

CHAPTER clxix.

An Act to extend the time for the purchase of lands and for the completion of the Belgrave Market ; and for other purposes. A.D. 1873.
[21st July 1873.]

WHEREAS by "The Belgrave Market Act, 1869," (herein-after called "the Act of 1869,") the Belgrave Market Company was incorporated and authorised to make and maintain a market and other buildings in connexion therewith in the parish of Saint Luke, Chelsea, in the county of Middlesex : 32 & 33 Vict.
c. clvii.

And whereas it is expedient that the powers granted for the compulsory purchase of lands which have expired should be revived, and that the time limited for completing the market should be extended :

And whereas the objects and purposes aforesaid cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament :

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted ; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. This Act may be cited for any purpose as "The Belgrave Market (Extension of Time) Act, 1873." Short title.

2. The Act of 1869 (as amended by this Act) and this Act shall be taken and read as one Act. Acts to be read together.

3. Part II. (relating to extension of time) of the Railways Clauses Act, 1863, is (except where expressly varied by this Act) incorporated with and forms part of this Act. In the construction of that part, the expression "railway" therein used shall be construed to mean the market and works by the recited Act authorised. Incorporation of part of general Act.

4. In this Act the several words and expressions to which meanings are assigned by the Act partially incorporated herewith shall Interpretation of terms.

A.D. 1873. have the same respective meanings unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction; the expression "the Company" shall mean the Company incorporated by the Act of 1869; and the expression "the market" shall mean the market and works by that Act authorised.

Powers for compulsory purchases extended.

5. The powers granted to the Company by the Act of 1869 for the compulsory purchase of lands are hereby revived and extended as to certain parts thereof, and may be exercised by the Company for and during a period of two years from the passing of this Act, and on the expiration of that period those powers shall cease. The lands and houses referred to are bounded on the north-east by White Lion Street, on the south-east by Queen's Road East, on the south-west by Franklin's Row, and on the north-west by Turk's Row.

Extension of time for completion of market.

6. The time limited by the Act of 1869 for the completion of the market thereby authorised shall be and the same is hereby extended and enlarged until the expiration of three years from the passing of this Act, and on the expiration of that period those powers shall cease except as to so much of the said market as shall then be completed.

Saving section 6 of Act of 1869.

7. Notwithstanding the extension of time granted by this Act, section 6 of the Act of 1869 shall remain in full force and virtue.

Qualification of directors.

8. Section 20 of the Act of 1869 is hereby repealed, and the qualification of a director shall be the possession in his own right of not less than twenty shares.

Expenses of Act.

9. All costs, charges, and expenses of and incident to the preparing for, obtaining, and passing of this Act, or otherwise in relation thereto, shall be paid by the Company.
