

CHAPTER 44.

An Act to facilitate the supply of electricity by statutory gas companies. A.D. 1925.
[31st July 1925.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

1. Statutory gas companies may apply for special Orders under the Electricity (Supply) Acts, 1882 to 1922, and such companies may use their funds in the promotion of such applications. As to granting of Electricity Orders to statutory gas companies.

2. The Electricity Commissioners may by special Order under the Electricity (Supply) Acts, 1882 to 1922, subject after consultation in each case with the Board of Trade to such conditions, limitations and provisions (including the keeping of separate accounts) as they see fit to impose or insert, empower any statutory gas company to apply their funds, and to raise capital or borrow money from time to time for electricity purposes authorised by any Act of Parliament or any Order having the force of an Act of Parliament: Providing for capital powers to statutory gas companies for electricity purposes.

Provided that the principal moneys secured by any mortgage debenture or debenture stock authorised by any such special Order shall rank after any mortgage debenture or debenture stock of any such company existing at the time such Order was made.
