

CHAPTER cxxii.

An Act to enlarge the powers of the Taff Vale Railway Company for the construction of Works and the acquisition of Lands to enable them to establish Savings Banks and for other purposes.

A.D. 1895.

[6th July 1895.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Taff Vale Railway Company (in this Act called "the Company") should be empowered to execute the works and to acquire and hold the lands and to exercise the powers in this Act mentioned or referred to:

And whereas plans and sections showing the lines and levels of the works authorised by this Act and plans showing the lands required or which may be taken for the purposes or under the powers of this Act and also a book of reference containing the names of the owners and lessees or reputed owners and lessees and of the occupiers of those lands were duly deposited with the clerk of the peace for the county of Glamorgan and are herein-after respectively referred to as the deposited plans sections and book of reference:

And whereas it is expedient that the powers granted by the Taff Vale Railway Act 1890 (in this Act called "the Act of 1890") for the purchase of lands for the purposes of the Railway No. 1 by that Act authorised should be revived and enlarged and that the period limited by the said Act for the completion of the said railway should be extended:

And whereas it is expedient that the period limited by the Taff Vale Railway Act 1892 (in this Act called "the Act of 1892") for the compulsory purchase of lands should as regards the lands in this Act mentioned be extended:

And whereas it would be for the benefit of the officers servants and other persons in the employment of the Company and the families of those persons if the Company were empowered to establish savings banks and to make and enforce byelaws rules and regulations for and with reference to the conduct and management thereof as in this Act provided:

A.D. 1895.

And whereas it is expedient that the Company should be empowered to apply their capital to the purposes of this Act:

And whereas the objects of this Act cannot be attained without the authority of Parliament:

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows (that is to say):—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the Taff Vale Railway Act 1895.

Incorporation of general Acts.

2. The following Acts and part of an Act are (except where expressly varied by this Act) incorporated with and form part of this Act (that is to say):—

The Lands Clauses Acts; and

Part II. (relating to extension of time) of the Railways Clauses Act 1863.

Interpretation.

3. In this Act the several words and expressions to which meanings are assigned by the Acts wholly or partially incorporated herewith have the same respective meanings unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction:

The expression "superior courts" or "court of competent jurisdiction" or any other like expression in this Act or any Act wholly or partially incorporated herewith shall for the purposes of this Act be read and have effect as if the debt or demand with respect to which the expression is used were a simple contract debt and not a debt or demand created by statute.

Power to make embankment or sea wall.

4. Subject to the provisions of this Act the Company may in the lines and according to the levels shown on the deposited plans and sections relating thereto make and maintain for the purpose of reclaiming a portion of the foreshore at or near the Penarth Dock entrance the embankment or sea wall herein-after described and may enter upon take and use such of the lands delineated on the said plans and described in the deposited book of reference relating thereto as may be required for that purpose (that is to say):—

An embankment or sea wall in the parish of Penarth in the county of Glamorgan commencing at the eastern end of the existing wall on the south side of the sea-entrance to the Penarth Basin and terminating at a point ninety yards or thereabouts in a south-easterly direction from the Penarth Lifeboat House.

5. The Company shall and they are hereby required to make and at all times maintain the seaward face of the embankment or sea wall to be constructed under the authority of this Act of stone pitching or in such other manner as will effectually prevent earth rubbish ballast or other materials deposited landwards of the seaward face being carried by the wash of the sea into the entrance channel leading to the Bute Docks and the Company shall execute such temporary works or take such other efficient means as may be necessary (if any) for preventing any such earth rubbish ballast or other materials from falling or being carried by the wash of the sea into the said channel during the construction of the said embankment or sea wall and the Company shall also during such construction remove any such earth rubbish ballast or other materials which by reason of the construction of the said embankment or sea wall shall fall or be carried by the wash of the sea into the said entrance channel.

A.D. 1895.

Company to pitch sea face of embankment with stone.

6.—(1.) The Company shall simultaneously with the construction of the embankment or sea wall by this Act authorised at their own expense well and effectually dredge or deepen the area outside the said embankment or sea wall coloured pink on the plan signed in triplicate by James Stuart Chairman of the Committee of the House of Commons to whom the Bill for this Act was in its passage through Parliament referred one copy of which has been deposited in the Private Bill Office of that House to a depth not less than the depth for the time being of the entrance channel leading to the Penarth Docks and shall from time to time keep the said area effectually dredged to the depth aforesaid :

Further provisions as to dredging.

(2.) The Company shall in the execution of any of the operations aforesaid take such efficient means as may be necessary for preventing any rock excavations or other substances from being carried into or deposited in the entrance channel leading to the Bute Docks and the Company shall also remove any such rock excavations or other substances which by reason of any of the operations aforesaid may have been carried into or deposited in the said entrance channel :

(3.) If the Company shall unreasonably delay to dredge or deepen the said area or shall after being called upon by the Board of Trade on the application of any person interested in the deepening or maintenance of the said channel so to do fail to dredge or deepen the said area or to keep the said area from time to time dredged and deepened to the depth aforesaid to the satisfaction of the Board of Trade the Board of Trade may call upon the Company within a period to be prescribed by them to execute such works as they may think fit and the Company shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds for every day on which the Company shall be in default after the expiration of such period such penalty to be recoverable in a summary manner.

Power to deviate.

7. The Company may in constructing the embankment or sea wall by this Act authorised deviate from the line thereof to the extent of the limits of deviation marked on the deposited plans and may deviate from the levels thereof as shown on the deposited sections to any extent not exceeding three feet:

Provided that no deviation either lateral or vertical below high-water mark shall be made without the consent in writing of the Board of Trade.

Works below high-water mark not to be commenced without consent of Board of Trade.

8. The Company shall not under the powers of this Act construct on the shore of the sea or of any creek bay arm of the sea or navigable river communicating therewith where and so far up the same as the tide flows and reflows any work without the previous consent of the Board of Trade to be signified in writing under the hand of one of the secretaries or assistant secretaries of the Board of Trade and then only according to such plan and under such restrictions and regulations as the Board of Trade may approve of such approval being signified as last aforesaid and where any such work may have been constructed the Company shall not at any time alter or extend the same without obtaining previously to making any such alteration or extension the like consents or approvals. If any such work be commenced or completed contrary to the provisions of this Act the Board of Trade may abate and remove the same and restore the site thereof to its former condition at the costs and charges of the Company and the amount of such costs and charges shall be a debt due from the Company to the Crown and shall be recoverable accordingly with costs.

Power to acquire lands for general purposes.

9. Subject to the provisions of this Act the Company in addition to the other lands which they are by this Act authorised to acquire may from time to time enter upon take use and appropriate to the purposes of extending their stations sidings warehouses engine sheds workshops coal wharves depôts and other works and conveniences for the accommodation of their traffic and for other purposes connected with their undertaking all or any of the lands herein-after described delineated on the deposited plans thereof and described in the deposited book of reference relating thereto (that is to say):—

In the parish of Llanwonno in the county of Glamorgan—

(A) Certain lands on the eastern side of and adjoining the Company's main line of railway and extending for a distance of seventy-five yards or thereabouts measured in a northerly direction from the easternmost corner of the bridge carrying the road over the said main line at Gelliwasted:

(B) Certain lands on the northern side of and adjoining the Company's Rhondda Fawr Branch lying between the bridge carrying the said branch over the road near Gyfeillon lower signal cabin and a point about five hundred and seventy yards measured along the said branch towards Pontypridd. A.D. 1895.

10. If the Company at any time hereafter lay an additional line of rails across or over the road in the parish of Llanwonno leading from and being a continuation of Distillery Road to the Panty-graigwen Road adjoining the existing lines of the Rhondda Fawr Branch of the Company over the said road they shall lay such additional line so as to provide a clear headway above the said road at least equal to the headway under the existing lines and if the Company at any time hereafter lay any further lines of rails over the said road they shall lay the same so as to provide a clear headway above the said road at least equal to the headway under the nearest existing siding and so as to allow a space for daylight to the said road as it passes under such further lines of not less than four feet between such further lines and the nearest existing line.

For the protection of the Urban District Council of Pontypridd

11. Persons empowered by the Lands Clauses Acts to sell and convey or release lands may if they think fit subject to the provisions of those Acts and of this Act grant to the Company any easement right or privilege (not being an easement right or privilege of water in which others than parties to the agreement have an interest) required for the purposes of this Act in over or affecting any such lands and the provisions of the said Acts with respect to lands and rentcharges so far as the same are applicable in this behalf shall extend and apply to such grants and to such easements rights and privileges as aforesaid respectively.

Power to owners to grant easements.

12. And whereas in the construction of the works by this Act authorised or otherwise in the exercise by the Company of the powers of this Act it may happen that portions only of certain lands buildings or manufactories shown on the deposited plans will be sufficient for the purposes of the Company and that such portions may be severed from the remainder of the said properties without material detriment thereto Therefore the owners of and persons interested in the lands buildings or manufactories described in the schedule to this Act and whereof parts only are required for the purposes of the Company may if such portions can in the opinion of the jury arbitrators or other authority to whom the question of disputed compensation shall be submitted be severed from the remainder of the said properties without material detriment thereto be required to sell and convey to the Company the portions only of the properties so required without the Company being obliged or compellable to purchase the whole or any greater portion thereof the Company paying for the portions required by them and making compensation for any damage sustained by the owners thereof and other persons interested therein by severance or otherwise:

If for twenty-one days after the service of notice to sell and convey any portion or portions of the said property any owner or other person shall fail to notify to the Company that he alleges that such portion or portions cannot be severed from the remainder of the property without causing the material detriment mentioned then the Company may proceed to take such portion or portions only but if within such twenty-one days he shall, by notice to the Company allege that such portion or portions cannot be severed from the remainder without causing such material detriment as aforesaid then the tribunal to whom the question of disputed compensation shall be submitted shall determine the matter of the said allegation in addition to the other questions required to be determined by them. Provided always that if in the opinion of the said tribunal any such portions cannot be severed from the remainder of such property without such material detriment the Company may withdraw their notices to treat for the portion or portions of the property required by them and thereupon they shall pay to the owners of and other persons interested in the property in respect of which they have given notice to treat all costs charges and expenses reasonably and properly incurred by them in consequence of such notice. Provided also that if in the opinion of such tribunal any such portions can notwithstanding the allegation of such owner or other person be severed from the remainder without such material detriment then such tribunal may in its absolute discretion determine and order that the costs charges and expenses incurred by such owner or person incident to the arbitration or inquiry shall be borne and paid by such owner or person. The provisions of this section shall be in force notwithstanding anything in the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845 contained. The provisions of this section shall be stated in every notice given thereunder by the Company to sell and convey any premises.

Period for compulsory purchase of lands.

13. The powers of the Company for the compulsory purchase of lands for the purposes of this Act shall cease after the expiration of three years from the passing of this Act.

Revival of powers for purchase of lands under Act of 1890.

14. The powers conferred upon the Company by the Act of 1890 for the compulsory purchase of lands for the purposes of the Railway No. 1 by that Act authorised are hereby revived and may be exercised by the Company during but not after a period of two years from the passing of this Act.

15. The time limited by the Act of 1890 for the construction and completion of the Railway No. 1 by that Act authorised is hereby extended for a period of three years from the twenty-fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five and sections 18 and 19 of that Act shall be read and construed accordingly except that no part of any penalty to be incurred in respect of the said railway under those sections shall be forfeited to Her Majesty but all sums of money to be recovered by way of penalty under the said sections shall (subject to the application thereof in payment of compensation or for the benefit of creditors as provided by the said section 19) be repaid to the Company :

A.D. 1895.
Extension of time for construction of Railway No. 1 authorised by Act of 1890.

If the said railway be not completed within the said period of three years then on the expiration of that period the powers by the said Act granted to the Company for making and completing the same or otherwise in relation thereto shall cease except as to so much thereof as shall be then completed.

16. The powers conferred upon the Company by the Act of 1892 for the compulsory purchase of the lands in the parish of Llantwit-fardre described in or required for the purposes of the works authorised by section 4 of that Act and of the lands in the parishes of Whitchurch Llanwonno Aberdare and Ystradyfodwg described in section 5 of the said Act (other than the lands in the parish of Llanwonno secondly described in the said section) are hereby extended and may be exercised by the Company for a period of two years from the twentieth day of June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five :

Extension of time for purchase of lands under Act of 1892.

Provided always that nothing in this section contained shall prejudice or affect the rights of any of the parties to the agreement dated the twenty-sixth day of March one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two set forth in the second schedule to the Act of 1892 and confirmed by section 12 of that Act.

17. (1.) The Company shall not under the powers of this Act or under the powers of any former Act revived or extended by this Act purchase or acquire in any city borough or urban district or in any parish or part of a parish not being within an urban district ten or more houses which after the passing of this Act have been or on the fifteenth day of December next before the passing of this Act or of the respective former Act by which such purchase or acquisition was originally authorised as the case may be were occupied either wholly or partially by persons belonging to the labouring class as tenants or lodgers unless and until the Company—

Restrictions on displacing persons of labouring class.

(A) Shall have obtained the approval of the Local Government Board to a scheme for providing new dwellings for such number of persons as were residing in such houses on the respective fifteenth day of December aforesaid or for such number of persons as the Local Government Board shall after inquiry deem necessary having regard to the number of persons on or after that date residing in such houses and working within one mile therefrom and to the amount of vacant suitable accommodation in the immediate neighbourhood of such houses or to the place of employment of such persons and to all the circumstances of the case; and

(B) Shall have given security to the satisfaction of the Local Government Board for the carrying out of the scheme.

(2.) The approval of the Local Government Board to any scheme under this section may be given either absolutely or conditionally and after the Local Government Board have approved of any such scheme they may from time to time approve either absolutely or conditionally of any modifications in the scheme.

(3.) Every scheme under this section shall contain provisions prescribing the time within which it shall be carried out and shall require the new dwellings proposed to be provided under the scheme to be completed fit for occupation before the persons residing in the houses in respect of which the scheme is made are displaced:

Provided that the Local Government Board may dispense with the last-mentioned requirement subject to such conditions (if any) as they may see fit.

(4.) Any provisions of any scheme under this section or any conditions subject to which the Local Government Board may have approved of any scheme or of any modifications of any scheme or subject to which they may have dispensed with the above-mentioned requirement shall be enforceable by a writ of Mandamus to be obtained by the Local Government Board out of the High Court.

(5.) If the Company acquire or appropriate any house or houses for the purposes of this Act in contravention of the foregoing provisions or displace or cause to be displaced the persons residing in any house or houses in contravention of the requirements of the scheme they shall be liable to a penalty of five hundred pounds in respect of every such house which penalty shall be recoverable by the Local Government Board by action in the High Court and shall be carried to and form part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom:

Provided that the Court may if it think fit reduce such penalty.

(6.) For the purpose of carrying out any scheme under this section the Company may appropriate any lands for the time being belonging to them or which they have power to acquire and may purchase such further lands as they may require and for the purpose of any such purchase sections 176 and 297 of the Public Health Act 1875 shall be incorporated with this Act and shall apply to the purchase of lands by the Company for the purposes of any scheme under this section in the same manner in all respects as if the Company were a local authority within the meaning of the Public Health Act 1875 and the scheme were one of the purposes of that Act.

(7.) The Company may on any lands belonging to them or purchased or acquired under this section or any provisional order issued in pursuance of this section erect such dwellings for persons of the labouring class as may be necessary for the purpose of any scheme under this section and may sell demise or let or otherwise dispose of such dwellings and any lands purchased or acquired as aforesaid and may apply for the purposes of this section to which capital is properly applicable or any of such purposes any moneys which they may be authorised to raise or apply for the general purposes of their undertaking:

Provided that all lands on which any buildings have been erected or provided by the Company in pursuance of any scheme under this section shall for a period of twenty-five years from the date of such scheme be appropriated for the purpose of such dwellings and every conveyance demise or lease of such lands and buildings shall be endorsed with notice of this enactment:

Provided also that the Local Government Board may at any time dispense with all or any of the requirements of this sub-section subject to such conditions (if any) as they may see fit.

(8.) So much of section 157 of the Public Health Act 1875 as provides that the provisions of that section and of sections 155 and 156 of the same Act shall not apply to buildings belonging to any railway company and used for the purposes of such railway under any Act of Parliament shall not apply to buildings erected or provided by the Company for the purpose of any scheme under this section.

(9.) The Local Government Board may direct any inquiries to be held by their inspectors which they may deem necessary in relation to any scheme under this section and for giving effect to any of the provisions of this section and the inspectors of the Local Government Board shall for the purposes of any such inquiry have all such powers as they have for the purposes of inquiries directed by that Board under the Public Health Act 1875.

(10.) The Company shall pay to the Local Government Board a sum to be fixed by that Board in respect of the preparation and
