A.D. 1888.

Period for compulsory purchase of lands.

Power to owners to grant easements.

Owners may be required to sell to Company parts only of certain properties.

30. The powers of this Act for the compulsory purchase of lands shall not be exercised after the expiration of three years from the passing of this Act.

31. Persons empowered by the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act 1845 to sell and convey or release lands may subject to the provisions of that Act and of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts Amendment Act 1860 and of this Act grant to the Company any easement right or privilege (not being an easement of water) required for the purposes or under the powers of this Act in over or affecting any such lands and the provisions of the said Acts with respect to lands and rentcharges as far as the same are applicable in this behalf shall extend and apply to such grants and to such easements rights and privileges as aforesaid respectively.

32. And whereas in the construction by the Company of the railways and works herein-before authorised or otherwise in the exercise by the Company of the foregoing powers of this Act it may happen that portions only of the lands buildings or manufactories shown on the deposited plans will be sufficient for the purposes of the same and that such portions may be severed from the remainder of the said properties without material detriment thereto :

Therefore notwithstanding section 92 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act 1845 the owners of and other persons interested in the lands buildings or manufactories described in the First Schedule to this Act and whereof portions only are required for the aforesaid purposes of this Act may if such portions can in the opinion of the jury arbitrators or other authority to whom the question of disputed compensation shall be submitted be severed from the remainder of such properties without material detriment thereto be required to sell and convey to the Company the portions only of the premises so required without the Company being obliged or compellable to purchase the whole or any greater portion thereof the Company paying for the portions required by them and making compensation for any damage sustained by the owners thereof and other parties interested therein by severance or otherwise :

Provided always that if in the opinion of the jury arbitrators or other authority as aforesaid any such portions cannot be severed from the remainder of such properties without material detriment thereto the Company may withdraw their notice to treat for the portion of the property required by them and thereupon they shall pay to the owners of and other persons interested in the property in respect of which they have given notice to treat all costs charges and expenses reasonably and properly incurred by them in consequence of such notice : A.D. 1888.

Provided also that as regards the property numbered on the deposited plans relating to the lands in the parishes of Clewer and New Windsor 7 in the said parish of Clewer the provisions of this section shall not apply in the event of the Company requiring to take more thereof than is situate within fourteen feet of the southern limit of deviation as shown on the said plan.

33. (1.) The Company shall not under the powers of this Act or under the powers of any other Act extended by this Act purchase or acquire in any city borough or other urban sanitary district or any parish or part of a parish not being within an urban sanitary district ten or more houses which after the passing of this Act have been or on the fifteenth day of December next before the passing of this Act or of the respective former Act by which such purchase or acquisition was originally authorised as the case may be were occupied either wholly or partially by persons belonging to the labouring class as tenants or lodgers unless and until—

Restrictions on displacing persons of the labouring class.

(a.) They shall have obtained the approval of the Local Government Board to a scheme for providing new dwellings for such number of persons as were residing in such houses on the respective fifteenth day of December aforesaid or for such number of persons as the Local Government Board shall after inquiry deem necessary having regard to the number of persons on or after that date residing in such houses and working within one mile therefrom and to the amount of vacant suitable accommodation in the immediate neighbourhood of such houses or to the place of employment of such persons and to all the circumstances of the case ; and

(b.) They shall have given security to the satisfaction of the Local Government Board for the carrying out of the scheme.

(2.) The approval of the Local Government Board to any scheme under this section may be given either absolutely or conditionally and after the Local Government Board have approved of any such scheme they may from time to time approve either absolutely or conditionally of any modifications in the scheme.

(3.) Every scheme under this section shall contain provisions prescribing the time within which it shall be carried out and shall require the new dwellings proposed to be provided under the scheme to be completed fit for occupation before the persons residing in the houses in respect of which the scheme is made are displaced :

A.D. 1888.

Provided that the Local Government Board may dispense with the last-mentioned requirement subject to such conditions if any as they may see fit.

(4.) Any conditions subject to which the Local Government Board may have approved of any scheme under this section or of any modifications of any scheme or subject to which they may have dispensed with the above-mentioned requirement shall be enforceable by a writ of mandamus to be obtained by the Local Government Board out of the Queen's Bench Division of the High Court of Justice.

(5.) If the Company acquire or appropriate any house or houses for the purposes of this Act in contravention of the foregoing provisions or displace or cause to be displaced the persons residing in any house or houses in contravention of the requirements of the scheme they shall be liable to a penalty of five hundred pounds in respect of every such house which penalty shall be recoverable by the Local Government Board by action in the High Court of Justice and shall be carried to and form part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom :

Provided that the Court may if it think fit reduce such penalty.

(6.) For the purpose of carrying out any such scheme under this section such scheme shall for all purposes be deemed to be an undertaking of the Company and the Company may appropriate any lands for the time being belonging to them or which they have power to acquire and may purchase such further lands as they may require and for the purpose of any such purchase sections 176 and 297 of the Public Health Act 1875 shall be incorporated with this Act and shall apply to the purchase of lands beyond the Metropolis by the Company for the purposes of any scheme under this section in the same manner in all respects as if the Company were a local authority within the meaning of the Public Health Act 1875 and the scheme were one of the purposes of that Act.

(7.) The Company may on any lands belonging to them or purchased or acquired under this section or any provisional order issued in pursuance of this section erect such dwellings for persons of the labouring class as may be necessary for the purpose of any scheme under this section and may sell demise or let or otherwise dispose of such dwellings and any lands purchased or acquired as aforesaid and may apply for the purposes of this section to which capital is properly applicable or any of such purposes any moneys which they may be authorised to raise or apply for the general purposes of their undertaking :

Provided that all lands on which any buildings have been erected or provided by the Company in pursuance of any scheme under this section shall for a period of twenty-five years from the passing of this Act be appropriated for the purpose of dwellings and every conveyance demise or lease of such lands and buildings shall be endorsed with notice of this enactment :

Provided also that the Local Government Board may at any time dispense with all or any of the requirements of this sub-section subject to such conditions if any as they may see fit.

(8.) So much of section 157. of the Public Health Act 1875 as provides that the provisions of that section and of sections 155 and 156 of the same Act shall not apply to buildings belonging to any railway company and used for the purposes of such railway under any Act of Parliament shall not apply to buildings erected or provided by the Company for the purpose of any scheme under this section.

(9.) The Local Government Board may direct any inquiries to be held by their inspectors which they may deem necessary in relation to any scheme under this section and for giving effect to any of the provisions of this section and the inspectors of the Local Government Board shall for the purposes of any such inquiry have all such powers as they have for the purposes of inquiries directed by the Local Government Board under the Public Health Act 1875.

(10.) The Company shall pay to the Local Government Board a sum to be fixed by that Board in respect of the preparation and issue of any provisional order in pursuance of this section and any expenses incurred by that Board in relation to any inquiries under this section including the expenses of any witnesses summoned by the inspector and a sum to be fixed by that Board not exceeding three guineas a day for the services of such inspector.

(11.) For the purposes of this section the expression "labouring class" includes mechanics artizans labourers and other working for wages hawkers costermongers persons not working for wages but working at some trade or handicraft without employing others except members of their own family and persons other than domestic servants whose income does not exceed an average of thirty shillings a week and the families of any such persons who may be residing with them.

34. And whereas the Company have from time to time purchased or acquired lands adjoining or near to their railway or a station belonging solely or jointly to the Company but which lands are not immediately required for the purposes of their undertaking and it is expedient that the Company should be relieved from the Therefore nothing in the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act 1845 or any Act relating to the Company with which that Act is incorporated with respect to the sale of superfluous lands shall until the expiration of ten years from the passing of this Act be held to apply to any lands and the appurtenances thereto acquired by the Company in the parishes or places enumerated in the First Part of the Second Schedule to this Act any part of which lands adjoins the Company's railway or any station belonging solely or jointly to the Company or is situate within one mile measured along the railway of any station belonging solely or jointly to the Company or which may be required for the purposes of any undertaking belonging solely or jointly to the Company. And the Company may during the same period of ten years from the passing of this Act continue to hold such lands and appurtenances although not immediately required for the purposes of their undertaking. But they shall at the expiration of such period of ten years sell and dispose of all such parts of such lands respectively as shall not then have been applied to or are not then required for the purposes of their undertaking as superfluous lands.

Provision with respect to superfluous lands of the Company and North Western Company.

35. And whereas the Company and the North Western Company have from time to time purchased or acquired lands with or without buildings thereon in connexion with or for the purposes of the Chester Joint Station and the Wrexham and Minera Extension Railway but which lands are not immediately required for the purposes thereof and it is expedient that the said companies should be relieved from the obligation under certain circumstances to sell the same as superfluous lands:

Therefore nothing in the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act 1845 or any Act relating to the Company or to the North Western Company or to the Birkenhead Railway and the Chester Joint Station with which that Act is incorporated with respect to the sale of superfluous lands shall until the expiration of ten years from the passing of this Act be held to apply to any lands with or without any building thereon and the appurtenances thereto acquired by the Company and by the North Western Company or either of them in the parishes enumerated in the Second Part of the Second Schedule to this Act any part of which adjoins such undertaking or may be required for the purposes of widening the said railway or making sidings or other works in connexion therewith or is situate within one mile of any station on the said railway. And the Company and the North Western Company or either of them may during the same period of ten years from the passing of this Act continue to hold such lands buildings and appurtenances although not immediately required for the purposes aforesaid But the said companies shall at the expiration of such period of ten years sell and dispose of all parts of such lands which shall not then have been applied to or are not then required for the purposes of the Birkenhead Railway or the Chester Joint Station as superfluous lands. A.D. 1888.

36. The Company and the North Western Company or either of them may hold and use and apply for and to any purposes connected with their joint undertakings certain lands at or near Onibury in the parish of Onibury in the county of Salop and certain other lands in the parish of Leominster in the county of Hereford purchased by them or one of them by agreement described in the Third Schedule to this Act and which are shown on the plans deposited in the Parliament Office of the House of Lords and the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons and entitled "Plans of lands referred to in the Third Schedule to the Great Western Railway Act 1888." Company and North Western Company may hold lands acquired by agreement.

37. The powers granted by the Great Western Railway (No. 2) Act 1882 as amended by the Great Western Railway Act 1885 for the compulsory purchase of lands so far as the same relate to or affect the Railway No. 2 by the first mentioned Act authorised are by this Act revived and extended and may be exercised during the period of two years from the twenty-fourth day of July 1887 and at the expiration of that period those powers shall cease and determine. Revival of powers and extension of time for purchase of lands for Railway No. 2 authorised by No. 2 Act of 1882.

38. The powers granted by the Great Western Railway (No. 2) Act 1882 as amended by the Great Western Railway Act 1885 for the construction of the Railway No. 2 by the first-mentioned Act authorised are hereby extended and may be exercised by the Company for the period of three years from the twenty-fourth day of July 1888 and section 10 of the first-mentioned Act shall be read and construed as if the period limited by this Act for the completion of the said railway had been the period limited by that Act for the completion thereof. Extension of time for construction of Railway No. 2 authorised by No. 2 Act of 1882.

39. The Company shall abandon the construction of the Railways Nos. 1 and 3 described in and authorised by the Great Western Railway (No. 2) Act 1882. Abandonment of Railways 1 and 3 authorised by No. 2 Act of 1882.

40. FOURTH SCHEDULE.

ARTICLES of AGREEMENT dated the tenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six between the Oldbury Railway Company (herein-after called "the Oldbury Company") of the one part and the Great Western Railway Company (herein-after called "the Great Western Company") of the other part:

WHEREAS the Oldbury Company by its then name of the Dudley and Oldbury Junction Railway Company was incorporated by the Dudley and Oldbury Junction Railway Act 1873 and was authorised by that Act as amended by the Dudley and Oldbury Junction Railway Act 1876 to construct a railway $3\frac{3}{4}$ miles or thereabouts in length commencing by a junction with the Birmingham Stourbridge and Worcester Branch of the Great Western Railway and terminating by a junction with the South Staffordshire Branch of the London and North-western Railway And whereas by an agreement made the 29th of June 1877 between the Dudley and Oldbury Junction Company of the one part and the Great Western Company of the other part the Dudley and Oldbury Company undertook to construct the railway above described and upon the completion thereof the Great Western Company undertook to work the same upon the terms therein mentioned and in particular the following articles:—

" Article 15. The gross receipts due to the Dudley Company shall consist of " the whole amount (including terminals at stations on the railway) of all tolls
" fares rates and charges for local traffic over the railway and of an equal
" mileage proportion of all tolls fares rates and charges for through traffic such " mileage proportion for distances over twenty miles not being less than the " maximum rates which the Dudley Company are authorised to charge as for " three miles (including all terminals proper as settled by the Railway Clearing
" House) (the terminals on coal and coke being taken at threepence per ton
" at each end and on iron ore at fourpence per ton) but not including paid-ons
" and moneys actually charged and paid for the collection cartage boatage and “ delivery of goods and other traffic to or from any terminus or station of the “ railway or of the Great Western Railway or any other railway lying beyond

 “ which last-mentioned amounts shall be in all cases deducted and retained
 “ before the apportionment according to mileage Provided always that as “ respects through traffic under twenty miles the Dudley Company shall in no “ case receive or be credited with a less proportion of the tolls fares rates and “ charges in respect of that traffic than three miles.”

“ Article 16. In all cases where there are sidings from the railway into “ collieries and other works such sidings shall as respects terminals for goods “ or minerals received or delivered thereat be taken and considered as if they “ were stations.”

“ Article 17. The total amounts of all such gross receipts respectively in “ respect of the railway and the traffic thereon receivable by the Great Western “ Company in each half-year such half-years ending respectively on the 30th of “ June and the 31st of December in each year shall after the deduction there-
 “ from of the Government duty on passengers if and so long as the railway is “ worked as a passenger railway be divided between and belong to the two “ Companies in the following proportions (that is to say):—

“ First. The Great Western Company shall retain 50 per cent. thereof “ which shall belong to them and shall cover all their expenses of and “ incident to the management maintenance repair working and user by “ them of the railway and their other expenditure and liabilities under this “ agreement.”

“ Secondly. The Dudley Company shall be entitled to and have the “ remaining 50 per cent. thereof herein-after called ‘the Dudley per “ centage.’”

And whereas by heads of agreement dated the 17th November 1880 and made between the Dudley and Oldbury Company of the first part the Directors of the Oldbury Company of the second part and the Great Western Company of the third part it was agreed that the Oldbury Company should apply to Parliament in the then ensuing session for a Bill to revive the powers for the purchase of land and for an extension of time for the construction of so much only of the authorised Dudley and Oldbury Railway as lay between the junction thereof with the railway of the Great Western Company and the site of an intended station and basin in the Parish of Halesowen No. 26 on the deposited plans and to reduce their capital from 100,000*l.* to a sum of 70,000*l.* of which the Great Western Company undertook to find 50,000*l.* After making provision for the discharge of the debts and liabilities of the Dudley and Oldbury Company the agreement provided (Article 11) as follows:—

“ The existing agreement between the Great Western Company and the “ Oldbury Company to be applicable so far as it can be made so to the “ railway herein-before referred to or if necessary a new agreement on “ similar terms as near as may be in every respect to be entered into “ between the Oldbury Company and the Great Western Company with “ reference thereto.”

And whereas by the Oldbury Railway Act 1881 the powers with respect to the compulsory purchase and taking of the lands requisite for the shortened line and for the construction of works were extended the name of the Company was changed to that of the Oldbury Railway Company and the Great Western Company were authorised to subscribe 50,000*l.* towards the undertaking and to appoint directors thereof.

A.D. 1888.

And whereas the said shortened line was duly constructed and was opened for public traffic on the 7th day of November 1884.

And whereas in consequence of the altered circumstances of the Oldbury Railway it has become necessary that a new agreement should be entered into between the Oldbury Company and the Great Western Company in lieu of the said agreement of the 29th of June 1877.

Now therefore these presents witness that it is hereby mutually agreed by and between the Oldbury Company for themselves and their assigns of the one part and the Great Western Company for themselves and their assigns of the other part as follows (that is to say) :—

Article 1. The expression "the railway" wherever herein-after employed means and includes the railway of the Oldbury Company as the same has been authorised and constructed and the sidings stations approaches junctions works and conveniences connected with the said railway including all works and conveniences for landowners and others which under Act of Parliament or contract the Oldbury Company are were or may be bound to make.

Article 2. The word "traffic" wherever herein-after employed means and includes all passengers small parcels mails animals goods minerals and merchandise or other traffic whatsoever (unless the context shows that any one or more of such kinds of traffic is not intended to be included) whether local or through conveyed or to be conveyed by the Great Western Company on the railway or any part thereof. The expression "local traffic" means traffic arising and terminating on and passing along the railway of the Oldbury Company only. The expression "through traffic" means traffic arising or terminating on the railway and passing to or from stations or places beyond the railway or passing over the railway.

Article 3. If and whenever any further or additional sidings or other works or conveniences are found requisite for the due development or the safe and convenient reception accommodation conveyance or delivery of traffic on the railway or for compliance with the requirements of any Acts of Parliament or the obligations of any contract binding on the Oldbury Company the same shall at the request of the Great Western Company subject to the proviso herein-after contained be provided by and at the expense of the Oldbury Company and they will provide and complete the same to the reasonable satisfaction of the engineer of the Great Western Company and the same when completed shall for the purposes of this agreement be deemed to be part of the railway. Provided always that if any difference shall arise between the Oldbury Company and the Great Western Company as to the expenditure on such further or additional sidings or other works or conveniences or as to the necessity for such further or additional sidings or other works or conveniences or should the Oldbury Company desire to make any such further or additional sidings or other works or conveniences and the Great Western Company object thereto the same shall be determined by arbitration in the manner herein-after provided.

Article 4. The Oldbury Company shall not be bound to make or incur for the purpose of this agreement any expenditure or liability exceeding the amount of the money applicable in that behalf which they are from time to time authorised to raise by shares and by borrowing respectively.

Article 5. The Oldbury Company will not at any time act as carriers on the railway or any part thereof and they will abstain from doing and concurring in everything which might directly or indirectly interrupt impede interfere with or in any way disturb the exercise or quiet enjoyment by the Great Western Company of any of the rights powers and privileges intended to be secured to them by this agreement. A.D. 1888.

Article 7. The Great Western Company may and will with engines and rolling stock use the railway and convey traffic thereon in a proper safe and convenient manner and so as fairly or properly to develop the traffic of the railway and to afford reasonably sufficient accommodation to the district to be served by the railway. Provided always that the Great Western Company shall not be required to run passenger trains over the railway or to use the same for passenger traffic but they may do so if they so elect.

Article 8. The Great Western Company will provide and employ all clerks porters engine drivers guards watchmen workmen and servants and all other officers for the Oldbury Company (except their secretary and his staff if any) and all necessary station masters and the Great Western Company will also provide all such locomotive power engines wagons and rolling stock of every description (except wagons for mineral traffic) plant stores or materials and labour as shall be proper and sufficient for the working and use of the railway and every portion thereof by the Great Western Company and for the reception accommodation conveyance and delivery by them of the traffic thereon and the Oldbury Company shall not be bound to employ or provide any such persons or things.

Article 9. The Great Western Company shall have exercise and enjoy at their own expense and risk and for their own benefit for the purposes of the management maintenance and repair working and use by them of the railway all the rights powers and privileges whatsoever in that behalf of the Oldbury Company and as fully and effectually as if the railway were a part of the Great Western Railway.

Article 10. The Great Western Company will in the exercise of their rights powers and privileges under this agreement in all respects except as herein otherwise provided duly perform and observe the several provisions and obligations with respect to the railway and the maintenance repair management working and user thereof and to the traffic thereon which under the Acts of Parliament from time to time in force with respect to the same or otherwise are binding on the Oldbury Company or on the Great Western Company and will at all times fully indemnify and save harmless the Oldbury Company from and against all obligations and liabilities in that behalf and all penalties for failure losses damages costs charges and expenses claims and demands whatsoever in any way occasioned or incurred by or by reason of any act or default of the Great Western Company or any of their directors officers or servants in relation thereto.

Article 11. The Great Western Company will bear and pay all tithes tithe-rentcharges rates taxes assessments and all salaries wages and other outgoings in respect of the railway or the use and working of the same and of the traffic thereon except property or income tax and except also the remuneration of the directors and auditors of the Oldbury Company and the salary of their secretary and his staff if any and their office expenses.

Article 12. The tolls fares rates and charges in respect of the railway and of the traffic thereon shall subject to the provisions of Article 6 of the agreement scheduled to the Dudley and Oldbury Junction Railway Act 1873 be fixed by the general manager for the time being of the Great Western Railway who shall have power to fix and quote such rates and fares as he may think proper and necessary and shall in other respects have and may exercise the same powers and authority in and over the railway and the traffic thereof as he shall for the time being have the power to exercise over the Great Western Railway.

Article 13. The gross receipts of the Oldbury Railway shall be arrived at by crediting the Oldbury Company with the following amounts inclusive of mileage and terminals without deduction of any kind:

Secondly.—The Oldbury Company shall be entitled to and have the remaining 50 per cent. thereof herein-after called “the Oldbury percentage.”

Article 15. The payment of the Oldbury percentage to be made to the Oldbury Company shall be made within forty days after the 30th day of June and the 31st day of December in each year.

Article 16. Each of the two Companies will keep all such accounts and vouchers as shall be proper and sufficient for the purposes of this agreement which accounts and vouchers shall be open at all reasonable times for the inspection and transcription of the directors and agents of the two Companies respectively and the two Companies respectively will afford to each other all proper and sufficient facilities for the inspection of such accounts and vouchers.

Article 17. Each of the two Companies will within thirty days after the 30th day of June and 31st day of December in every year transmit to the other Company an accurate abstract of such accounts as are from time to time necessary to be shown for any of the purposes of this agreement. A.D. 1888.

Article 18. If and whenever either of the two Companies within two calendar months after the transmission to them of any abstract of accounts requires the other Company to verify the same they will do so and the abstract of accounts shall if necessary be made correct and shall thenceforth be deemed a settled account or if they permit two calendar months to pass without requiring the verification of the abstract of accounts the same shall thereupon be deemed a settled account and no account once settled shall be reopened unless a manifest error exceeding 250% shall be discovered.

Article 19. Every notice request account or other writing to be given by either of the two Companies to the other of them for any of the purposes of this agreement shall be sufficient if it be signed by the secretary of the other Company or be left for them as regards the Oldbury Company at their principal office in Birmingham or such other place as they shall from time to time give notice in writing of to the Great Western Company or as regards the Great Western Company at their principal office at Paddington.

Article 20. In the event of a notice being given by or on behalf of any party or parties interested in the minerals or some of them under or near the railway of the Oldbury Company or under or near any part or parts thereof of their intention to work the same or any part thereof and if in the opinion of the engineers for the time being of the Great Western Company and of the Oldbury Company or either of them or in the event of difference between them such difference to be determined by arbitration as herein-after provided it shall be necessary or desirable for the safe economical or convenient working of the railway or any part thereof that the said minerals or some of them or some part thereof should remain unworked the Oldbury Company shall compensate the party or parties entitled to work the said minerals and shall arrange for the same or such of them as may be necessary for the purposes aforesaid remaining unworked and if the Oldbury Company fail to do so after receiving notice in writing from the Great Western Company requiring them to make such compensation and arrangements as aforesaid the Great Western Company may do so at the expense of the Oldbury Company and the Oldbury Company shall free and relieve the Great Western Company of all obligations or liabilities (if any) with respect to the minerals under or near to the railway or any part or parts thereof.

Article 21. The Great Western Company may if they desire to do so at any time or times after the date of this agreement admit the London and North-western Railway Company to a joint and equal participation with them in the working management maintenance and use of the railway under the terms of this agreement or upon such other terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between the said last-mentioned companies and the Oldbury Company shall so far as may be necessary consent thereto but the Great Western Company shall unless otherwise agreed remain liable to the Oldbury Company for the performance of this agreement after the London and North-western Railway Company have been admitted to a participation with them as aforesaid as fully as if the London and North-western Railway Company had not been admitted to such participation.

Article 22. This agreement shall be in perpetuity.

Article 23. If and whenever any difference arises between the Oldbury Company or their assigns and the Great Western Company or their assigns touching the true intent or construction of this agreement or anything to

A.D. 1888. be done suffered or omitted in pursuance of this agreement or any of the incidents or consequences of this agreement or touching the carrying into effect of any of the articles of this agreement or any breach or non-fulfilment or alleged breach or non-fulfilment of this agreement or touching any liability damages losses costs or expenses by reason of any such breach or non-fulfilment or alleged breach or alleged non-fulfilment or any claim or demand relating to any such liability damages losses costs or expenses or otherwise relating to the premises every such difference shall be referred to and determined by arbitration in accordance with the provisions of the Railway Companies Arbitration Act 1859 and every question or matter so referred shall be deemed to be in difference between the Great Western Company and the Oldbury Company and this article shall accordingly be and have effect as an agreement for arbitration between the two Companies under that Act.

FIFTH SCHEDULE.

ARTICLES OF AGREEMENT made the thirteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five between the Rhondda and Swansea Bay Railway Company (herein-after called the Rhondda Company) of the one part and the Great Western Railway Company (herein-after called the Great Western Company) of the other part.

WHEREAS by the Rhondda and Swansea Bay Railway Act 1882 the Rhondda Company was incorporated and authorised to make and maintain according to the deposited plans and sections with all proper stations works and conveniences the following railways (namely)—

- (1) " A railway (No. 1) 14 miles 2 furlongs and 8.65 chains or thereabouts in length commencing by a junction or junctions with the Rhondda Fawr branch of the Taff Vale Railway and terminating in the parish of Baglan at the sea wall and embankment forming the northern boundary of the piece of land numbered 635 in the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Baglan."
- (2) " A railway (No. 2) 2 furlongs and 5.10 chains or thereabouts in length wholly in the parish of Baglan commencing by a junction or junctions with the Railway No. 1 authorised by this Act and terminating by a junction or junctions with the South Wales line of the Great Western Railway Company."
- (3) " A railway on the deposited plans and sections called Railway (No. 5) 6 furlongs and 5.80 chains or thereabouts in length commencing by a

“ junction or junctions with Railway No. 1 by this Act authorised and terminating by a junction or junctions with the Cwmavon Railway.”

- (4) “ A railway on the deposited plans and sections called Railway (No. 6) 1 furlong 4 chains or thereabouts in length commencing by a junction or junctions with the Railway No. 5 by this Act authorised and terminating on the tramway leading from the Oakwood Tramway to Tewgoed.”

And whereas by the Rhondda and Swansea Bay Railway (Swansea Extension) Act 1883 the Rhondda Company were authorised to make and maintain according to the deposited plans and sections the following railways (namely)—

- (1) “ A railway (No. 1) 4 miles 2 furlongs 3 chains and 70 links or thereabouts in length commencing in the parish of Baglan by a junction or junctions with the Railway No. 1 authorised by the Act of 1882 and terminating in the hamlet of St. Thomas in the parish of Swansea by a junction or junctions with the Railway No. 1 authorised by the Swansea Harbour Act 1874.”

- (2) “ A railway (No. 2) 7 furlongs and 6 chains or thereabouts in length commencing in the parish of Baglan by a junction or junctions with the Railway No. 1 authorised by this Act (now being recited) and terminating in the parish of Briton Ferry by a junction or junctions with the Briton Ferry Dock Railways or sidings of the Great Western Railway Company.”

- (3) “ A railway (No. 3) 2 furlongs 4 chains and 50 links or thereabouts in length wholly in the parish of Baglan commencing by a junction or junctions with the South Wales line of the Great Western Railway Company and terminating by a junction or junctions with Railway No. 1 authorised by the Act of 1882.”

And whereas the Rhondda Company deposited in the present session of Parliament a Bill authorising them to make and maintain according to the deposited plans and sections the following new railways (that is to say) :

- (1) “ A railway (No. 1) 5 furlongs 9 chains or thereabouts in length commencing by a junction with the Railway No. 1 authorised by the Act of 1882 now in course of construction in the parish of Llangynwyd (otherwise Llangynoyd) and terminating in the parish of Michaelston-super-Avon by a junction with the South Wales Mineral Railway.”

- (2) “ A railway (No. 2) 2 miles 2 furlongs 9 chains and 70 links or thereabouts in length commencing by a junction with the Cwmavon Railway belonging or reputed to belong to the Company and terminating by a junction with the Railway No. 1 authorised by the Act of 1882 at the termination thereof.”

- (3) “ A railway (No. 3) 1 furlong 5 chains and 80 links or thereabouts in length commencing by a junction with the said Cwmavon Railway and terminating in the parish of Aberavon by a junction with the Railway No. 2 by this Act authorised on a piece of rough land forming part of the Aberavon Burrows.”

- (4) “ A railway (No. 4) 4 furlongs 8 chains and 80 links or thereabouts in length commencing in the parish of Baglan by a junction with the Railway No. 2 authorised by the Act of 1883 and terminating at a point on the west side of the road known as Shelone Road 3½ chains or thereabouts measured along the said road from the junction of the said road with Church Street Briton Ferry.”

A.D. 1888.

- (5) "A railway (No. 5) 7 furlongs 4 chains and 80 links or thereabouts in length commencing by a junction with the Railway No. 4 by this Act authorised at the termination thereof as above described and terminating at or near the point where the Railway or Tramway No. 3 authorised by the Neath Harbour Act of 1874 is upon the plans deposited for and referred to in the said Act of 1874 shown to terminate."
- (6.) "A railway (No. 6) 1 mile 7 furlongs 6 chains and 5 links or thereabouts in length commencing by a junction with the said Railway No. 4 by this Act authorised at the termination thereof as above described and terminating by a junction with the Railway No. 1 authorised by the Act of 1883."

but since the deposit of such Bill the Rhondda Company have withdrawn such railways from their Bill.

And whereas the Great Western Railway Company are the owners of a system of railways between among other places Port Talbot and Swansea and have obtained the sanction of Parliament in the present session to construct a railway described as Railway No. 4 in the Great Western Act of 1885 to cross the River Neath by which the communication by their railways between Port Talbot and Swansea will be materially shortened and improved.

And whereas it has been suggested that an arrangement should be entered into between the companies whereby the construction of the said lines of the Rhondda Company westward of the junction of Railway No. 5 authorised by the Rhondda Company's Act of 1882 with the Cwmavon Railway except so much of Railway No. 1 authorised by the Rhondda Company's Act of 1883 as is situate between the points denoting three miles four furlongs on the deposited plans for such railway and the termination of that railway by a junction with Railway No. 1 authorised by the Swansea Harbour Act 1874 which portion of excepted railway is herein-after referred to as the "Swansea section" shall be abandoned.

And whereas it has been agreed between the Companies parties hereto that these presents should be entered into.

Now therefore these presents witness that in pursuance of the said agreement and to the intent that the same may be carried into effect and in consideration of the premises and of the stipulations and provisions on the part of the Rhondda Company and of the Great Western Company respectively herein-after appearing each of the said Companies doth hereby agree with the other of them as follows (namely):—

1. The Rhondda Company may construct a junction between the Swansea section and the Swansea and Neath Railway of the Great Western Company at or near the point denoting three miles and four furlongs on the deposited plans of the Rhondda Company's Railway No. 1 authorised by their Act of 1883 and shall on land provided by them for that purpose provide at such junction and at the junction between the Rhondda Company's Cwmavon Railway and the Great Western Company's South Wales Railway at Port Talbot all such proper sufficient and convenient sidings signals and other works and conveniences as may be necessary for the due efficient and economical interchange of the traffic at those junctions respectively between the Companies under this agreement or the Rhondda Company may either in lieu of or in addition to the junction to be constructed under this article construct a junction and provide such sidings and other conveniences on land provided by them for that purpose near the junction between the said Swansea and Neath Railway and the railway of the Swansea Harbour Trustees near to the Jersey siding Provided always that until such siding and other accommodation as aforesaid has been provided by the Rhondda Company at one or other of such last-mentioned points so that traffic conveyed by the Great Western Company from Port Talbot may be at once deposited therein without causing any inconvenience to the traffic of the Great Western Company either on their own line or on the lines of the Swansea Harbour Trustees to which they have access the Great Western Company shall come under no obligation under this agreement as to the conveyance or interchange of traffic destined for shipment at the Prince of Wales Dock or for the Swansea section. A.D. 1888.

2. The junctions to be constructed as mentioned in Article 1 including any new or altered junctions at Port Talbot shall be deemed junctions authorised by the Rhondda Company's special Act to be made between the railway of the Rhondda Company and the railway of the Great Western Company within the meaning of the Railways Clauses Act 1863 and all the provisions with regard to junctions in that Act contained shall apply to the junctions in this article mentioned as if such junctions had been authorised by a special Act of the Rhondda Company.

3. All merchandise (including coal traffic) arising upon the Rhondda Valley Railway of the Taff Vale Company or any extensions or branches thereof in that district or upon any private line or siding communicating therewith in this agreement referred to as the Rhondda district or upon the Rhondda and Swansea Bay Railway and destined for the Swansea section or for shipment at the Prince of Wales Dock and vice versâ and the returned empty waggons shall be interchanged in full train loads between the Companies at the sidings to be constructed by the Rhondda Company at the junction between the systems of the two Companies at Port Talbot and at the sidings to be constructed by the Rhondda Company at the junction with the Swansea section mentioned in Article 1 or at the sidings to be constructed by the Rhondda Company at the junction at or near the Jersey siding on the Swansea Harbour Railway as provided by Article 1 if the Rhondda Company shall so require and the Great Western Company shall carry forward such traffic as expeditiously and shall in transmit afford to such traffic the same facilities as if it were their own proper traffic.

4. All other traffic conveyed or to be conveyed over the railway of the Rhondda Company including coaching traffic arising upon the Rhondda district or upon the Rhondda and Swansea Bay Railway exclusive of the Swansea section and destined for places upon the Great Western Railway or beyond and vice versâ shall be interchanged between the Companies at the junction at Port Talbot aforesaid and the two Companies shall carry such traffic and shall afford to each other in respect thereof all proper and reasonable facilities as if it were their own proper traffic.

5. For the conveyance by the Great Western Railway in full train loads of merchandise (including coal traffic) between Port Talbot and the junction with the Swansea section or if destined for shipment at the Prince of Wales Dock to sidings to be provided as mentioned in Article 1 including the return of the empty waggons the Rhondda Company shall pay and the Great Western Company shall accept a mileage proportion of the through rates charged for such

A.D. 1888. traffic such rates to be from time to time agreed between the Companies parties hereto having regard to the rates charged for the conveyance of such traffic to ports other than Swansea in the district or in case of difference settled by arbitration Provided always that any tolls or other payment to the Swansea Harbour Trustees in respect of traffic carried under this agreement over the portion of the Swansea Harbour Railway intermediate between its junction with the Swansea and Neath Railway and the junction near the Jersey siding described in Article 1 shall be defrayed by the Rhondda Company Provided also that for the purpose of ascertaining the mileage proportion to which the Great Western Company are entitled under this article the distance from the junction between the lines of the two Companies at Port Talbot to the junction with the Swansea section or such sidings as aforesaid at the Prince of Wales Dock shall be deemed to be nine and a half miles.

6. The terms and conditions upon which all traffic other than that mentioned in the last article shall be carried and the facilities herein provided for afforded and the payments to be made to the Great Western Company therefor shall be agreed upon between the two Companies or settled by arbitration.

7. The Rhondda Company having withdrawn from their Bill now pending in Parliament all powers to construct the railways mentioned therein will not directly or indirectly at any time or times hereafter promote or assist in the promotion of any such abandoned or withdrawn lines or any line having the like object except if they think fit a line in lieu of Railway No. 1 in the Bill as deposited in the present session of Parliament mentioned for the purpose of forming a junction with the South Wales Mineral Railway such line to be laid out in such a manner as not without the consent of the Great Western Company to affect any property or works of that Company and will in the ensuing session apply to Parliament for and use their best endeavours to obtain powers to abandon so much of their authorised railways as lie to the westward of the junction between Railway No. 5 authorised by the said recited Act of 1882 with the Cwmavon Railway except nevertheless the portion of their Railway No. 1 authorised by their Act of 1883 and herein-before referred to and this agreement shall be contingent upon such powers of abandonment being obtained.

8. In the event of the Rhondda Company desiring to construct a western junction between their Cwmavon Railway and the South Wales Railway of the Great Western Company at Port Talbot and the Great Western Company assenting thereto the Rhondda Company shall be at liberty to construct the said junction in accordance with plans and sections and subject to such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between the engineers of the respective Companies But failing agreement either as to the construction of the said junction line or as to the mode of carrying out the work or as to the terms and conditions subject to which it shall be carried out such difference shall be settled by arbitration Provided always that the provisions in Article 2 hereof contained as to the junctions in that article mentioned shall apply also to the junction in this article mentioned if the same shall be constructed.

9. This agreement shall be in perpetuity.

10. Except as herein specifically provided neither Company shall use the powers and facilities hereby granted hostilely against the other or so as to divert traffic from the system of the other.

A.D. 1888.

11. SIXTH SCHEDULE.

AN AGREEMENT made the First day of December 1887 between the Leominster and Bromyard Railway Company (herein-after called "the Leominster Company") of the first part Colonel Richard Prescott Decie of Bockleton Court in the county of Worcester James Rankin of Bryngwyn in the county of Hereford Esquire M.P. Thomas Bristow Stallard of Leominster in the said county of Hereford Esquire Major Edward Nicholas Heygate of Buckland in the said county of Hereford Major John Howarth Ashton of Hatfield Court in the said county of Hereford and Thomas Davies Burlton of Northeaton in the said county of Hereford Esquire the Directors of the Leominster Company (herein-after called "the Directors") of the second part and the Great Western Railway Company (herein-after called "the Great Western Company") of the third part.

WHEREAS the Leominster Company was incorporated by the Leominster and Bromyard Railway Act 1874 and was by that Act as amended by the Leominster and Bromyard Railway Act 1878 authorised to construct the railways therein respectively mentioned which may be sufficiently described for the purposes of these presents as a railway commencing by a junction with the Shrewsbury and Hereford Railway at Leominster and terminating by a junction with the Worcester and Bromyard Railway at Bromyard And whereas the Leominster Company having completed a portion of their railway from the junction thereof with the Shrewsbury and Hereford Railway near Leominster to Steens Bridge applied to the Great Western Company to temporarily work so much thereof as had been so completed which the Great Western Company agreed to do and are now doing upon the terms set forth in the agreement between the Companies parties hereto of the 15th August 1883 And whereas the Leominster Company have incurred to their contractors to landowners and others considerable liabilities but are unable to raise the necessary capital either to discharge those liabilities or to complete their line between Steens Bridge and Bromyard and the Directors have applied to the Great Western Company to assist them to discharge those liabilities and to complete the railway of the Leominster Company as between Steens Bridge and Bromyard :

And whereas the capital of the Leominster Company consists of 28,820*l.* represented by 2,882 shares of 10*l.* each all of which have been fully paid up but the Leominster Company has not issued any preference shares or stock or in any way exercised their borrowing powers And whereas the Great Western Company (subject to the sanction of Parliament) made it a condition of their rendering any assistance in the completion of the line that all liabilities hitherto incurred in connexion therewith should be discharged that the Directors should give their personal undertaking as herein-after contained to indemnify the Great Western Company against all liabilities except as herein-after mentioned and that arrangements should be made with all the landowners upon the line to the satisfaction of the Great Western Company both as to the price to be paid for the land and as to the accommodation works to be provided with regard to such lands :

And whereas by the Leominster and Bromyard Railway Act 1884 the time for the compulsory purchase of land for and for the completion of the railway and works of the Leominster Company was extended until the 7th day of August 1887 and the 7th day of August 1889 respectively :

And whereas it would be greatly to the interest of the public and especially to the district intended to be served thereby that the Leominster Railway as between Steens Bridge and Bromyard should be completed and opened for public traffic but unless by the assistance of the Great Western Company there is no prospect that this object will be attained :

Now therefore it is hereby covenanted declared and agreed by and between the parties hereto as follows (that is to say) :

1. This agreement and everything herein contained is subject to the following conditions :

1st. That arrangements are made to the satisfaction of the Great Western Company with the landowners upon the Leominster Company's line between Steens Bridge and Bromyard both as to the price to be paid for such land and as to the accommodation works to be provided in respect of such land.

2nd. To the sanction of Parliament being obtained to the acquisition by the Great Western Company not only of the undertaking of the Leominster Company but also of the undertaking of the Worcester and Bromyard Railway Company.

2. The Leominster Company shall not incur to landowners lessees or occupiers liability for any costs charges or expenses including surveyor's fees in or about any such arrangements with landowners as aforesaid or the negotiation for the same without the consent in writing of the Great Western Company first obtained.

3. The Leominster Company will sell and the Great Western Company will purchase the undertaking lands powers rights and privileges of the Leominster Company and such sale and purchase shall upon such parliamentary powers as aforesaid being obtained take effect as and from the 1st day of July 1888.

4. The consideration for the said sale and purchase shall be the payment as and from the 1st day of July 1888 or so soon thereafter as the sanction of Parliament shall be obtained as aforesaid of the sum of ten shillings per share in respect of every fully paid up share in the Leominster Company and the payment by the Great Western Company to the directors of the sum of nineteen thousand and fifty-nine pounds in cash within two calendar months from the date of such sanction being obtained.

5. A receipt under the hands of any three of the directors of the Leominster Company for any payment made to them by the Great Western Company shall be a good and sufficient discharge to that Company for the same and the Great Western Company shall not be bound to see to the application or be accountable for the non-application of any moneys so paid.

6. Upon the completion of the purchase the undertaking of the Leominster Company including therein all railways land buildings rights and privileges (except moneys securities for money or debts due or belonging to the Leominster Company on revenue account) with their appurtenances possessed held or acquired by the Leominster Company shall be vested in the Great Western Company free and discharged from all debts liabilities obligations and engage-

A.D. 1888. — ments of every description of the Leominster Company other than and except the debts liabilities obligations and engagements in respect of the lands required for the completion of the said railway from Steens Bridge to Bromyard and the purchase and purchase moneys thereof and including the costs charges and expenses herein-before mentioned in the 2nd Article which last-mentioned debts liabilities obligations and engagements the Great Western Company will discharge and pay.

7. Until such sale and purchase shall be completed under the provisions herein contained the existing agreements between the Companies parties hereto shall remain in force.

8. The Directors shall apply the said sum of nineteen thousand and fifty-nine pounds so to be paid to them by the Great Western Company in payment and satisfaction of all debts and liabilities of the Leominster Company except as aforesaid and the Directors do hereby jointly and severally undertake and agree with the Great Western Company to indemnify and hold them harmless after the completion of the said purchase against any claim or liability against or of the Leominster Company accrued prior to the first day of July 1888 except as aforesaid and also except any liability under the said working agreement of the 15th day of August 1883 and the Directors or any of them shall not incur any other or further personal liability under this agreement or any clause or agreement herein contained.

9. Notwithstanding such sale and purchase as aforesaid the Great Western Company shall not nor shall their undertaking be in any way subject or liable to any claims or demands whatsoever on the part of the creditors of the Leominster Company or of any other person or persons in respect of any debt or liability of the Leominster Company except as herein-before mentioned or to the holders of shares in the Leominster Company.

10. The Leominster Company shall not after the date of this agreement create or issue any new stock or shares or incur any new liability whatever without the consent in writing of the Great Western Company nor shall they do or consent to anything which may or shall injuriously affect the value of the undertaking to the Great Western Company.

11. The Leominster Company shall as and from the completion of the purchase be dissolved except for the purpose of discharging their liabilities and winding up their affairs and a provision shall be inserted in the Bill herein mentioned to this effect and authorising the vesting of the undertaking of the Leominster Company in the Great Western Company and (if necessary) for the winding up of the Leominster Company as if it were a company registered under the Companies Acts 1862 to 1878 inclusive.

12. Notwithstanding the vesting of the undertaking of the Leominster Company in the Great Western Company the secretary or other officers if any of the Leominster Company shall not be or become officers of the Great Western Company but the Leominster Company shall discharge all obligations which may be due to such officers or any of them.

13. The Leominster Company shall upon completion of the purchase hand over to the Great Western Company all conveyances deeds agreements land and property plans parliamentary plans and sections books of reference plans and documents of title relating to land purchased by or held in trust for or otherwise in any way affecting the undertaking of the Leominster Company together with their common seal and all books of account minute books registers transfer books and all other books or documents relating to the internal affairs of the Leominster Company and in the meantime and until the completion of such purchase the Great Western Company shall have access free of charge at all reasonable times to all such books plans registers and other documents and the Great Western Company will free of cost to the Leominster Company produce at all times all such of the said conveyances deeds agreements plans books and documents as shall be required by the Leominster Company for settling the claims of all persons having or making any claim against them or be otherwise required for the winding up of the same Company.

14. Application shall be made in the next session of Parliament and a Bill shall be promoted by the Great Western Company at their own expense in all respects for obtaining from Parliament the necessary powers for vesting the undertaking of the Leominster Company in the Great Western Company and for carrying out this agreement and each Company party hereto undertakes to use its best efforts to obtain the passing of such Bill and to supply such evidence and assistance as may be necessary for that end but the cost of such evidence as the Great Western Company may require shall be borne and paid by that Company In the event of such powers not being so obtained this agreement shall ipso facto determine.

15. Upon the vesting of the undertaking of the Leominster Company in the Great Western Company the Great Western Company undertake to complete the railway of the Leominster Company between Steens Bridge and the authorised junction of the Leominster Company with the existing railway of the Worcester and Bromyard Company at Bromyard with all reasonable despatch.

16. The Great Western Company will upon the completion of the said purchase and upon an assignment free of incumbrances of the bank annuities herein-after mentioned being duly executed to them pay to the persons in whose names the deposit of four thousand five hundred and five pounds twelve shillings and fivepence consolidated three pounds per cent. annuities was made pursuant to the standing orders of the Houses of Parliament as mentioned in the 10th section of the Leominster and Bromyard Railway Act 1884 the market value of such consols less costs of realization brokerage and obtaining payment out of court and will take an assignment from the persons interested in such deposit of the same deposit and all dividends thereon.

17. If and whenever any difference arises between the Leominster Company and the Great Western Company as to the true intent or construction of this agreement or as to anything to be done suffered or omitted in pursuance thereof or the carrying the same into effect or as to any breach or non-fulfilment of this agreement or any liability damages losses costs or expenses by reason of any such breach or non-fulfilment or alleged breach or alleged non-fulfilment or otherwise relating to the premises every such difference shall be referred to and determined by arbitration in accordance with the provisions of the Railway Companies Arbitration Act 1859 and every question or matter so referred shall be deemed to be in difference between the two Companies and this article shall accordingly be and have effect as an agreement for arbitration under that Act.
