F2 S. 49 repealed by Finance Act 1988 \(c. 39, SIF 114\), s. 148, Sch. 14 Pt. XI

50 Temporary statutory effect of House of Commons resolution affecting stamp duties.

- (1) Where the House of Commons passes a resolution which—
- (a) provides for the variation or abolition of an existing stamp duty . . . ^{F3}, and
 - (b) is expressed to have effect for a period stated in the resolution in accordance with the following provisions of this section; and
 - (c) contains a declaration that it is expedient in the public interest that the resolution should have statutory effect under the provisions of this section;
- then, subject to subsection (3) of this section, the resolution shall for the period so stated have statutory effect as if contained in an Act of Parliament.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Finance Act 1973, Part V. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The period to be stated in a resolution is a period expressed as beginning on a date so stated and ending on, or thirty-one days or such less number of days as may be so stated after, the earliest of the dates mentioned in this subsection; and those dates are—
- (a) the twenty-fifth day on which, after the day the resolution is passed, the House of Commons sits without a Bill containing provisions to the same effect as the resolution being read a second time and without a Bill being amended (whether by the House or a Committee of the House or a Standing Committee) so as to include such provisions;
 - (b) the rejection of such provisions during the passage through the House of a Bill containing them;
 - (c) the dissolution or prorogation of Parliament; and
 - (d) the expiration of the period of five months beginning with the day on which the resolution takes effect.
- (3) A resolution shall cease to have statutory effect under this section if an Act comes into operation varying or abolishing the duty.
- (4) The ending of the period for which a resolution has statutory effect under the provisions of this section shall not affect the validity of anything done during that period.
