

CHAPTER xviii.

An Act for rendering valid certain Letters Patent granted A.D. 1885.
to William Wallace Auld for Improvements in the Preparation and Combination of Animal Substances for Use as Food. [21st May 1885.]

WHEREAS by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain bearing date the eleventh day of December one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six being the fortieth year of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria and numbered four thousand seven hundred and eighty-two Her Majesty did give and grant unto William Wallace Auld of number thirty-three Lutton Place in the city of Edinburgh in the county of Midlothian (hereinafter referred to as "the Patentee") his executors administrators and assigns Her especial license full power sole privilege and authority that he the Patentee his executors administrators and assigns and every of them by himself or themselves or by his or their deputy or deputies servants or agents or such others as he the Patentee his executors administrators or assigns should at any time agree with and no others from time to time and at all times thereafter during the term of fourteen years from the date of the said Letters Patent should and might lawfully make use exercise and vend within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland the Channel Islands and Isle of Man an Invention therein mentioned for Improvements in the preparation and combination of animal substances for use as food a communication from abroad by John Lawson Johnston of the city of Sherbrooke in the province of Quebec in the dominion of Canada manufacturer and in which Letters Patent is contained a proviso making void the said Letters Patent if the Patentee his executors and administrators should not particularly describe and ascertain the nature of the said Invention and in what manner the same is to be performed by an instrument in writing under his or their or one of their hands and seals and cause the same to be filed in the Great Seal Patent Office within six calendar months next

A.D. 1885. and immediately after the date of the said recited Letters Patent and also if the Patentee his executors administrators or assigns should not pay the stamp duty of one hundred pounds and produce the said recited Letters Patent stamped with a proper stamp to that amount at the Office of the Commissioners of Patents for Inventions before the expiration of seven years from the date of the said Letters Patent which term expired on the eleventh day of December one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three :

And whereas a specification was duly filed by the Patentee in the Great Seal Patent Office within the time limited by the said Letters Patent whereby the Patentee did particularly describe and ascertain the nature of the said Invention and in what manner the same was to be performed :

And whereas the Patentee applied for and obtained the said Letters Patent as agent of and in trust for and on behalf of the said John Lawson Johnston who is the beneficial owner of the said Invention :

And whereas the Patentee inadvertently omitted to pay the said duty of one hundred pounds within the period aforesaid :

And whereas the said John Lawson Johnston the communicator and beneficial owner of the said Invention will be deprived of all advantage to accrue to him under the said Letters Patent unless the Parliamentary powers herein-after contained are graciously granted to the Patentee :

And whereas the present difficulty and threatened loss of the communicator arises from an inadvertence and accidentally and not from a wilful neglect or disobedience to the law and it is therefore expedient that the said Letters Patent should be rendered valid in manner herein-after mentioned but the purposes aforesaid cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament :

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows :

Power to Comptroller-General to give certificate of payment.

Letters
Patent confirmed.

1. Within one month after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for the Patentee his executors administrators and assigns to pay in respect of the said recited Letters Patent the said stamp duty of one hundred pounds and on such payment the Comptroller-General of Patents Designs and Trade Marks shall give a certificate that the renewal fee of one hundred pounds has been paid and that the rights of the Patentee remain in force and thereupon the said Letters Patent (a true copy of which is set forth in the schedule to this Act annexed) or a duplicate thereof certified by the said

Comptroller-General for the purposes of this Act shall be considered deemed and taken to be and to have been as good valid and effectual to all intents and purposes as if the said stamp duty of one hundred pounds had been paid and the said Letters Patent stamped with a proper duty to that amount and had been produced by the Patentee at the Office of the Commissioners of Patents for Inventions before the expiration of seven years from the date of the said Letters Patent as in the said Letters Patent provided. Provided always that no action shall be commenced or prosecuted nor any damage recovered for or in respect of any infringements of the said Letters Patent which shall have taken place after the expiration of the said seven years from the date of the said Letters Patent and before the payment of the said sum of one hundred pounds and the date of the certificate of the payment of such renewal fee of one hundred pounds in pursuance of this Act.
