- (1) The Ministers may make regulations for the purpose of securing humane conditions and practices in connection with the slaughter of birds to which this Act applies.
- (2) The regulations may—
  - (a) specify conditions to be observed in connection with the confinement and treatment of any such birds while awaiting slaughter and in connection with the slaughter or any such birds;
  - (b) prohibit the slaughter of any such birds or any activity connected with their slaughter—
    - (i) on premises to which the regulations apply, or
    - (ii) by methods or in circumstances of any description specified in the regulations, except under and in accordance with the terms of a licence under the regulations;

  - (c) require occupiers of premises to which the regulations apply to secure that the provisions of the regulations are complied with on the premises;
  - (d) make different provision for different cases;
  - (e) provide, in the case of any contravention of any provision of the regulations, for the creation of offences and their punishment on summary conviction with a fine of an amount not exceeding that specified in the regulations.
- (3) The regulations may include provision in respect of—
  - (a) the granting, modification, suspension and revocation of licences by local authorities and, in connection with those matters, the charging of such reasonable fees as the authority concerned may determine;
  - (b) the requirements to be satisfied for the granting of licences and the conditions to which they are to be subject; and
  - (c) the duration of licences.
- (4) The amount that may be specified under subsection (2)(e) of this section is an amount not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.
- (5) Subsections (2) and (3) of this section are without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) of this section.
- (6) The Ministers shall, before making any regulations under this section, consult with such persons or bodies as seem to them representative of the interests concerned.
- (7) The power to make regulations under this section shall be exercisable by statutory instrument which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.]

Subordinate Legislation Made

- P1 S. 3: s. 3 (with s. 6(2)) power exercised by S.I. 1991/1676.
S. 3: for previous exercises of this power see Index to Government Orders

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Slaughter of Poultry Act 1967. (See end of Document for details)

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C2 S. 3 power to transfer functions conferred (3.1.1995) by 1994 c. 40, ss. 31, 82(2), Sch. 9, para. 1(1)

- [<sup>F5</sup>3A
- (1) The Ministers may from time to time after consultation with such persons or bodies as seem to them representative of the interests concerned—
    - (a) prepare and issue codes of practice for the purpose of providing practical guidance in respect of any provision of this Act or regulations under it; and
    - (b) revise any such code by revoking, varying, amending or adding to the provisions of the code.
  - (2) A code prepared in pursuance of this section and any alterations proposed to be made on a revision of such a code shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament, and the Ministers shall not issue the code or revised code, as the case may be, until after the end of the period of 40 days beginning with the day on which the code or the proposed alterations were so laid.
  - (3) If, within the period mentioned in subsection (2) of this section, either House resolves that the code be not issued or the proposed alterations be not made, as the case may be, the Ministers shall not issue the code or revised code (without prejudice to their power under that subsection to lay further codes or proposed alterations before Parliament).
  - (4) For the purposes of subsection (2) of this section—
    - (a) where a code or proposed alterations are laid before each House of Parliament on different days, the later day shall be taken to be the day on which the code or the proposed alterations, as they case may be, were laid before both Houses; and
    - (b) in reckoning any period of 40 days, no account shall be taken of any time during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued or during which both Houses are adjourned for more than four days.
  - (5) The Ministers shall cause any code issued or revised under this section to be printed and distributed, and may make such arrangements as they think fit for its distribution, including causing copies of it to be put on sale to the public at such reasonable price as the Ministers may determine.
  - (6) A failure on the part of any person to follow any guidance contained in a code issued under this section shall not of itself render that person liable to proceedings of any kind.
  - (7) If, in proceedings against any person for an offence consisting of the contravention of any provision of this Act or of regulations under it, it is shown that, at any material time, he failed to follow any guidance contained in a code issued under this section, being guidance which was relevant to the provision concerned, that failure may be relied on by the prosecution as tending to establish his guilt.]
  - [<sup>F6</sup>(8) In relation to the exercise by the Scottish Ministers of functions under this section—
    - (a) references to Parliament or to either or both Houses of Parliament shall be read as if they were references to the Scottish Parliament;
    - (b) subsection (4)(a) shall cease to have effect; and
    - (c) in subsection (4)(b) the reference to any time during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued or during which both Houses are adjourned for more
