Restrictions on commercial use of under-sized, etc., sea fish

[^{F1}1] Size limits, etc. for fish.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section and of section 9(1) of this Act, no person shall land in Great Britain any sea fish of any description, being a fish of a smaller size than such size as may be prescribed in relation to sea fish of that description by an order of the Ministers.
- (2) Subject to the provisions of this section, no person shall, in Great Britain, sell, expose or offer for sale or have in his possession for the purpose of sale, any sea fish of any description, being a fish of a smaller size than such size as may be prescribed in relation to sea fish of that description by an order of the Ministers.

- (3) Sea fish of any description which are of less than the minimum size prescribed in relation to sea fish of that description by an order of the Ministers shall not be carried, whether within or outside British fishery limits, on a British fishing boat; and an order under this subsection may prohibit the carrying by any foreign fishing boat in waters adjacent to the United Kingdom and within British fishery limits of sea fish of any description prescribed by the order which are of less than the minimum size so prescribed in relation to sea fish of that description.
- (4) Different sizes may be prescribed for the purposes of each of the foregoing provisions of this section; and an order under subsection (1) above may prescribe different sizes in relation to different areas and in relation to fish of different sexes.
- (5) Where an order under subsection (1) above prescribes a size for fish of any description (or of any description and sex), whether generally or in relation to any particular area, then, except so far as provision to the contrary is made by such an order, a person who in Great Britain or, as the case may be, in that area lands a part of a fish of that description (or of that description and sex) shall, subject to section 9(1) of this Act, be deemed to contravene subsection (1) above if the part is of a smaller size than the one so prescribed.
- (6) An order under this section may confer exemptions from any prohibition imposed by or by virtue of this section; and any such exemption may be general or subject to conditions and may relate to all fish to which the order applies or to fish of any specified description.
- (7) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) above shall be guilty of an offence under that subsection.
- (8) If subsection (3) above is contravened in the case of a British fishing boat the master, the owner and the charterer (if any) shall each be guilty of an offence under that subsection; and if a prohibition imposed by virtue of that subsection is contravened in the case of a foreign fishing boat, the master shall be guilty of an offence under that subsection.
- (9) In this section “British fishing boat” means a fishing boat which is registered in the United Kingdom [^{F2}excluded from registration by regulations under section 13 of the Merchant Shipping Act 1988 or owned wholly by a person who is (within the meaning of Part I of the Merchant Shipping Act 1894)] a person qualified to own a British ship; and “foreign fishing boat” means any fishing boat other than a British fishing boat.]

2 Size limits for fish for use in course of any business.

- (1) Subject to any exemption granted under this section, no person shall in Great Britain have in his possession any fish to which this section applies for the purpose of processing or otherwise using it in the course of any business.
- (2) This section applies to any fish which under section [^{F3}1(2)] of this Act is prohibited from being sold in Great Britain.
- (3) Where it appears to an officer authorised in that behalf by the appropriate Minister that any fish which have been caught are fish to which this section applies, the officer may grant to any person such exemption from subsection (1) above as the officer considers requisite to enable the fish to be disposed of.
- (4) Any person who contravenes this section shall be guilty of an offence under this section.

Regulation of fishing for sea fish

3 Regulation of nets and other fishing gear.

- (1) The Ministers may make an order for securing that the nets and other fishing gear carried in any British fishing boat registered in the United Kingdom comply with such requirements as to construction, design, material, or size, including, in the case of nets, size of mesh, as may be prescribed by the order, and an order under this section, or any provisions of such an order, may be framed so as to apply only in relation to fishing for specified descriptions of sea fish, to specified methods of fishing or to fishing in specified areas or during specified periods.
- (2) An order under this section may be made so as to extend to nets or other fishing gear carried in any waters adjacent to the United Kingdom and within [^{F4}British fishery limits] by fishing boats registered in any country outside the United Kingdom or not registered in any country.
- (3) An order under this section prescribing minimum sizes of mesh may also—
 - (a) prescribe the manner in which the sizes of mesh are to be measured and, in the case of any class of nets, prescribe different sizes for the nets when in different conditions;
 - (b) make provision for securing that the restrictions imposed by the order are not evaded by the use of any nets in such manner as practically to diminish their mesh, or by the covering of nets with canvas or any other material, or by the use of any other artifice;
 - (c) provide for exempting any nets from any such restrictions as aforesaid, either generally or in relation to particular fishing boats or classes of fishing boats, if and so long as such conditions as may be imposed by or under the order are complied with.

Status: Point in time view as at 17/01/1993. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Sea Fish (Conservation) Act 1967. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Without prejudice to subsection (3) above, an order under this section may, in relation to any fishing gear,—
- (a) restrict the manner in which it may be used;
 - (b) prescribe the manner in which its size is to be measured;
 - (c) make provision for securing that the restrictions imposed by the order are not evaded;
 - (d) make the like provision for exemption as is mentioned in relation to nets in subsection (3)(c) above.
- (5) If any order under this section is contravened in the case of any fishing boat, the master, the owner and the charterer (if any) shall each be guilty of an offence under this section.
- (6) Any restrictions imposed by an order under this section shall be in addition to, and not in substitution for, any restriction imposed by or under any other Act, and nothing in this section shall affect any power conferred by any Act to regulate sea fishing.
- (7) Nothing in any ^{F5}byelaw, rule, order or regulation made under section 4 of the ^{M1}Sea Fisheries (Scotland) Amendment Act 1885, section 6 of the ^{M2}Herring Fishery (Scotland) Act 1889 or section 8 of the ^{M3}Sea Fisheries Regulation (Scotland) Act 1895^{F5} or order made under section 1 of the Inshore Fishing (Scotland) Act 1984^{F5}, or in any byelaw made, or having effect as if made, under section 5 of the ^{M4}Sea Fisheries Regulation Act 1966, or in any regulation made, or deemed to be made, under the ^{M5}Fisheries Act (Northern Ireland) 1966, shall be taken to authorise the carrying of fishing nets in circumstances where the carrying of those nets would otherwise be unlawful by virtue of an order made under this section.

- (a) that in any specified area within British fishery limits fishing by fishing boats (whether British or foreign) is prohibited unless authorised by a licence granted by one of the Ministers;
 - (b) that in any specified area outside those limits fishing by British fishing boats is prohibited unless so authorised.
- (2) Such an order may apply to fishing generally in the specified area or to fishing—
- (a) for a specified description of sea fish;
 - (b) by a specified method;
 - (c) during a specified season of the year or other period; or
 - (d) in the case of an order under subsection (1)(a), by fishing boats registered in a specified country,
- and whether the order is general or limited in scope it may provide for exceptions from the prohibition contained in it.
- (3) Where any fishing boat is used in contravention of any prohibition imposed by an order under this section, the master, the owner and the charterer (if any) are each guilty of an offence under this subsection.
- (4) An order under this section, if made with the consent of the Treasury given for the purposes of this subsection, may authorise the making of a charge for a licence under this section.

Such an order shall specify a maximum charge and may specify different maxima in relation to different classes of licence.

- (5) A licence under this section shall be granted to the owner or charterer in respect of a named vessel and may authorise fishing generally or may confer limited authority by reference to, in particular,—
- (a) the area within which fishing is authorised;
 - (b) the periods, times or particular voyages during which fishing is authorised;
 - (c) the descriptions and quantities of fish which may be taken; or
 - (d) the method of sea fishing.
- (6) A licence under this section may authorise fishing either unconditionally or subject to such conditions as appear to the Minister granting the licence to be necessary or expedient for the regulation of sea fishing [^{F7}(including conditions which do not relate directly to fishing)], and in particular a licence may contain conditions—
- (a) as to the landing of fish or parts of fish taken under the authority of the licence (including specifying the ports at which the catch is to be landed); or
 - (b) as to the use to which the fish taken may be put: [^{F8}or
 - (c) restricting the time which a vessel named in the licence may spend at sea (whether for the purpose of fishing or otherwise);]

and if a licence condition is broken the master, the owner and the charterer (if any) of the vessel named in the licence are each guilty of an offence under this subsection.

[The conditions subject to which a licence may be granted under this section may differ ^{F9}(6A) as between different vessels or between vessels of different descriptions.]

[A licence containing a condition restricting the time which a vessel may spend at sea ^{F10}(6B) may make provision as to the circumstances in which time is, or is not, to count as time spent at sea.

Status: Point in time view as at 17/01/1993. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Sea Fish (Conservation) Act 1967. (See end of Document for details)

- (6C) The Ministers shall by order make provision as to the principles on which the time which vessels may spend at sea is to be arrived at for the purposes of any condition included in a licence by virtue of subsection (6)(c) above.
- (6D) Before considering what action to take under subsection (6C) above, the Ministers shall first give due consideration to a scheme of decommissioning in order to achieve a significant reduction in the capacity of the fishing fleet.]
- (7) The Minister granting a licence under this section may require the master, the owner and the charterer (if any) of the vessel named in the licence to provide him with [^{F11}such information, in such form,] as he may direct, and a person who fails [^{F12}without reasonable excuse] to comply with such a requirement is guilty of an offence under this subsection.
- [Any person who—
- ^{F13}(7A) (a) for the purpose of obtaining a licence under this section; or
 (b) in purported compliance with subsection (7) above, furnishes information which he knows to be false in a material particular or recklessly furnishes information which is false in a material particular shall be guilty of an offence under this subsection.]
- (8) The licensing powers conferred by this section may be exercised so as to limit the number of fishing boats, or of any class of fishing boats, engaged in fishing in any area, or in fishing in any area for any description of fish, to such extent as appears to the Ministers necessary or expedient for the regulation of sea fishing.
- (9) A licence under this section—
- (a) may be varied from time to time; and
- (b) may be revoked or suspended, if this appears to the Minister who granted the licence to be necessary or expedient for the regulation of sea fishing [^{F14}or to be appropriate in a case where there is a contravention of a prohibition imposed by an order under this section or a contravention of a condition of the licence].
- [Where an order under this section prohibits fishing in a specified area for a specified
- ^{F15}(9A) description of sea fish there shall be returned to the sea forthwith—
- (a) any sea fish of that description taken on board a fishing boat in contravention of the order; and
- (b) except so far as the order otherwise provides, any sea fish of that description taken on board a fishing boat in that area in the course of fishing for sea fish of a different description;
- but, where the order applies only to fishing by a specified method or during a specified period or by boats of a specified description, paragraph (b) above applies only if the fish are caught by that method, during that period or by a boat of that description.
- (9B) Where subsection (9A) above is not complied with in the case of any fishing boat, the master, the owner and the charterer (if any) shall each be guilty of an offence under that subsection.]
- (10) If a licence is varied, revoked or suspended the Minister who granted it may, if he considers it appropriate in all the circumstances of the case, refund the whole or part of any charge made for the licence.

Status: Point in time view as at 17/01/1993. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Sea Fish (Conservation) Act 1967. (See end of Document for details)

- (11) The Ministers may make arrangements for any of their licensing powers under this section (but not the power to make orders under subsection (1)) to be exercised by other persons on their behalf.
- (12) In this section “British fishing boat” means a fishing boat which is registered in the United Kingdom or is British-owned, and “foreign fishing boat” means a fishing boat which is not so registered or owned.]

5 Power to restrict fishing for sea fish.

[^{F22}(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, the Ministers may by order prohibit in any area specified in the order and either for a period so specified or without limitation of time—

- (a) all fishing for sea fish; or
- (b) fishing for any description of sea fish specified in the order; or
- (c) fishing for sea fish, or for any description of sea fish specified in the order, by any method so specified, by any fishing boat to which the prohibition applies; and where any fishing boat is used in contravention of any prohibition imposed by an order under this section, the master, the owner and the charterer (if any) shall each be guilty of an offence under this subsection.

(2) Orders under this section may make different provision in relation to fishing boats of different descriptions.]

(5) Any prohibition imposed by an order under this section may be made so as to have effect either at all times while the order is in force or at such times as (whether by reference to particular months, weeks, days or hours, or to any combination thereof) are specified in the order.

(6) Where an order under this section is made in respect of a description of sea fish specified in the order, and, in the course of any fishing operations conducted in an area so specified and at a time when a prohibition imposed by the order in relation to sea fish of that description has effect in that area, any sea fish of that description (or, if the prohibition applies only to fishing for sea fish of that description by a method specified in the order, any sea fish of that description caught by that method) are taken on board [^{F23}a fishing boat to which the order applies], those sea fish shall, subject to section 9 of this Act [^{F24}and except where the order otherwise provides], be returned to the sea forthwith.

(7) Where subsection (6) above is not complied with in the case of any fishing boat, the master, the owner and the charterer (if any) shall each be guilty of an offence under that subsection.

[^{F25}(8) An order under this section relating to an area outside British fishery limits shall not apply to any fishing boat other than—

- (a) a British fishing boat registered in the United Kingdom; or
- (b) in so far as the order relates to fishing for salmon or migratory trout, a fishing boat which is British-owned but not registered under the Merchant Shipping Act 1894;

but an order under this section relating to an area within those limits may apply to any fishing boat.]

7 Declarations required for purposes of orders under s. 6.

- (1) Any British sea-fishery officer may serve on the master of any vessel a notice in writing under the hand of the officer requiring the master to make, on each occasion when any sea fish are about to be landed in the United Kingdom from that vessel while [^{F32}any order under section 6(1) of this Act] is in force, a written declaration that those sea fish are not sea fish the landing of which is prohibited by the order, and to deliver the declaration, before any of the sea fish are landed, to such person, or at such place, in the port of landing as may be specified in the notice:

Provided that a notice under this subsection shall not be taken to require the making or delivery of any declaration in respect of the landing of any sea fish after the end of the period of six months from the date on which the notice is served.

- (2) Where any sea fish are brought to land in the United Kingdom in any vessel, any British sea-fishery officer may, at any time before the vessel next puts out to sea, request the master to make, in respect of any of those sea fish which have been, or are being, or are about to be, landed from the vessel while [^{F32}any order under section 6(1) of this Act] is in force a written declaration that the sea fish in question are not sea fish the landing of which is prohibited by the order, and to deliver the declaration to the officer or to such person, or at such place, in the port of landing as he may designate.

Nothing in this subsection shall be taken to affect the operation of subsection (1) above.

- [^{F33}(2A) Any British sea-fishery officer may serve on the master of any vessel a notice in writing under the hand of the officer requiring the master to make, on each occasion when any sea fish are about to be trans-shipped within British fishery limits from that vessel while an order under section 6(1A) of this Act is in force, a written declaration that those sea fish are not sea fish the trans-shipment of which is prohibited by the order, and to deliver the declaration, before any of the sea fish are trans-shipped, to the officer or to such other person or at such place as may be specified in the notice and as appears to the officer to be reasonable in the circumstances:

Provided that a notice under this subsection shall not be taken to require the making or delivery of any declaration in respect of the trans-shipment of any sea fish after the end of the period of six months from the date on which the notice is served.

- (2B) Where any sea fish have been or are being trans-shipped, or where a British sea-fishery officer has reasonable grounds for believing that any sea fish are about to be trans-shipped, within British fishery limits from any vessel while an order under section 6(1A) of this Act is in force, any such officer may request the master of the vessel to make and deliver to the officer a written declaration that the sea fish in question are not sea fish the trans-shipment of which is prohibited by the order.

Nothing in this subsection shall be taken to affect the operation of subsection (2A) above.]

- (3) If the master of any vessel makes for the purposes of this section a declaration which is to his knowledge false in any material particular, he shall be guilty of an offence under this section; and if the master of any vessel fails to make, in respect of any sea fish, a declaration in accordance with the requirements of a notice duly served on him under this section or in accordance with a request duly made under this section by a British sea-fishery officer, [^{F34}the said sea fish shall—

- (a) where the notice or request was served or made under subsection (1) or (2) above, be presumed until the contrary is proved to be sea fish the landing of which is prohibited under section 6 of this Act; and 8 Regulation of landing of foreign-caught sea fish.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section and of section 9 of this Act, the [^{F36}Secretary of State for Trade], after consultation with the Ministers, may by order regulate the landing in the United Kingdom of sea fish which have not been both—
- (a) taken by British fishing boats registered in the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man or any of the Channel Islands; and
 - (b) brought to land in the United Kingdom without having been previously landed outside the United Kingdom;
- and, without prejudice to the generality of the power conferred by the foregoing provisions of this section, an order under this section may determine for any such period as may be specified in the order—
- (i) the descriptions of such sea fish as aforesaid which may be landed in the United Kingdom;
 - (ii) the quantity of such sea fish, or of any description thereof, which may be so landed;
- but the landing of sea fish taken by a British fishing boat registered in the Isle of Man or any of the Channel Islands shall not be exempt from the operation of an order under this section unless the master is either a British subject or a citizen of the Republic of Ireland and the second hand is also either a British subject or such a citizen.
- (2) Any order under this section may contain such provisions as appear to the [^{F36}Secretary of State for Trade] after consultation with the Ministers, to be necessary for securing the due operation and enforcement of the scheme of regulation contained in the order.
- (3) An order under this section regulating the landing of sea fish shall not be made unless it appears to the [^{F36}Secretary of State for Trade], after consultation with the Ministers, that there have been, or are being, taken all such steps (if any) as are practicable and necessary for the efficient reorganisation of that branch of the sea fishing industry of the United Kingdom or of that branch of the fish curing industry in the United Kingdom, as the case may be, in whose interests the order is proposed to be made.

Exemption for certain operations

9 Exemption for operations for scientific and other purposes.

- (1) Nothing in section [^{F37}1(1) or (5)] of this Act shall restrict the landing of fish taken in the course of fishing operations which, under the authority of one of the Ministers, are conducted for the purpose of scientific investigation.
- (2) Nothing in section 1(3) of this Act or in any order made under section 3 thereof shall apply in relation to fishing operations which, under the authority of one of the Ministers, are conducted for the purpose of scientific investigation or for the purpose of transplanting fish from one fishing ground to another.
- (3) Neither a prohibition imposed by an order under section 5 of this Act, nor the obligation imposed by subsection (6) of that section, shall apply in relation to fishing operations conducted under the authority of one of the Ministers for either of the purposes mentioned in subsection (2) above.
- (4) No enactment to which this subsection applies, and no order or byelaw made (whether before or after the passing of this Act) under any such enactment, shall restrict the carrying on of any operations which, under the authority of one of the Ministers, are conducted for the purpose of scientific investigation, or for the purpose of transplanting sea fish from one fishing ground to another, or shall restrict the landing of sea fish caught in the course of any such operations.
- (5) Subsection (4) above applies to sections 4, [^{F38}4A,] 5, 6 and 8 of this Act and to any other enactment which provides for regulating the catching or landing of sea fish.
- (6) Subsection (4) above shall have effect in addition to, and not in derogation of, subsections (1), (2) and (3) above and any express saving or exemption contained in such other enactment as is referred to in subsection (5) above or in any order or byelaw made under an enactment to which the said subsection (4) applies.

In reckoning for the purpose of this subsection any period of twenty-eight days, no account shall be taken of any time during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued, or during which the House of Commons is adjourned for more than four days.

- (5) A statutory instrument containing an order made under section 4, [F644A,] 5 or 6 of this Act, and a statutory instrument containing an order made under section 15 thereof in relation to any of those sections or an order thereunder, except a statutory instrument to which [F65subsection (5A) or (6)] below applies, shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- [F66(5A) A principle of the kind to which subsection (5B) below applies shall not be included in any order under section 4(6C) of this Act which makes provision for principles of any other kind; but any statutory instrument containing a separate order providing for a principle of that kind shall not be made unless a draft of the order has been laid before, and approved by resolution of, each House of Parliament.
- (5B) This subsection applies to a principle providing for a reduction in the time which all vessels, or all vessels of any specified description, may spend at sea during any period by comparison with the time which they, or vessels of that description, were permitted to spend (or spent or were treated as spending) during a specified previous period (making any necessary adjustment where the periods are of different lengths); and for this purpose “description” means description framed by reference to size of vessel, method or area of fishing or description of fish.]
- (6) Where an order under section 5(1) of this Act is made so as to have effect in relation to salmon or migratory trout (whether it is made so as to have effect in relation to any other description of fish or not), then, if the order contains a statement in accordance with subsection (3) of that section, the statutory instrument containing the order shall be of no effect unless it is approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (7) As soon as may be after the making of any of the following orders, that is to say, an order under section 1, 3, 6 or 8 of this Act and an order under section 15 thereof relating to the said section 1 or 3 or an order thereunder, the authority making the order shall, in such manner as that authority thinks best for informing persons concerned, publish a notice stating that the order has been made and specifying the place where copies of the order may be purchased.

22 Interpretation.

(1) In this Act, except in so far as the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings hereby assigned to them respectively, that is to say—

“British-owned”, in relation to a fishing boat, means owned by a person who is (within the meaning of the ^{M11}Merchant Shipping Act 1894) a person qualified to own a British ship, or owned by two or more persons any one of whom is (within the meaning of that Act) a person so qualified;

“British sea-fishery officer” means any person who by virtue of [^{F68}section 7 of the ^{M12}Sea Fisheries Act 1968] is a British sea-fishery officer;

“fishing boat” means a vessel of whatever size, and in whatever way propelled, which is for the time being employed in sea fishing or (except in section 5 and except in section 15 in so far as that section applies to sections 5 and 6 of this Act and orders made under those sections) the sea fishing service;

“the Fishmongers’ Company” means the wardens and commonalty of the Mystery of Fishmongers in the City of London;

“local fisheries committee” means a local fisheries committee constituted by an order made, or having effect as if made, under section 1 of the ^{M13}Sea Fisheries Regulation Act 1966;

“market authority” means any person having power to regulate a market;

“master” includes, in relation to any vessel, the person for the time being in command or charge of the vessel;

“migratory trout” means trout which migrate to and from the sea;

“processing” (in relation to fish) includes preserving or preparing fish, or producing any substance or article from fish, by any method for human or animal consumption;

“salmon” includes any fish of the salmon species:

“sea fish” means fish, whether fresh or cured, of any kind found in the sea, including shellfish, and any parts of any such fish but (except in sections 4, [^{F69}4A,] 5, 6, 7 and 9) does not include salmon or migratory trout;

“shellfish” includes crustaceans and molluscs of any kind and any spat or spawn of shellfish;

“vessel” includes any ship or boat or any other description of vessel used in navigation.

Status: Point in time view as at 17/01/1993. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Sea Fish (Conservation) Act 1967. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) In this Act “the appropriate Minister”, in relation to England . . . ^{F70}, means the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food [^{F71}in relation to Wales, means the Secretary of State concerned with the sea fishing industry in Wales], and, in relation to Scotland, means the Secretary of State concerned with the sea fishing industry in Scotland, and “the Ministers”—
- (a) except in sections [^{F72}1(1) and (2)] and 9(1) and (4) of this Act means the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food and the Secretaries of State respectively concerned with the sea fishing industry in Scotland [^{F73}Wales] and Northern Ireland;
 - (b) in the said sections [^{F72}1(1) and (2)] and 9(1) means the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food and [^{F74}the Secretaries of State respectively] concerned with the sea fishing industry in Scotland [^{F75}and Wales];
 - (c) in the said section 9(4) means the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food, [^{F74}the Secretaries of State respectively] concerned with the sea fishing industry in Scotland [^{F75}and Wales] and the [^{F76}Department] of Agriculture for Northern Ireland.
- (3) Anything which is required or authorised under this Act to be done by the Ministers shall be done by the Ministers acting in conjunction.
- (4) Except in so far as the context otherwise requires, references in this Act to any enactment are references to that enactment as amended by or under any other enactment.
