- “(2) Where a person performs an act under the authority of or at the request of the Commission of section 6 of this Act or in pursuance of a control scheme he shall not by reason of that Act be liable to be proceeded against for an offence against this Act, except that—
- (a) where the person is an officer or servant of the Commission performing an act as aforesaid in pursuance of the said section 6, and the act constitutes an offence against section 23(2) of this Act, or
 - (b) where the person is any such officer or servant performing an act as aforesaid in pursuance of a control scheme, and the act constitutes an offence against either subsection (1) or (2) of the said section 23, or
 - (c) in the case of any other person performing an act for either of the purposes mentioned in the two last foregoing paragraphs, if the act constitutes an offence against either of the said subsections,
- he shall be so liable.
- (3) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 21 of this Act, or any order made thereunder, it shall not be an offence—
- (a) for an occupier of agricultural land or of enclosed woodlands, or for any person authorised by him in writing in that behalf, to take or kill during a close season any deer found on arable land, garden grounds or land laid down in permanent grass (other than moorland and unenclosed land) forming part of that land, or on such woodlands, as the case may be, and
 - (b) for a person authorised by the Secretary of State in writing in that behalf to take or kill deer during a close season for some scientific purpose.”

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C3 The text of sections 1 and 2 is in the form in which it was originally enacted: it was not reproduced in Statutes in Force and does not reflect any amendments or repeals which may have been made prior to 1.2.1991.
