Power to levy
full rates.
10 & 11 Vict.
c. 27.

33. When in addition to the certificate to be granted under the twenty-sixth section of the Harbours Docks and Piers Clauses Act 1847 a certificate has been obtained from the Board of Trade that all consents and approvals on the part of the Board of Trade required under this Order or otherwise necessary to the due construction of the harbour and works have been given the Trustees may subject and according to the provisions of this Order demand receive and recover for the use of the harbour and works and in respect of the persons vessels goods matters and things in the schedule to this Order specified any sums not exceeding the rates in that schedule mentioned.

Existing rates to cease.

34. On and after the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven all rates and other payments which at the time of the passing of the Act confirming this Order can be levied in respect of the existing harbour and works shall cease to be levied and shall not be demanded or received but without prejudice to the right of the town council to recover and receive any money actually due before that day and all exemptions from rates or other payments shall on and after that day cease to be operative.

Rates may be levied although works not completed.

35. When and so soon as it shall be at any time certified in writing under the hand of an officer to be appointed for the purpose by the Board of Trade and paid by the Trustees that the additional works authorised by this Order or any of them have been so far completed as to afford increased accommodation thereat the Trustees may notwithstanding the twenty-fifth section of the Harbours Docks and Piers Clauses Act 1847 and although the whole of the works authorised by this Order have not then been completed demand recover and receive in respect of such works or any of them such of the rates or such proportion of all or any of the rates specified in the Schedule to this Order as shall in the opinion of the Board of Trade be commensurate with the increased accommodation afforded thereat.

38. The Trustees may confer vary or extinguish exemptions from and compound with any person or persons with respect to the payment of rates authorised by this Order but so that no preference be in any case given to any person and that anything done under this section shall not prejudice the other provisions of this Order.

Power to vary exemptions and compound.

39. The Trustees shall revise the rates received by them under this Order so that their income under this Order may always be so far as practicable sufficient and not more than sufficient for the purposes of this Order and if at any time the clear annual income derived from the harbour and works on the average of the then three last preceding years after payment of all expenses and outgoings exceeds the amount sufficient to answer the purposes of this Order the Board of Trade may if in their discretion they think fit reduce the rates leviable under this Order to such extent as will be sufficient to provide the amount aforesaid and the rates shall thereupon be reduced accordingly but with power to the Board of Trade at any time to raise them again to sums not exceeding those authorised by this Order.

Rates to be revised.

40. Within twelve hours after the arrival within the harbour of any vessel liable to rates the master of the vessel shall report the arrival to the collector of rates and if he fails to make such report within the time aforesaid and after he has been required to do so by the collector he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

Master of vessel to report arrival.

41. The master of every vessel shall on his arrival in the harbour and before unloading any part of his cargo and immediately after being loaded give in to the collector of rates or to such person as the Trustees may appoint an exact and full account of his cargo by producing his bills of lading or his manifest or intake account or a true copy thereof and such other documents as the collector

Finance.

Power to borrow.

48. The Trustees may borrow and re-borrow on mortgage or otherwise such money as may be required for the purposes of this Order and the harbour undertaking of the Trustees not exceeding in the whole the sum of three thousand pounds on the security of the rates authorised by this Order or they may accept and take from any bank or banking company credit to such amount as they may deem expedient not exceeding in the whole the sum of three thousand pounds on a cash account to be opened and kept in the name of the Trustees according to the usage of bankers in Scotland but so that the whole sum owing by the Trustees on such cash account and for other money borrowed and for the time being unpaid shall not exceed in the whole the sum of three thousand pounds exclusive of interest and may subject to the provisions of this Order convey and assign the rates authorised by this Order in security for the repayment of the sum or sums so borrowed or of the amount of such credit or of the sums advanced on such cash account with interest thereon respectively and may grant mortgages or bonds and assignments in security or other securities under their common seal and signed by three of the trustees and the clerk and any money borrowed under the provisions of this Order which may have been discharged otherwise than by means of the sinking fund may be at any time re-borrowed.

A.D. 1897.

St. Andrews.

Every part of the money so borrowed shall be applied only for purposes to which capital is properly applicable.

49.—(1.) The mortgagees of the Trustees may enforce payment of arrears of interest or principal or principal and interest due on their mortgages by the appointment of a judicial factor.

For appointment of a judicial factor.

(2.) In order to authorise the appointment of a judicial factor in respect of arrears of principal the amount owing to the mortgagees by whom the application for a judicial factor is made shall not be less than three hundred pounds in the whole.

(3.) In Sections eighty-six and eighty-seven of the Commissioners Clauses Act 1847 incorporated with this Order the expression "receiver" shall mean judicial factor.

50. The Clerk to the Trustees shall within two months after the expiration of each year during which any sum is required to be set apart for a sinking fund under this Order transmit to the Board of Trade a return in such form as may be prescribed by that Board and verified by statutory declaration if so required by them showing the amount which has been invested or deposited for the purpose of the sinking fund during the year preceding the making of such return and the description of the securities upon which the same has been invested or deposited and also showing the purpose to which any portions of the moneys invested or deposited for the sinking fund and the interest thereof have been applied during the same period and the total amount remaining invested or deposited at the end of the year and in the event of any wilful default in making such return such clerk shall be liable in a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds. If it appear to the Board of Trade by such return or otherwise that the Trustees have failed to set apart in accordance with the provisions of this Order the sum required by this Order for the sinking fund or have applied any portion of the moneys set apart for that fund or any interest thereof to any purposes other than those authorised by this Order the Board of Trade may by Order direct that a sum not exceeding double the amount in respect of which such default has been made shall be set apart and invested or deposited as part of the sinking fund and such order shall be enforceable by decree of either Division of the Inner House of the Court of Session in Scotland in a summary application presented for that purpose.

Contingency fund.

52. The Trustees may yearly if they think fit for the purpose of forming and maintaining a contingency fund not exceeding the sum of two thousand pounds to meet any extraordinary claim or demand or any unforeseen accident or extraordinary damage which may happen or be caused to the harbour or works connected therewith appropriate and set apart such an amount as they think fit out of the surplus revenue of the harbour (if any) after meeting the ordinary expenditure and shall deposit the same in some joint stock bank of issue in Scotland to be increased by accumulation in the way of compound interest or otherwise or invested in securities in which trustees are authorised by statute to invest money until required for any of the aforesaid purposes.

Application of rates.

53. The Trustees shall apply all money received by them from the rates authorised by this Order for the purposes and in the order following (that is to say) :—

- (1) In paying the costs of and connected with the preparation obtaining and making of this Order ;
- (2) In paying any feu duties and rents payable in respect of the lands and property belonging to or leased by the Trustees and the expenses of the maintenance management (including salaries and other payments to officers and servants) and regulation of the harbour piers quays and other works with all accesses roads and conveniences and of the lands and property connected therewith ;
- (3) In paying year by year the interest on money borrowed under this Order ;
- (4) In providing for instalments for repayment of money borrowed under this Order and in creating a sinking fund in manner specified in this Order ;
- (5) In forming and maintaining a contingency fund if the Trustees think fit not exceeding the sum of two thousand pounds for extraordinary claims or demands accidents or extraordinary damage to the harbour or works connected therewith ;
- (6) Subject to and after answering the purposes aforesaid the surplus revenue if any shall be applied by the Trustees in the further improvement of the harbour.

Annual account to be sent to the Board of Trade.

25 & 26 Vict.
c. 19.

54. The Trustees within one month after sending to the sheriff clerk the copy of their annual account in abstract (which account is to be made up at the end of the day on the thirty-first day of August in each year) shall send a copy of the same to the Board of Trade and section sixteen of the General Pier and Harbour Act 1861 Amendment Act shall apply to and include any and every such account If the Trustees refuse or neglect to comply with this provision they shall for every such refusal or neglect be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

Audit of accounts.

55.—(1.) The Board of Trade unless they see special reason to the contrary shall appoint a person to be permanent auditor to examine and audit the accounts of the Trustees and shall fix the payments to be made to him for salary and for expenses (if any) and the amount of such salary and expenses

(if any) shall be paid by the Trustees out of the rates or other income received by them under this Order. A.D. 1897.

(2.) The Board of Trade may at any time revoke the appointment of any person as auditor and thereupon unless they see special reason to the contrary shall appoint another person as auditor. St. Andrews.

(3.) The Trustees shall on demand by the auditor produce to him all books accounts deeds papers writings and other documents or information in their possession or power and afford him all reasonable facilities for conducting the examination and audit.

(4.) If the Trustees refuse or neglect to comply with any of the provisions of this section they shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds for every month during which they refuse or neglect so to comply.

Life-saving Apparatus.

56. Sections sixteen to nineteen of the Harbours Docks and Piers Clauses Act 1847 shall not be incorporated with this Order but the Trustees shall at their own expense when required by the Board of Trade provide to the satisfaction of the Board of Trade a site near the harbour and build on such site a house and other proper accommodation for a lifeboat rocket apparatus and other life-saving apparatus and shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds for every month during which they omit to provide such accommodation after having been required so to do by the Board of Trade. Sections of Harbours Clauses Act as to life-saving apparatus &c. excepted.

57. The officers of the coastguard and all other persons for the time being actually employed in connection with the lifeboat or the apparatus for saving life may either permanently or temporarily without payment attach or cause to be attached to any part of the harbour quays or works spars and other apparatus for saving life and may also either in course of using or exercising the apparatus for saving life fire rockets over the piers harbour or works. Apparatus for saving life may be attached to pier.

Byelaws.

58. The Trustees may make byelaws for the regulation and control of vessels and boats within the harbour and for the regulation and control of the fishermen salesmen and other persons and goods and traffic in and at the harbour and works ground or property belonging to or leased by the Trustees and used for harbour purposes but such byelaws shall not come into operation until the same have received the allowance and confirmation of the Board of Trade which shall be sufficient for all purposes. Byelaws.

Lights.

59. Before commencing the works authorised by this Order the Trustees shall apply to the Board of Trade for directions as to the lights to be exhibited and shall in all respects obey any direction given upon such application or afterwards given as to lights by the Board of Trade during the construction of the works and compliance with the directions so given shall satisfy and be in lieu of every other statutory requirement as to lights during the construction of the works and the Trustees shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds for every month during which they omit so to apply or refuse or neglect to observe any direction so given.
