

Betting, Gaming and Lotteries Act 1963

1963 CHAPTER 2

E+W+S

An Act to consolidate certain enactments relating to betting, gaming, lotteries and connected matters. [28th February 1963]

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C1 Act applied (22.8.1996) by 1996 c. 18, ss. 233(5), 243

PART I E+W+S

BETTING

General restrictions on betting

1 Restriction on use of premises for betting transactions with persons resorting thereto. E+W+S

(1) Subject to [F1subsections (4A) and (5)] of this section and section 9(1) of this Act, no person shall—

- (a) save as permitted by section 4(1) of this Act, use any premises, or cause or knowingly permit any premises to be used, as a place where persons resorting thereto may effect pool betting transactions; or
- (b) use, or cause or knowingly permit any other person to use, any premises for the purpose of the effecting of any other betting transactions by that person or, as the case may be, that other person with persons resorting to those premises; and every person who contravenes any of the provisions of this subsection shall be guilty of an offence:

Provided that paragraph (b) of this subsection shall not apply where both the person using the premises as mentioned in that paragraph and all the persons with whom the betting transactions so mentioned are effected—

Status: Point in time view as at 07/01/1996. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Betting, Gaming and Lotteries Act 1963 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 17 March 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (i) either reside or work on those premises or on premises of which those premises form part; or
 - (ii) are, or are acting on behalf of, holders of bookmaker's permits which are for the time being in force.
- (2) Any person who, for any purpose connected with the effecting of a betting transaction, resorts to any premises which are being used in contravention of the foregoing subsection shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [^{F2}level 3 on the standard scale].
- (3) For the purposes of the last foregoing subsection, proof that any person was on any premises while they were being used as mentioned in that subsection shall be evidence that he resorted to the premises for such a purpose as is so mentioned unless he proves that he was on the premises for bona fide purposes which were not connected with the effecting of a betting transaction.
- (4) The last foregoing subsection shall not apply to Scotland, but, in any proceedings in Scotland under subsection (2) of this section, if any person is proved to have been on any premises while they were being used as mentioned in the said subsection (2), that person shall be held to have resorted to the premises for such a purpose as is so mentioned unless he proves that he was on the premises for bona fide purposes which were not connected with the effecting of a betting transaction.
- [^{F3}(4A) Subject to subsections (4B) and (4C) of this section, subsection (1)(a) of this section shall not apply to the use of premises as a place where persons may deliver—
- (a) completed coupons or other entry forms for qualifying competitions promoted by a registered pool promoter in the course of his pool betting business; and
 - (b) the stake money in respect of such coupons or other entry forms; for forwarding to the registered pool promoter.
- (4B) Subsection (4A) of this section shall not affect the operation of subsection (1)(a) of this section in relation to any premises of a class or description for the time being prescribed for the purposes of this subsection.
- (4C) In subsection (4A) of this section, the reference to coupons or other entry forms for qualifying competitions does not include any coupon or other entry form that can effect entry to a competition that is not a qualifying competition.
- (4D) In subsections (4A) and (4C) of this section, “qualifying competition” means a competition—
- (a) that is a competition for prizes for making forecasts as to association football games to be played on a Saturday, a Sunday or a day that is a bank holiday in England and Wales or in Scotland under the ^{M1}Banking and Financial Dealings Act 1971, and
 - (b) that requires each entry in the competition to consist of a forecast as to at least four such games.]
- (5) Subsection (1)(b) of this Section shall not apply—
- (a) to anything done on an approved horse racecourse on a day on which horse races but no other races take place thereon;
 - (b) subject to the next following subsection, to anything done on any track on any day on which under sections 5, 6 and 20 of this Act bookmaking may lawfully be carried on on the track.

Status: Point in time view as at 07/01/1996. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Betting, Gaming and Lotteries Act 1963 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 17 March 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(6) Nothing in subsection 5(b) of this section shall affect the operation of subsection (1) (b) of this section in relation to the use on a track which is not an approved horse racecourse by a bookmaker for the purposes of his business—

- (a) of any permanent structure other than a structure used by him in common with members of the public resorting to the track; or
- (b) of any position specially appropriated for the use of that particular bookmaker by, or by any person purporting to act on behalf of, the occupier of the track.

[^{F4}(7) In the case of a track which is a dog racecourse, subsection (6) of this section shall not apply in relation to the use of a permanent structure by a bookmaker for the purposes of his business if—

- (a) the use takes place on a day on which the public are admitted to the track for the purpose of attending dog races; and
- (b) no betting transactions in connection with dog races run on the track are effected in the course of the use.]

3 Agent of bookmaker or Totalisator Board to be authorised and registered. E+W +S

- (1) No person shall by way of business receive or negotiate bets as servant or agent to another bookmaker or to the Totalisator Board unless—
- (a) he has attained the age of twenty-one years; and
 - (b) he is authorised in that behalf in writing in the prescribed form by that other bookmaker or, as the case may be, by the said Board; and
 - (c) in the case of a person acting as servant or agent to another bookmaker, that other bookmaker is the holder of a bookmaker's permit or betting agency permit:

Provided that this subsection shall not apply to any person who is the holder of such a permit as aforesaid, or who receives or negotiates bets as aforesaid on premises occupied by the holder of such a permit or by the said Board.

- (2) If any bet is received or negotiated by any person as servant or agent to another bookmaker or to the said Board in contravention of the foregoing subsection, both that person and that other bookmaker or, as the case may be, the Board shall be guilty of an offence.
- (3) The said Board and every bookmaker who is the holder of a bookmaker's permit or betting agency permit shall keep a register in the prescribed form showing every person who is for the time being authorised for the purposes of subsection (1) of this section by that Board or, as the case may be, by that bookmaker, and shall not grant any such authorisation without making the appropriate entry in that register; and if any person contravenes any of the requirements of this subsection he shall, in respect of each contravention, be guilty of an offence.
- (4) If any person who holds any authority in writing issued for the purposes of subsection (1) of this section or who is required by subsection (3) of this section to keep a register, on being required by a constable to produce that authority or, as the case may be, register for examination, refuses or without reasonable cause fails so to do, he shall be guilty of an offence.
- (5) Any person guilty of an offence under this section shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding ten pounds or, in the case of offences under subsection (2) or subsection (3) of this section, on a second or any subsequent conviction under the same subsection, to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds.
- (6) Nothing in this section shall apply to the receiving or negotiating by any person as servant or agent to a registered pool promoter of bets made by way of pool betting.

- (a) on an approved horse racecourse on a day on which horse races but no other races take place thereon, by the Totalisator Board or, with the authority of that Board, by the persons having the management of that racecourse; or
- (b) on a dog racecourse which is a licensed track, by means of a totalisator operated in accordance with the provisions of section 16 of this Act by, or by a person authorised in that behalf in writing by, the occupier of the track; and every person who contravenes the provisions of this subsection shall be guilty of an offence:

Provided that nothing in this subsection shall prohibit a person from receiving or negotiating bets on an approved horse racecourse with a view to those bets being made by way of sponsored pool betting.

- (2) No person shall carry on any pool betting business otherwise than on a track unless he is a registered pool promoter, that is to say, a person who is registered for the purpose and whose registration is for the time being in force; and any person who carries on any business in contravention of this subsection shall be guilty of an offence:

Provided that this subsection shall not apply to sponsored pool betting business [^{F6}or to the operation of a licensed inter-track betting scheme].
- (3) Schedule 2 to this Act shall have effect for the purposes of the registration of a person as, and the conduct of his pool betting business by, a registered pool promoter.

8 Prohibition of betting in streets and public places. E+W+S

(1) Any person frequenting or loitering in a street or public place, on behalf either of himself or of any other person, for the purposes of bookmaking, betting, agreeing to bet, or paying, receiving or settling bets shall be liable on summary conviction—

- (a) to a fine not exceeding [^{F12}one hundred pounds][^{F12}level 4 on the standard scale]; or
- (b) in the case of a second conviction for an offence under this section, to a fine not exceeding [^{F12}two hundred pounds][^{F12}level 4 on the standard scale]; or
- (c) in the case of a third or any subsequent conviction for an offence under this section, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months, or to a fine not exceeding [^{F12}two hundred pounds][^{F12}level 4 on the standard scale], or to both,

and shall in any case be liable to forfeit all books, cards, papers and other articles relating to betting which may be found in his possession:

Provided that this subsection shall not apply to anything done on any ground used, or adjacent to ground used, for the purpose of a racecourse for racing with horses on a day on which horse races take place on that racecourse.

[^{F13}^{F14}(2) Any constable may take into custody without warrant any person found committing an offence under this section and may seize and detain any article liable to be forfeited thereunder.]

[^{F13}(2) Where a person is found committing an offence under this section, any constable may seize and detain any article liable to be forfeited under this section.]

(3) Notwithstanding anything in section 52(3) of this Act, a conviction for an offence under the ^{M2}Street Betting Act 1906 shall be deemed to have been a conviction for an offence under this section only if the offence was committed after 1st December 1961.

(4) In this section—

- (a) the expression “street” includes any bridge, road, lane, footway, subway, square, court, alley or passage, whether a thoroughfare or not, which is for the time being open to the public and, in the application of this Act to Scotland, includes also any common close or common stair; and
- (b) the doorways and entrances of premises abutting upon, and any ground adjoining and open to, a street shall be treated as forming part of the street.

Licensed betting offices

9 Betting office licences and betting agency permits. E+W+S

- (1) Where in the case of any premises there is for the time being in force a licence authorising the holder of the licence to use those premises as a betting office (in this Act referred to as “a betting office licence”), section 1(1) of this Act shall not apply to the use of those premises for the effecting of betting transactions with or through the holder of the licence or any servant or agent of his:
Provided that the licence shall not authorise the use of the premises for effecting any pool betting transaction made otherwise than by way of sponsored pool betting.
- (2) The following persons, and the following persons only, may apply for the grant or renewal of a betting office licence in respect of any premises, that is to say—
 - (a) a person who is for the time being the holder of, or an applicant for, a bookmaker’s permit;
 - (b) the Totalisator Board;
 - (c) a person who, not being the holder of, or an applicant for, a bookmaker’s permit, is for the time being both—
 - (i) accredited by a bookmaker who is the holder of a bookmaker’s permit or by the Totalisator Board as an agent for the purpose of receiving or negotiating bets by way of business with a view to those bets being made with that bookmaker or, as the case may be, with or through that Board; and
 - (ii) the holder of, or an applicant for, a permit (in this Act referred to as “a betting agency permit”) authorising him to hold a betting office licence.
- (3) An application for the grant of a betting office licence in respect of any premises may be made notwithstanding that the premises have still to be constructed or are still in the course of construction.
- (4) Subject to subsections (2) and (3) of this section, Schedule 1 to this Act shall have effect for the purposes of betting office licences and betting agency permits.
- (5) If the holder of a betting agency permit, on being required by a constable to produce his permit for examination, refuses or without reasonable cause fails so to do, he shall be liable on summary conviction to fine not exceeding [^{F15}level 1 on the standard scale].

the licensee and any servant or agent of the licensee by whom the contravention was committed shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [^{F16}level 3 on the standard scale]:

Provided that, where any person is charged with an offence under this subsection by reason only of his being the licensee, it shall be a defence to prove that the contravention took place without his consent or connivance and that he exercised all due diligence to prevent it.

[^{F17}(1A) The Secretary of State may, from time to time, by order made by statutory instrument amend the provisions of Schedule 4 to this Act so as to make new provision with respect to the facilities (other than those in respect of which a betting office licence is required) that may be provided in a licensed betting office; and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, such an order may—

- (a) require compliance with such restrictions as may be specified in the order in relation to—
 - (i) the use in a licensed betting office of any apparatus for making information or other material available in the form of sounds or visual images or both;
 - (ii) the use of a licensed betting office for any form of entertainment; and
 - (iii) the provision in a licensed betting office of any form of refreshment;
- (b) provide that paragraphs 1 and 4 of that Schedule shall be construed, subject to those restrictions, as not prohibiting such of the things referred to in subparagraphs (i) to (iii) of paragraph (a) of this subsection, as may be specified in the order;
- (c) repeal paragraph 5 of that Schedule.

(1B) Notwithstanding anything in an order under sub-section (1A) of this section, Schedule 4 to this Act shall continue to have the effect of prohibiting the provision in a licensed betting office of any facility in respect of which a licence under the Licensing Act ^{M3}1964 or the Licensing (Scotland) Act ^{M4}1976 is required.

(1C) An order under subsection (1A) of this section shall not be made unless a draft of the order has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.]

(2) Without prejudice to any other right to refuse a person admission to premises or to expel a person from premises, in the case of a licensed betting office the licensee or any servant or agent of his may refuse to admit to, or may expel from, the licensed premises any person who is drunken, violent, quarrelsome or disorderly, or whose presence on those premises would subject the licensee or any servant or agent of his to a penalty under [^{F18}subsection (1) of this section]; and if any person liable to be expelled from the licensed premises under this subsection, when requested by the licensee, any servant or agent of the licensee or any constable to leave those premises, fails to do so, he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [^{F16}level 1 on the standard scale].

(3) Any constable may, on the request of the licensee or any servant or agent of the licensee, help to expel from a licensed betting office any person whom the constable has reasonable cause to believe to be liable to be expelled therefrom under subsection (2) of this section; and the constable may use such force as may be required for that purpose.

(4) Any constable may enter any licensed betting office for the purpose of ascertaining whether the provisions of subsection (1) of this section are being complied with, and any person who obstructs any constable in the exercise of his powers under this subsection shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [^{F16}level 1 on the standard scale].

(5) If, [^{F19}any advertisement, other than an advertisement to which subsection (6) of this section applies,]is published—

- (a) indicating that any particular premises are a licensed betting office; or
- (b) indicating where any such office may be found; or
- (c) drawing attention to the availability of, or to the facilities afforded to persons resorting to, such offices, then, in the case of an advertisement in connection with the office or offices of a particular licensee, that licensee, and in every case any person who published the advertisement or caused or permitted it to be published, shall be guilty of an offence: Provided that it shall be a defence for any person charged with an offence under this subsection to prove—

- (i) that he did not know and had no reasonable cause to suspect that the advertisement was, and that he had taken all reasonable steps to ascertain that it was not, such an advertisement as aforesaid; or
- (ii) if he is charged by reason only of being a licensee, that the advertisement was published without his consent or connivance and that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the publishing of any such advertisement in connection with his office or offices.

[^{F20}(6) The subsection applies to an advertisement if—

- (a) it is published inside but not outside a licensed betting office; or

C7 “The Levy Board” means the Horse Race Betting Levy Board established in accordance with s. 24 of this Act

14 Functions of Totalisator Board with respect to betting on horse races. E+W+S

(1) The Totalisator Board [^{F25}shall have the exclusive right] to do, and to authorise other persons to do, either of the following things, that is to say—

- (a) to carry on pool betting business in any form on a recognised horse race; and
- (b) by way of business to receive or negotiate bets on a recognised horse race on terms that the winnings or any part thereof shall be calculated or regulated directly or indirectly by reference to the amounts or rates of any payments or distributions in respect of winning bets on that race made by way of sponsored pool betting; and in giving any authority under this subsection the Board may do so on such terms, including terms as to payments to the Board, as the Board may think fit.

(2) Any infringement of the right conferred on the Totalisator Board by the foregoing subsection shall be actionable at the suit of the Board; and in any action for such an infringement all such relief, by way of damages, injunction, accounts or otherwise, shall be available to the Board as is available to the plaintiff in any corresponding proceedings in respect of infringements of proprietary rights and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any enactment or rule of law relating to the jurisdiction of county courts, a county court may, on the application of the Board, grant an injunction restraining an infringement or apprehended infringement of the right aforesaid whether or not any other relief is claimed; and for the purposes of this subsection the right aforesaid is infringed by any person who, without the authority of the Board—

- (a) does or authorises any other person to do anything such as is mentioned in subsection (1)(a) or (b) of this section; or
- (b) by way of business holds himself out as willing to enter into any pool betting transaction on a recognised horse race, whether by way of sponsored pool betting or otherwise, or to receive or negotiate a bet on a recognised horse race on such terms as are mentioned in the said subsection (1)(b).

In the application of this subsection to Scotland, “suit” means instance, “injunction” means an interdict, “accounts” means count, reckoning and payment, and “plaintiff” means pursuer.

(3) Where bets on a race or combination of races are made by way of sponsored pool betting, the Totalisator Board shall—

- (a) cause to be deducted from the aggregate amount staked either—
 - (i) such percentage of that amount as may be determined from time to time by the Board, either generally or with respect to any particular racecourse; or
 - (ii) if so determined as aforesaid, such percentage of such part of that amount as may be determined as aforesaid; and

- (b) cause the whole of the remainder of that amount to be distributed among the persons making such of those bets as are winning bets.
- (4) Where facilities for sponsored pool betting are being provided on an approved horse racecourse by the persons having the management of that racecourse, any amount deducted by those persons under subsection (3)(a) of this section shall be paid to the Totalisator Board, but the Board may pay to those persons the amount of the expenses shown to the satisfaction of the Board to have been properly incurred by those persons in connection with the provision of those facilities.
- (5) Without prejudice to section 12(4) of this Act, the Totalisator Board may remunerate any person, by the payment of commissions or otherwise, in respect of the negotiation, receipt or transmission by that person—
 - (a) of bets to be made by way of sponsored pool betting; or
 - (b) of bets such as are mentioned in subsection (1)(b) of this section to be made with the Board or, under the authority of the Board, with the persons having the management of an approved horse racecourse, and may provide facilities on any such racecourse for persons engaged in receiving bets to be so made.
- (6) Nothing in this Act shall be construed as restricting the betting transactions which may be effected by way of sponsored pool betting to betting transactions upon the result of a single race, or upon the results of races run on a particular racecourse or on a particular day, or as preventing the Totalisator Board from giving credit in any betting transaction.

Special provisions with respect to young persons

21 Betting with young persons. E+W+S

(1) If any person—

- (a) has any betting transaction with a young person; or
- (b) employs a young person in the effecting of any betting transaction or in a licensed betting office; or
- (c) receives or negotiates any bet through a young person,

he shall be guilty of an offence:

Provided that a person shall not be guilty of an offence under this subsection by reason of—

- (i) the employment of a young person in the effecting of betting transactions by post; or
- (ii) the carriage by a young person of a communication relating to a betting transaction for the purposes of its conveyance by post.

(2) In this section, the expression, “young person” means a person—

- (a) who is under the age of eighteen years and whom the person committing an offence in relation to him under this section knows, or ought to know, to be under that age; or
- (b) who is apparently under the said age:

Provided that in the case of any proceedings under this section for an offence in respect of a person apparently under the said age, it shall be a defence to prove that at the time of the alleged offence he had in fact attained that age.

[^{F33}(3) In any case concerning—

- (c) any travelling and other expenses reasonably incurred by any person as a member of the Bookmakers’ Committee.
- (4) The Bookmakers’ Committee may regulate their own procedure and make standing orders governing the conduct of their business.
- (5) No act or proceeding of the Bookmakers’ Committee shall be questioned on account of any vacancy in the number of the members thereof or on account of the appointment of any person as a member thereof having been defective.

27 Bookmakers’ levy schemes. E+W+S

- (1) The contributions such as are mentioned in section 24(1) of this Act to be made by bookmakers shall be paid by way of a levy in respect of each levy period in accordance with a scheme having effect for that period under this section; and in this Act the expression “levy period” means a period of twelve months beginning with 1st April in any year.
- (2) Any such scheme shall include provision—
 - (a) for securing that the levy shall be payable only by a bookmaker who carries on on his own account a business which includes the effecting of betting transactions on horse races, and only in respect of so much of the business of the bookmaker as relates to such betting transactions;
 - (b) for bookmakers to be divided for the purposes of the levy into different categories;
 - (c) for the amount, if any, payable by way of the levy by any particular bookmaker to be determined by reference to the category into which he falls;
 - (d) as to the method of the promulgation of the scheme by the Levy Board;
 - (e) for the submission to the Levy Board by each bookmaker before a specified date of a declaration as to the category into which he falls;
 - (f) for the issue by the Levy Board of notices of assessment to, and certificates of exemption from, the levy.
- (3) Not later than such date before the beginning of any levy period as the Levy Board may determine, the Bookmakers’ Committee shall make recommendations to the Levy Board with respect to the scheme to have effect under this section for that period, and those recommendations shall take the form either of a draft scheme or of a recommendation that the current scheme shall continue to have effect without amendment or with specified amendments.
- (4) If the Levy Board approve the recommendations aforesaid, or those recommendations as revised by the Bookmakers’ Committee in the light of any observations thereon made to the committee by the Board, the scheme so recommended and approved shall have effect accordingly for the levy period in question.

28 Assessment of or exemption from bookmakers’ levy. E+W+S

- (1)^{F43}
- (5) An assessment notice issued by the Levy Board in the case of any bookmaker for any levy period shall be conclusive as to his liability to the levy for that period and the amount payable by him by way thereof unless not later than twenty-eight days after the notice is served on him he gives to the Board notice in writing of appeal therefrom.
- (6) On receiving any notice of appeal under the last foregoing subsection, the Levy Board shall refer the appeal to an appeal tribunal established in pursuance of section 29 of this Act, which shall have power to confirm, increase or reduce the assessment, or grant the appellant a certificate of exemption from the levy, according to the tribunal’s opinion as to the category into which he falls, but which—
- (a) shall not reduce the assessment or grant the appellant a certificate of exemption unless the appellant has afforded the tribunal all the facilities it may have required for the investigation of his case;
 - (b) shall confirm the assessment unless the tribunal is satisfied that, on all the evidence made available to it, the assessment should be varied or rescinded;
- and any decision of the tribunal as to the category into which the appellant falls for the purposes of the levy for the levy period in question shall be final.
- (7) Any amount assessed as payable by any bookmaker by way of the levy in respect of any levy period shall [^{F44}(except to the extent of any payments on account)] become due twenty-eight days after notice of the assessment has been served on the bookmaker or, if he appeals therefrom in pursuance of the foregoing provisions of this section, on the determination or abandonment of the appeal, and shall be recoverable by the Levy Board as a debt due to them.
- (8) Upon the discharge by a bookmaker of his liability by way of the levy in respect of any levy period [^{F45}in accordance with the notice of assessment issued in his case], the Levy Board shall issue to him a certificate in writing to the effect that he has done so, and any such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the facts stated therein.
- (9) An assessment notice may be served on any bookmaker either by serving it on him personally or by sending it to him by post at his usual or last-known residence or place of business in the United Kingdom or, if the bookmaker is a company, at the company’s registered office.
- (10) If, otherwise than with the consent in writing of the bookmaker concerned or—
- (a) for the purposes of this section [^{F46}or section 2 of the ^{M6}Horseshoe Betting Levy Act 1969] or of a report of any proceedings before an appeal tribunal thereunder; or
 - (b) for the purposes of, or of a report of—
 - (i) proceedings for the recovery from that bookmaker of any amount due from him [^{F47}under this section] by way of the levy; or
 - (ii) proceedings relating to that bookmaker before an appropriate authority within the meaning of Schedule 1 to this Act, or before any court on an appeal from any such authority; or
 - (iii) any criminal proceedings,
- any person who is a member, officer or servant of the Levy Board, the Bookmakers’ Committee or an appeal tribunal established in pursuance of section 29 of this Act, or who is consulted by the Bookmakers’ Committee in pursuance of subsection (4)

29 Levy appeal tribunals. E+W+S

- (1) There shall be established for the purposes of section 28 of this Act [^{F49}and section 2 of the Horserace Betting Levy Act 1981]—
- (a) one or more appeal tribunals for England and Wales; and
 - (b) one or more appeal tribunals for Scotland;
- and an appeal under section 28(5) of this Act [^{F50}or section 2(1) of the said Act of 1981] shall be referred to a tribunal established for Scotland if the appellant is the holder of a bookmaker's permit which was last granted or renewed by an authority in Scotland.
- (2) Each such tribunal shall consist of a chairman and two other members of whom—
- (a) the chairman, who shall be
 - [^{F51}(i) a person who has a 7 year general qualification, within the meaning of section 71 of the Courts and Legal Services Act 1990; or
 - (ii) an advocate or solicitor in Scotland of at least 7 years' standing,] shall be appointed by the Lord Chancellor or, in the case of a tribunal established for Scotland, by the Lord President of the Court of Session; and
 - (b) the other members shall be appointed by the Secretary of State;
- and each member of any such tribunal shall hold office in accordance with the terms of the instrument under which he was appointed [^{F52}, but subject, in the case of the chairman, to subsection (2A) of this section].
- [^{F53}(2A) The chairman of any such tribunal shall vacate his office on the day on which he attains the age of seventy years; but this subsection is subject to section 26(4) to (6) of the Judicial Pensions and Retirement Act 1993 (power to authorise continuance in office up to the age of seventy-five years).]

- (3) The procedure of any such tribunal shall be such as the Lord Chancellor or, in the case of a tribunal established for Scotland, the Lord President of the Court of Session may by rules prescribe; and any such rules shall be made by statutory instrument, which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (4) The Levy Board shall pay to the members of any such tribunal such remuneration as the Board may with the approval of the Secretary of State determine and any travelling and other expenses reasonably incurred by them as members of the tribunal.
- (5) The Levy Board shall provide any such tribunal with such secretarial and other facilities as may appear to the Board to be necessary or expedient, and, without prejudice to subsection (7) of this section, shall pay any expenses incurred by the tribunal for the purposes of their functions with the approval, whether general or special, of the Levy Board.
- (6) If any such tribunal thinks it just so to direct in allowing any appeal by a bookmaker, the Levy Board shall pay to that bookmaker such amount as the tribunal may specify towards expenses appearing to the tribunal to have been reasonably incurred by the bookmaker in connection with the appeal.
- (7) If any such tribunal, in dismissing any appeal by a bookmaker, or on the abandonment of any appeal after the tribunal has taken some action towards its determination, thinks it just that the bookmaker should make a payment towards expenses incurred by the tribunal in connection with the appeal, the tribunal may certify accordingly and the Levy Board shall be entitled to recover from the bookmaker as a debt due to them the amount specified in the certificate.

Applications for renewal of permit or licence

- 8 Each appropriate authority, in each year in which any application for the renewal of a bookmaker’s permit, betting agency permit or betting office licence, other than an application to which paragraph 10(b) of this Schedule applies, falls to be made to the authority shall in the month of February (if the authority are in England) or January (if the authority are in Scotland) give in writing to the holder of that permit or licence, and cause to be published by means of an advertisement in a newspaper circulating in their area, notice of a day in April (if the authority are in England) or March (if the authority are in Scotland) on which they will hold a meeting for the purpose of considering such applications, and that notice shall include the time and place appointed for the meeting and shall state—
- (a) in the case of the notice given to the holder of any permit or licence, that any such application must be received by the clerk to the authority before a specified date, being a date not earlier than fourteen days after both the giving of the notice in writing and the publication of the advertisement aforesaid;
 - (b) in the case of the notice given by advertisement, that any person who desires to object to the renewal by the authority of any particular permit or licence should send to the clerk to the authority before the same date two copies of brief statement in writing of the grounds of his objection.
- 9 Any application for the renewal of such a permit or licence as aforesaid, other than an application to which paragraph 10(b) of this Schedule applies, shall be made to the clerk to the appropriate authority before the date specified for the purpose in the notice given in pursuance of the last foregoing paragraph, and shall be in such form and contain such particulars as may be prescribed; and, not earlier than that date nor later than seven days before the day in April or, as the case may be, March appointed by the said notice for the consideration of such applications, the clerk to the authority—
- (a) if he has received from any person an objection in writing to the renewal of a particular permit or licence (being an objection which has not been withdrawn) and the address of that person is known to the clerk, shall send to that person in writing a notification as to whether or not an application for the renewal of that permit or licence has been made;
 - (b) shall send to the person by whom any application for the renewal of a permit or licence has been duly made a copy of any objection to the renewal which he has received from the appropriate officer of police, the appropriate local authority or any other person and which has not been withdrawn.
- 10 Where in any year, by reason of a change in the office or usual place of residence of the holder of a bookmaker’s permit or betting agency permit, an application for the renewal of that permit falls, or would but for this paragraph fall, to be made to an authority other than the authority by whom the permit was last either granted or renewed, then—

- (a) unless the change takes place before 1st February or, where the first-mentioned authority are in Scotland, 1st January in that year, any application for the renewal of the permit shall be made to and considered by the authority by whom the permit was last either granted or renewed;
- (b) if the change takes place before the said 1st February or, as the case may be, 1st January, paragraphs 5 to 7 of this Schedule shall apply to an application to the first-mentioned authority for the renewal of the permit as if it were an application for the grant thereof.

Proceedings before appropriate authority

11 On any application for the grant or renewal of a bookmaker’s permit, betting agency permit or betting office licence, the appropriate authority may grant or renew the permit or licence without hearing the applicant if no objection to the grant or renewal has been made by any person or if every such objection has been withdrawn before the beginning of the meeting of the authority at which the authority considers the application; but, save as aforesaid, at any such meeting any of the following persons, that is to say—

- (a) the applicant;
- (b) any person from whom an objection in writing which has not been withdrawn was received by the clerk to the authority before the day on which he sent out the documents referred to in paragraph 7 or, as the case may be, paragraph 9 of this Schedule: and
- (c) the person making any other objection which the authority have decided under paragraph 12 of this Schedule that they will hear, shall be entitled to be heard either in person or by counsel or a solicitor; and the authority shall also hear any representations made otherwise than by way of objection by, or by any person authorised in that behalf by, the appropriate officer of police.

Interpretation

- 4 (1) In relation to any person who carried on or proposes to carry on a pool betting business, any reference in this Schedule to the registering authority shall be construed as a reference to the council or committee who, under paragraph 1 of this Schedule, are the registering authority for the area in which the place, or the principal place, at which that person carries on or proposes to carry on that business is situated.
- (2) In this Schedule, the expression “the accountant” in relation to a registered pool promoter means the person appointed in the case of that promoter under paragraph 12 of this Schedule.
- (3) References in this Schedule to stakes in, or in respect of entries in, any competition do not include references to stakes in respect of rejected entries.
- (4) Any reference in this Schedule to the day on which the events on which a competition depends take place shall, where the events do not take place wholly on the same day, be construed as a reference to the last day on which any of those events takes place.

Registration of pool promoters

- 5 (1) If any person makes an application to the registering authority for registration under this Schedule, the registering authority shall, on payment of the appropriate registration fee fixed under paragraph 11 of this Schedule, register him accordingly in a register to be kept by them for the purposes of this Schedule and shall notify him in writing that they have done so.
- (2) Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing sub-paragraph, the registering authority may in the case of any person, after giving him an opportunity of being heard, refuse to register him or revoke his registration if that person or, where that person is a body corporate, any director or manager thereof, has been convicted of any offence under section 4(2) of this Act, under paragraph 29 of this Schedule or under the ^{M22}Pool Betting Act 1954, or of any offence involving fraud or dishonesty.

- (3) If, after a person has been registered under this Schedule, the registering authority, after giving him an opportunity of being heard, are satisfied—
- (a) that he does not intend to carry on a pool betting business; or
 - (b) that he has permanently ceased to carry on pool betting business; or
 - (c) that the place or principal place at which he carries on his pool betting business will not be, or has ceased to be, in their area,
- they shall revoke his registration.

Appointment of accountant by registering authority

- 12 (1) The registering authority shall, in the case of each registered pool promoter, appoint a person, being a qualified accountant and not being a person employed by the registered pool promoter in connection with his pool betting business, to exercise and perform, in relation to that registered pool promoter, the powers and duties conferred and imposed by the subsequent provisions of this Schedule on the accountant.
- (2) The accountant shall hold office on such terms (including terms as to remuneration) as may be determined by the registering authority after consultation with the registered pool promoter.
- (3) The remuneration of the accountant shall be payable by the registering authority, but any sum paid by them by way of such remuneration shall be recoverable by the registering authority as a debt due to them from the registered pool promoter.
- (4) In this paragraph “remuneration” includes any sums paid or to be paid to the accountant in respect of his expenses.

Conduct of registered pool promoter's business

- 13 Subject to paragraphs 14 to 19 of this Schedule, the pool betting business carried on by any registered pool promoter shall comply with the following requirements—
- (a) it shall take the form of the promotion of competitions for prizes for making forecasts as to sporting or other events, the bets being entries in the competitions and the winnings in respect of the bets being the prizes or shares in the prizes;
- (b) each bet shall be an entry in a particular competition;
- (c) the stakes and the winnings shall be wholly in money;
- (d) in each competition, the prizes shall be equally available for all the bets, and accordingly the question which bets qualify for, or for shares in, the prize or prizes and, save so far as it depends on the amounts staked, the amounts of the respective shares in the prizes, shall be determined solely by the relative success of the forecasts embodied in the respective bets;

- 16 Nothing in paragraph 13(b) of this Schedule shall be construed as preventing—
- (a) several bets being made by a person relating to the same competition; or
 - (b) several bets (whether relating to the same competition or to different competitions) being made by a person by means of the same coupon or other entry form; or
 - (c) the use of a formula for the purpose of making several bets and, in particular, the use for that purpose of any form of the device commonly known as a permutation.
- 17 Nothing in paragraph 13(f) of this Schedule shall be construed as requiring, in the case of a series of competitions proposed to be held under the same rules, that those rules should be re-notified to the accountant on the occasion of each competition, and, if the rules are altered before the series is completed, it shall suffice if the alteration is notified to the accountant before any of the sporting or other events relevant to the first competition to which the alteration applies takes place.
- 18 Nothing in paragraphs 13 to 17 of this Schedule shall prevent the rules of any competition from providing that the competition may be declared void in specified circumstances.
- 19 Where two or more competitions of the same registered pool promoter are so conducted that entries in all of them can be effected by a person without completing more than a single coupon or other entry form, the promoter may arrive at the total amount of the stakes in respect of the entries in each competition by—
- (a) ascertaining the aggregate total amount of the stakes in respect of the entries in all the competitions; and

- (b) causing the said aggregate total amount to be apportioned among those competitions by reference to the results of an inspection of samples of the completed coupons or forms; and if the sampling, inspection and apportionment is such (both as to the process adopted and as to the manner of carrying it out) that the amount apportioned to each competition is not likely to differ from the total amount actually staked therein by more than one per cent., the amount so apportioned to any such competition shall for all the purposes of this Schedule be deemed to be the total amount actually staked in that competition.

Information to be given by promoters

- 20 (1) As soon as may be after the events to which any of his competitions relates have taken place, and in any case not later than seven days after the announcement of the results of that competition, every registered pool promoter shall send to the accountant a statement showing—
- (a) the total amount of the stakes in respect of entries in the competition;
 - (b) the total amount payable by way of winnings in that competition;
 - [^{F138}(bb) the amount (if any) carried over to the competition from a previous competition in accordance with any provision made under paragraph 14A of this Schedule;
 - ^{F138}(bbb) the amount (if any) carried over from the competition in accordance with any such provision;]
 - (c) the total amount of the stakes in respect of winning bets in the competition and, if there are more prizes than one in the competition, the total amount of the stakes in respect of winning bets qualifying for, or for shares in, each of the prizes; and
 - (d) the amount payable in respect of each winning bet or, as the case may be, of each winning bet qualifying for, or for a share of, each of the prizes, bets staking more than the minimum which is permissible under the rules of the competition being treated for the purposes of this paragraph as if they were several separate bets each staking the said minimum.
- (2) Where a payment is made in accordance with paragraph 15 of this Schedule after the sending of the statement to the accountant under the foregoing sub-paragraph, the registered pool promoter shall as soon as may be send particulars of that payment to the accountant.

- (b) retain all such statements for two years; and
 - (c) at any time during that period give facilities for their examination by any officer or servant of the registering authority authorised in that behalf by that authority.

- 26 The accountant and any servant of his authorised in that behalf by him in writing may at all reasonable times enter any premises on which a registered pool promoter is carrying on his business and enquire into the manner in which that business is being carried on, and may require the registered pool promoter or any servant of his to give to the accountant or his servant authorised as aforesaid all such information, and to produce all such accounts, books and other documents and carry out such checks or additional checks of coupons or other entry forms, as the accountant or his servant authorised as aforesaid may think necessary for the purpose of determining whether there is cause to believe that any of the provisions of this Schedule are being contravened; and it shall be the duty of the promoter to preserve, or, to such extent as he may prefer to do so, to preserve photographic copies of, all accounts, books or other documents (including coupons or other entry forms) which relate wholly or partly to any of his competitions for at least two months from the day on which the events take place on which that competition depends.

- 27 (1) If at any time the accountant has cause to believe that any of the provisions of this Schedule are being contravened in relation to any of the competitions of a registered pool promoter, he shall report the matter to the registering authority.

- (2) Not later than the end of October in each year the accountant shall furnish to the registering authority a report stating, if such be the fact, that he—
 - (a) has examined all statements submitted to him by a registered pool promoter under paragraph 20, 22 or 23 of this Schedule in respect of the period of twelve months ending with 31st July in that Year;
 - (b) has conducted such enquiries into the manner in which the business of that promoter is carried on and made such examination of that promoter's records as he considers necessary; and
 - (c) has no cause to believe that any of the provisions of this Schedule have been contravened in relation to any of the competitions of that promoter taking place during the said period except in relation to such matters (if any) as have been reported by the accountant in pursuance of the foregoing subparagraph.

- 28 Paragraphs 20 to 27 of this Schedule shall apply in relation to a competition declared void in pursuance of any such rule of the competition as is mentioned in paragraph 18 of this Schedule as they apply in relation to other competitions, except that—
 - (a) instead of the statements required by paragraphs 20 and 21 of this Schedule to be sent to the accountant in respect of the competition and to be included in announcements of the results of, or to be sent to competitors in, the competition, there shall be sent statements that the competition has been declared void and that sums paid as stakes therein will be repaid or credited to the payers thereof;
 - (b) the competition shall be left out of account in computing the percentage a statement of which is required by the said paragraph 21 to be included in announcements of the results of, or to be sent to competitors in, other competitions depending on the same events or other events taking place on the same day.

TOTALISATORS ON DOG RACECOURSES

1 The totalisator shall [^{F180}comply] with the prescribed conditions.

Textual Amendments

F180 Word in Sch. 5 para. 1 substituted (7.1.1996) by S.I. 1995/3231, art. 7(2)

2 The person, whether the occupier of the track or a person authorised in that behalf in writing by that occupier, by whom the totalisator is operated (in this Schedule referred to as “the operator”) shall take all such steps as are necessary to secure that, so long as the totalisator is in use, it is in proper working order and is properly operated.

3 The operator shall, before receiving any bets in connection with any race, post in a conspicuous position on the track [^{F181}or, where bets may be made by means of the totaliser in more than one distinct area of the track, in each such area] a notice showing the minimum stake (hereinafter referred to as “the betting unit”) which will be accepted at the totalisator from persons betting on that race; and that notice shall also—

(a) specify [^{F182}, prominently and in easily legible print,] the percentage ^{F183} . . . which will be deducted by the operator from amounts staked by means of the totalisator; and

(b) if the terms on which the operator invites persons to bet include such a condition as is mentioned in paragraph 6 of this Schedule, specify the time referred to in that paragraph [^{F184}; and]

[^{F184}(c) specify such other particulars of the said terms as may be prescribed.]

Act, the operator shall transmit to the licensing authority such number of copies of the accounts and certificate referred to in paragraph 15 of this Schedule as are sufficient to enable the licensing authority to keep one copy at their offices for the purposes of record and to deposit for inspection as mentioned in that paragraph one copy at their offices and one copy at the offices of each council whose functions under Schedule 3 to this Act are delegated to that committee.

17 Without prejudice to paragraph 11(2) of this Schedule, if the operator contravenes any of the provisions of this Schedule other than the said paragraph 11(2) he shall be guilty of an offence.

[^{F199}18(1) In relation to the operation of the totalisator for effecting betting transactions under a licensed inter-track betting scheme, this Schedule shall have effect with the following modifications.

(2) Where the operation is in connection with racing on the track where the totalisator is situated, the references in paragraphs 4 and 4B to the totalisator shall be construed as references to any totalisator on a track participating in the inter-track betting scheme.

(3) Where the operation is in connection with racing on a track other than the track where the totalisator is situated—

(a) the references in paragraph 3(a) and (b) to the operator shall be construed as references to the operator of the totalisator on the track where the racing takes place; and

(b) paragraphs 4 and 4B to 6 shall be omitted.

(4) In paragraph 4A—

(a) references to a race or combination of races on the track shall be construed as references to a race or combination of races in relation to which betting takes place under the inter-track betting scheme; and

(b) references to bets made by means of the totalisator shall be construed as references to bets made under the inter-track betting scheme.

(5) In paragraph 13, the reference to the licensing authority shall be construed as including a reference to the authority by whom the inter-track betting scheme is licensed.]

F205 Meaning of “protected betting worker”

Textual Amendments

- F205 Crossheading inserted (3.1.1995) by 1994 c. 40, ss. 20(5), 40(1), 82(2), Sch. 8.

- F2062 (1) Subject to paragraph 3 below, a betting worker is to be regarded for the purposes of this Schedule as “protected” if, and only if, sub-paragraph (2) or (3) below applies to him.
- (2) This sub-paragraph applies to any betting worker if—
 - (a) on the day before the commencement date, he was employed as a betting worker,
 - (b) on that day, he was not employed to work only on Sunday,
 - (c) he has been continuously employed during the period beginning with that day and ending with the appropriate date, and
 - (d) throughout that period, or throughout every part of it during which his relations with his employer were governed by a contract of employment, he was a betting worker.
- (3) This sub-paragraph applies to any betting worker whose contract of employment is such that under it he—
 - (a) is not, and may not be, required to work on Sunday, and
 - (b) could not be so required even if the provisions of this Schedule were disregarded.
- (4) In sub-paragraph (2)(c) above “the appropriate date” means—
 - (a) in relation to paragraphs 7 and 8 below, the effective date of termination,
 - (b) in relation to paragraph 10 below, the date of the act or failure to act,

- (c) in relation to sub-paragraph (2) or (3) of paragraph 12 below, the day on which the agreement is entered into,
 - (d) in relation to sub-paragraph (4) of that paragraph, the day on which the employee returns to work,
 - (e) in relation to paragraph 14 below, any time in relation to which the contract is to be enforced, and
 - (f) in relation to paragraph 15 below, the end of the period in respect of which the remuneration is paid or the benefit accrues.
- (5) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (4)(a) above, “the effective date of termination”, in any case falling within paragraph 1(4) above, means the day with effect from which the employee is treated by section 56 of the 1978 Act as being dismissed.
- (6) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (4)(b) above—
- (a) where an act extends over a period, the “date of the act” means the first day of the period, and
 - (b) a deliberate failure to act shall be treated as done when it was decided on, and in the absence of evidence establishing the contrary, an employer shall be taken to decide on a failure to act when he does an act inconsistent with doing the failed act or, if he has done no such inconsistent act, when the period expires within which he might reasonably have been expected to do the failed act if it was to be done.
- (7) Where on the day before the commencement date an employee’s relations with his employer have ceased to be governed by a contract of employment, he shall be regarded as satisfying the conditions in sub-paragraph (2)(a) and (b) above if—
- (a) that day falls in a week which counts as a period of employment with that employer under paragraph 9 or 10 of Schedule 13 to the 1978 Act (absence from work because of sickness, pregnancy etc.) or under regulations made under paragraph 20 of that Schedule (reinstatement or re-engagement of dismissed employee), and
 - (b) on the last day before the commencement date on which his relations with his employer were governed by a contract of employment, the employee was a betting worker and was not employed to work only on Sunday.

- (3) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (2)(a) above, “the effective date of termination”, in any case falling within paragraph 1(4) above, means the day with effect from which the employee is treated by section 56 of the 1978 Act as being dismissed.
- (4) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (2)(b) above—
- (a) where an act extends over a period, the “date of the act” means the first day of the period, and
 - (b) a deliberate failure to act shall be treated as done when it was decided on, and in the absence of evidence establishing the contrary, an employer shall be taken to decide on a failure to act when he does an act inconsistent with doing the failed act or, if he has done no such inconsistent act, when the period expires within which he might reasonably have been expected to do the failed act if it was to be done.
- (5) A betting worker is not an opted-out betting worker if—
- (a) after giving the opting-out notice concerned, he has given his employer an opting-in notice, and
 - (b) after giving that opting-in notice, he has expressly agreed with his employer to do betting work on Sunday or on a particular Sunday.

- ^{F216g} (1) Where the reason or principal reason for the dismissal of a protected or opted-out betting worker was that he was redundant, but it is shown—
- (a) that the circumstances constituting the redundancy applied equally to one or more other employees in the same undertaking who held positions similar to that held by him and who have not been dismissed by the employer, and
 - (b) that the reason (or, if more than one, the principal reason) for which he was selected for dismissal was that specified in paragraph 7(1) above,
- then, for the purposes of Part V of the 1978 Act, the dismissal shall be regarded as unfair.
- (2) Sub-paragraph (1) above does not apply in relation to an opted-out betting worker where the reason (or principal reason) for which he was selected for dismissal was that specified in paragraph 7(2) above.
- (3) Where the reason or principal reason for the dismissal of a betting worker was that he was redundant, but it is shown—
- (a) that the circumstances constituting the redundancy applied equally to one or more other employees in the same undertaking who held positions similar to that held by him and who have not been dismissed by the employer, and
 - (b) that the reason (or, if more than one, the principal reason) for which he was selected for dismissal was that specified in paragraph 7(3) above,
- then, for the purposes of Part V of the 1978 Act, the dismissal shall be regarded as unfair.

F219 Right not to suffer detriment for refusing Sunday work

Textual Amendments

F219 Crossheading inserted (3.1.1995) by 1994 c. 40, ss. 20(5), 40(1), 82(2), Sch. 8.

- F220¹⁰ (1) Subject to sub-paragraphs (2) and (4) below, a protected or opted-out betting worker has the right not to be subjected to any detriment by any act, or any deliberate failure to act, by his employer done on the ground that the betting worker refused, or proposed to refuse, to do betting work on Sunday or on a particular Sunday.
- (2) Sub-paragraph (1) above does not apply to anything done in relation to an opted-out betting worker on the ground that he refused, or proposed to refuse, to do betting work on any Sunday or Sundays falling before the end of the notice period.
- (3) Subject to sub-paragraph (4) below, a betting worker has the right not to be subjected to any detriment by any act, or any deliberate failure to act, by his employer done on the ground that he gave, or proposed to give, an opting-out notice to his employer.
- (4) Sub-paragraphs (1) and (3) above do not apply where the detriment in question amounts to dismissal.
- (5) For the purposes of this paragraph a betting worker who does not work on Sunday or on a particular Sunday is not to be regarded as having been subjected to any detriment by—
- (a) any failure to pay remuneration in respect of betting work on a Sunday which he has not done,
 - (b) any failure to provide him with any other benefit, where that failure results from the application, in relation to a Sunday on which the employee has not done betting work, of a contractual term under which the extent of that benefit varies according to the number of hours worked by the employee or the remuneration of the employee, or

Status: Point in time view as at 07/01/1996. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

- (c) any failure to provide him with any work, remuneration or other benefit which by virtue of paragraph 14 or 15 below the employer is not obliged to provide.
- (6) Where an employer offers to pay a sum specified in the offer to any one or more employees who are protected or opted-out betting workers or who, under their contracts of employment, are not obliged to do betting work on Sunday, if they agree to do betting work on Sunday or on a particular Sunday—
 - (a) an employee to whom the offer is not made is not to be regarded for the purposes of this paragraph as having been subjected to any detriment by any failure to make the offer to him or to pay him that sum, and
 - (b) an employee who does not accept the offer is not to be regarded for those purposes as having been subjected to any detriment by any failure to pay him that sum.

F221 Employer's duty to give explanatory statement

Textual Amendments

F221 Crossheading inserted (3.1.1995) by 1994 c. 40, ss. 20(5), 40(1), 82(2), Sch. 8.

- ^{F222}11 (1) Where a person becomes a betting worker to whom paragraph 4 above applies, his employer shall, before the end of the period of two months beginning with the day on which that person becomes such a betting worker, give him a written statement in the prescribed form.
- (2) If—
- (a) an employer fails to comply with sub-paragraph (1) above in relation to any betting worker, and
 - (b) the betting worker, on giving the employer an opting-out notice, becomes an opted-out betting worker,
- paragraph 6 above shall have effect, in relation to the betting worker, with the substitution for “three months” of “one month”.
- (3) An employer shall not be regarded as failing to comply with sub-paragraph (1) above in any case where, before the end of the period referred to in that sub-paragraph, the betting worker has given him an opting-out notice.
- (4) Subject to sub-paragraph (5) below, the prescribed form is as follows
- “STATUTORY RIGHTS IN RELATION TO SUNDAY BETTING WORK—
- You have become employed under a contract of employment under which you are or can be required to do Sunday betting work, that is to say, work—
- at a track on a Sunday on which your employer is taking bets at the track, or
 - in a licensed betting office on a Sunday on which it is open for business.

Status: Point in time view as at 07/01/1996. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Betting, Gaming and Lotteries Act 1963 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 17 March 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

However, if you wish, you can give a notice, as described in the next paragraph, to your employer and you will then have the right not to do Sunday betting work once three months have passed from the date on which you gave the notice.

Your notice must—

- be in writing;
- be signed and dated by you;
- say that you object to doing Sunday betting work.

For three months after you give the notice, your employer can still require you to do all the Sunday betting work your contract provides for. After the three month period has ended, you have the right to complain to an industrial tribunal if, because of your refusal to do Sunday betting work, your employer—

- dismisses you, or
- does something else detrimental to you, for example, failing to promote you.

Once you have the rights described, you can surrender them only by giving your employer a further notice, signed and dated by you, saying that you wish to do Sunday betting work or that you do not object to doing Sunday betting work and then agreeing with your employer to do such work on Sundays or on a particular Sunday.”

- (5) The Secretary of State may by order amend the prescribed form set out in sub-paragraph (4) above.
- (6) An order under sub-paragraph (5) above shall be made by statutory instrument which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

^{F223}Effect of rights on contracts of employment

Textual Amendments

F223 Crossheading inserted (3.1.1995) by 1994 c. 40, ss. 20(5), 40(1), 82(2), Sch. 8.

- ^{F224}12 (1) Any contract of employment under which a betting worker who satisfies the conditions in paragraph 2(2)(a) and (b) above was employed on the day before the commencement date is unenforceable to the extent that it—
- (a) requires the betting worker to do betting work on Sunday on or after the commencement date, or
 - (b) requires the employer to provide the betting worker with betting work on Sunday on or after that date.
- (2) Except as provided by sub-paragraph (3) below, any agreement entered into after the commencement date between a protected betting worker and his employer is unenforceable to the extent that it—
- (a) requires the betting worker to do betting work on Sunday, or

- (b) requires the employer to provide the betting worker with betting work on Sunday.
- (3) Where, after giving an opting-in notice, a protected betting worker expressly agrees as mentioned in paragraph 3(1)(b) above (and so ceases to be protected), his contract of employment shall be taken to be varied to the extent necessary to give effect to the terms of the agreement.
- (4) The reference in sub-paragraph (2) above to a protected betting worker includes a reference to an employee who, although not a protected betting worker for the purposes of that sub-paragraph at the time when the agreement is entered into, is a protected betting worker on the day on which she returns to work as mentioned in paragraph 10 of Schedule 13 to the 1978 Act (maternity).

Textual Amendments

F224 Sch. 5A para. 12 inserted (3.1.1995) by 1994 c. 40, ss. 20(5), 40(1), 82(2), Sch. 8.

- ^{F225}13 (1) Where a betting worker gives his employer an opting-out notice, the contract of employment under which he was employed immediately before he gave that notice becomes unenforceable to the extent that it—
- (a) requires the betting worker to do betting work on Sunday after the end of the notice period, or
 - (b) requires the employer to provide the betting worker with betting work on Sunday after the end of that period.
- (2) Except as provided by sub-paragraph (3) below, any agreement entered into between an opted-out betting worker and his employer is unenforceable to the extent that it—
- (a) requires the betting worker to do betting work on Sunday after the end of the notice period, or
 - (b) requires the employer to provide the betting worker with betting work on Sunday after the end of that period.
- (3) Where, after giving an opting-in notice, an opted-out betting worker expressly agrees as mentioned in paragraph 5(5)(b) above (and so ceases to be opted-out), his contract of employment shall be taken to be varied to the extent necessary to give effect to the terms of the agreement.
- (4) The reference in sub-paragraph (2) above to an opted-out betting worker includes a reference to an employee who, although not an opted-out betting worker for the purposes of that sub-paragraph at the time when the agreement is entered into, had given her employer an opting-out notice before that time and is an opted-out betting worker on the day on which she returns to work as mentioned in paragraph 10 of Schedule 13 to the 1978 Act (maternity).

Textual Amendments

F225 Sch. 5A para. 13 inserted (3.1.1995) by 1994 c. 40, ss. 20(5), 40(1), 82(2), Sch. 8.

^{F226}14 If—

Status: Point in time view as at 07/01/1996. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Betting, Gaming and Lotteries Act 1963 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 17 March 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) under the contract of employment under which a betting worker who satisfies the conditions in paragraph 2(2)(a) and (b) above was employed on the day before the commencement date, the employer is, or may be, required to provide him with betting work for a specified number of hours each week,
- (b) under that contract, the betting worker was or might have been required to work on Sunday before the commencement date, and
- (c) the betting worker has done betting work on Sunday in that employment (whether or not before the commencement date) but has, on or after the commencement date, ceased to do so, then, so long as the betting worker remains a protected betting worker, that contract shall not be regarded as requiring the employer to provide him with betting work on weekdays in excess of the hours normally worked by the betting worker on weekdays before he ceased to do betting work on Sunday.

Textual Amendments

F226 Sch. 5A para. 14 inserted (3.1.1995) by 1994 c. 40, ss. 20(5), 40(1), 82(2), Sch. 8.

^{F227}15 (1) If—

- (a) under the contract of employment under which a betting worker who satisfies the conditions in paragraph 2(2)(a) and (b) above was employed on the day before the commencement date, the betting worker was or might have been required to work on Sunday before that date,
- (b) the betting worker has done betting work on Sunday in that employment (whether or not before the commencement date) but has, on or after the commencement date, ceased to do so, and
- (c) it is not apparent from the contract what part of the remuneration payable, or of any other benefit accruing, to the betting worker was intended to be attributable to betting work on Sunday, then, so long as the betting worker remains a protected betting worker, that contract shall be regarded as enabling the employer to reduce the amount of remuneration paid, or the extent of the other benefit provided, to the betting worker in respect of any period by the proportion which the hours of betting work which (apart from this Schedule) the betting worker could have been required to do on Sunday in the period (in this paragraph referred to as “the contractual Sunday hours”) bears to the aggregate of those hours and the hours of work actually done by the betting worker in the period.

- (2) Where, under the contract of employment, the hours of work actually done on weekdays in any period would be taken into account in determining the contractual Sunday hours, they shall be taken into account in determining the contractual Sunday hours for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) above.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C46 Sch. 5ZA: functions of local authority not to be responsibility of an executive of the authority (E.) (16.11.2000) by virtue of S.I. 2000/2853, reg. 2(1), Sch. 1

Licensing authorities

- 1 Each of the following councils shall be the licensing authority for their area for the purposes of this Schedule, that is to say—
- (a) in England and Wales, the council of any county so far as they are the council for an area for which there are no district councils, the council of any county borough, district or London borough and the Common Council of the City of London;
 - (b) in Scotland, a council constituted under section 2 of the Local Government etc. (Scotland) Act 1994 ^{F243}.

Textual Amendments

F243 1994 c.39.

Applications

- 2 (1) An application for a scheme licence shall be made—
- (a) by the person who proposes to operate the scheme; and
 - (b) to the licensing authority for the area in which the proposed centre of operation of the scheme is situated.
- (2) An application for a scheme licence shall—
- (a) be in such form, and contain such information, as the licensing authority to whom it is made may require; and
 - (b) be accompanied by a copy of the scheme and such fee as the applicant may be required to pay under paragraph 18(1) of this Schedule.

Status: Point in time view as at 07/01/1996. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Betting, Gaming and Lotteries Act 1963 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 17 March 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) Not later than seven days after the date when an application for a scheme licence is made, the applicant shall send a copy of the application, and of the scheme to which it relates—
- (a) to the appropriate chief officer of police; and
 - (b) in the case of a renewal application, to the person appointed to carry out in relation to the scheme to which the existing licence relates the functions under this Schedule of a scheme accountant.

Proceedings before the licensing authority

- 3 (1) A licensing authority may only consider an application for a scheme licence at a meeting of which at least seven days' notice has been given to the applicant and the appropriate chief officer of police.
- (2) At any meeting of a licensing authority to consider an application for a scheme licence, the applicant and the appropriate chief officer of police shall be entitled to be heard, either in person or by a representative.

Grant or refusal

- 4 (1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph and paragraph 6(2) of this Schedule, a licensing authority shall grant an application for a scheme licence if they are satisfied—
- (a) that the applicant is a fit and proper person to operate an inter-track betting scheme;
 - (b) that the applicant is likely to be capable of, and diligent in, securing that the terms of the scheme to which the application relates are observed;
 - (c) that the scheme to which the application relates is a qualifying scheme (as defined by paragraph 5 of this Schedule);
 - (d) that the scheme to which the application relates affords to those making bets under it reasonable protection against—
 - (i) fraud or unfair practices on the part of any person involved in the scheme or any person making bets under it;
 - (ii) the failure of any equipment used to effect betting transactions under the scheme or the consequences of the failure of any such equipment; or
 - (iii) disruption caused by, or fraud perpetrated by means of, any unauthorised access to any such equipment; and
 - (e) that the scheme to which the application relates makes —
 - (i) with respect to a person who has, in relation to the scheme, the functions under this Schedule of a scheme accountant, and
 - (ii) with respect to a person who has, in relation to the scheme, the functions under this Schedule of a scheme technical adviser, provision which is adequate to enable him to carry out his functions.
- (2) A licensing authority may refuse an application for a scheme licence if it appears to them that any information given to them by the applicant in, or in connection with, the application is false in a material particular.
- (3) A licensing authority shall refuse to grant an application for a scheme licence if they are not satisfied as mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph.

Status: Point in time view as at 07/01/1996. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Betting, Gaming and Lotteries Act 1963 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 17 March 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) If a licensing authority refuse to grant an application for a scheme licence, they shall notify the applicant and the appropriate chief officer of police in writing of the refusal and of the reason for it.
- 5 For the purposes of paragraph 4(1)(c) of this Schedule, an inter-track betting scheme is a qualifying scheme if it—
- (a) specifies the name and address of the person who is to operate the scheme;
 - (b) sets out the responsibilities of operators of totalisators on participating tracks in connection with the operation of the scheme;
 - (c) sets out, in relation to races to which the scheme applies, the arrangements governing the pooling of bets, transfer of money between participating tracks, the payment of winnings and the carrying over of bets where there are no winning bets;
 - (d) sets out the arrangements governing the provision of information about the operation of the scheme to persons attending participating tracks;
 - (e) sets out the arrangements for ensuring that equipment used for the purposes of the scheme functions properly when betting under the scheme takes place;
 - (f) contains arrangements governing the admission of tracks to the scheme as participating tracks, the supervision of participating tracks and the circumstances in which a track is to cease to be a participating track;
 - (g) makes provision for a person who has, in relation to the scheme, the functions under this Schedule of a scheme accountant or scheme technical adviser to be supplied with information which he needs to carry out his functions; and
 - (h) makes provision for such a person as is mentioned in paragraph (g) of this sub-paragraph to have for the purpose of carrying out his functions (whether in person or by an employee authorised in that behalf in writing)
 - (i) a right of access to the books and papers of the person operating the scheme and of persons operating totalisators on participating tracks; and
 - (ii) a right to examine, and test and watch the operation of, totalisators on participating tracks and any equipment used for or in connection with the operation of the scheme.
- 6 (1) In relation to a renewal application, paragraph 4 of this Schedule shall have effect as if paragraph (c) of sub-paragraph (1) were omitted.
- (2) A licensing authority may also refuse a renewal application if it appears to them that the power of revocation under paragraph 11(2) of this Schedule is exercisable in relation to the existing licence.

Duration

- 7 (1) A scheme licence shall continue in force for a period of 5 years beginning with the date on which it was granted, unless the licensing authority by whom it was granted revoke or cancel it.
- (2) Where a person makes a renewal application and the application is not disposed of or withdrawn before the date on which the existing licence is due to expire, sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph shall have effect in relation to it as if the reference to the end of the 5 year period were a reference to the date on which the application is disposed of or withdrawn.

Scheme accountant and scheme technical adviser

- 8 (1) A licensing authority, in the case of each inter-track betting scheme in respect of which they grant a licence under this Schedule—
- (a) shall appoint an appropriate qualified accountant to carry out in relation to the scheme the functions under this Schedule of a scheme accountant; and
 - (b) may appoint an appropriate person to carry out in relation to the scheme the functions under this Schedule of a scheme technical adviser.
- (2) A licensing authority shall, before appointing a person to carry out in relation to an inter-track betting scheme the functions under this Schedule of a scheme technical adviser, consult with the person appointed by them to carry out in relation to the scheme the functions under this Schedule of a scheme accountant.
- (3) A person appointed under sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph shall hold office on such terms (including terms as to remuneration) as may be determined by the appointing authority after consultation with the relevant licensee.
- (4) The remuneration of a person appointed under sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph shall be payable by the appointing authority, but they may recover any sum which they pay by way of such remuneration as a debt due to them from the relevant licensee.
- (5) In sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph, “appropriate” means—
- (a) independent of the relevant licensee; and
 - (b) appearing to the appointing authority to have suitable knowledge and experience.
- (6) In this paragraph—
- (a) “remuneration” includes expenses; and
 - (b) references to the relevant licensee, in relation to an appointment under sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph, are to the person who holds the licence under this Schedule in respect of the scheme for which the appointment is made.
- 9 (1) A scheme accountant for an inter-track betting scheme shall be responsible for scrutinising the operation of the scheme and, in particular, shall—
- (a) examine all information supplied to him under the scheme or this Schedule; and
 - (b) carry out or cause to be carried out such inspections as he considers necessary, for the purpose of ascertaining whether the terms of the scheme are being complied with.
- (2) Where a scheme accountant for an inter-track betting scheme —
- (a) has reason to believe that the terms of the scheme are not being complied with; or
 - (b) becomes aware of any information which is relevant to the functions of the licensing authority,
- he shall report the matter to the licensing authority forthwith.
- (3) A scheme accountant for an inter-track betting scheme shall make a report to the relevant licensing authority—

Status: Point in time view as at 07/01/1996. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Betting, Gaming and Lotteries Act 1963 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 17 March 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) as soon as reasonably practicable after each anniversary of the grant of a licence under this Schedule in respect of the scheme; and
 - (b) as soon as reasonably practicable after receiving notice under paragraph 2(3)(b) of this Schedule.
- (4) A report under sub-paragraph (3)(a) of this paragraph shall cover the period since the grant of the licence or, as the case may be, since the end of the period covered by the previous report under that provision relating to the scheme.
- (5) A report under sub-paragraph (3)(b) of this paragraph shall cover the period since the end of the period covered by last report under sub-paragraph (3)(a) of this paragraph relating to the scheme.
- (6) A report under sub-paragraph (3) of this paragraph shall —
- (a) state whether the person making the report—
 - (i) has reason to believe that the terms of the scheme have not been complied with during the period covered by the report; or
 - (ii) has become aware during that period of any information which is relevant to the functions of the licensing authority;
- and
- (b) if, in either case, he has, give particulars.
- (7) A scheme accountant for an inter-track betting scheme shall, at any time when there is a scheme technical adviser for the scheme, carry out his functions under sub-paragraphs (1)(b) and (3) of this paragraph in consultation with that person.
- (8) A scheme accountant for an inter-track betting scheme and a scheme technical adviser for such a scheme shall give to the relevant licensing authority such information and advice in connection with the authority's functions under this Schedule as the authority may reasonably require.
- (9) In this paragraph, “relevant licensing authority”, in relation to a scheme accountant or scheme technical adviser, means the licensing authority by whom he is appointed.

Notification of change in licensee's directors

- 10 If, where the holder of a scheme licence is a body corporate, any change occurs in—
- (a) the persons who are its directors; or
 - (b) the persons in accordance with whose directions or instructions its directors are accustomed to act,
- it shall, as soon as reasonably practicable after the occurrence of the change, give particulars in writing of the change to the licensing authority by whom the licence was granted, the appropriate chief officer of police and the person appointed to carry out in relation to the scheme the functions under this Schedule of a scheme accountant.

Revocation

- 11 (1) The licensing authority by whom a scheme licence was granted shall revoke it if they are satisfied—
- (a) that the licensee is not a fit and proper person to operate an inter-track betting scheme; or

Status: Point in time view as at 07/01/1996. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Betting, Gaming and Lotteries Act 1963 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 17 March 2024. - (b) that the licensee is not likely to be capable of, and diligent in, securing that the terms of the scheme to which the licence relates are observed, or if the scheme to which the licence relates does not have its centre of operation in the authority's area.
- (2) The licensing authority by whom a scheme licence was granted may revoke it if it appears to them—
- (a) that any information given to them by the licensee in, or in connection with—
- (i) the application for the licence; or
- (ii) where the application was a renewal application, any previous relevant application,
- was false in a material particular;
- (b) having regard to the operation of the scheme to which the licence relates, that it does not afford to persons making bets under it such protection as is mentioned in paragraph 4(1)(d) of this Schedule;
- (c) that any provision of the scheme to which the licence relates with respect to the rights of a person who has, in relation to the scheme, the functions under this Schedule of a scheme accountant or scheme technical adviser has not been complied with; or
- (d) that there has been any failure on the part of the licensee to comply with the obligation imposed by paragraph 10 of this Schedule;
- or if any fee which is payable to them under paragraph 18(2) of this Schedule in respect of the licence has not been duly paid.
- (3) A licensing authority shall, before revoking a scheme licence under this paragraph, given the licensee an opportunity to be heard.
- (4) At any hearing for the purposes of sub-paragraph (3) of this paragraph, the licensee shall be entitled to be heard either in person or by a representative.
- (5) In sub-paragraph (2)(a)(ii) of this paragraph, the reference to any relevant previous application is to any previous application for the grant of a scheme licence made—
- (a) by the same person;
- (b) to the same licensing authority; and
- (c) in respect of the same scheme,
- as the renewal application.
- 12 If a licensing authority revoke a scheme licence, they shall notify the revocation and the reason for it in writing to—
- (a) the licensee; and
- (b) the appropriate chief officer of police.

Cancellation

- 13 (1) The licensing authority by whom a scheme licence was granted shall cancel it if requested to do so by the licensee.
- (2) If the licensing authority by whom a scheme licence was granted cancel the licence, they shall notify the cancellation in writing to the appropriate chief officer of police.

Status: Point in time view as at 07/01/1996. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Appeals

- 14 (1) Where a licensing authority in England and Wales—
- (a) refuse an application for a scheme licence; or
 - (b) revoke a scheme licence,
- the applicant or, as the case may be, the licensee may appeal against the decision to the Crown Court.
- (2) An appeal under this paragraph shall be commenced by giving notice to—
- (a) the appropriate officer of the Crown Court; and
 - (b) the licensing authority whose decision it is desired to appeal against,
- within twenty-one days of the applicant or, as the case may be, the licensee being notified by that authority of their decision.
- 15 (1) Where a licensing authority in Scotland—
- (a) refuse an application for a scheme licence; or
 - (b) revoke a scheme licence,
- the applicant or, as the case may be, the licensee may appeal against the decision to the sheriff having jurisdiction in the relevant area.
- (2) An appeal under this paragraph shall be made within such time, and in accordance with such rules, as may be prescribed by the Court of Session by act of sederunt.
- (3) On an appeal under this paragraph, the decision of the sheriff shall be final and may include such order as to the expenses of the appeal as he thinks proper.
- (4) In sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph, the reference to the relevant area is to the area in which the scheme's centre of operation is proposed to be or, as the case may be, is situated.
- 16 (1) Where a licensing authority revoke a scheme licence, the revocation shall not have effect until the end of the time within which notice of appeal may be given and, if such notice is given, until the determination or abandonment of the appeal.
- (2) If, on an appeal against the decision of a licensing authority to revoke a scheme licence, the Crown Court or, as the case may be, the sheriff confirms the decision of the licensing authority, the court or the sheriff may, if it or he thinks fit, order that the revocation shall be postponed until the end of a further period not exceeding two months from the date of the order.
- 17 (1) Where a licensing authority refuse a renewal application, the existing licence shall not expire until the end of the time within which notice of appeal may be given and, if such notice is given, until the determination or abandonment of the appeal.
- (2) If, on an appeal against the decision of a licensing authority to refuse a renewal application, the Crown Court or, as the case may be, the sheriff confirms the decision of the licensing authority, the court or the sheriff may, if it or he thinks fit, order that the expiry of the existing licence shall be postponed for a period not exceeding two months from the date of the order.

Fees

- 18 (1) A person who applies for a scheme licence shall pay to the licensing authority to whom the application is made such reasonable fee as the authority may determine.

Status: Point in time view as at 07/01/1996. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The holder of a scheme licence shall—
- (a) on each anniversary of the grant of the licence; and
 - (b) where the licence terminates otherwise than on the anniversary of its grant, on its termination,
- pay to the licensing authority by whom it was granted such reasonable fee as the authority may determine.

Interpretation

- 19 In this Schedule—
- “appropriate chief officer of police” means—
- (i) in relation to an application for a scheme licence, the chief officer of police for the police area in which the scheme’s proposed centre of operation is situated; and
 - (ii) in relation to a scheme licence, the chief officer of police for the police area in which the scheme’s centre of operation was, at the time of the application for the licence, proposed to be situated;
- “centre of operation”, in relation to an inter-track betting scheme, means the place, or principal place, from which the operation of the scheme is carried on;
- “existing licence”, in relation to a renewal application, means the licence under this Schedule which the applicant holds in respect of the scheme to which the application relates;
- “participating track”, in relation to an inter-track betting scheme, means a licensed track which participates in the scheme;
- “renewal application” means an application which is made —
- (a) by a person who holds a licence under this Schedule in respect of an inter-track betting scheme which is the same as that to which the application relates; and
 - (b) to the licensing authority by whom the licence was granted;
- “scheme accountant” means a person appointed under paragraph 8(1)(a) of this Schedule;
- “scheme licence” means a licence under this Schedule in respect of an inter-track betting scheme; and
