

CHAPTER 51.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the Slander of Women. A.D. 1891.
[5th August 1891.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

1. Words spoken and published after the passing of this Act which impute unchastity or adultery to any woman or girl shall not require special damage to render them actionable. Amendment of law.

Provided always, that in any action for words spoken and made actionable by this Act, a plaintiff shall not recover more costs than damages, unless the judge shall certify that there was reasonable ground for bringing the action.

2. This Act may be cited as the Slander of Women Act, 1891, and shall not apply to Scotland. Short title and extent.
