

CHAPTER cxiv.

An Act for rendering valid certain Letters Patent granted to William Horsfall for a new or improved Construction of Furnace for burning 'Towns' or other Refuse. A.D. 1892.

[20th June 1892.]

WHEREAS by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain bearing date the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven being the fifty-first year of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria and numbered 8999 Her Majesty did give and grant unto William Horsfall of Camp Road Mills Leeds in the county of York engineer his executors administrators and assigns therein referred to as the said Patentee Her special license full power sole privilege and authority that he the said Patentee and every of them by himself and themselves or by their deputies servants or agents or such others as he the said Patentee should at any time agree with and no others from time to time and at all times thereafter during the term of fourteen years from the date of the said Letters Patent should and lawfully might make use and exercise and vend within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and Isle of Man an invention therein mentioned for "A new or improved construction of furnace for burning towns' or other refuse":

And whereas the said Letters Patent contain a proviso making void the said Letters Patent if the said William Horsfall should not pay all fees by law required to be paid in respect of the said Letters Patent or in respect of any matter relating thereto at the time or times and in manner for the time being by law provided:

And whereas by section twenty-four of the Patents Designs and Trade Marks Act 1883 the prescribed duty or renewal fees in respect of the said Letters Patent are payable by ten annual payments which vary in amount spread over a period of thirteen years from the date of the grant of the said Letters Patent:

A.D. 1892.

And whereas the renewal fees on the said Letters Patent became due on the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one :

And whereas the said William Horsfall prior to the same becoming due and payable paid or caused to be paid to Joseph William Harding a duly registered Patent Agent and the agent for the said William Horsfall in taking out the said Letters Patent and in paying the renewal fees in respect thereof for the purpose of being paid over to the Comptroller General of Patents Designs and Trade Marks (herein-after called "the Comptroller") the prescribed duty or renewal fee in respect of the said Letters Patent but the said Joseph William Harding feloniously and fraudulently omitted to pay the said prescribed duty or renewal fee to the Comptroller and the said Letters Patent were announced in the official journal published under the provisions of section forty of the Patents Designs and Trade Marks Act 1883 to become void on the said twenty-fourth day of June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one :

And whereas the said William Horsfall discovered the omission by the said Joseph William Harding to pay the said prescribed duty or renewal fee to the Comptroller on the thirtieth day of October one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one :

And whereas the time prescribed by section seventeen of the Patents Designs and Trade Marks Act 1883 during which the Comptroller is empowered to enlarge the time for such payments had expired on the twenty-fourth day of September one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one :

And whereas the said William Horsfall on becoming aware of the circumstances and of the nonpayment of the renewal fee by his agent gave the requisite instructions for an application to Parliament for power to pay the said prescribed duty or renewal fee and to renew the said Letters Patent :

And whereas much time has been devoted and considerable sums of money have been expended by the said William Horsfall in acquiring and developing his invention for which no adequate and sufficient return has hitherto been received :

And whereas the omission to pay the said prescribed duty or renewal fee or to apply to the Comptroller within the prescribed period for an enlargement of the time for paying the same arose from the felonious and fraudulent conduct of the said Joseph William Harding who having duly received the said prescribed duty or renewal fee from the said William Horsfall applied the same to his own use and absconded from the United Kingdom on or about the thirty-first day of October one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one :

And whereas the said prescribed duty or renewal fee has now been paid and the total amount of fees (including the prescribed fees for enlargement due and to become due upon the said Letters Patent) has been deposited with the Comptroller and the certificate of the Comptroller to that effect has been lodged in the Office of the Clerk of the Parliaments :

And whereas it is expedient that the said Letters Patent should be rendered valid in manner herein-after mentioned :

And whereas the purposes aforesaid cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament :

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows (that is to say) :—

1. Upon the passing of this Act the said Letters Patent (a true copy of which is set forth in the schedule to this Act annexed) or a duplicate thereof certified by the Comptroller for the purposes of this Act shall be considered deemed and taken to be, and to have been as good valid and effectual to all intents and purposes as if all the payments prescribed by the Patents Designs and Trade Marks Act 1883 to be made in respect of the said Letters Patent either before or after the passing of this Act had been duly made or satisfied.

The SCHEDULE referred to in the foregoing Act.

A.D. 1892.

1887 No. 8999.

VICTORIA by the grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Queen Defender of the Faith To all to whom these presents shall come Greeting :

WHEREAS William Horsfall of Camp Road Mills Leeds in the county of York engineer hath represented unto us that he is in possession of an invention for "A new or improved construction of furnace for burning towns' or other refuse" that he is the true and first inventor thereof and that the same is not in use by any other person to the best of his knowledge and belief :

And whereas the said inventor hath humbly prayed that we would be graciously pleased to grant unto him (herein-after together with his executors administrators and assigns or any of them referred to as the said Patentee) our Royal Letters Patent for the sole use and advantage of his said invention :

And whereas the said inventor hath by and in his complete specification particularly described the nature of his invention :

And whereas we being willing to encourage all inventions which may be for the public good are graciously pleased to condescend to his request :

Know ye therefore that we of our especial grace certain knowledge and mere motion do by these presents for us our heirs and successors give and grant unto the said Patentee our especial license full power sole privilege and authority that the said Patentee by himself his agents or licensees and no others may at all times hereafter during the term of years herein mentioned make use exercise and vend the said invention within our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and Isle of Man in such manner as to him or them may seem meet and that the said Patentee shall have and enjoy the whole profit and advantage from time to time accruing by reason of the said invention during the term of fourteen years from the date hereunder written of these presents And to the end that the said Patentee may have and enjoy the sole use and exercise and the full benefit of the said invention we do by these presents for us our heirs and successors strictly command all our subjects whatsoever within our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and the Isle of Man that they do not at any time during the continuance of the said term of fourteen years either directly or indirectly make use of or put in practice the said invention or any part of the same nor in anywise imitate the same nor make or cause to be made any addition thereto or subtraction therefrom whereby to pretend themselves the inventors thereof without the consent license or agreement of the said Patentee in writing under his hand and seal on pain of incurring such penalties as may be justly inflicted on such offenders for their contempt of this our Royal command and of being answerable to the Patentee according to law for his damages thereby occasioned :

Provided that these our Letters Patent are on this condition that if at any time during the said term it be made to appear to us our heirs or successors

A.D. 1892. or any six or more of our Privy Council that this our grant is contrary to law or prejudicial or inconvenient to our subjects in general or that the said invention is not a new invention as to the public use and exercise thereof within our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and Isle of Man or that the said Patentee is not the first and true inventor thereof within this realm as aforesaid these our Letters Patent shall forthwith determine and be void to all intents and purposes notwithstanding anything herein-before contained. Provided also that if the said Patentee shall not pay all fees by law required to be paid in respect of the grant of these Letters Patent or in respect of any matter relating thereto at the time or times and in manner for the time being by law provided and also if the said Patentee shall not supply or cause to be supplied for our service all such articles of the said invention as may be required by the officers or commissioners administering any department of our service in such manner at such times and at and upon such reasonable prices and terms as shall be settled in manner for the time being by law provided then and in any of the said cases these our Letters Patent and all privileges and advantages whatever hereby granted shall determine and become void notwithstanding anything herein-before contained. Provided also that nothing herein contained shall prevent the granting of licenses in such manner and for such considerations as they may by law be granted. And lastly we do by these presents for us our heirs and successors grant unto the said Patentee that these our Letters Patent shall be construed in the most beneficial sense for the advantage of the said Patentee.

In witness whereof we have caused these our letters to be made patent this twenty-fourth day of June one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven and to be sealed as of the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.
