

CHAPTER ccl.

An Act for incorporating the Cornwall Mineral and Bodmin and Wadebridge Junction Railway Company, and for authorising them to make and maintain the Cornwall Mineral and Bodmin and Wadebridge Junction Railway, and for authorising arrangements between them and other Railway Companies ; and for other purposes. A.D. 1873.

[5th August 1873.]

WHEREAS the making and maintaining of a railway from a junction at Roche with the Cornwall Mineral Railway (now in course of construction) to a junction with the Bodmin and Wadebridge Railway, near Ruthern Bridge, in the parish of Bodmin, all in Cornwall, would be of public and local advantage :

And whereas the persons in that behalf in this Act named, with others, are willing at their own expense to carry the undertaking into execution, on being incorporated into a company with adequate powers for the purpose :

And whereas it is expedient that the Company and all other companies lawfully using the railway of the Company be authorised to run over and use the Bodmin and Wadebridge Railway, as by this Act provided :

And whereas it is expedient that provisions be made for authorising working and other agreements between the Company on the one hand, and the London and South-western Railway Company, and the Bodmin and Wadebridge Railway Company, and the Devon and Cornwall Railway Company, and the Cornwall Minerals Railway Company, or any or either of them, on the other hand, as by this Act provided :

And whereas plans and sections of the proposed railway, showing the lines and levels thereof, and the lands which may be taken for the purposes of this Act, and also books of reference to the plans containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or

And whereas the objects of this Act cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament :

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Short title. 1. This Act may be cited as "The Cornwall Mineral and Bodmin and Wadebridge Junction Railway Act, 1873."

Provisions of general Acts herein named incorporated. 2. "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," and Part I. (relating to cancellation and surrender of shares) and Part III. (relating to debenture stock) of "The Companies Clauses Act, 1863," "The Companies Clauses Act, 1869," "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869," "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," and Part I. (relating to construction of a railway) and Part III. (relating to working agreements) of "The Railways Clauses Act, 1863," are (except where expressly varied by this Act) incorporated with and form part of this Act.

Interpretation of terms. 3. In this Act the several words and expressions to which meanings are assigned by the Acts wholly or partially incorporated herewith have the same respective meanings, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction. The expression "the Company" means the Company incorporated by this Act; the expression "the railway" and "the undertaking" mean respectively the railways and the undertaking by this Act authorised; the expression "superior courts" or "court of competent jurisdiction," or any other like expression in this Act or any Act wholly or partially incorporated herewith, shall be read and have effect as if the debt or demand with respect to which the expression is used were a simple contract debt, and not a debt or demand created by statute.

Company incorporated. 4. Granville Richard Ryder, William Lewis Grant, William Robert Rowan, and William James Hard, and all other persons and corporations who have already subscribed to or shall hereafter become proprietors in the undertaking, and their executors, administrators, successors, or assigns respectively, shall be and are hereby united into a company for the purpose of making and maintaining the railway, and for other the purposes of this Act, and for those purposes shall be and are hereby incorporated by the name of "The Cornwall Mineral and Bodmin and Wadebridge Junction Railway Company," and by that name shall be a body corporate, with perpetual succession and a common seal, and with power to purchase, take, hold, and dispose of lands and other property for the purpose of this Act.

A.D. 1873.

5. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Company may make and maintain in the line and according to the levels shown on the deposited plans and sections the railways herein-after described, with all proper stations, approaches, works, and conveniences connected therewith, and may enter upon, take, and use such of the lands delineated on the said plans and described in the deposited books of reference as may be required for that purpose. The railways herein-before referred to and authorised by this Act are :

Power to make railways according to deposited plans.

A railway (No. 1), two furlongs fifteen yards in length, commencing in the parish of Roche, near the highway leading from the Victoria Inn to Roche, and terminating in the parish of Withiel by a junction with the railway No. 2 by this Act authorised ;

A railway (No. 2), five miles six chains fourteen yards in length, commencing in the parish of Roche, near a lane leading from the turnpike road between Bodmin and Truro to Holywell, and terminating in the parish of Bodmin by a junction with the Bodmin and Wadebridge Railway ; which railways will be wholly situate in the county of Cornwall.

6. The capital of the Company shall be ninety thousand pounds, in nine thousand shares of ten pounds each.

Capital, number, and amount of shares.

7. The Company shall not issue any share created under the authority of this Act, nor shall any share vest in the person accepting the same, unless and until a sum not being less than one fifth of the amount of such share is paid in respect thereof.

Shares not to issue until one fifth paid up.

8. One fifth of the amount of a share shall be the greatest amount of a call, and two months at the least shall be the interval between successive calls, and three fourths of the amount of a share shall be the utmost aggregate amount of the calls made in any year upon any share.

Calls.

9. If any money be payable to any shareholder being a minor, idiot, or lunatic, the receipt of the guardian or committee of his estate shall be a sufficient discharge to the Company.

Receipts on behalf of incapacitated persons.

Power to
shares.

10. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Company, with the authority of three fourths of the votes of the shareholders present in person or by proxy at a general meeting of the Company specially convened for the purpose, may from time to time divide any share in their capital into half shares, of which one shall be called "preferred half share," and the other shall be called "deferred half share;" but the Company shall not divide any share under the authority of this Act unless and until not less than sixty per centum upon such share has been paid up, and upon every such division fifty per centum upon the entire share shall be carried to the credit of the deferred half share (being the whole amount payable thereon), and the residue to the credit of the preferred half share.

Dividends on half
shares.

11. The dividend which would from time to time be payable on any divided share if the same had continued an entire share shall be applied in payment of dividends on the two half shares in manner following; (that is to say,) first, in payment of dividend, after such rate not exceeding six per centum per annum as shall be determined once for all at a general meeting of the Company specially convened for the purpose, on the amount for the time being paid up on the preferred half share, and the remainder (if any) in payment of dividend on the deferred half share; and the Company shall not pay any greater amount of dividend on the two half shares than would have from time to time been payable on the entire share if the same had not been divided.

preferred shares to be paid out of the profits of the year only.

12. Each preferred half share shall be entitled out of the profits of each year to the dividend which may have been attached to it by the Company as aforesaid, in priority to the deferred half share bearing the same number; but if in any year ending the thirty-first day of December there shall not be profits available for the payment of the full amount of dividend on any preferred half share for that year, no part of the deficiency shall be made good out of the profits of any subsequent year or out of any other funds of the Company.

Half shares to be registered, and
issued.

13. Forthwith after the creation of any half shares the same shall be registered by the directors, and each half share shall bear the same number as the number of the entire share certificate in respect of which it was issued, and the directors shall issue certificates of the half shares accordingly, and shall cause an entry to be made in the register of the entire shares of the conversion thereof; but the directors shall not be bound to issue a certificate of any half share until the certificate of the existing share be delivered to them to be cancelled, unless it be shown to their satisfaction that such certificate is destroyed or lost, and on any such certificate being so delivered up the directors shall cancel it. A.D. 1873.

14. The terms and conditions on which any preferred half share or deferred half share created under this Act is issued shall be stated on the certificate of each such half share. Terms of issues to be stated on certificates.

15. The provisions of "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," with respect to the forfeiture of shares for nonpayment of calls shall apply to all preferred half shares created under the authority of this Act, and every such preferred half share shall for that purpose be considered an entire share, distinct from the corresponding deferred half share, and until any forfeited preferred half share shall be sold by the directors all dividends which would be payable thereon if the same had not been forfeited shall be applied in or towards payment of any expenses attending the declaration of forfeiture thereof, and of the arrears of calls for the time being due thereon, with interest. Forfeiture of preferred shares.

16. No preferred half share created under the authority of this Act shall be cancelled or be surrendered to the Company. Preferred shares not to be cancelled, &c.

17. The several half shares under this Act shall be half shares in the capital of the Company, and every two half shares, whether preferred or deferred, or one of each, held by the same person shall confer such right of voting at meetings of the Company, and (subject to the provisions herein-before contained) shall confer and have all such other rights, qualifications, privileges, liabilities, and incidents as attach and are incident to an entire share. Half shares to be half shares in capital.

18. The Company may from time to time borrow on mortgage any sum not exceeding in the whole thirty thousand pounds, but no part thereof shall be borrowed until the whole capital of ninety thousand pounds is issued and accepted, and one half thereof is paid up, and the Company have proved to the justice who is to certify under the 40th section of "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," (before he so certifies) that the whole of such capital has been issued and accepted, and that one half thereof has been paid up, and that not less than one fifth part of the amount of each separate share has been paid on account thereof before or at the time of the issue or acceptance thereof, and that such capital was issued bonâ fide, and is held by the persons or corporations to whom the same was issued, or their executors, administrators, successors, or assigns, and that such persons or corporations, their executors, administrators, successors, or assigns, are legally liable for the same; and upon production to such Power to borrow on mortgage.

A.D. 1873. — justice of the books of the Company, and of such other evidence as he shall think sufficient, he shall grant a certificate that the proof aforesaid has been given him, which shall be sufficient evidence thereof.

Arrears may be enforced by appointment of a receiver.

19. The mortgagees of the Company may enforce payment of arrears of interest or principal, or principal and interest, due on their mortgages by the appointment of a receiver. In order to authorise the appointment of a receiver in respect of arrears of principal, the amount owing to the mortgagees by whom the application for a receiver shall be made shall not be less than three thousand pounds in the whole.

Debenture stock.

20. The Company may create and issue debenture stock, subject to the provisions of Part III. of "The Companies Clauses Act, 1863," but, notwithstanding anything therein contained, the interest of all debenture stock at any time created and issued by the Company shall rank pari passu with the interest of all mortgages at any time granted by the Company, and shall have priority over all principal moneys secured by such mortgages.

Application of moneys.

21. All moneys raised under this Act, whether by shares, debenture stock, or borrowing, shall be applied for the purposes of this Act only.

First and subsequent meetings.

22. The first ordinary meeting of the Company shall be held within twelve months after the passing of this Act, and the subsequent ordinary meetings of the Company shall be held twice in every year, in the months of February or March, and August or September, as the directors may appoint.

Number of directors.

23. The number of the directors shall be four, but it shall be lawful for the Company from time to time to reduce the number, provided that the number be not less than three.

Qualification of directors.

24. The qualification of a director shall be the possession in his own right of not less than fifty shares.

Quorum of directors.

25. The quorum of a meeting of directors shall be three until the number of directors is reduced to three, and then the quorum shall be two.

First directors.

26. Granville Richard Ryder, William Lewis Grant, William Robert Rowan, and William James Hard shall be the first directors of the Company, and shall continue in office until the first ordinary meeting held after the passing of this Act; at that meeting the shareholders present in person or by proxy may either continue in office the directors appointed by this Act, or any of them, or may elect a new body of directors, or directors to supply the places of those not continued in office, the directors appointed by this Act being, if qualified, eligible for re-election; and at the first ordinary meeting to be held in every year after the first ordinary meeting the shareholders present personally or by proxy shall (subject to the power herein-before contained for reducing the number of directors) elect persons to supply the places of the directors then retiring from office, agreeably to the provisions in "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845;" and the several persons elected at any such meeting, being neither removed nor disqualified nor having resigned, shall continue to be directors until others are elected in their stead, in manner provided by the same Act.

A.D. 1873.

27. The quantity of land to be taken by agreement by the Company for the extraordinary purposes mentioned in "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," shall not exceed two acres.

Lands for extraordinary purposes.

28. The powers of the Company for the compulsory purchase of lands for the purposes of this Act shall not be exercised after the expiration of three years from the passing of this Act.

Powers for compulsory purchases limited.

29. The Company may make the arches of the bridges for carrying the railway over the roads next herein-after mentioned of any heights and spans not less than the heights and spans herein-after mentioned in connexion therewith respectively; (that is to say,)

Providing for application of deposit.

36. The said stock transferred as aforesaid shall be applicable, and after due notice in the London Gazette shall be applied, towards compensating any landowners or other persons whose property may have been interfered with or otherwise rendered less valuable by the commencement, construction, or abandonment of the railway or any portion thereof, or who may have been subjected to injury or loss in consequence of the compulsory powers of taking property conferred upon the Company by this Act, and for which injury or loss no compensation or inadequate compensation shall have been paid, and shall be distributed in satisfaction of such compensation as aforesaid, in such manner and in such proportions as to the Court of Chancery in England may seem fit; and if no such compensation shall be payable, or if a portion of the said stock shall have been found sufficient to satisfy all just claims in respect of such compensation, then the said stock, or such portion thereof as may not be required as aforesaid, shall either be forfeited to Her Majesty, and accordingly be paid or transferred to or for the account of Her Majesty's Exchequer, in such manner as the Court of Chancery in England thinks fit to order, on the application of the Solicitor of Her Majesty's Treasury, and shall be carried to and form part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom, or, in the discretion of the Court, if the Company is insolvent, and has been ordered to be wound up, or a receiver has been appointed, shall wholly or in part be paid or transferred to such receiver, or to the liquidator or liquidators of the Company, or be otherwise applied as part of the assets of the Company for the benefit of the creditors thereof; provided that until the said stock has been repaid to the depositors, or has become otherwise applicable as herein-before mentioned, any interest or dividends accruing thereon shall from time to time, and as often as the same shall become payable, be paid to or on the application of the person or persons, or the majority of the persons, named in such warrant or order as aforesaid, or the survivors or survivor of them.

Period for
of works.

37. If the railway is not completed within five years from the passing of this Act, then on the expiration of that period the powers by this Act granted to the Company for making and completing the railway, or otherwise in relation thereto, shall cease to be exercised, except as to so much thereof as is then completed.

[36 & 37 VICT.] The Cornwall Mineral and Bodmin and Wadebridge Junction Railway Act, 1873. [Ch. ccl.]

38. The Company may demand and take in respect of the use of the railway any tolls not exceeding the following; (that is to say,) A.D. 1873.

For every carriage, of whatever description, not being a carriage adapted and used for travelling on a railway, and not weighing more than two tons, carried or conveyed on a truck or platform belonging to the Company, not exceeding six-pence per mile, and one penny per mile for every additional quarter of a ton which any such carriage may weigh.

Tolls for
power.

39. The toll which the Company may demand for the use of engines for propelling carriages on the railway shall not exceed one penny per mile for each passenger or animal, and one halfpenny for each ton of goods, in addition to the several other tolls or sums by this Act authorised to be taken.

Regulations
as to tolls.

40. The following provisions and regulations shall apply to the fixing of all tolls and charges under this Act; (that is to say,)

For all passengers, animals, or goods conveyed on the railway for a less distance than four miles, the Company may demand tolls and charges as for four miles:

For a fraction of a mile beyond four miles, or beyond any greater number of miles, the Company may demand tolls and charges for passengers as for one mile, and for animals and goods for such fraction in proportion to the number of quarters of a mile contained therein, and if there be a fraction of a quarter of a mile such fraction shall be deemed a quarter of a mile:

For a fraction of a ton the Company may demand tolls according to the number of the quarters of a ton in such fraction, and if there be a fraction of a quarter of a ton such fraction shall be deemed a quarter of a ton:

With respect to all articles, except stone and timber, the weight shall be determined according to the usual avoirdupois weight:

With respect to stone and timber, fourteen cubic feet of stone, forty cubic feet of oak, mahogany, teak, beech, or ash, and fifty cubic feet of any other timber, shall be deemed one ton weight, and so in proportion for any smaller quantity.

Tolls for small parcels and articles

41. With respect to small parcels not exceeding five hundred pounds in weight, and single articles of great weight, notwithstanding the rates prescribed by this Act, the Company may demand and take any tolls not exceeding the following; (that is to say,) A.D. 1873.

think fit, but shall apply only to the ordinary and express trains appointed from time to time by the Company for the conveyance of passengers and goods upon the railway. A.D. 1873.

47. Nothing in this Act shall prevent the Company from taking any increased charges, over and above the charges by this Act limited, for the conveyance of animals or goods of any description by agreement with the owners or persons in charge thereof, either by reason of any special service performed by the Company in relation thereto, or in respect to the conveyance of animals or goods (other than small parcels) by passenger train. Company may take increased charges by agreement.

48. The Company and all companies and persons lawfully using the railways of the Company, or any part or parts thereof, may, by agreement with the Bodmin and Wadebridge Railway Company, under their common seal, but not otherwise, run over and use with their engines and carriages, waggons and trucks, and their officers and servants, and for the purposes of traffic of every description, the Bodmin and Wadebridge Railway, together with all tramways, sidings, stations, buildings, offices, warehouses, approaches, water supplies, telegraphs, signals, machinery, works, and conveniences on or connected or used with the said railway. Power for Company to run over Bodmin and Wadebridge Railway.

49. The terms and conditions on which the Company or such other companies as aforesaid may run over and use the said Bodmin and Wadebridge Railway, and the works and conveniences connected therewith, shall be such terms and conditions as the companies interested from time to time agree on. Terms and conditions of running over.

50. The Company or any company lawfully using the railways of the Company may from time to time demand and take for all passengers, animals, and things conveyed by them on the Bodmin and Wadebridge Railway, and for carriages, waggons, and trucks respectively conveying the same, and provided by them, and for locomotive engines or other power provided by them, and for all services performed by them thereon, and for all other matters with respect to traffic thereon, a like amount of tolls, fares, rates, or other charges as by the several Acts relating to the said railway are authorised to be demanded and taken for like traffic, services, and matters thereon respectively, and in like manner and with and subject to like powers and provisions, and, where applicable, like limitation of maximum charges in all respects. Tolls on railway run over under Act by Company.

51. The Company on the one hand, and the London and South-western Railway Company, the Bodmin and Wadebridge Railway Company, the Devon and Cornwall Railway Company, and the Arrangements with other companies.

and Wadebridge Junction Railway Act, 1873.*

A.D. 1873. Cornwall Minerals Railway Company, or any or either of them, on the other hand, may, subject to the provisions of Part III. of "The Railways Clauses Act, 1863," from time to time enter into and carry into effect agreements with respect to the following purposes or any of them; (that is to say,)

The maintenance and management by the contracting companies, or any or either of them, of the railway, or any part thereof, and of the works connected therewith:

The use and working of the railway or of any part thereof, and the interchange, accommodation, conveyance, and delivery of the traffic coming from or destined for the respective undertakings of the contracting companies:

The levying, fixing, division, and apportionment of the tolls, rates, fares, charges, receipts, and revenues levied, taken, or arising from such traffic:

The payments, allowances, rebates, and drawbacks to be paid, made, or allowed by any or either of the contracting companies to the other or others of them for or on account of any of the matters to which the respective agreement relates.

Tolls on traffic conveyed partly on railways of Company and partly on other railways.

52. Where, under the provisions of this Act, traffic is conveyed partly on the railways of the Company and partly on the railway of any other company, the railways of the Company and the railway of such other company shall for the purposes of tolls and charges be considered as one railway; and in estimating the amount of tolls and charges in respect of traffic conveyed partly on the railways of the Company and partly on the railway of any other company for a less distance than four miles, tolls and charges may only be charged as for four miles; and in respect of passengers, for every mile or fraction of a mile beyond four miles, tolls and charges as for one mile only; and in respect of animals and goods, for every quarter of a mile beyond four miles, tolls and charges as for a quarter of a mile only; and no other short-distance charge shall be made for the conveyance of passengers, animals, or goods partly on the railways of the Company and partly on the railway of any other company.

Interest not to be paid on calls paid up.

53. The Company shall not, out of any money by this Act authorised to be raised, pay interest or dividend to any shareholder on the amount of the calls made in respect of the shares held by him; but nothing in this Act shall prevent the Company from paying to any shareholder such interest on money advanced by him beyond the amount of the calls actually made as is in conformity with "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845."

54. The Company shall not, out of any money by this Act authorised to be raised, pay or deposit any sum which, by any standing order of either House of Parliament now or hereafter in force, may be required to be deposited in respect of any application to Parliament for the purpose of obtaining an Act authorising the Company to construct any other railway, or to execute any other work or undertaking.

A.D. 1873.
Deposits for future Bills not to be paid out of capital.

55. Nothing in this Act contained shall exempt the railway from the provisions of any general Act relating to railways, or the better and more impartial audit of the accounts of railway companies, now in force or which may hereafter pass during this or any future session of Parliament, or from any future revision or alteration, under the authority of Parliament, of the maximum rates of fares and charges, or of the rates for small parcels, authorised by this Act.

Railway not exempt from provisions of present and future general Acts.

56. All the costs, charges, and expenses of and incident to the preparing and applying for, and the obtaining and passing of this Act, or otherwise in relation thereto, shall be paid by the Company.

Expenses of Act.
