

CHAPTER cxlii.

An Act for extending the boundaries of the Municipal Borough of King's Lynn; for authorising the Corporation of the said borough to subscribe further moneys towards the King's Lynn Docks; for amending the King's Lynn Waterworks and Borough Improvement Act, 1859, and the Eau Brink Acts; and for other purposes.

A.D. 1880.

[6th August 1880.]

WHEREAS under and by virtue of a charter, bearing date the fourteenth day of September one thousand two hundred and five, granted by His Majesty King John, and of divers royal charters granted subsequently thereto, and confirming or enlarging the same, the borough of King's Lynn therein described was declared to be a free borough, and was incorporated:

And whereas the said borough is a municipal borough subject to the Acts relating to municipal corporations, and the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses of the borough (herein-after referred to as "the Corporation") acting by the council of the borough are the urban sanitary authority for the district thereof:

And whereas the borough has a separate commission of the peace and a separate court of quarter sessions and a recorder, with a clerk of the peace and a separate police force:

And whereas it is expedient that the limits of the borough be extended by the addition thereto of certain parts of the parishes of Gaywood and North Lynn as in this Act provided:

And whereas it is expedient that the Corporation acting by the council be constituted the sole authority for all municipal, sanitary, and local government purposes within the extended borough, to the exclusion of any other authority, and that all places within the extended borough should form part of the King's Lynn Union:

And whereas by the King's Lynn Docks and Railway Act, 1865, and the Acts amending the same, the King's Lynn Dock Company were empowered to construct docks at King's Lynn, and the

A.D. 1880. Corporation were empowered to subscribe and have accordingly subscribed to the capital of the said Company, subject to the conditions in the said Acts mentioned:

And whereas it is expedient that the Corporation should be empowered, subject to the provisions and limitations in this Act contained, to subscribe further moneys to the undertaking of the King's Lynn Dock Company, and that the said Acts should be amended as in this Act provided:

c. xxxii.

And whereas by the King's Lynn Waterworks and Borough Improvement Act, 1859, provisions were made with respect to the supply by the Corporation of water within the borough and adjacent parishes, and with respect to the improvement of the borough, and it is expedient that the said provisions should be amended with respect to the powers of the Corporation as to the supply of water and otherwise as by this Act provided:

31 & 32 Vict.
c. 45.
35 & 36 Vict.
c. i.

And whereas by the Lynn Deep's Fishery Order, 1872, made by the Board of Trade under the authority of the Sea Fisheries Act, 1868, and confirmed by the Oyster and Mussel Fisheries Orders Confirmation Act, 1872, provision was made for the regulation by the Corporation of an oyster and mussel fishery in Lynn Deep's, being a portion of the estuary called "The Wash," and it is expedient to amend the provisions of the said order with respect to legal proceedings and the application of penalties:

And whereas under and by virtue of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the first and second years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-three, intituled "An Act to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers of the " several Acts now in force relating to the New River or Cut from " Eau Brink to King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, called the " Eau Brink Cut, and to raise further Funds for carrying the said
" Acts into execution," certain persons were appointed select trustees for the purpose of providing for the execution of the works therein mentioned for the security and preservation of the town and harbour of Lynn, and for the application to such purpose of the moneys by the said Act from time to time made payable to the said select trustees, and it is expedient that the select trustees should be empowered from time to time to lend to the Corporation any of the said moneys which the select trustees may not require for the purposes of the said first-mentioned Act:

And whereas by the several indentures set forth in the First Schedule to this Act annexed the Corporation did, to secure the repayment of the moneys therein specified, respectively grant and assign to the persons therein mentioned as trustees the real estates of the Corporation set forth and more particularly described in the said several indentures, and the rates, duties, or dues of the Corporation commonly called "town dues," subject to the trusts in the said indentures respectively declared of and concerning the said premises thereby granted and assigned respectively :

A.D. 1880.

And whereas it is expedient to transfer all the estate and interest of the trustees in the said estates and town dues under the said indentures to the Corporation, subject to all mortgages, charges, liabilities, and incumbrances affecting the same, and to make such provisions with respect thereto as are in this Act contained :

And whereas it is expedient to empower the Corporation to make agreements with the justices of the peace for the county of Norfolk for the use by such justices for county purposes of the Town Hall in the borough :

And whereas an absolute majority of the whole number of the council, at a meeting held on the fifth day of November one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, after ten clear days notice by public advertisement of such meeting and of the purposes thereof in "The Lynn Advertiser" and in "The Lynn News and County Press" (local newspapers published and circulating respectively in the borough), such notice being in addition to the ordinary notices required for summoning such meeting, resolved that the expense in relation to promoting the Bill for this Act should be charged on the waterworks and borough funds :

And whereas such resolution was published twice in the said newspapers, and has received the sanction of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State and of the Local Government Board in respect of matters within their respective jurisdictions :

And whereas the propriety of the promotion of the Bill for this Act was confirmed by an absolute majority of the whole number of the council, at a further special meeting held on the eighth day of January one thousand eight hundred and eighty in pursuance of similar notice, being not less than fourteen days after the deposit of the Bill for this Act in Parliament :

And whereas the owners and ratepayers of the borough, by resolution in the manner provided by the Third Schedule annexed to the Public Health Act, 1875, consented to the promotion of the Bill for this Act :

38 & 39 Vict.
c. 55.

And whereas the objects aforesaid cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament :

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and PART II.

EXTENSION OF BOROUGH.

Extension of borough. 6. The borough shall comprise the existing borough and the district described in the Second Schedule to this Act annexed.

Deposit of borough and ward plan. 7. A plan showing the boundaries of the borough and of the wards thereof, and signed in duplicate by Joseph Dodds, Esquire, the Chairman of the Committee of the House of Commons, to whom the Bill for this Act was referred, shall within one week after the passing of this Act be deposited at the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons and with the town clerk at his office, and the said plan shall be called the borough plan.

Authority of Corporation, &c. extended. 8. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the powers, rights, privileges, liabilities, and duties of the existing Corporation as a municipal body, and of the existing council and any committee thereof, and of the existing Corporation acting in the execution of all Acts and Provisional Orders at the passing of this Act in force within the existing borough, and of the existing Corporation acting by the council or any committee thereof as the urban sanitary authority for the district of the existing borough, and as the burial board for the existing borough, and as the port sanitary authority for the port of King's Lynn, and of all officers and servants of the existing Corporation, shall from and after the passing of this Act extend to and throughout the borough; and, subject to the provisions of this Act, all enactments, regulations, byelaws, notices, and orders immediately before the passing of this Act in force within or applicable to the existing borough shall extend and apply to and throughout the borough.

Extension of school district. 9. For the purposes of the Education Acts the following provisions shall have effect; (that is to say,)

The members of the school attendance committee for the existing borough who shall be in office at the passing of this Act shall be the first school attendance committee for the borough:

All the officers of the school attendance committee for the existing borough shall become the officers of the school attendance committee for the borough:

All byelaws of the school attendance committee for the existing borough shall apply to the borough : A.D. 1880.

Unless and until any other order be made in that behalf by the Education Department, with the consent of the Public Works Loan Commissioners, the Corporation shall, on the twentieth day of May in every year, pay to the treasurer of the school board for the parish of Gaywood the yearly amount of principal and interest payable to the said commissioners in respect of the debt of one thousand six hundred pounds now owing to them by the said school board, and being the unpaid balance of the mortgage debt incurred by that board in the providing the Gaywood School Board School :

The Corporation shall contribute to the cost of maintaining and managing the said school such annual sum as may be from time to time or at any time agreed on between the Corporation and the said school board, or as failing agreement shall be settled by the Education Department :

Nothing in this section shall take away, alter, or interfere with any of the powers, duties, or authorities of the Education Department.

10. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the powers, rights, privileges, liabilities, and duties of the poor law guardians of the King's Lynn Union, and of all officers and servants of such guardians within the existing borough, shall, from and after the 30th day of September 1880, extend to and throughout the borough, and all regulations, byelaws, or orders under the Poor Law Acts immediately before the commencement of this part of this Act in force or applicable within the existing borough shall, from and after that date, extend and apply to and throughout the borough. Authority of Poor Law Guardians of King's Lynn Union
extended.

11. The jurisdiction, powers, authorities, rights, privileges, and duties of the recorder, justices of the peace, clerk of the peace, town clerk, coroner, and other officers appointed for the existing borough, and of the court of quarter sessions of the peace granted to the existing borough, and of all constables of the existing borough, shall from and after the passing of this Act extend to and throughout the borough to the exclusion of the jurisdiction, powers, authorities, rights, privileges, and duties of any other justice, clerk of the peace, coroner, officers, and constables, and of any other court of quarter sessions of the peace. Jurisdiction, &c. of recorder, borough
justices, &c.
extended.

12. The borough shall continue to have six aldermen and eighteen councillors, and shall be divided into three wards, that is to say, the south ward, the middle ward, and the north ward, and each ward Borough divided into

shall have six councillors. The boundaries of the south ward shall continue the same as the boundaries of the existing south ward. So much of the added area as lies on the south side of the centre of the road from Lynn to Gaywood shall be added to the existing middle ward, and the existing middle ward so increased shall constitute the middle ward, and the rest of the added area shall be added to the existing north ward, and the existing north ward so increased shall constitute the north ward.

list, &c.

13. For the purpose of the burgess list, burgess roll, and other lists to be made after the passing of this Act under the Municipal Corporations Acts, and in relation to the functions of overseers and of the town clerk, and to the revision of such lists, or otherwise in relation thereto, under those Acts, the added area shall be deemed to have always formed part of the borough; and the overseers of the poor for the parish of Saint Margaret shall make out and deliver to the town clerk, on or before the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and eighty, a supplemental burgess list containing the names of the persons entitled under the Municipal Corporations Acts to be enrolled on the burgess roll in respect of the occupation of property in the added area, and such list shall form part of the burgess list made up and delivered to the town clerk on or before the last day of July one thousand eight hundred and eighty.

first mayor.

14. The first mayor of the borough under this Act shall be elected on the ninth day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighty from and out of the aldermen and councillors of the borough.

General provisions as to election, &c.
of aldermen and councillors.

15. All the retiring aldermen and councillors shall, if duly qualified, be eligible for re-election, and, subject to the provisions of this Act, all elections, vacations of office, and rotations shall be governed by the Municipal Corporations Acts.

Added area
exempt from Gaywood
and North Lynn rates.

16. From and after the passing of this Act all lands, houses, and hereditaments within the added area shall be exempt from all rates made or levied in the parishes of Gaywood and North Lynn, or either of the said parishes, except any rate which may from time to time be made and levied by the Commissioners of Sewers for the county of Norfolk.

Arrears of rates may be levied.

17. All arrears existing at the passing of this Act of rates leviable within the added area may be levied and collected as if this Act had not been passed.

Added area

Added area severed from rural sanitary authorities.

19. The parts of the added area respectively within the jurisdiction of the Freebridge Lynn Rural Sanitary Authority and the King's Lynn Rural Sanitary Authority are hereby severed from such jurisdiction, and shall henceforth be free from all rates and contributions to be levied by virtue of any precept issued by those authorities respectively, and the following provisions shall have effect; (that is to say,)

1. For the purpose of draining that part of Gaywood which is east of the added area the Freebridge Lynn Rural Sanitary Authority may, at their own expense, connect any sewer they may construct in the said road leading from Lynn to Gaywood with and at the eastern end of the sewer about to be made by the Corporation (partly in the existing borough and partly in the added area) in connexion with a sewer about to be made by the dock company into the harbour of King's Lynn, and such rural sanitary authority, in the event of their making such connexion, shall contribute to the cost of the making and maintaining of the said sewer of the Corporation such sum or sums as may be from time to time or at any time agreed on between the Corporation and such authority, or as, failing agreement, shall be settled by arbitration under and according to the provisions with respect to arbitration of the Public Health Act, 1875 :
2. If the Corporation do not construct their said sewer as far eastward as the Lynn and Hunstanton Railway the Freebridge Lynn Rural Sanitary Authority may continue the said sewer from the point where the Corporation shall cease to construct the same up to the said railway, and for that purpose shall, notwithstanding such severance, have and may exercise within the added area the same powers for and in relation to the construction of sewers as though such severance were not made :
3. The sewer so continued by the said rural sanitary authority shall be maintained by the said rural sanitary authority so long as they alone use the same; nevertheless the Corporation may at any time use the same, and shall in such case thereafter contribute to the cost of the maintenance thereof such sum or sums as may be from time to time or at any time agreed on between the said authority and the Corporation, or as failing agreement shall be settled by arbitration in manner aforesaid :

[Ch. cxlii.] King's Lynn Corporation Act, 1880. [43 & 44 VICT.]

4. The connexion with the said sewer of the Corporation shall be made under the superintendence and to the reasonable satisfaction of the Corporation.

Separation of added area
from Freebridge Lynn Union, &c.

20. For all purposes of and in relation to the administration of the law relating to the relief of the poor the following provisions shall have effect; (that is to say,)

1. The parts of the parishes of Gaywood and North Lynn respectively included and not included in the borough are in this section respectively referred to as the "included part" and "the excluded part":

2. The included part of each of the parishes of Gaywood and North Lynn is hereby, as from the 30th day of September 1880, separated from those respective parishes and amalgamated with the parish of Saint Margaret, King's Lynn, and the excluded part of the said parishes respectively shall thenceforward constitute and be the parishes of Gaywood and North Lynn respectively, and such separation shall have effect, as from that date, in the same manner as though it had been effected by an order made under the provisions of the Divided Parishes and Poor Law Amendment Act, 1876, and not objected to:

39 & 40 Vict.
c. 61.

3. The included part of the parish of Gaywood is hereby, as from the same date, separated from the Freebridge Lynn Union, and shall thenceforward be free from all jurisdiction of the guardians and officers of that union or of any parish therein, and from all rates leviable for the relief of the poor of the parish of Gaywood, and shall thenceforward be attached to and form part of the King's Lynn Union:

4. The rateable value of all railway property rateable to the relief of the poor and situate within the included part shall, as between the King's Lynn Union and the Freebridge Lynn Union, be in the first instance adjusted by William Marshall, of Norfolk Street, Strand, London, or failing him by some other competent rating valuer to be agreed on between the respective boards of guardians or assessment committees of the said two unions, or in default of agreement to be appointed by the Local Government Board; and all costs of and incidental to such first adjustment, including the cost of any re-valuation of rateable property which may be necessary therefor, shall be paid by the Corporation: Provided that any adjustment so made shall have no further binding effect than if the same had been made otherwise than by virtue of this section.

21. With respect to highways in the added area the following provisions shall, from and after the thirtieth day of September one thousand eight hundred and eighty, have effect; (that is to say,) A.D. 1880.
Provisions as to highways.

1. The parts of the parishes of Gaywood and North Lynn respectively included and not included in the borough are in this section respectively referred to as "the included part" and "the excluded part":
2. The highways within the added area shall be exempt from the jurisdiction of every road authority, other than the Corporation:
3. All lands, houses, and hereditaments within the added area shall (subject to the provisions of this Act) be exempt from all highway rates to be made (otherwise than by the Corporation) in respect of the parishes in which they are respectively situate:
4. The excluded part of each parish shall for all purposes connected with highways, surveyors of highways, and highway rates be considered and treated as a parish maintaining its own highways:
5. All arrears of highway rates shall be levied and collected as if this Act had not been passed:
6. All orders of any road authority in force at the passing of this Act may, after the passing thereof, be enforced as to the included part by the Corporation, and as to the excluded part by the road authority by whom such order was made.

22. Subject to the provisions as to arbitration herein-before contained, the Local Government Board are hereby empowered to adjust all accounts and to apportion any rates leviable or in hand, and any debts, liabilities, or obligations incurred, and any contributions to be made, and any property acquired by either of the said rural sanitary authorities, or by the guardians of either of the said unions, or by the said parishes of Gaywood and North Lynn, or either of them, which may require to be adjusted or apportioned by reason of the foregoing provisions, and may make such order as they deem expedient for effecting the objects of this section; and subject as in this part of this Act is provided, all liabilities and obligations incurred by or attaching to either of the said authorities or to the said guardians in respect of the added area are hereby, as from the thirtieth day of September one thousand eight hundred and eighty, transferred to and shall be satisfied and performed by the Corporation and by the guardians of the poor of the King's Lynn Union respectively, as the case may require.

Accounts,
&c. to be adjusted and differences to be settled by Local Government Board.

A.D. 1880.

Saving from effect of alteration of jurisdiction.

23. Nothing in this part of this Act shall affect the validity or execution of any warrant, writ, or process issued, or any investigation or legal proceeding pending, or the proof of any past act or thing.

PART III.

AMENDMENT OF DOCK ACTS.

Power to further contribute to capital of dock company and to subscribe moneys for such purpose.

24. The Corporation may from time to time or at any time subscribe to the capital of the dock company, in addition to any sums which they have subscribed or are by the Dock Acts authorised to subscribe, any sum or sums they may think fit, not exceeding thirty-five thousand pounds, and they may hold shares or stock in the capital of the dock company accordingly.

Power in certain event to appoint additional director of the dock company.

25. Notwithstanding anything in the Dock Acts contained, if the Corporation, under the authority of this Act, subscribe to the capital of the dock company a sum of not less than thirty thousand pounds, in addition to any sums which they have subscribed or are by the Dock Acts authorised to subscribe, they may (in addition to any directors whom under the Dock Acts they have authority to appoint) yearly appoint any person they may think fit to be a director of the dock company, and may at any time revoke such appointment, but such person so appointed need not be qualified as a shareholder of the dock company, and if the person who shall be so appointed a director shall die, resign, or become incapable of discharging the duties of a director, or if his appointment be revoked, the Corporation may from time to time fill up any such vacancy, but any failure on the part of the Corporation to appoint a director or to supply any such vacancy shall not affect the acts or deeds of the other directors of the dock company, and every such person so appointed a director shall be qualified to vote at all meetings of the dock company for or on behalf of the Corporation in respect of the capital subscribed by or on behalf of the Corporation under the authority of this Act, but such director shall not have any vote in the election of any other director or directors of the dock company.

The directors from time to time appointed by the Corporation under the Dock Acts and this Act shall be in addition to the directors from time to time elected by the shareholders under the Dock Acts, and shall together with such last-mentioned directors constitute the directors of the company.

PART IV.

AMENDMENT OF CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE ACT OF 1859.

Waterworks committee.

26. The Corporation from time to time shall continue to appoint nine members of the council to be a committee, to be called "the waterworks committee," for carrying into effect the provisions of the Act of 1859 as to the waterworks, in the manner, with the powers, and subject to the conditions prescribed by that Act with respect to the execution of the same by the waterworks committee thereby constituted: Provided always, that the members of the waterworks committee in office at the passing of this Act shall be the first members of the waterworks committee under this Act.

A.D. 1880.

Three members of the waterworks committee shall be a quorum, and the waterworks committee shall meet from time to time as occasion may require by twenty-four hours notice in writing from the town clerk, and the members of such committee may elect one of their number to take the chair during the pleasure of the committee at all meetings thereof at which he shall be present, and the members present at any meeting from which he shall be absent, or which shall be held after he shall have ceased to be chairman, may elect the chairman, and the chairman in every case of an equality of votes shall have a second or casting vote.

27. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Act of 1859, the water supplied by the Corporation shall be constantly laid on under pressure, unless in case of frost, unusual drought, or other unavoidable cause or accident.

Water to be laid on under pressure.

28. Notwithstanding anything in the Act of 1859 contained, it shall not be obligatory on the Corporation to supply water for domestic purposes to any owner, occupier, or person, unless such owner, occupier, or person shall be entitled to such supply under the provisions of the Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847.

Amendment of 22 Vict. c. xxxii. as to supply of water.

10 & 11 Vict. c. 17.

29. No water of the Corporation shall be delivered into or received or stored in any underground pool or tank, and any person who shall knowingly offend against this provision shall be liable for every such offence to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, and to a further penalty not exceeding forty shillings for every day or part of a day such offence shall continue after written notice thereof from the Corporation. The provision of section 59 of the Act of 1859 (power to officers to inspect meters, &c.) shall extend and apply for the purpose of ascertaining whether any water of the Corporation is delivered, received, or stored in any underground pool or tank.

Water not to be delivered, &c. into underground pools, &c.

30. For the further protection of the water supply of the Corporation the following provisions, in addition to those contained in section 34 (drains not to be made in Gaywood river without consent of Corporation) of the Act of 1859, shall have effect; (namely,) Rubbish, &c. not to be thrown or to be allowed to flow into Gaywood river.

No rubbish, dirt, filth, manure, dung, soil, excrementitious matter, or other offensive or noxious thing, and no water of any sink, sewer, or drain, steam-engine, boiler, and no other filthy water and no sewage, shall be thrown into or be made or allowed to flow into any part of the Gaywood river vested in or belonging to the Corporation, and the Corporation may prohibit and prevent any such matter and thing, and any such water and sewage, from being thrown into or made or allowed to flow into such part of the Gaywood river contrary to the provisions of this enactment, and may for such purposes close up or otherwise prevent the communication between any sewer, drain, or watercourse and the said river; and any person who shall throw any rubbish, dirt, filth, manure, dung, soil, excrementitious matter, offensive or noxious thing, or knowingly or wilfully cause or allow any water of any sink, or sewer, or drain, steam-engine, boiler, or other filthy water or sewage to flow into the said river contrary to the provisions of this enactment, shall for every such offence forfeit to the Corporation a sum not exceeding five pounds, and in the case of a continuing offence a further sum of five pounds for every day after the first day during the continuance of such offence: Provided always, that nothing in this sub-section contained shall affect the obligations imposed upon the Corporation by section fifteen of the Public Health Act, 1875.

Regulations for preventing waste,
&c. of water.

31. For preventing waste, misuse, undue consumption, or contamination of the water of the Corporation, the following provisions shall have effect; (namely,)

- (1.) The Corporation may from time to time make regulations for preventing waste, misuse, undue consumption, or contamination of the water of the Corporation to be observed by persons supplied with such water: Provided always, that any such regulations shall be subject to the approval of the Local Government Board, and the Corporation shall cause a copy of the approved regulations to be published in some newspaper circulating in the borough, and shall on payment of such sum, not exceeding twopence, as they may demand, furnish a copy of the same to any consumer of water who may require the same:
- (2.) The Corporation may by any such regulations as aforesaid direct the use and prescribe (with or without reference to models, patterns, or samples) the size, nature, strength, materials, workmanship, and the mode of arrangement, alteration, and repair of pipes, valves, cocks, tanks, cisterns, soil-pans, waterclosets, and other apparatus or receptacles for conveying, delivering, receiving, and measuring water, and may interdict any arrangement and the use of any pipe, valve, cock, tank, cistern, bath, soil-pan, watercloset, or other apparatus or receptacle, in their judgment likely to occasion waste, misuse, undue consumption, erroneous measurement, or contamination of water, and may prohibit the use of any pipe, valve, cock, tank, cistern, soil-pan, watercloset, apparatus, or receptacle for conveying, delivering, receiving, or measuring water, unless the same shall be certified by an officer to be appointed by the Corporation to be in accordance with such regulations by means of a stamp impressed thereon, or by such other mark or means as the Corporation may by any such regulations prescribe :

(3.) The Corporation shall not be bound, under any agreement or otherwise, to supply or continue to supply water to any person unless the regulations for the time being in force are duly observed by him :

(4.) In case of the failure of any person to observe any regulation for the time being in force the Corporation may, if they think fit, after twenty-four hours notice in writing, enter and by or under the direction of their authorised officer repair, replace, or alter any pipe, valve, cock, tank, cistern, bath, soil-pan, watercloset, or other apparatus or receptacle belonging to or used by any person supplied by them, and the power of entry given by section fifteen of the Waterworks Clauses Act, 1863, and the provisions of that section relative thereto, shall extend and apply to entry for the purpose of such repair, replacement, or alteration, and the expense of every such replacement or alteration shall be repaid to the Corporation by the person on whose credit the water is supplied, and may be recovered from him as water rent is recoverable :

26 & 27 Vict.
c. 93.

(5.) A printed copy of the regulations purporting to have been made as aforesaid by the Corporation, and to be sealed with the seal of the Corporation, shall be taken to be proof of the due making, publication, and existence of such regulations until the contrary be shown, and any person who shall offend against any such regulations shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, and to a further penalty not exceeding forty shillings for every day or part of a day such offence shall occur after conviction therefor.

32. The Corporation may, if requested by any person supplied or about to be supplied by them with water, furnish to him any such pipes, valves, cocks, cisterns, soil-pans, waterclosets, apparatus, and

of waterworks fund.

33. The moneys from time to time constituting the waterworks fund, and not being borrowed moneys or moneys which ought to be carried to the capital account, shall be applicable as follows :

First. In payment of so much of the costs, charges, and expenses preliminary to and of and incidental to the preparing, applying for, obtaining, and passing of this Act as should in the opinion of the Corporation be charged upon and paid out of the said fund :

Secondly. In payment of the expenses of carrying into execution the purposes of the Act of 1859 and of this Act with respect to the waterworks :

Thirdly. In payment of the interest of the money from time to time secured by mortgages of the water rates granted before the passing of this Act :

Fourthly. In paying off the principal moneys secured by mortgages of the water rates granted before the passing of this Act, and so that every sum so borrowed shall be paid off within thirty years after the same was borrowed :

Fifthly. In payment of the interest of the money from time to time secured by mortgages of the water rates granted after the passing of this Act :

Sixthly. In paying off the principal moneys secured by mortgage of the water rates granted after the passing of this Act, and so that every sum so borrowed shall be paid off within thirty years after the same was borrowed :

Seventhly. In providing a reserve fund, if the Corporation think fit, by setting aside such money as they from time to time think reasonable, not exceeding in any one year one-fourth part of the net profits of the waterworks for that year, and investing the same and the resulting income thereof in such securities as trustees are for the time being authorised to invest in, and accumulating the same at compound interest until the fund so formed shall amount to two thousand pounds, which fund shall be applicable from time to time to answer any deficiency at any time happening in the income of the Corporation from their waterworks undertaking, or to meet the cost of renewals and improvements of any part or parts thereof, or any extraordinary claim or demand at any time arising against the Corporation in respect thereof, and so that if that fund be at any time reduced it may thereafter be again restored to the like sum, and so from time to time; and

The balance (if any) remaining from time to time after such payments shall be carried to the credit of the borough fund and form part of such fund.

34. The Corporation from time to time shall continue to appoint nine members of the council to be a committee, to be called "The Markets Committee," for carrying into effect the provisions of the Act of 1859 as to the markets, in the manner, with the powers, and subject to the conditions prescribed by that Act with respect to the execution of the same by the markets committee thereby constituted: Provided always, that the members of the markets committee in office at the passing of this Act shall be the first members of the markets committee under this Act. Three members of the markets committee shall be a quorum, and the markets committee shall meet from time to time as occasion may require by twenty-four hours notice in writing from the town clerk, and the members of such committee may select one of their number to take the chair during the pleasure of the committee at all meetings thereof at which he shall be present, and the members present at any meeting from which he shall be absent or which shall be held after he shall have ceased to be chairman may elect the chairman, and the chairman in every case of an equality of votes shall have a second or casting vote.

and the balance (if any) remaining after such payment in payment of the expense from time to time incurred by the Corporation in carrying the said Order into effect, and improving, maintaining, and regulating the said fishery.

PART VI.

FINANCIAL.

Power to
rate.

37. The Corporation shall keep a separate account of all moneys received and expended by reason of the subscription by this Act authorised to the capital of the dock company, to be called "the Dock Fund Account, 1880," and all expenses of carrying into execution the purposes of this Act in relation to the docks shall be paid out of the said fund, and to meet any deficiency therein from time to time the following provisions shall have effect; (that is to say,)

1. The Corporation may from time to time make, assess, levy, and recover throughout the borough a rate to be called the special dock rate :
2. The provisions of the Public Health Act, 1875, contained in sections 210, 211 (except sub-section b), 212, 218 to 223 (both inclusive), 225, and 226 shall extend and apply to such rate :
3. The occupier of any land used as arable, meadow, or pasture ground only, or as woodlands, market gardens, or nursery grounds, and the occupier of any land covered with water or used only as a canal or towing-path for the same, shall be assessed in respect of the same in proportion of one-fourth part only of the net annual value thereof :
4. The owners of any tithe rentcharge payable in respect of any hereditaments within the added area shall be exempt from the payment of special dock rates :
5. The Corporation may make, assess, levy, and recover the special dock rate either as a separate rate or with the general district rate :
6. The special dock rate may be in the form given in the Third Schedule to this Act or to the like effect, and the dock rate and the general district rate may be included in the same assessment :
7. The Corporation may levy any such rate either in one sum or payment or by any number of instalments, of such amounts and to be paid at such times as they shall from time to time fix and determine at the time of making such rate, and in the case of a rate payable by instalments the demand note shall, in addition to other requisite particulars, state the time appointed for payment of such instalments, and all the powers and remedies of the Corporation for the recovery of special dock rates shall extend and apply to each instalment as if the same were a separate rate. A.D. 1880.

38. The council may cause all or any of the books of assessments of rates for the relief of the poor of, or the valuation lists for, the parishes of Gaywood and North Lynn respectively to be inspected by their proper officer, and may cause a copy thereof or of any part thereof to be taken without payment, and if any person in whose custody or power any such book of assessment or valuation list is or ought to be fails when required to permit such officer to inspect the same respectively, or to permit the council to cause to be taken a copy thereof or of any part thereof, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds. Poor rate books may be inspected by Corporation.

39. If before the passing of this Act the Corporation shall have made a borough rate for the existing borough for the quarter ending the ninth day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighty they may make a borough rate on the added area after the like rate in the pound, and for the purpose of collecting any borough rate made on the added area before the thirtieth day of September one thousand eight hundred and eighty, whether made on the added area separately or on the added area as a part of the borough, the Corporation may issue their precept to the overseers of the poor for the parishes of Gaywood and North Lynn respectively for the amount of the rate so to be made, and the overseers for the said parishes respectively shall forthwith levy and raise, in manner directed by the Municipal Corporations Acts, the amount mentioned in such precept upon the parts exclusively of the said parishes included in the added area, and pay to the treasurer of the borough the amount mentioned in the said precept, after deducting therefrom the cost of making, assessing, and collecting the rate requisite for the satisfying thereof, such cost in case of difference to be settled by the Local Government Board. Power to make borough rate in added area from passing of Act to date of next borough rate.

40. The Corporation may from time to time, in addition to any moneys they are now authorised to borrow under any Act relating to the borough, or which they may be authorised to borrow under the provisions of the Public Health Acts or any Public General Act, borrow at interest, on the following securities and for the following purposes any sum or sums not exceeding the following sums; (that is to say,) Power to borrow.

For the purpose of the subscription by this Act authorised to the capital of the dock company, thirty-five thousand pounds, on the security of the special dock rate, borough fund, and borough rate :

[Ch. cxlii.] King's Lynn Corporation Act, 1880. [43 & 44 VICT.]

A.D. 1880.

For the purpose of defraying such of the costs, charges, and expenses preliminary to and of and incidental to the preparing, applying for, obtaining, and passing of this Act as are not defrayed out of the waterworks fund on the security of the borough fund and borough rate, such sum as shall be requisite for that purpose.

And in calculating the sum the Corporation may borrow under any other enactment any sums they may borrow under this Act shall not be reckoned, and the powers of the Corporation as to borrowing and re-borrowing shall not be restricted by any of the provisions of the Public Health Act.

Provisions of 10 & 11 Vict. c. 16. as to mortgages to apply to mortgages under Act.

41. In case the Corporation secure the repayment of moneys borrowed under the authority of this Act by mortgage the provisions of the Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to the mortgages to be executed by the Commissioners, shall apply, except where the same are herein-after expressly altered or varied, and for the purposes of such application the term "the commissioners" in the said provisions shall be construed to mean the Corporation, and the term "clerk to the commissioners" shall be construed to mean the town clerk, and the prescribed part for the purposes of section eighty-four of the Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847, shall be one-sixtieth part.

Protection of lenders from inquiry.

42. A person lending money to the Corporation under this Act on the security of a mortgage under this Act shall not be bound to inquire as to the observance by them of any provision of this Act, or be bound to see to the application or be answerable for any loss or non-application or mis-application of the money lent, or of any part thereof.

Power to re-borrow.

43. If the Corporation pay off any part of any money borrowed on mortgage by them for the purposes of this Act, otherwise than by means of a sinking fund, they may re-borrow the same, and so from time to time: Provided always, that all moneys so re-borrowed shall be repaid within the same time as the moneys originally borrowed were required to be repaid.

Annual return to Local Government Board with respect to sinking fund in respect of moneys borrowed on mortgage.

44. The town clerk shall, within twenty-one days after the first day of January of each year, during which any sum is required to be set apart for a sinking fund in respect of moneys borrowed on mortgage under this Act, transmit to the Local Government Board a return, in such form as may be prescribed by that Board, and verified by statutory declaration if so required by them, showing the amount which has been invested for the purpose of such sinking fund during the year preceding the making of such return and the description of the securities upon which the same has been invested, and also showing the purposes to which any portion of the moneys invested for the sinking fund or any interest thereof have been applied during the same period, and the total amount remaining invested at the end of the year; and in the event of any wilful default in making such return the town clerk shall be liable to a penalty of not exceeding twenty pounds. If it appear to the Local Government Board by such return or otherwise that the Corporation have failed to set aside the sum required by this Act for the sinking fund, or have applied any portion of the moneys set apart for that fund or any interest thereof to any purposes other than those authorised by this Act, the Local Government Board may by order direct that a sum not exceeding double the amount in respect of which such default has been made shall be set apart and invested as part of the sinking fund, and such order shall be enforceable by writ of Mandamus to be obtained by the Local Government Board out of the High Court of Justice, and the provisions of this section shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to instalments and annual appropriations.

45. Section ninety-three of the Act of 1859 is hereby repealed, without prejudice to any appointment made or proceedings taken thereunder prior to the passing of this Act, and the mortgagees of the Corporation may enforce payment of arrears of interest or principal, or principal and interest, by the appointment of a receiver. In order to authorise the appointment of a receiver in respect of arrears of principal, the amount owing to the mortgagees by whom the application for a receiver is made shall not be less than thirty thousand pounds.

Appointment of receiver.

46. The Corporation, if they think fit, in lieu of borrowing on the security of mortgages as herein-before provided, may borrow the moneys which they are by this Act authorised to borrow under the powers and subject to the provisions of the Local Loans Act, 1875, by means of a loan or loans to be raised by the issue of debentures, debenture stock, or annuity certificates, or partly in one way and partly in another. Any moneys borrowed in manner by this section authorised for any of the purposes of this Act shall be a charge upon the fund, rate, duties, tolls, and dues upon the security of which such moneys are authorised to be borrowed, and such fund, rate, duties, tolls, and dues shall be deemed to be the local rate within the meaning and for the purposes of the Local Loans Act, 1875. Every such loan shall be discharged within sixty years from the date thereof, and such discharge or any part thereof shall be effected by means of a sinking fund, if the Corporation so think fit,

c. 83.

A.D. 1880. — and if the Corporation at any time think fit to form any such sinking fund all sums paid into the same shall, as soon as may be, be invested by the Corporation in any manner in which trustees are by law for the time being authorised to invest trust moneys.

As to re-borrowing under Local Loans Act.

47. The Corporation, for the purpose of paying off any moneys borrowed or raised by them by the issue of debentures, debenture stock, or annuity certificates, under and subject to the provisions of the Local Loans Act, 1875, may from time to time during the period prescribed by this Act for the repayment of the moneys so borrowed re-borrow such amounts as they may require by the issue of debentures, debenture stock, or annuity certificates, or partly in one way and partly in another, under and subject to the provisions of the Local Loans Act, 1875; provided that all moneys so re-borrowed shall be repaid within the period prescribed for the repayment of the moneys in lieu of which such re-borrowing has been made, and that the moneys originally borrowed, and any amounts from time to time re-borrowed under the foregoing provisions for the repayment of such moneys, shall for the purposes of sections fourteen and fifteen of the Local Loans Act, 1875, be deemed to form the same loan, and the obligations of the Corporation with respect to the sinking fund to be set aside in respect of such moneys (save as herein-after provided with respect to the appropriation and application of a fixed annual sum for the repayment of such moneys) shall not be in any way affected by reason of such re-borrowing. If the Corporation elect to pay off any moneys borrowed by them under this Act by the appropriation of an annual sum, as provided by section fourteen of the Local Loans Act, 1875, and any moneys in respect of which the annual sum is appropriated are paid off by means of moneys re-borrowed at a different rate of interest than that payable on the moneys paid off by means of such re-borrowing, the annual sum shall be reduced or, as the case may be, increased by the subtraction therefrom or addition thereto of a sum equivalent to the decrease or increase of the interest payable by the Corporation in consequence of such repayment and re-borrowing.

Saving for existing charges.

48. Nothing in this Act shall prejudicially affect any charge on the property of the Corporation, or the borough fund or borough rate, or the district fund or the general district rate, and any rates, duties, or tolls leviable by the Corporation, or any of them, by way of mortgage or otherwise, subsisting at the passing of this Act, and every mortgagee or incumbrancer or person for the time being entitled to the benefit of any such charge shall have the same priority of charge, and all the like rights and remedies in respect of the property, fund, rate, duties, or tolls subject to the charge, as if this Act had not been passed, and all such charges created before the passing of this Act shall during the subsistence thereof have priority over any mortgage, debenture, or debenture stock or annuity certificates granted under this Act. A.D. 1880.

49. The select trustees may from time to time lend to the Corporation, and the Corporation may, for any purpose for which they are authorised by law to borrow money, borrow any money in the hands of the select trustees, or in the hands of any persons as trustees for the select trustees, under the Eau Brink Acts, at such rate of interest, not exceeding four pounds per centum per annum, as the select trustees may think fit. Power to select trustees to lend money to Corporation.

PART VII.

TRUST ESTATES.

50. From and after the passing of this Act all the estate and interest of the trustees in the trust estates shall by the operation of this Act, and subject to all mortgages, charges, incumbrances, and liabilities affecting the said trust estates at such time, and to the provisions of this Act, be transferred to and vest in the Corporation, their successors and assigns. Transfer of trust estates to Corporation.

51. Nothing in this Act shall affect the security or rights of any person who may before the passing of this Act have advanced moneys to the Corporation on the security of mortgages of the trust estates or any of them to the trustees by the trust deeds, so long as such person has not been paid the principal and interest due in respect of such moneys, and the Corporation shall, until such person shall be paid all such principal and interest, apply the rents, funds, accounts, revenues, and moneys arising from the trust estates in such manner, and perform all such acts and exercise all such powers, as they would have done or been liable to do for the benefit and security of such person if this Act had not passed, and every such person shall, until he be paid all such principal and interest, have, possess, and enjoy, and may exercise for the enforcement of his rights to such principal and interest in case of default by the Corporation, all the rights, remedies, and powers (including the power of sale) which the trustees would for such purpose have had, possessed, enjoyed, or been capable of exercising if this Act had not been passed. Saving of rights of holders of mortgages of trust estates.

52. Nothing in this Act contained shall prejudicially affect any charge on the trust estates, by way of mortgage or otherwise, subsisting at the passing of this Act, and every mortgagee or incumbrancer or person for the time being entitled to the benefit of Saving for existing charges.

A.D. 1880. — any such charge shall have the same priority of charge, and all like rights and remedies in respect of property subject to the charge, as if this Act had not been passed, and all such charges created before the passing of this Act shall during the subsistence thereof have priority over any mortgage, charge, or encumbrance granted or created under this Act.

PART VIII.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Power to make agreements with justices of county for use of Town Hall.

53. The Corporation may from time to time enter into contracts and agreements with the justices of the peace of the county of Norfolk for the use of the Town Hall in the borough for all or any purposes connected with the administration of justice or otherwise relating to the public business of the county, upon such terms and conditions, and subject to such payments by way of rent or otherwise, as may be agreed upon between the Corporation and the said justices.

Repeal of certain enactments.

54. From and after the passing of this Act the enactments specified in the Fourth Schedule to this Act annexed shall be and the same are hereby repealed: Provided always, that such repeal shall not have any retro-active operation.

Saving rights of Crown under 29 & 30 Vict. c. 62.

55. Nothing contained in this Act or to be done under the authority thereof shall in any manner affect the title to any of the subjects, or any rights, powers, or authorities mentioned in or reserved by sections twenty, twenty-one, and twenty-two of the Crown Lands Act, 1866, and belonging to or exerciseable on behalf of Her Majesty, her heirs or successors.

Expenses of Act.

56. The costs, charges, and expenses preliminary to and of and incidental to the preparing of and applying for and the obtaining and passing of this Act, and not paid out of the waterworks fund as by this Act provided, shall be paid by the Corporation out of the borough fund or by means of the borough rate, or out of moneys to be borrowed for such purposes under the powers of this Act, and such costs shall include the costs incurred by the Corporation in or with the object of complying with the provisions of the Act of the session of Parliament held in the thirty-fifth and thirty-sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty (chapter ninety-one) with respect to the Bill for this Act.
