entrances, cuts, locks, basins, gates, sluices, piers, jetties, staiths, quays, wharves, tramways, sheds, warehouses, cranes, bridges, roads, approaches, and other works and conveniences connected therewith, and may enter on, take, and use such of the lands described in the deposited plans and book of reference as they require for that purpose, and may use the waters of the Tweed and of Berwick Harbour in and for the purposes of the wet dock and other works, and may alter, stop up, and divert all roads, streams, watercourses, sewers, drains, pipes, and other works within the limits of deviation defined on the deposited plans which are shown thereon as intended to be altered, stopped up, or diverted or which would interfere with the construction, maintenance, or use of the wet dock or other works, and may appropriate for purposes of this Act the sites of the roads so stopped up.

5. In constructing the wet dock and works by this Act authorised, the Commissioners may deviate to any extent not exceeding five feet from the levels thereof defined on the deposited sections, and may deviate from the lines thereof respectively in all cases within the limits of deviation defined on the deposited plans. Power to deviate from levels, &c.

6. Sections sixteen, seventeen, and eighteen of "The Harbour Act of 1862" shall extend and apply to the works authorised by this Act, as if those sections were repeated in this Act, with the substitution of the Board of Trade and a Secretary or Assistant Secretary of the Board of Trade, and the office of the Board of Trade, for the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, and the Secretary of the Admiralty and the Admiralty office respectively. Deposit of plans with Board of Trade.

A.D. 1872.

Power to deposit material at Spittal Point.

7. The Commissioners for purposes of works authorised by this Act, with the consent of the Board of Trade signified in writing under the hand of one of their secretaries or assistant secretaries, may from time to time during the construction thereof deposit and may leave permanently on the foreshore and uninclosed lands at and to the south of Spittal Point within the harbour, earth, gravel, sand, stone, and other material not required for purposes of the embankment authorised by this Act, and may transport any such material as aforesaid on temporary tramways laid down by them from Carr Rock Pier to Spittal Point on and along the foreshore and uninclosed lands there, and (with the previous consent of the Local Board of Health for the district of Berwick-upon-Tweed or other body having the control or management of any highway) on or along any highway adjoining the harbour there, but if any part of the foreshore and uninclosed lands aforesaid subject at the passing of this Act to the flow and reflow of ordinary tides becomes at any time in consequence of the deposit of materials thereon under the authority of this section raised in height or reclaimed gradually or imperceptibly or otherwise, so as to be above instead of being as it is at the passing of this Act below the line of ordinary high-water mark, the Commissioners shall not, by virtue of the ownership of any lands which they are by this Act empowered to reclaim, have any estate, right, or interest in or to the lands so raised in height or reclaimed by reason of such raising or reclamation having been gradual or imperceptible, or having been either wholly or partially caused by the works by this Act authorised or otherwise, and the right and title to the soil and freehold of the lands when so raised or reclaimed shall continue vested in the Queen's Majesty or such other corporation or person or persons as is or are at the passing of this Act entitled thereto, and as if the same had continued, as they are at the passing of this Act, subject to the flow and reflow of ordinary tides.

Period for completion of works.

8. If the works shown on the deposited plans and authorised by this Act are not completed within seven years from the passing of this Act, then on the expiration of that period the powers by this Act granted for executing the same or otherwise in relation thereto shall cease to be exercised, except as to so much thereof as is then completed.

Repair of roads from Kiln Hill to Spittal, &c.

9. If the Commissioners make on the embankment authorised by this Act a roadway leading from the turnpike road at or near the foot of Kiln Hill, and joining the road from Spittal at or near the Carr Rock Pier, the Commissioners and the Local Board of Health for the district of Berwick-upon-Tweed may, if they think fit, at any time agree that the same or any part thereof, with the road from Spittal to the Carr Rock Pier or any part thereof, shall become and be a highway, and be repairable as such. A.D. 1872.

10. The power conferred on the Commissioners by section forty-eight of the Harbour Act of 1862 of making new roads within the limits therein defined, shall extend to authorise the making by them from time to time of any tramway within those limits to and from any quay, wharf, or landing-place within the harbour for the purposes of the conveyance of goods to and from the harbour and other purposes of the Harbour Act of 1862 and this Act, and for no other purpose, but the power conferred on the Commissioners by this section shall not be exercised over any street or highway except with the previous consent in each case of the Local Board of Health for the district of Berwick-upon-Tweed, and on such terms and conditions as that local board approve. Power to make tramways.

11. The powers of the Commissioners under the provisions of the Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to the construction of warehouses, wharves, and other conveniences, shall extend to authorise the Commissioners to acquire lands for and to construct and provide coal staiths and steam cranes and other appliances for the shipment of coal or other produce. Power to construct coal staiths, &c.

12. The Commissioners may from time to time enter into and carry into effect agreements with any person or body empowered in this behalf respecting the construction, maintenance, management, and use of coal staiths within the harbour, and the providing of steam cranes and other appliances for the shipment or unshipment of coal, lime, or other produce or merchandise, and respecting the granting and use of wayleaves and other privileges to be enjoyed in connexion therewith over any lands of the Commissioners. Power to agree for construction of coal staiths, with wayleaves, &c.

13. The Commissioners may from time to time enter into and carry into effect such agreements as they think fit with any railway company empowered in this behalf respecting the appropriation and use of any lands of the Commissioners to or for the purposes of any railway in connexion with the wet dock authorised by this Act, or other works of the Commissioners, and respecting the construction, use, working, maintenance, and management of any such railway and the conveyance of traffic thereon, and the fixing, collecting, and apportionment of the tolls and charges leviable thereon, and the division and appropriation of the revenue arising therefrom. Power to agree respecting connecting line of railway.

14. The Commissioners shall have the appointment of meters and weighers within the harbour. Appointment of meters and weighers.

15. It shall not be necessary for the Commissioners to provide any life boat, mortar, rockets, tide gauge, weather gauge, or Exemption from providing life boat, &c.

A.D. 1872. — barometer, except on a requisition in that behalf by the Board of Trade.

Exhibition of lights.

16. The Commissioners shall at all times after the completion of the works shown on the deposited plans and authorised by this Act, at the outer extremity thereof, exhibit and keep burning from sunset to sunrise such lights (if any) as the Elder Brethren of the Trinity House of Deptford Strond from time to time direct.

Period for compulsory purchase of lands.

17. The powers of the Commissioners for the compulsory purchase of lands under this Act shall not be exercised after the expiration of four years from the passing of this Act.

Power to agree for easements, &c.

18. The Commissioners may, subject to the provisions of this Act, take by agreement, and any person by the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, or otherwise enabled to sell lands may grant to them, any term, estate, easement, interest, right, or privilege in, over, affecting, or belonging to lands at a yearly rent or otherwise, but in the case of a person not enabled otherwise than by the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, to sell lands, then subject and according to the provisions relative to the taking of lands by agreement contained in that Act and the Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts Amendment Act, 1860, for which purpose any such term, estate, easement, interest, right, or privilege shall be deemed lands within the meaning of those Acts.

Restriction on quantity of land to be taken by agreement and held.

19. The quantity of land taken by the Commissioners by agreement under this Act and held by them shall not at any time exceed (in addition to the lands which they are authorised to take compulsorily under this Act) five acres.

Power to purchase fisheries.

20. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Commissioners may from time to time and (notwithstanding anything in this Act) at any time enter on, take, and use such fisheries or rights of fishing within the limits of the harbour below the Old Berwick Bridge as they from time to time think it expedient to acquire with a view to the improvement of the navigation of the harbour or to the increase of the accommodation available for vessels frequenting the same, and for that purpose every such fishery or right of fishing shall be deemed lands.

If fisheries be injured, parties entitled thereto to be compensated.

21. If any fishery or right of fishing shall or the enjoyment thereof shall be interfered with or rendered less beneficial or valuable permanently or temporarily by or in consequence of the execution or user of any of the powers or works given or authorised by this Act, full compensation in respect of such interference or diminution of value or enjoyment shall be made by the Commissioners to the parties entitled, and such compensation shall, unless the parties otherwise agree, be settled and assessed and be recoverable against the Commissioners in the same manner and subject to the like provisions with respect to costs and otherwise as by "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," is enacted with respect to compensation for lands injuriously affected. A.D. 1872.

22. The Commissioners may retain, hold, and use for such time and in such manner as they think expedient for purposes of the harbour all or any lands (other than fisheries and rights of fishing) for the time being belonging to them, and may at any time and from time to time sell and dispose thereof absolutely, or for any term, estate, or interest, or subject to any restriction by conveyance, exchange, demise, or otherwise, for such consideration or at such rent and on such terms and conditions as they think fit. Power to hold and dispose of lands, &c.

23. The Commissioners may retain and hold for such time and use in such manner as they think expedient, having regard to the purposes of the harbour, all or any fisheries or rights of fishing taken by them under this Act, and may at any time and from time to time lease any such fishery or right of fishing for any term not exceeding twenty-one years, at such rent and on such terms and conditions as they think fit, but so that by every such lease provision be made for preventing the lessee from using or exercising the fishery or right of fishing comprised in the lease, so that the same would be in any respect injurious to the navigation of the harbour. Power to hold and lease fisheries, &c.

24. Any purchase money received on any sale of lands and any money received for equality of exchange by the Commissioners under this Act shall be distinguished as capital in the accounts of the Commissioners, and shall be applied exclusively for purposes for which money borrowed under this Act is applicable or in discharge of money so borrowed. Application of purchase money of lands, &c.

25. Schedules A. and B. to this Act shall at the expiration of twelve months from the passing of this Act be by virtue of this Act respectively substituted for Schedules A. and B. to the Harbour Act of 1862 (referred to in section sixty-six of that Act). Dues on goods and shipping.

26. The Commissioners may demand and take in respect of any tramways, coal staiths, cranes, and other appliances described in Schedule C. to this Act, such charges as they think fit, not exceeding those specified in the same schedule. Charges for coal staiths, &c.

27. The Commissioners, with the consent of the Board of Trade, after public notice of their application to the Board of Trade given as the Board of Trade direct, may from time to time increase all or any of the sums specified in the Schedules A. and B. to this Act or either of them, provided that the increased sum be not in any case Power to increase rates and duties.

A.D. 1872. — more than double the sum specified in the same case in the schedule, and that the increase do not in any case apply to vessels under one hundred tons registered tonnage not using the wet dock, or to goods carried in such vessels and not loaded or discharged in the wet dock, and while any such increase is in force, in any case the increased sum shall be deemed to be the amount in that case authorised by this Act to be taken.

Continuance of rates and dues in harbour.

28. Sections twenty-five and twenty-six of the Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847, (relating to commencement of collection of rates) shall apply only to the additional rates and dues specified in the said schedules to be payable on the completion of the wet dock, and the certificate required by section twenty-six of the same Act shall be given by the recorder for the time being of the borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed.

Composition for tonnage
dues.

29. The Commissioners may from time to time agree with the owners or masters of vessels or other persons using the harbour or the wet dock for the payment of a fixed sum, payable in advance, as a composition by the year or other shorter time for tonnage dues payable under this Act in respect of or by such vessels or persons: Provided always, that if the Commissioners at any time make any such agreement with any owner, master, or person, the owners or masters of all other vessels engaged in like manner, and all other persons using the harbour or the wet dock, may compound on like terms for the tonnage dues, and the Commissioners shall accept such composition accordingly, to the intent that the tonnage dues may not be compounded for partially or in favour of any particular person or party whatsoever.

Saving for rates and duties accrued.

30. Nothing in this Act shall interfere with the collection of rates and duties leviable under the Harbour Act of 1862, and accrued due before the expiration of twelve months from the passing of this Act, and the same may be levied and recovered as if this Act had not been passed.

Power to apply existing funds.

31. The Commissioners may appropriate for purposes of works authorised by this Act any money belonging to them at the passing of this Act and not required for purposes of the Harbour Act of 1862.

Extinction of former borrowing powers.

32. The power of borrowing conferred on the Commissioners by section sixty-seven of the Harbour Act of 1862 shall not be exercised after the passing of this Act by way of re-borrowing or otherwise.

Power to borrow on security of rates, &c.

33. The Commissioners may from time to time borrow at interest on the security of their revenue, property, and works, or of any part thereof, any sums not exceeding in the whole sixty thousand pounds, and may mortgage their revenue, property, and works, or any part thereof, to secure repayment of the money borrowed with interest accordingly. A.D. 1872.

34. The Commissioners shall pay off all money borrowed on mortgage under this Act within fifty years from the time of their borrowing the same, either by annual instalments or by means of a sinking fund to be formed by annual appropriations of the requisite amount out of the revenues of the Commissioners, the same to be invested if and as the Commissioners think fit, and to be from time to time (with any accumulations produced by such investment) applied in or towards discharge of the principal for the time being due on any mortgage, or any part thereof, as (subject to any agreement) the Commissioners think fit. Payment off of mortgages.

35. If the Commissioners pay off any money borrowed on mortgage under this Act otherwise than by annual instalments or by means of a sinking fund, they may re-borrow the same, and so on as often as the case occurs. Power to re-borrow.

36. The Commissioners may from time to time, if they think fit, issue to holders of mortgages of the Commissioners under this Act coupons for the interest from time to time to fall due on the respective mortgages, which coupons may be in such form as the Commissioners from time to time think fit, so as every coupon do refer to the mortgage to which it relates, and do specify the amount and time of payment of one half year's interest to fall due on the principal money secured by the mortgage, and be authenticated by the signatures of two persons thereunto expressly authorised by the Commissioners (which authorisation shall be presumed until the contrary is shown), and on presentation to the treasurer of the Commissioners of any such coupon he shall pay to the person presenting it the amount of interest thereon expressed and appearing by the coupon to be then due and payable, and on the audit of the treasurer's accounts the coupon shall be accepted as a sufficient warrant for the payment by him of the amount for which the coupon was issued, but he shall not be bound, unless he sees fit, to make any payment of interest beyond the amount of the money of the Commissioners then in his hands and applicable in that behalf. Coupons for interest on mortgages.

37. The mortgagees of the Commissioners under this Act may enforce payment of the arrears of interest or of principal, or of principal and interest, due on their mortgages by the appointment of a receiver, and the amount of arrears of principal to authorise an application for a receiver shall be five thousand pounds. Arrears may be enforced by appointment of a receiver.

38. The Commissioners may, if they think fit, raise all or any part of the money borrowed under this Act on annuities for lives or Power to raise money by annuities.

A.D. 1872.

years not exceeding fifty years, and for that purpose the Commissioners may by deed under their common seal grant annuities accordingly.

Register, transfer, &c.
of annuities.

39. The provisions incorporated with this Act respecting the register, transfer, and register of transfers of mortgages shall apply to the register, transfer, and register of transfers of annuities under this Act, and the holders of annuities shall, mutatis mutandis, be entitled to the rights of mortgagees under this Act.

Power to Commissioners to arrange with mortgagees and annuitants.

40. The Commissioners may from time to time, when and in such manner and on such terms as they think fit, in pursuance of any agreement with or by consent of the other party interested (but not otherwise), exercise—

With respect to all and every part of the money from time to time borrowed under this Act and the interest thereon ; and

With respect to all and every of the grants of annuities, mortgages, and other charges and securities from time to time subsisting or having effect by virtue of this Act ; and

With respect to all and every of the principal money, interest, and annuities respectively secured by the grants, mortgages, charges, and securities, or any of them, all or any of the powers following ; (that is to say,)

They may by any one or more of the ways and means following pay or discharge, either in whole or in part, any principal sum, whether payable then or thereafter, and secured by mortgage or other charge or security :

They may by any one or more of the ways and means following redeem, satisfy, or discharge in whole or in part any annuity secured by grant or other charge or security ;

(that is to say,)

(1.) By the immediate payment of a gross sum :

(2.) By the future payment of a gross sum, with or without interest thereon :

(3.) By securing by mortgage or other charge or security the payment of a gross sum, with or without interest thereon :

(4.) By granting an annuity for life or years :

(5.) By securing by grant or other charge or security the payment of the annuity so granted.

Price of annuities and redemption.

41. The price to be paid for any annuity under this Act shall not be less than the price payable at the time of the contract for the same for a like annuity from the Commissioners for Reduction of the National Debt ; and the Commissioners shall not pay for the redemption of the whole or any part of an annuity for life or lives more than the sum then by law payable for the grant by the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt of a like annuity of like amount as the annuity or part thereof to be redeemed, or for the redemption of the whole or any part of an annuity for years more than a proportionate part of the amount of the original purchase money paid for the annuity.

A.D. 1872.

42. All money borrowed under this Act shall be applied in the exercise and execution of the powers and duties of the Commissioners under the Harbour Act of 1862 and this Act or either of them, and shall be expended exclusively on works or objects on which capital may properly be expended, and not in defraying the expenses of maintenance of any works or other ordinary current expenses of or connected with any work or establishment.

Application
of money borrowed.

43. All money received under this Act by the Commissioners from rates or duties or other sources of income shall be applied in the manner and order following, and not otherwise; (namely,)

Application
of income.

First. In paying interest accruing due on money borrowed, and providing the requisite annual instalments or appropriations for payment off of the principal thereof, and in paying annuities granted under this Act:

Secondly. In paying the current working and establishment expenses of the Commissioners, and their expenses of maintaining and keeping in repair their works.

44. Except as in this Act expressed, nothing in this Act shall take away, abridge, or prejudicially affect any estate, interest, right, power, or authority of the Commissioners under the Harbour Act of 1862, or otherwise.

Saving
for general purposes
Commissioners.

45. Nothing in this Act or in any enactment incorporated with this Act shall authorise the Commissioners to take, use, or in any manner interfere with any foreshore or other land, soil, tenements, or hereditaments, or any rights of whatsoever nature, belonging to or enjoyed or exerciseable by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty in right of the Crown, without the consent in writing of the Board of Trade on behalf of Her Majesty first had and obtained for that purpose (which consent the Board of Trade is hereby authorised to give), or divest, take away, prejudice, diminish, or alter any estate, right, privilege, power, or authority vested in or enjoyed or exerciseable by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, her heirs or successors.

Saving for rights of the Crown.

46. Nothing contained in this Act or done under the authority thereof shall in any manner affect the title to any of the subjects
