

Prevention of Cruelty to, and Protection of, Children Act 1889

1889 CHAPTER 44

14 Act not to take away right of parent, &c. to administer punishment.

Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to take away or affect the right of any parent, teacher, or other person having the lawful control or charge of a child to administer punishment to such child.