SALMON FISHERY ACT, 1873 (36 & 37 VICT. c. 71. s. 49),

Provisional Order to empower the Board of Conservators of the Fishery District of the River Tees to put in force the provisions of the "Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts" relating to purchase otherwise than by agreement in respect of Dinsdale Dam.

Whereas the Board of Conservators of the Fishery District of the River Tees presented a petition to the Board of Trade alleging that a certain weir or dam or fishing mill dam situate in the River Tees and known by the name of Dinsdale Dam was prejudicial to the salmon fisheries of their district, and that, in consequence of the said weir or dam or fishing mill dam being so prejudicial as aforesaid, the said Board of Conservators were desirous of purchasing the same from the owners thereof, in order that the same might be removed in whole or in part, but that the said owners were unable or unwilling to treat, or the said Board of Conservators could not agree to the terms of purchase thereof, and praying that the said Board of Conservators might, with reference to the said Dinsdale Dam and the premises used in connexion therewith, be allowed to put in force the powers of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts with respect to the purchase and taking of lands otherwise than by agreement:

And whereas the said Dinsdale Dam is not a weir constructed under any Act of Parliament for the purpose of improving the navigation of any river or of supplying any town with water:

And whereas, on due proof of notice having been given to the owners and occupiers of the said Dinsdale Dam and premises used in connexion therewith and herein-after specifically described, the Board of Trade, after being satisfied that the said Board of Conservators are provided with funds for the purchase thereof, directed an inspector under the Salmon and Freshwater Fisheries Acts, 1861 to 1886, to hold an inquiry, in the district in which the said Dinsdale Dam is situate, into the propriety of the Board of Trade assenting to the prayer of such petition:

And whereas such inquiry is completed, and the inspector has in his report on the said inquiry recommended that the prayer of the said petition should be assented to:

[Ch. cxc.] Salmon Fishery Act, 1873, Provisional [56 & 57 VICT.]
