Power to require medical examination after entry

- 7 If, on a person’s examination by an immigration officer under paragraph 2 above, the immigration officer—
- (a) determines that he may be given leave to enter the United Kingdom; but
 - (b) is of opinion, on the advice of a medical inspector or, where no medical inspector is available, on that of any other fully qualified medical practitioner, that a further medical test or examination may be required in the interests of public health;
- then the immigration officer, on giving that person leave to enter the United Kingdom, may by notice in writing require him to report his arrival to [^{F1}such medical officer of health][^{F1}the chief administrative medical officer of such Health Board][^{F2}or the chief administrative medical officer of such Health and Social Services Board established under the ^{M1}Health and Personal Social Services (Northern Ireland) Order 1972] as may be specified in the notice and thereafter to attend at such place and time, and submit to such test or examination (if any), as that medical officer [^{F3}of health] may require.

Textual Amendments
