SCHEDULES

SCHEDULE 10

INITIAL REVIEWS IN WALES

Special community reviews

1 As soon as practicable after 1st April 1974 the Welsh Commission shall conduct a review (to be known as the special community review) of the whole of Wales for the purpose of making proposals to the Secretary of State for effecting changes appearing to the Commission desirable in the interests of effective and convenient local government by any of the following means or any combination of those means—

- (a) the alteration of a community;
- (b) the constitution of a new community by the amalgamation of communities or by the aggregation of parts of communities or by the separation of part of a community;
- (c) the abolition of a community and the distribution of its area among other communities;
- (d) the inclusion in a district of an area forming part of a county but not of a district and the constitution of a new community by—
  - (i) the establishment of the whole or part of that area as a community; or
  - (ii) the aggregation of the whole of that area or any part of it with one or more communities or parts of communities;
- (e) the alteration of the area of a county or a district in consequence of any such change;

and any proposals made by the Commission may include a proposal that the area of a community should be co-extensive with the area of a district.
