ABOLITION OF CERTAIN AUTHORITIES AND TRANSFER OF PROPERTY, STAFF AND ENDOWMENTS ETC.

Abolition of certain authorities

14 Abolition of authorities.

- (1) All Regional Hospital Boards, Hospital Management Committees and Executive Councils, the Joint Pricing Committee for England, the Welsh Joint Pricing Committee and, except as provided by the following section, all Boards of Governors shall cease to exist on the appointed day; and on that day any authority which is a local health authority by virtue of section 19 of the principal Act shall cease to be a local health authority and all joint boards constituted in pursuance of that section shall cease to exist.
- (2) The Secretary of State may by order make such provision as he considers appropriate in anticipation or in consequence of the abolition by the preceding subsection of any body or in connection with the winding up of the body's affairs; and if a body abolished by that subsection has, as respects a period before the appointed day, not performed a duty imposed on the body by [<sup>F2</sup>subsection (1) or (2) of section 98 of the <sup>M2</sup>National Health Service Act 1977] (which relate to accounts), then—
  - (a) it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to secure that the duty so imposed is performed by a Regional or Area [<sup>F3</sup>or District] Health Authority or special health authority determined by him; and
  - (b) that section shall have effect in relation to the body and period in question as if for references to each financial year in subsections [<sup>F4</sup>(2)] and (4) there were substituted references to that period and as if the word “annual” in subsection [<sup>F4</sup>(2)] were omitted.

15 Preservation of certain Boards of Governors.

(1) The Secretary of State may by order provide that the preceding section shall, while the order is in force, not apply to any body specified in the order which is the Board of Governors of a teaching hospital mentioned in Schedule 2 to this Act.

(2) An order made by virtue of the preceding subsection—

- (a) must be made before the appointed day except in a case falling within paragraph (c) of this subsection;
- (b) shall provide for the order to cease to have effect, unless it is previously revoked, on the expiration of a period specified in the order (which shall not be longer than five years beginning with the date on which the order is made);
- (c) may be made after the appointed day in respect of a preserved Board for the purpose of securing that the Board continues to be a preserved Board for a further period; and
- (d) may at any time be revoked by order by the Secretary of State; and it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State, before he makes an order in pursuance of the preceding subsection or paragraph (d) of this subsection, to consult the University of London and the Board of Governors in question about the order.

(3) The Secretary of State may by order provide that, in relation to a preserved Board and any person, thing, right, liability or other matter whatsoever connected with the Board,—

- (a) any provision of this Act which repeals or amends any enactment and is specified in the order shall not apply;
- (b) any enactment which, apart from any provision made by virtue of the preceding paragraph, is repealed or amended by this Act shall have effect with such modifications as are specified in the order; and
- (c) such provisions of this Act and any instrument in force by virtue of this Act as are specified in the order shall have effect with such modifications as are so specified;

F5

(4) The Secretary of State may by order—

- (a) provide that a preserved Board shall cease to exercise functions with respect to the administration of any hospital specified in the order;
- (b) confer on a preserved Board such functions as are specified in the order with respect to the administration of a hospital so specified (whether or not apart from the order the Board has functions with respect to the administration of that hospital); and
- (c) provide that this Act and any instrument in force by virtue of this Act shall, in relation to any person, thing, right, liability or other matter whatsoever connected with the hospital in question, have effect with such modifications as are specified in the order.

(5) Where a Board of Governors ceases to be a preserved Board this Act and any instrument in force by virtue of this Act shall, in relation to the Board and any person, thing, right, liability and other matter whatsoever connected with the Board, have effect with the substitution of a reference to the date of the cesser for the first reference in subsection (1) of the preceding section and the reference in subsection (2) of that section to the appointed day and with such further modifications as the Secretary of State may by order specify.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the National Health Service Reorganisation Act 1973 (repealed 28.6.1995). (See end of Document for details)

- [<sup>F6</sup>(5A) So far as may be necessary for the purposes of subsections (3) to (5) above, any reference in those subsections to this Act, or to any instrument in force by virtue of this Act, shall (as the case may be) include a reference to—
- (a) any provision of this Act which has been repealed and re-enacted by the <sup>M3</sup>National Health Service Act 1977;
  - (b) any instrument in force by virtue of a provision of this Act which has been repealed and re-enacted by that <sup>M4</sup>Act of 1977.]
- (6) In this Act “preserved Board” means a Board of Governors to which by virtue of this section the preceding section does not for the time being apply; and any question whether a person, thing, right, liability or other matter whatsoever is for the purposes of this section connected with a Board of Governors or a hospital shall be determined by the Secretary of State.

Transfer of property etc.

16 Transfers from local authorities.

- (1) Subject to subsection (4) of this section, on the appointed day there shall by virtue of this subsection be transferred to and vest in the Secretary of State—
- (a) all property which immediately before that day—
    - (i) was held by a local authority solely for the purposes of one or more of its health functions, or
    - (ii) was held by a local authority otherwise than as mentioned in the preceding sub-paragraph and was used by the authority wholly or mainly for the purposes there mentioned; and
  - (b) all rights and liabilities which were acquired or incurred by a local authority wholly or mainly in the performance of its health functions and to which the authority was entitled or subject immediately before the appointed day.
- (2) The Secretary of State may by order—
- (a) make provision for securing that where any property has, at any time during the period beginning with 16th November 1972 and ending immediately before the appointed day—
    - (i) been held by a local authority as mentioned in paragraph (a)(i) of the preceding subsection, or

- (ii) been held and used by a local authority as mentioned in paragraph (a) (ii) of that subsection,
- but in consequence of anything done otherwise than in the ordinary course of business is not so held or, as the case may be, held and used by the authority immediately before the appointed day, the property is treated for the purposes of the preceding subsection as so held or held and used by the authority immediately before the appointed day;
- (b) make provision as to the manner of determining, and as to the matters which are to be taken into account or disregarded for the purpose of determining, whether immediately before the appointed day any property was held or held and used as mentioned in the preceding subsection or any local authority was entitled or subject to rights or liabilities acquired or incurred as there mentioned;
- (c) make provision for securing that where any premises transferred to the Secretary of State by virtue of this section contain accommodation which was used immediately before the appointed day for the purposes of functions of a local authority other than health functions, the accommodation may continue to be used by the authority for those purposes on such terms and for such period as may be agreed between the Secretary of State and the authority or, in default of agreement, as may be determined in a manner specified in the order;
- (d) make provision for securing that where any premises not transferred to the Secretary of State by virtue of this section contain accommodation which was used immediately before the appointed day for the purposes of health functions of a local authority, the accommodation may be used by the Secretary of State for similar purposes on such terms and for such period as aforesaid;
- (e) provide that such as may be specified in the order of the rights and liabilities transferred to the Secretary of State by virtue of this section shall be enforceable by and against a Regional or Area Health Authority or special health authority so specified instead of by and against the Secretary of State;
- (f) make provision as to the persons on whom shall lie the burden of proving, for the purposes of provision made by virtue of paragraph (a) of this subsection, that a particular thing was done in the ordinary course of business.
- (3) The preceding provisions of this section shall have effect in relation to a local education authority as if for any reference to a local authority and health functions there were substituted respectively a reference to a local education authority and functions under the following enactments (which relate to medical and dental inspection and treatment) namely, section 48(1) and (3) of the <sup>M5</sup>Education Act 1944, section 78 of that Act so far as that section relates to such inspection and treatment and section 4 of the <sup>M6</sup>Education (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1953.
- (4) The Secretary of State may at any time before the appointed day provide by order that property, rights or liabilities specified in the order shall not be transferred to him by virtue of this section; and nothing in subsections (1) to (3) of this section applies to property, rights or liabilities to which section 25 of this Act applies.
- (5) Where any property transferred from a local authority or a local education authority to the Secretary of State by virtue of this section consists of uncompleted buildings which were being constructed by the authority, the authority may complete the buildings on such terms as it may agree with the Secretary of State.
- (6) In this section—

“health functions” means—

- (a) functions under Part III and section 65 of the principal Act and sections 10 to 12 of the <sup>M7</sup>Health Services and Public Health Act 1968 so far as those functions do not stand referred to social services committees by virtue of section 2 of the <sup>M8</sup>Local Authority Social Services Act 1970;
  - (b) functions under the <sup>M9</sup>National Health Service (Family Planning) Act 1967 and the <sup>M10</sup>National Health Service (Family Planning) Amendment Act 1972;
  - (c) functions under section 196 of the <sup>M11</sup>Public Health Act 1936 so far as those functions relate to the diagnosis and treatment of diseases; and
  - (d) functions under the enactments mentioned in section 41(1) of this Act; and
- “local authority” means—
- (a) except in relation to functions mentioned in paragraph (d) above and functions of the Greater London Council, any authority which immediately before the passing of this Act was a local health authority;
  - (b) in relation to functions mentioned in paragraph (d) above, a local authority within the meaning of section 41 of this Act;
  - (c) in relation to functions of the Greater London Council, that Council.

and in relation to functions mentioned in paragraph (c) of the preceding definition includes any authority, in addition to an authority or body mentioned in paragraph (a) of this definition, on which functions are conferred by the said section 196.

18 Transfers to employment by new authorities and social service authorities.

- (1) The Secretary of State may by order make provision—
- (a) for the transfer on the appointed day to the employment of new health authorities designated by or under the order of persons so designated who immediately before that day were—
    - (i) employed by old health authorities so designated, or
    - (ii) employed by local health authorities or by the Greater London Council and so employed wholly or mainly for the purposes of functions mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b) of the definition of health functions in section 16(6) of this Act, or
    - (iii) employed by local education authorities wholly or mainly for the purposes of functions under the enactments mentioned in section 16(3) of this Act, or
    - (iv) employed as relevant staff or speech therapists by local education authorities wholly or mainly for the purposes of providing special educational treatment in pursuance of section 34 of the <sup>M12</sup>Education Act 1944 and ascertaining whether children require such treatment, or
    - (v) employed by local authorities within the meaning of section 41 of this Act wholly or mainly for the purposes of functions under the enactments mentioned in subsection (1) of that section;
  - (b) for requiring any such authority, body or Council as is mentioned in subparagraphs (i) to (v) of the preceding paragraph and is designated by or under the order to make, after consulting new health authorities so designated if the order requires them to be consulted, schemes for the transfer on the appointed day to the employment of new health authorities designated by or under the schemes of persons designated by or under the schemes who were employed as mentioned in the preceding paragraph;
  - (c) for any scheme made in pursuance of the preceding paragraph to be varied or revoked, at any time before the appointed day, by a subsequent scheme so made;
  - (d) for requiring an authority or other person by whom a scheme is made in pursuance of this subsection to submit the scheme or provisions of it to the Secretary of State for his approval, and for requiring the authority or other person to make, before the appointed day, such changes in the scheme as the Secretary of State may direct.
- (2) The Secretary of State may by order make provision—
- (a) for the transfer on the appointed day to the employment of new health authorities of persons to whom this subsection applies;
  - (b) for requiring public health authorities designated by or under the order to make schemes for the transfer on the appointed day, to the employment of new health authorities designated by or under the schemes, of persons to whom this subsection applies;
  - (c) as to the manner of determining whether an individual is a person to whom this subsection applies and which authority is the new health authority to whose employment such a person is to be transferred;
  - (d) for determining, in the case of a person who apart from provision made by virtue of this paragraph falls to be transferred to the same employment or different employments by virtue of this subsection and any other provision of this Act, which of the provisions in question are not to apply in his case; and it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State, before he makes an order in pursuance of this subsection, to consult with respect to the order such bodies as appear to him to represent public health authorities and to be concerned with the order and any other body which he considers it desirable to consult about the order.

- (3) The persons to whom the preceding subsection applies are—
- (a) relevant staff employed immediately before the appointed day—
    - (i) by public health authorities wholly or mainly for the purposes of any functions of such authorities under sections 143, 147, 153 and 166 to 170 of the <sup>M13</sup>Public Health Act 1936, sections 40 and 41 of the <sup>M14</sup>Public Health Act 1961 and sections 49 to 52 of the <sup>M15</sup>Health Services and Public Health Act 1968 (which relate to the control of infectious disease and food poisoning) and Part IX of the <sup>M16</sup>Public Health Act 1936 (which relates to common lodging houses), or
    - (ii) by public health authorities, in their capacities as food and drugs authorities within the meaning of the [<sup>F7</sup>Food Act 1984], wholly or mainly for the purposes of any functions of food and drugs authorities under that Act; and
  - (b) persons employed immediately before the appointed day wholly or mainly in premises provided in pursuance of section 196 of the <sup>M17</sup>Public Health Act 1936 (which relates to laboratories) and transferred to the Secretary of State by section 16 of this Act.
- (4) The Secretary of State may by order make provision for the transfer—
- (a) to the employment of bodies who are local authorities for the purposes of the <sup>M18</sup>Local Authority Social Services Act 1970 of persons of descriptions specified in the order who are for the time being employed by old health authorities or new health authorities wholly or mainly for the purposes of functions which stand referred to social services committees by virtue of section 2 of that Act;
  - (b) to the employment of new health authorities of relevant staff and speech therapists who are for the time being employed wholly or mainly for the purposes mentioned in the preceding paragraph by bodies who are such local authorities as are there mentioned;
- and an order by virtue of this subsection may include provision—
- (i) for transfers in pursuance of the order to be made on such days as may be determined by or under the order; and
  - (ii) as to the manner of determining whether an individual is a person liable to be transferred by virtue of this subsection and which authority is the authority to whose employment such a person is to be transferred.
- (5) A person transferred by virtue of paragraph (a) of the preceding subsection to the employment of such a body as is mentioned in that paragraph shall not be required in the course of that employment to perform duties otherwise than at or in connection with a hospital unless he has consented to perform such duties.
- (6) The Secretary of State may by order make provision for the transfer to the employment of any new health authorities, with effect from such dates (whether before or after the making of the order) as may be specified in the order, of persons who—

- (a) that, while he is in the employment of that body and has not been served with a notice in writing stating that it is served for the purposes of this subsection and specifying such new terms and conditions of employment as are mentioned in the following paragraph, the scale of his remuneration and, taken as a whole, the other terms and conditions of his employment by that body are not less favourable to him than were immediately before the transfer those of the employment from which the transfer was made;
- (b) that any new terms and conditions determined by that body for his employment by that body are such that—
  - (i) so long as he is engaged in duties reasonably comparable to the duties in which immediately before the transfer he was engaged in the employment from which the transfer was made, the scale of his remuneration and, taken as a whole, the other terms and conditions of his employment by that body are not less favourable to him than were, immediately before the transfer, those of the employment from which the transfer was made, and
  - (ii) so long as he is engaged in duties not so comparable, the terms and conditions of his employment by that body (excluding terms as to remuneration) are, taken as a whole, not less favourable than as mentioned in the preceding sub-paragraph;
- (c) that for the purposes of any enactment specified in the order the employments from which and to which he was transferred by virtue of the preceding section are treated as one continuous employment; and an order made in pursuance of this subsection may contain provision for the determination of questions arising with respect to the effect in relation to any person of provision made by virtue of paragraphs (a) to (c) of this section.

- (3) An order or scheme made by virtue of any provision of the preceding section except subsection (4)(a) may include provision for securing that, in determining whether a person was at a particular time employed by an authority wholly or mainly for the purposes of functions of the authority of a particular kind mentioned in that section, any functions of that authority which are of a different kind so mentioned and for the purposes of which the person was at that time also employed by the authority may be treated as functions of the particular kind in question; and it is hereby declared that, in determining in pursuance of the preceding section whether a person was at any time employed by an authority wholly or mainly for the purposes of functions of the authority, any employment of his at that time which was not employment by the authority is to be disregarded.
- (4) An order made by virtue of the preceding section may include provision—
  - (a) for the determination of any question arising in connection with the order as to whether a person is or was employed in a particular capacity or wholly or mainly for particular purposes;
  - (b) for enabling any person who objects, on such grounds as may be specified in the order, to his transfer in pursuance of the order or a scheme made by virtue of the order to make in respect of the transfer representations to whichever of the two Commissions appointed in pursuance of the following section is appropriate in his case, and for requiring the Commission to advise the person who made the order or scheme or, if that person has ceased to exist, to advise the Secretary of State on whether it would be appropriate in consequence of the representations to amend the order or scheme before the day when transfers take effect in pursuance of it or to transfer a person on or after that the preceding section and for the giving of advice in pursuance of provision so made;

and each Commission shall have power to take any steps which it considers are appropriate for the purpose of selecting and recommending to Regional or Area Health Authorities and special health authorities persons whom it considers are suitable for employment by any of those authorities.

(3) The Secretary of State may—

- (a) give directions to each Commission with respect to its procedure;
- (b) give directions to relevant bodies with respect to the furnishing by them of information requested by the appropriate Commission and with respect to the action to be taken by them in consequence of advice given by that Commission;
- (c) pay to any member of either Commission such remuneration as the Secretary of State may determine with the approval of the Minister for the Civil Service;
- (d) defray any expenses incurred with his approval by either Commission in the performance of its functions; and
- (e) wind up either Commission in such manner and at such time as he thinks fit; and it shall be the duty of a body to which directions are given in pursuance of this subsection to comply with the directions.

(4) In this section “relevant bodies” means bodies from and to whose employment persons are liable to be transferred by virtue of section 18 of this Act.

27 Application of trust property previously held for general hospital purposes.

- (1) This section applies—
- (a) to property which is transferred under section 23 of this Act; and
  - (b) to property which is transferred under section 24 of this Act and which immediately before the appointed day was, in accordance with any provision contained in or made under section 7 of the principal Act, applicable for purposes relating to hospital services or relating to some form of research, and this section shall continue to apply to the property after any further transfer under the preceding section.
- (2) The person holding the property after the transfer or last transfer shall secure, so far as is reasonably practicable, that the objects of any original endowment and the observance of any conditions attached thereto, including in particular conditions intended to preserve the memory of any person or class of persons, are not prejudiced by the provisions of this Part of this Act.
- In this subsection “original endowment” means a hospital endowment which was transferred under section 7 of the principal Act and from which the property in question is derived.
- (3) Subject to the preceding subsection, the property shall be held on trust for such purposes relating to hospital services (including research), or to any other part of the health service associated with any hospital, as the person holding the property thinks fit.
- (4) Where the person holding the property is a body of Special Trustees, the power conferred by the preceding subsection shall be exercised as respects the hospitals for which they are appointed.

- (6) In this section—
- “normal retiring age” means—
- (a) in relation to any person to whom an age of compulsory retirement applies by virtue of the relevant superannuation scheme, that age; and
  - (b) in relation to any other person, the age of sixty-five in the case of a man and sixty in the case of a woman or, in either case, such other age as may be prescribed;
- “reckonable service”, in relation to any person, means service in respect of which benefits are payable under the relevant superannuation scheme; and
- “relevant superannuation scheme”, in relation to any person, means the instrument which is applicable in the case of his employment and which makes provision with respect to the pensions, allowances or gratuities which, subject to the fulfilment of certain requirements and conditions, are to be, or may be, paid to or in respect of persons in that employment.
