the Holy and Undivided Trinity in East Greenwich, founded by Henry Howard, Earl of Northampton, commonly called Trinity Hospital, Greenwich. [29th June 1880.]

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the thirteenth year of the reign of Her late Majesty Queen Elizabeth, and intituled "Fraudulent deeds made by spiritual persons to " defeat their successors of remedy for dilapidations shall be void, " &c.," it was enacted that from thenceforth all leases, gifts, grants, feoffments, conveyances, or estates to be made, had, done, or suffered by any master and fellows of any college, dean and chapter of any cathedral or collegiate church, master or guardian of any hospital, parson, vicar, or any other having any spiritual or ecclesiastical living, or any houses, lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments, being any parcel of the possessions of any such college, cathedral, church, chapter, hospital, parsonage, vicarage, or other spiritual promotion, or anyways appertaining or belonging to the same, or any of them, to any person or persons, bodies politic or corporate (other than for the term of twenty-one years or three lives from the time as any such lease or grant should be made or granted, whereupon the accustomed yearly rent or more should be reserved, and payable yearly, during the said term), should be utterly void and of none effect to all intents, constructions, and purposes:

And whereas by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the fourteenth year of Her said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for the 14 Eliz. c. 14.
assurance of gifts, grants, &c. made and to be made to and for the relief of the poor in the hospitals, &c.," it was enacted that these words (master or guardian) of any hospital, mentioned in the above-recited Act, were intended and meant of all hospitals, maison dieus, bead houses, and other houses ordained for the sustentation

18 Eliz. c. 11. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of Her said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for the explanation of the Statutes intituled against defeating or dilapidations and against leases to be made of spiritual possessions in some respects," it was enacted that all and every bond and covenant whatsoever thereafter to be made for renewing or making of any lease or leases customary to the true intent of the first herein-before recited Act should be utterly void:

16 & 17 Vict. c. 137. And whereas by the Charitable Trusts Act, 1853, it was enacted (section 21) that if in any case it should appear to the trustees or persons for the time being acting in the administration or management of any charity, or the estates or property thereof, that any part of the charity lands or estates might be beneficially let on building, repairing, improving, or other leases, or leases for working any mine, or that the digging for or raising of stone, clay, gravel, or other minerals, or the cutting of timber, would be for the benefit of the charity, or that it would be for the benefit of such charity that any new road or street should be formed or laid out, or any drains or sewers made through any part of the charity estates, or that any new building should be erected, or that any existing building should be repaired, altered, rebuilt, or wholly removed, or that any other improvements or alterations in the state or condition of the lands or estates of such charity should be made, it should be lawful for such trustees or persons to lay before the Board of Commissioners (the Charity Commissioners for England and Wales) in the said Act mentioned (herein-after referred to as "the Board") a statement and proposal in relation to any of the matters aforesaid, and that it should be lawful for the said Board, if they should think that the leases or acts to which the statement and proposal related (with or without modifications or alterations) would be beneficial to the charity, to make such order under their seal for and in relation to the granting of such leases or the doing of any other such acts as aforesaid, and any circumstances connected therewith, as they might think fit, although such leases or acts respectively should not be authorised or permitted by the trust; and by section 26 of the same Act it was enacted that the leases, sales, exchanges, and other transactions authorised by such Board under the powers of the same Act should have the like effect and validity as if they had been authorised or directed by the express terms of the trust affecting the charity:

18 & 19 Vict. c. 124. And whereas by the Charitable Trusts Amendment Act, 1855, (section 29,) it was enacted that it should not be lawful for the

to make or grant, otherwise than with the express authority of Parliament, under any Act then already passed or which might thereafter be passed, or of a court or judge of competent jurisdiction, or according to a scheme legally established, or with the approval of the Board, any sale, mortgage, or charge of the charity estate, or any lease thereof in reversion, after more than three years of any existing term, or for any term of life, or in consideration, wholly or in part, of any fine, or for any term of years not exceeding twenty-one years; and by section 38 of the same Act it was enacted that all leases, sales, exchanges, partitions, and transactions authorised by the Board under the Charitable Trusts Act, 1853, or under the Act now in statement, should be valid and effectual, notwithstanding, among other Acts there mentioned, the herein-before stated Acts of the thirteenth, fourteenth, and eighteenth years respectively of Her late Majesty Queen Elizabeth, or any disabling Act (applicable to the charity the estates whereof should be the subject of such transaction); and by section 39 of the same Act it was enacted that it should be lawful for the Board to prepare and under their seal to approve of any scheme for the letting of the property or any part of the property of any charity, and that all leases granted by any trustees or persons acting in the management of any charity pursuant to or in conformity with such scheme should be valid:

And whereas by letters patent of His late Majesty King James the First, dated the fifth day of June one thousand six hundred and fifteen, the Warden and Poor Men of the Hospital of the Holy and Undivided Trinity in East Greenwich, founded by Henry Howard, Earl of Northampton, were incorporated under that name as a charitable corporation or hospital for the support and relief of poor and indigent men, and were empowered to hold lands in mortmain as therein mentioned:

And whereas the Hospital is, or claims to be, seized of or entitled to divers lands and hereditaments in the several parishes of Greenwich, Lewisham, Lee, Bexley, Beckenham, and Mottingham, all in the county of Kent, specified in the third column of the schedule hereto, as part of the endowment of the Hospital:

And whereas the Hospital has from time to time by divers indentures and by certain articles of agreement, the dates whereof are specified in the first column of the said schedule (and which

And whereas the said several building leases were so granted or made or purported to be granted or made as aforesaid in consideration of the expenditure of divers large sums of money in building upon the said several parcels of land, and also of the yearly rents specified in the sixth column of the same schedule, which rents are respectively much less than the present rackrent annual value of the properties comprised in the aforesaid indentures respectively, but without the sanction of the Board :

And whereas notice of the application to Parliament for this Act has been served upon the several persons mentioned in the fifth column of the said schedule, and also upon the several other persons, associations, societies, and bodies corporate named in the seventh column of the said schedule, being all the persons, associations, societies, and bodies corporate known to claim any interest in the parcels of land specified in the third column of the said schedule and set against their names respectively :

And whereas it is apprehended that by reason of the aforesaid matters, or some of them, the said building leases may be invalid : A.D. 1880.
