SCHEDULE 3

Section 47.

THE PROBATION AND AFTER-CARE SERVICE AND ITS FUNCTIONS

PART I

THE PROBATION AND AFTER-CARE SERVICE

Probation and after-care areas

- 1 (1) Subject to the following provisions of this paragraph, if the Secretary of State is of opinion, either upon consideration of proposals submitted to him by a magistrates' courts committee for a county or without any such proposals, that it is expedient that any two or more petty sessions areas should form one probation and after-care area, he may make an order to that effect; and the order may contain such incidental and consequential provisions as appear to the Secretary of State to be expedient for the purposes of the order.
- (2) Before making an order under sub-paragraph (1) above the Secretary of State shall give to the justices acting for any petty sessions area affected by the order an opportunity of making to him any representations which they may desire to make with respect to the order, and shall consider any representations made by them.
- (3) The Secretary of State shall make provision by order under sub-paragraph (1) above for combining in one probation and after-care area all of the petty sessional divisions of the inner London area.
- (4) The City of London shall not be included in a probation and after-care area constituted by an order made under sub-paragraph (1) above.
- (5) Every petty sessions area which is not included in a probation and after-care area by virtue of an order made under sub-paragraph (1) above shall itself constitute a probation and after-care area.

Probation and after-care committees

- 2 (1) For every probation and after-care area there shall be a probation and after-care committee, which shall be a body corporate.
- (2) Subject to the following provisions of this paragraph and to the provisions of paragraphs 6 and 7 below, a probation and after-care committee for any area shall consist—

- (a) if that area comprises more than one petty sessions area, of such number of justices as may be specified by the order under paragraph 1(1) above, appointed in the manner so specified by the justices acting for the several petty sessions areas comprised in that area;
  - (b) if that area is one petty sessions area, of a prescribed number of justices appointed in the prescribed manner by the justices acting for that petty sessions area.
- (3) Sub-paragraph (2) above shall not apply to the probation and after-care committee for the inner London area, but that committee shall, subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (4) below and of paragraphs 6 and 7 below, consist—
- (a) of such number of metropolitan stipendiary magistrates, nominated by the chief metropolitan stipendiary magistrate, as may be specified by the order under paragraph 1(1) above;
  - (b) of such number as may be so specified of lay justices for the petty sessional divisions of the area, chosen, in such manner as may be so specified, by the lay justices for those divisions;
  - (c) of such number as may be so specified of the members of the juvenile courts panel for the inner London area and the City of London, chosen in such manner as may be so specified.
- (4) The Lord Chancellor may, if he thinks fit, appoint—
- (a) one or more judges of the Crown Court (being judges of the High Court, Circuit judges or Recorders); . . . <sup>F1</sup>
  - (b) . . . . . <sup>F1</sup>
- to be members of the probation and after-care committee for any area, and any person so appointed shall hold office in accordance with the terms of his appointment.
- (5) Any contract made or other thing done by or on behalf of a probation and after-care committee before it became, by virtue of section 37 of the Justices of the Peace Act 1949, a body corporate, shall have effect as if made or done by or on behalf of the body corporate constituted by sub-paragraph (1) above.

Rules

- 18 (1) The Secretary of State may make rules—
- (a) regulating the constitution, procedure, powers and duties of probation and after-care committees, . . . <sup>F37</sup> and [<sup>F38</sup>probation liaison committee]s, and the expenses which may be incurred by them and the manner in which those expenses are to be defrayed;
  - <sup>F39</sup>(aa) limiting the number of staff (other than probation officers) who may be appointed under paragraph 3 or 10 above;]
  - (b) regulating the qualifications, manner of appointment, . . . <sup>F40</sup> and duties of probation officers . . . <sup>F41</sup>;
  - (c) prescribing anything else which under the preceding provisions of this Schedule may be prescribed;
- and in those provisions the expression “prescribed” means prescribed by rules of the Secretary of State.
- (2) Without prejudice to sub-paragraph (1) above, the Secretary of State may by rules made under this Schedule make provision as to the manner in which paragraph 13 above is to be administered, and in particular may make provision—
- (a) for prescribing . . . <sup>F42</sup> the forms to be used and the particulars to be provided for the purpose of claiming payment of the allowances under that paragraph; and
  - (b) for avoiding duplication between payments under that paragraph and under other arrangements where expenditure is incurred for more than one purpose, and otherwise for preventing abuses.
- (3) Nothing in any rules made under this paragraph with respect to the constitution, procedure and functions of case committees shall apply to a case committee for an area within the inner London area, except in so far as may be determined under paragraph 5(2) above by the probation and after-care committee for that area.
