

Administration of Justice Act 1973

1973 CHAPTER 15

PART II

MISCELLANEOUS

15 Qualification for appointment as deputy Circuit judge

For section 24(2)(a) of the Courts Acts 1971 (under which a person is qualified for appointment as deputy Circuit judge if he is a barrister of at least ten years' standing or a Recorder who has held that office for at least five years) there shall be substituted—

“(a) any barrister or solicitor of at least ten years' standing”.