

Consumer Credit Act 1974

1974 CHAPTER 39

DIRECTOR GENERAL OF FAIR TRADING

1 General functions of Director.

- (1) It is the duty of the Director General of Fair Trading (“the Director ”)—
- (a) to administer the licensing system set up by this Act,
 - (b) to exercise the adjudicating functions conferred on him by this Act in relation to the issue, renewal, variation, suspension and revocation of licences, and other matters,
 - (c) generally to superintend the working and enforcement of this Act, and regulations made under it, and
 - (d) where necessary or expedient, himself to take steps to enforce this Act, and regulations so made.
- (2) It is the duty of the Director, so far as appears to him to be practicable and having regard both to the national interest and the interests of persons carrying on businesses to which this Act applies and their customers, to keep under review and from time to time advise the Secretary of State about—
- (a) social and commercial developments in the United Kingdom and elsewhere relating to the provision of credit or bailment or (in Scotland) hiring of goods to individuals, and related activities; and
 - (b) the working and enforcement of this Act and orders and regulations made under it.

2 Powers of Secretary of State.

- (1) The Secretary of State may by order—
- (a) confer on the Director additional functions concerning the provision of credit or bailment or (in Scotland) hiring of goods to individuals, and related activities, and

- (b) regulate the carrying out by the Director of his functions under this Act.
- (2) The Secretary of State may give general directions indicating considerations to which the Director should have particular regard in carrying out his functions under this Act, and may give specific directions on any matter connected with the carrying out by the Director of those functions.
- (3) The Secretary of State, on giving any directions under subsection (2), shall arrange for them to be published in such manner as he thinks most suitable for drawing them to the attention of interested persons.
- (4) With the approval of the Secretary of State and the Treasury, the Director may charge, for any service or facility provided by him under this Act, a fee of an amount specified by general notice (the “specified fee”).
- (5) Provision may be made under subsection (4) for reduced fees, or no fees at all, to be paid for certain services or facilities by persons of a specified description, and references in this Act to the specified fee shall, in such cases, be construed accordingly.
- (6) An order under subsection (1)(a) shall be made by statutory instrument and shall be of no effect unless a draft of the order has been laid before and approved by each House of Parliament.
- (7) References in subsection (2) to the functions of the Director under this Act do not include the making of a determination to which section 41 or 150 (appeals from Director to Secretary of State) applies.

PART II

CREDIT AGREEMENTS, HIRE AGREEMENTS AND LINKED TRANSACTIONS

8 Consumer credit agreements.

- (1) A personal credit agreement is an agreement between an individual (“the debtor ”) and any other person (“the creditor ”) by which the creditor provides the debtor with credit of any amount.
- (2) A consumer credit agreement is a personal credit agreement by which the creditor provides the debtor with credit not exceeding [^{F3}£15,000].
- (3) A consumer credit agreement is a regulated agreement within the meaning of this Act if it is not an agreement (an “exempt agreement ”) specified in or under section 16.

Textual Amendments

F3 "£15,000" substituted by S.I. 1983/1878, art. 4, Sch. Pt. II

9 Meaning of credit.

- (1) In this Act “credit ” includes a cash loan, and any other form of financial accommodation.
- (2) Where credit is provided otherwise than in sterling it shall be treated for the purposes of this Act as provided in sterling of an equivalent amount.
- (3) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the person by whom goods are bailed or (in Scotland) hired to an individual under a hire-purchase agreement shall be taken to provide him with fixed-sum credit to finance the transaction of an amount equal to the total price of the goods less the aggregate of the deposit (if any) and the total charge for credit.
- (4) For the purposes of this Act, an item entering into the total charge for credit shall not be treated as credit even though time is allowed for its payment.

10 Running-account credit and fixed-sum credit.

- (1) For the purposes of this Act—
 - (a) running-account credit is a facility under a personal credit agreement whereby the debtor is enabled to receive from time to time (whether in his own person, or by another person) from the creditor or a third party cash, goods and services (or any of them) to an amount or value such that, taking into account payments made by or to the credit of the debtor, the credit limit (if any) is not at any time exceeded; and
 - (b) fixed-sum credit is any other facility under a personal credit agreement whereby the debtor is enabled to receive credit (whether in one amount or by instalments).
- (2) In relation to running-account credit, “credit limit ” means, as respects any period, the maximum debit balance which, under the credit agreement, is allowed to stand on

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Consumer Credit Act 1974 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 21 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) the account during that period, disregarding any term of the agreement allowing that maximum to be exceeded merely temporarily.

- (3) For the purposes of section 8(2), running-account credit shall be taken not to exceed the amount specified in that subsection (“the specified amount ”) if—
- (a) the credit limit does not exceed the specified amount; or
 - (b) whether or not there is a credit limit, and if there is, notwithstanding that it exceeds the specified amount,—
 - (i) the debtor is not enabled to draw at any one time an amount which, so far as (having regard to section 9(4)) it represents credit, exceeds the specified amount, or
 - (ii) the agreement provides that, if the debit balance rises above a given amount (not exceeding the specified amount), the rate of the total charge for credit increases or any other condition favouring the creditor or his associate comes into operation, or
 - (iii) at the time the agreement is made it is probable, having regard to the terms of the agreement and any other relevant considerations, that the debit balance will not at any time rise above the specified amount.

11 Restricted-use credit and unrestricted-use credit.

- (1) A restricted-use credit agreement is a regulated consumer credit agreement—
- (a) to finance a transaction between the debtor and the creditor, whether forming part of that agreement or not, or
 - (b) to finance a transaction between the debtor and a person (the “supplier ”) other than the creditor, or
 - (c) to refinance any existing indebtedness of the debtor’s, whether to the creditor or another person,
- and “restricted-use credit ” shall be construed accordingly.
- (2) An unrestricted-use credit agreement is a regulated consumer credit agreement not falling within subsection (1), and “unrestricted-use credit ” shall be construed accordingly.
- (3) An agreement does not fall within subsection (1) if the credit is in fact provided in such a way as to leave the debtor free to use it as he chooses, even though certain uses would contravene that or any other agreement.
- (4) An agreement may fall within subsection (1)(b) although the identity of the supplier is unknown at the time the agreement is made.

12 Debtor-creditor supplier agreements.

A debtor-creditor-supplier agreement is a regulated consumer credit agreement being—

- (a) a restricted-use credit agreement which falls within section 11(1)(a), or
- (b) a restricted-use credit agreement which falls within section 11(1)(b) and is made by the creditor under pre-existing arrangements, or in contemplation of future arrangements, between himself and the supplier, or
- (c) an unrestricted-use credit agreement which is made by the creditor under pre-existing arrangements between himself and a person (the “supplier ”) other than the debtor in the knowledge that the credit is to be used to finance a transaction between the debtor and the supplier.

13 Debtor-creditor agreements.

A debtor-creditor agreement is a regulated consumer credit agreement being—

- (a) a restricted-use credit agreement which falls within section 11(1)(b) but is not made by the creditor under pre-existing arrangements, or in contemplation of future arrangements, between himself and the supplier, or
- (b) a restricted-use credit agreement which falls within section 11(1)(c), or
- (c) an unrestricted-use credit agreement which is not made by the creditor under pre-existing arrangements between himself and a person (the “supplier ”) other than the debtor in the knowledge that the credit is to be used to finance a transaction between the debtor and the supplier.

14 Credit-token agreements.

- (1) A credit-token is a card, check, voucher, coupon, stamp, form, booklet or other document or thing given to an individual by a person carrying on a consumer credit business, who undertakes—
 - (a) that on the production of it (whether or not some other action is also required) he will supply cash, goods and services (or any of them) on credit, or
 - (b) that where, on the production of it to a third party (whether or not any other action is also required), the third party supplies cash, goods and services (or any of them), he will pay the third party for them (whether or not deducting any discount or commission), in return for payment to him by the individual.
- (2) A credit-token agreement is a regulated agreement for the provision of credit in connection with the use of a credit-token.
- (3) Without prejudice to the generality of section 9(1), the person who gives to an individual an undertaking falling within subsection (1)(b) shall be taken to provide him with credit drawn on whenever a third party supplies him with cash, goods or services.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (1), use of an object to operate a machine provided by the person giving the object or a third party shall be treated as the production of the object to him.

15 Consumer hire agreements.

- (1) A consumer hire agreement is an agreement made by a person with an individual (the “hirer ”) for the bailment or (in Scotland) the hiring of goods to the hirer, being an agreement which—
 - (a) is not a hire-purchase agreement, and
 - (b) is capable of subsisting for more than three months, and
 - (c) does not require the hirer to make payments exceeding [^{F4}£15,000].
- (2) A consumer hire agreement is a regulated agreement if it is not an exempt agreement.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Consumer Credit Act 1974 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 21 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. 16 Exempt agreements.

- (1) This Act does not regulate a consumer credit agreement where the creditor is a local authority . . . ^{F5}, or a body specified, or of a description specified, in an order made by the Secretary of State, being—
- (a) an insurance company,
 - (b) a friendly society,
 - (c) an organisation of employers or organisation of workers,
 - (d) a charity,
 - (e) a land improvement company, . . . ^{F6}
 - (f) a body corporate named or specifically referred to in any public general Act.
 - ^{F7}(ff) a body corporate named or specifically referred to in an order made under—section 156(4), 444(1) or 447(2)(a) of the Housing Act 1985, section [^{F8}223 or 229 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 1987], or Article 154(1)(a) or 156AA of the Housing (Northern Ireland) Order 1981 or Article 10(6A) of the Housing (Northern Ireland) Order 1983; or [^{F9}, or
 - (g) a building society.]^{F10}, or
 - (h) an authorised institution or wholly-owned subsidiary (within the meaning of the Companies Act 1985) of such an institution.]
- (2) Subsection (1) applies only where the agreement is—
- (a) a debtor-creditor-supplier agreement financing—
 - (i) the purchase of land, or
 - (ii) the provision of dwellings on any land, and secured by a land mortgage on that land; or
 - (b) a debtor-creditor agreement secured by any land mortgage; or
 - (c) a debtor-creditor-supplier agreement financing a transaction which is a linked transaction in relation to—
 - (i) an agreement falling within paragraph (a), or
 - (ii) an agreement falling within paragraph (b) financing—
 - (aa) the purchase of any land, or
 - (bb) the provision of dwellings on any land,
- and secured by a land mortgage on the land referred to in paragraph (a) or, as the case may be, the land referred to in sub-paragraph (ii).
- (3) The Secretary of State shall not make, vary or revoke an order—
- (a) under subsection (1)(a) without consulting the Minister of the Crown responsible for insurance companies,
 - (b) under subsection (1)(b) [^{F11} or (c)] . . . without consulting the Chief Registrar of Friendly Societies,
 - (c) under subsection (1)(d) without consulting the Charity Commissioners, . . . ^{F6}

- (d) under subsection (1)(e) [^{F12}, (f) or (ff)] without consulting any Minister of the Crown with responsibilities concerning the body in question.
 - [^{F13}or
 - (e) under subsection (1)(g) without consulting the Building Societies Commission and the Treasury.]
 - [^{F14}or
 - (f) under subsection (1)(h) without consulting the Treasury and the Bank of England.]
- (4) An order under subsection (1) relating to a body may be limited so as to apply only to agreements by that body of a description specified in the order.
- (5) The Secretary of State may by order provide that this Act shall not regulate other consumer credit agreements where—
 - (a) the number of payments to be made by the debtor does not exceed the number specified for that purpose in the order, or
 - (b) the rate of the total charge for credit does not exceed the rate so specified, or
 - (c) an agreement has a connection with a country outside the United Kingdom.
- (6) The Secretary of State may by order provide that this Act shall not regulate consumer hire agreements of a description specified in the order where—
 - (a) the owner is a body corporate authorised by or under any enactment to supply electricity, gas or water, and
 - (b) the subject of the agreement is a meter or metering equipment, [^{F15}or where the owner is a public telecommunications operator specified in the order].
- [^{F16}(6A) This Act does not regulate a consumer credit agreement where the creditor is a housing authority and the agreement is secured by a land mortgage of a dwelling.
- (6B) In subsection (6A) “housing authority” means—
 - (a) as regards England and Wales, [^{F17}the Housing Corporation, Housing for Wales and] an authority or body within section 80(1) of the Housing Act 1985 (the landlord condition for secure tenancies), other than a housing association or a housing trust which is a charity;
 - (b) as regards Scotland, a development corporation established under an order made, or having effect as if made under the New Towns (Scotland) Act 1968, the Scottish Special Housing Association or the Housing Corporation;
 - (c) as regards Northern Ireland, the Northern Ireland Housing Executive.]
- (7) Nothing in this section affects the application of sections 137 to 140 (extortionate credit bargains).
- (8) In the application of this section to Scotland subsection (3)(c) shall not have effect.
- (9) In the application of this section to Northern Ireland subsection (3) shall have effect as if any reference to a Minister of the Crown were a reference to a Northern Ireland department, any reference to the Chief Registrar of Friendly Societies were a reference to the Registrar of Friendly Societies for Northern Ireland, and any reference to the Charity Commissioners were a reference to the Department of Finance for Northern Ireland.

[^{F18}16A Exemption relating to high net worth debtors and hirers

- (1) The Secretary of State may by order provide that this Act shall not regulate a consumer credit agreement or a consumer hire agreement where—
- the debtor or hirer is a natural person;
 - the agreement includes a declaration made by him to the effect that he agrees to forgo the protection and remedies that would be available to him under this Act if the agreement were a regulated agreement;
 - a statement of high net worth has been made in relation to him; and
 - that statement is current in relation to the agreement and a copy of it was provided to the creditor or owner before the agreement was made.
- (2) For the purposes of this section a statement of high net worth is a statement to the effect that, in the opinion of the person making it, the natural person in relation to whom it is made—
- received during the previous financial year income of a specified description totalling an amount of not less than the specified amount; or
 - had throughout that year net assets of a specified description with a total value of not less than the specified value.
- (3) Such a statement—
- may not be made by the person in relation to whom it is made;
 - must be made by a person of a specified description; and

- (c) is current in relation to an agreement if it was made during the period of one year ending with the day on which the agreement is made.
- (4) An order under this section may make provision about—
- (a) how amounts of income and values of net assets are to be determined for the purposes of subsection (2)(a) and (b);
 - (b) the form, content and signing of—
 - (i) statements of high net worth;
 - (ii) declarations for the purposes of subsection (1)(b).
- (5) Where an agreement has two or more debtors or hirers, for the purposes of paragraph (c) of subsection (1) a separate statement of high net worth must have been made in relation to each of them; and paragraph (d) of that subsection shall have effect accordingly.
- (6) In this section—
- ‘previous financial year’ means, in relation to a statement of high net worth, the financial year immediately preceding the financial year during which the statement is made;
- ‘specified’ means specified in an order under this section.
- (7) In subsection (6) ‘financial year’ means a period of one year ending with 31st March.
- (8) Nothing in this section affects the application of sections 140A to 140C.]

[^{F20}16C Exemption relating to investment properties

(1) This Act does not regulate a consumer credit agreement if, at the time the agreement is entered into, any sums due under it are secured by a land mortgage on land where the condition in subsection (2) is satisfied. (2) The condition is that less than 40% of the land is used, or is intended to be used, as or in connection with a dwelling—

- (a) by the debtor or a person connected with the debtor, or
- (b) in the case of credit provided to trustees, by an individual who is the beneficiary of the trust or a person connected with such an individual.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2) the area of any land which comprises a building or other structure containing two or more storeys is to be taken to be the aggregate of the floor areas of each of those storeys. (4) For the purposes of subsection (2) a person is “connected with” the debtor or an individual who is the beneficiary of a trust if he is—

- (a) that person's spouse or civil partner;
- (b) a person (whether or not of the opposite sex) whose relationship with that person has the characteristics of the relationship between husband and wife; or
- (c) that person's parent, brother, sister, child, grandparent or grandchild.

17 Small agreements.

- (1) A small agreement is—
- (a) A regulated consumer credit agreement for credit not exceeding [^{F21}£50], other than a hire-purchase or conditional sale agreement: or
 - (b) a regulated consumer hire agreement which does not require the hirer to make payments exceeding [^{F21}£50],
- being an agreement which is either unsecured or secured by a guarantee or indemnity only (whether or not the guarantee or indemnity is itself secured).
- (2) Section 10(3)(a) applies for the purposes of subsection (1) as it applies for the purposes of section 8(2).
- (3) Where—
- (a) two or more small agreements are made at or about the same time between the same parties, and
 - (b) it appears probable that they would instead have been made as a single agreement but for the desire to avoid the operation of provisions of this Act which would have applied to that single agreement but, apart from this subsection, are not applicable to the small agreements,
- this Act applies to the small agreements as if they were regulated agreements other than small agreements.
- (4) If, apart from this subsection, subsection (3) does not apply to any agreements but would apply if, for any party or parties to any of the agreements, there were substituted an associate of that party, or associates of each of those parties, as the case may be, then subsection (3) shall apply to the agreements.

18 Multiple agreements.

- (1) This section applies to an agreement (a “multiple agreement”) if its terms are such as—
- (a) to place a part of it within one category of agreement mentioned in this Act, and another part of it within a different category of agreement so mentioned, or within a category of agreement not so mentioned, or

- (b) to place it, or a part of it, within two or more categories of agreement so mentioned.
- (2) Where a part of an agreement falls within subsection (1), that part shall be treated for the purposes of this Act as a separate agreement.
- (3) Where an agreement falls within subsection (1)(b), it shall be treated as an agreement in each of the categories in question, and this Act shall apply to it accordingly.
- (4) Where under subsection (2) a part of a multiple agreement is to be treated as a separate agreement, the multiple agreement shall (with any necessary modifications) be construed accordingly; and any sum payable under the multiple agreement, if not apportioned by the parties, shall for the purposes of proceedings in any court relating to the multiple agreement be apportioned by the court as may be requisite.
- (5) In the case of an agreement for running-account credit, a term of the agreement allowing the credit limit to be exceeded merely temporarily shall not be treated as a separate agreement or as providing fixed-sum credit in respect of the excess.
- (6) This Act does not apply to a multiple agreement so far as the agreement relates to goods if under the agreement payments are to be made in respect of the goods in the form of rent (other than a rentcharge) issuing out of land.

19 Linked transactions.

- (1) A transaction entered into by the debtor or hirer, or a relative of his, with any other person (“the other party ”), except one for the provision of security, is a linked transaction in relation to an actual or prospective regulated agreement (the “principal agreement ”) of which it does not form part if—
 - (a) the transaction is entered into in compliance with a term of the principal agreement; or
 - (b) the principal agreement is a debtor-creditor-supplier agreement and the transaction is financed, or to be financed, by the principal agreement; or
 - (c) the other party is a person mentioned in subsection (2), and a person so mentioned initiated the transaction by suggesting it to the debtor or hirer, or his relative, who enters into it—
 - (i) to induce the creditor or owner to enter into the principal agreement, or
 - (ii) for another purpose related to the principal agreement, or
 - (iii) where the principal agreement is a restricted-use credit agreement, for a purpose related to a transaction financed, or to be financed, by the principal agreement.
- (2) The persons referred to in subsection (1)(c) are—
 - (a) the creditor or owner, or his associate;
 - (b) a person who, in the negotiation of the transaction, is represented by a credit-broker who is also a negotiator in antecedent negotiations for the principal agreement;
 - (c) a person who, at the time the transaction is initiated, knows that the principal agreement has been made or contemplates that it might be made.
- (3) A linked transaction entered into before the making of the principal agreement has no effect until such time (if any) as that agreement is made.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Regulations may exclude linked transactions of the prescribed description from the operation of subsection (3).

20 Total charge for credit.

- (1) The Secretary of State shall make regulations containing such provisions as appear to him appropriate for determining the true cost to the debtor of the credit provided or to be provided under an actual or prospective consumer credit agreement (the “total charge for credit”), and regulations so made shall prescribe—
- (a) what items are to be treated as entering into the total charge for credit, and how their amount is to be ascertained;
 - (b) the method of calculating the rate of the total charge for credit.
- (2) Regulations under subsection (1) may provide for the whole or part of the amount payable by the debtor or his relative under any linked transaction to be included in the total charge for credit, whether or not the creditor is a party to the transaction or derives benefit from it.

PART III

LICENSING OF CREDIT AND HIRE BUSINESSES

Licensing principles

21 Businesses needing a licence.

- (1) Subject to this section, a licence is required to carry on a consumer credit business or consumer hire business.
- (2) A local authority does not need a licence to carry on a business.
- (3) A body corporate empowered by a public general Act naming it to carry on a business does not need a licence to do so.

22 Standard and group licences.

- (1) A licence may be—
- (a) a standard licence, that is a licence, issued by the Director to a person named in the licence on an application made by him, which, during the prescribed period, covers such activities as are described in the licence, or
 - (b) a group licence, that is a licence, issued by the Director (whether on the application of any person or of his own motion), which, during such period as the Director thinks fit or, if he thinks fit, indefinitely, covers such persons and activities as are described in the licence.

- (2) A licence is not assignable or, subject to section 37, transmissible on death or in any other way.
- (3) Except in the case of a partnership or an unincorporated body of persons, a standard licence shall not be issued to more than one person.
- (4) A standard licence issued to a partnership or an unincorporated body of persons shall be issued in the name of the partnership or body.
- (5) The Director may issue a group licence only if it appears to him that the public interest is better served by doing so than by obliging the persons concerned to apply separately for standard licences.
- (6) The persons covered by a group licence may be described by general words, whether or not coupled with the exclusion of named persons, or in any other way the Director thinks fit.
- (7) The fact that a person is covered by a group licence in respect of certain activities does not prevent a standard licence being issued to him in respect of those activities or any of them.
- (8) A group licence issued on the application of any person shall be issued to that person, and general notice shall be given of the issue of any group licence (whether on application or not).

23 Authorisation of specific activities.

- (1) Subject to this section, a licence to carry on a business covers all lawful activities done in the course of that business, whether by the licensee or other persons on his behalf.
- (2) A licence may limit the activities it covers, whether by authorising the licensee to enter into certain types of agreement only, or in any other way.
- (3) A licence covers the canvassing off trade premises of debtor-creditor-supplier agreements or regulated consumer hire agreements only if, and to the extent that, the licence specifically so provides; and such provision shall not be included in a group licence.
- (4) Regulations may be made specifying other activities which, if engaged in by or on behalf of the person carrying on a business, require to be covered by an express term in his licence.

24 Control of name of business.

A standard licence authorises the licensee to carry on a business under the name or names specified in the licence, but not under any other name.

[^{F22}24A Applications for standard licences

- (1) An application for a standard licence shall, in relation to each type of business which is covered by the application, state whether the applicant is applying—
 - (a) for the licence to cover the carrying on of that type of business with no limitation; or
 - (b) for the licence to cover the carrying on of that type of business only so far as it falls within one or more descriptions of business.
- (2) An application within subsection (1)(b) in relation to a type of business shall set out the description or descriptions of business in question.
- (3) References in this Part to a type of business are references to a type of business within subsection (4).
- (4) The types of business within this subsection are—

 - (f) a business so far as it comprises or relates to debt-collecting;
 - (g) a business so far as it comprises or relates to debt administration;
 - (h) a business so far as it comprises or relates to the provision of credit information services;
 - (i) a business so far as it comprises or relates to the operation of a credit reference agency.
- (5) The OFT—
 - (a) shall by general notice specify the descriptions of business which can be set out in an application for the purposes of subsection (2) in relation to a type of business;
 - (b) may by general notice provide that applications within subsection (1)(b) cannot be made in relation to one or more of the types of business within subsection (4)(c) to (i).
- (6) The power of the OFT under subsection (5) includes power to make different provision for different cases or classes of case.]

Renewal, variation, suspension and revocation of licences

29 Renewal.

- (1) If the licensee under a standard licence, or the original applicant for, or any licensee under, a group licence of limited duration, wishes the Director to renew the licence, whether on the same terms (except as to expiry) or on varied terms, he must, during the period specified by the Director by general notice or such longer period as the Director may allow, make an application to the Director for its renewal.
- (2) The Director may of his own motion renew any group licence.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Consumer Credit Act 1974 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 21 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) The preceding provisions of this Part apply to the renewal of a licence as they apply to the issue of a licence, except that section 28 does not apply to a person who was already excluded in the licence up for renewal.
- (4) Until the determination of an application under subsection (1) and, where an appeal lies from the determination, until the end of the appeal period, the licence shall continue in force, notwithstanding that apart from this subsection it would expire earlier.
- (5) On the refusal of an application under this section, the Director may give directions authorising a licensee to carry into effect agreements made by him before the expiry of the licence.
- (6) General notice shall be given of the renewal of a group licence.

30 Variation by request.

- (1) On an application made by the licensee, the Director may if he thinks fit by notice to the licensee vary a standard licence in accordance with the application.
- (2) In the case of a group licence issued on the application of any person, the Director, on an application made by that person, may if he thinks fit by notice to that person vary the terms of the licence in accordance with the application; but the Director shall not vary a group licence under this subsection by excluding a named person, other than the person making the request, unless that named person consents in writing to his exclusion.
- (3) In the case of a group licence from which (whether by name or description) a person is excluded, the Director, on an application made by that person, may if he thinks fit, by notice to that person, vary the terms of the licence so as to remove the exclusion.
- (4) Unless the Director determines to vary a licence in accordance with an application he shall, before determining the application, by notice—
 - (a) inform the applicant, giving his reasons, that he is minded to refuse the application, and
 - (b) invite the applicant to submit to the Director representations in support of his application in accordance with section 34.
- (5) General notice shall be given that a variation of a group licence has been made under this section.

31 Compulsory variation.

- (1) Where at a time during the currency of a licence the Director is of the opinion that, if the licence had expired at that time, he would, on an application for its renewal or further renewal on the same terms (except as to expiry), have been minded to grant the application but on different terms, and that therefore the licence should be varied, he shall proceed as follows.
- (2) In the case of a standard licence the Director shall, by notice—
 - (a) inform the licensee of the variations the Director is minded to make in the terms of the licence, stating his reasons, and
 - (b) invite him to submit to the Director representations as to the proposed variations in accordance with section 34.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Consumer Credit Act 1974 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 21 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) In the case of a group licence the Director shall—
 - (a) give general notice of the variations he is minded to make in the terms of the licence, stating his reasons, and
 - (b) in the notice invite any licensee to submit to him representations as to the proposed variations in accordance with section 34.
- (4) In the case of a group licence issued on application the Director shall also—
 - (a) inform the original applicant of the variations the Director is minded to make in the terms of the licence, stating his reasons, and
 - (b) invite him to submit to the Director representations as to the proposed variations in accordance with section 34.
- (5) If the Director is minded to vary a group licence by excluding any person (other than the original applicant) from the group by name the Director shall, in addition, take the like steps under section 28 as are required in the case mentioned in that section.
- (6) General notice shall be given that a variation of any group licence has been made under this section.
- (7) A variation under this section shall not take effect before the end of the appeal period.

32 Suspension and revocation.

- (1) Where at a time during the currency of a licence the Director is of the opinion that if the licence had expired at that time he would have been minded not to renew it, and that therefore it should be revoked or suspended, he shall proceed as follows.
- (2) In the case of a standard licence the Director shall, by notice—
 - (a) inform the licensee that, as the case may be, the Director is minded to revoke the licence, or suspend it until a specified date or indefinitely, stating his reasons, and
 - (b) invite him to submit representations as to the proposed revocation or suspension in accordance with section 34.
- (3) In the case of a group licence the Director shall—
 - (a) give general notice that, as the case may be, he is minded to revoke the licence, or suspend it until a specified date or indefinitely, stating his reasons, and
 - (b) in the notice invite any licensee to submit to him representations as to the proposed revocation or suspension in accordance with section 34.
- (4) In the case of a group licence issued on application the Director shall also—
 - (a) inform the original applicant that, as the case may be, the Director is minded to revoke the licence, or suspend it until a specified date or indefinitely, stating his reasons, and
 - (b) invite him to submit representations as to the proposed revocation or suspension in accordance with section 34.
- (5) If he revokes or suspends the licence, the Director may give directions authorising a licensee to carry into effect agreements made by him before the revocation or suspension.
- (6) General notice shall be given of the revocation or suspension of a group licence.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (7) A revocation or suspension under this section shall not take effect before the end of the appeal period.
- (8) Except for the purposes of section 29, a licensee under a suspended licence shall be treated, in respect of the period of suspension, as if the licence had not been issued; and where the suspension is not expressed to end on a specified date it may, if the Director thinks fit, be ended by notice given by him to the licensee or, in the case of a group licence, by general notice.

33 Application to end suspension.

- (1) On an application made by a licensee the Director may, if he thinks fit, by notice to the licensee end the suspension of a licence, whether the suspension was for a fixed or indefinite period.
- (2) Unless the Director determines to end the suspension in accordance with the application he shall, before determining the application, by notice—
 - (a) inform the applicant, giving his reasons, that he is minded to refuse the application, and
 - (b) invite the applicant to submit to the Director representations in support of his application in accordance with section 34.
- (3) General notice shall be given that a suspension of a group licence has been ended under this section.
- (4) In the case of a group licence issued on application—
 - (a) the references in subsection (1) to a licensee include the original applicant;
 - (b) the Director shall inform the original applicant that a suspension of a group licence has been ended under this section.

[^{F33}34A Winding-up of standard licensee's business

- (1) If it thinks fit, the OFT may, for the purpose of enabling the licensee's business, or any part of his business, to be transferred or wound up, include as part of a determination to which subsection (2) applies provision authorising the licensee to carry on for a specified period—
 - (a) specified activities, or
 - (b) activities of specified descriptions,which, because of that determination, the licensee will no longer be licensed to carry on.
- (2) This subsection applies to the following determinations—
 - (a) a determination to refuse to renew a standard licence in accordance with the terms of the application for its renewal;
 - (b) a determination to vary such a licence under section 31;
 - (c) a determination to suspend or revoke such a licence.
- (3) Such provision—
 - (a) may specify different periods for different activities or activities of different descriptions;
 - (b) may provide for persons other than the licensee to carry on activities under the authorisation;
 - (c) may specify requirements which must be complied with by a person carrying on activities under the authorisation in relation to those activities;and, if a requirement specified under paragraph (c) is not complied with, the OFT may by notice to a person carrying on activities under the authorisation terminate the authorisation (in whole or in part) from a specified date.
- (4) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (c) of subsection (3), a requirement specified under that paragraph may have the effect of—
 - (a) preventing a named person from being an employee of a person carrying on activities under the authorisation, or restricting the activities he may engage in as an employee of such a person;
 - (b) preventing a named person from doing something, or restricting his doing something, in connection with activities being carried on by a person under the authorisation;
 - (c) securing that access to premises is given to officers of the OFT for the purpose of enabling them to inspect documents or to observe the carrying on of activities.
- (5) Activities carried on under an authorisation shall be treated for the purposes of sections 39(1), 40, 148 and 149 as if carried on under a standard licence.]

- (6) Subsection (5) does not require a person to notify the OFT about a matter unless it falls within a description of matters specified by the OFT in a general notice.
- (7) A description may be specified for the purposes of subsection (6) only if the OFT is satisfied that the matters which would fall within that description are matters which would be relevant to the question of—
- (a) whether, having regard to section 25(2), a person is a fit person to carry on a business under a standard licence; or
 - (b) whether the public interest is better served by a group licence remaining in effect than by obliging the licensees under it to apply separately for standard licences.
- (8) A person who is the licensee under a standard licence or who is the original applicant for a group licence shall, in relation to each relevant application which he has made, notify the OFT about every error or omission—
- (a) in or from any information or document which he provided by virtue of section 6, or which he has provided by virtue of this section, in relation to the application; and
 - (b) of which he becomes aware after the determination of the application.
- (9) A notification for the purposes of subsection (5) or (8) shall be given within the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which (as the case may be)—
- (a) the information or document is superseded;
 - (b) the change in circumstances occurs; or
 - (c) the licensee or the original applicant becomes aware of the error or omission.
- (10) This section does not require a person to notify the OFT about—
- (a) anything of which he is required to notify it under section 36; or
 - (b) an error in or omission from any information or document which is a clerical error or omission not affecting the substance of the information or document.
- (11) In this section ‘relevant application’ means, in relation to a person who is the licensee under a standard licence or who is the original applicant for a group licence—
- (a) the original application for the licence; or
 - (b) an application for its renewal or for its variation.]

41ZB Disposal of appeals

- (1) The First-tier Tribunal shall decide an appeal under section 41 by way of a rehearing of the determination appealed against.
- (2) In disposing of an appeal under section 41 the First-tier Tribunal may do one or more of the following—
 - (a) confirm the determination appealed against;
 - (b) quash that determination;
 - (c) vary that determination;
 - (d) remit the matter to the OFT for reconsideration and determination in accordance with the directions (if any) given to it by the tribunal;
 - (e) give the OFT directions for the purpose of giving effect to its decision.
- (3) In the case of an appeal under section 41 against a determination to impose a penalty, the First-tier Tribunal—
 - (a) has no power by virtue of subsection (2)(c) to increase the penalty;
 - (b) may extend the period within which the penalty is to be paid (including in cases where that period has already ended).
- (4) Subsection (3) does not affect—
 - (a) the tribunal's power to give directions to the OFT under subsection (2)(d); or
 - (b) what the OFT can do where a matter is remitted to it under subsection (2)(d).

PART IV

SEEKING BUSINESS

Advertising

43 Advertisements to which Part IV applies.

- (1) This Part applies to any advertisement, published for the purposes of a business carried on by the advertiser, indicating that he is willing—
 - (a) to provide credit, or
 - (b) to enter into an agreement for the bailment or (in Scotland) the hiring of goods by him.
- (2) An advertisement does not fall within subsection (1) if the advertiser does not carry on—
 - (a) a consumer credit business or consumer hire business, or
 - (b) a business in the course of which he provides credit to individuals secured on land, or
 - (c) a business which comprises or relates to unregulated agreements where—
 - (i) the [^{F48}law applicable to] the agreement is the law of a country outside the United Kingdom, and
 - (ii) if the [^{F48}law applicable to] the agreement were the law of a part of the United Kingdom it would be a regulated agreement.
- (3) An advertisement does not fall within subsection (1)(a) if it indicates—
 - (a) that the credit must exceed [^{F49}£15,000], and that no security is required, or the security is to consist of property other than land, or
 - (b) that the credit is available only to a body corporate.
- (4) An advertisement does not fall within subsection (1)(b) if it indicates that the advertiser is not willing to enter into a consumer hire agreement.
- (5) The Secretary of State may by order provide that this Part shall not apply to other advertisements of a description specified in the order.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

- F49 "£15,000" substituted by S.I. 1983/1878, art. 4, Sch. Pt. II

44 Form and content of advertisements.

- (1) The Secretary of State shall make regulations as to the form and content of advertisements to which this Part applies, and the regulations shall contain such provisions as appear to him appropriate with a view to ensuring that, having regard to its subject-matter and the amount of detail included in it, an advertisement conveys a fair and reasonably comprehensive indication of the nature of the credit or hire facilities offered by the advertiser and of their true cost to persons using them.
- (2) Regulations under subsection (1) may in particular—
- (a) require specified information to be included in the prescribed manner in advertisements, and other specified material to be excluded;
 - (b) contain requirements to ensure that specified information is clearly brought to the attention of persons to whom advertisements are directed, and that one part of an advertisement is not given insufficient or excessive prominence compared with another.

45 Prohibition of advertisement where goods etc. not sold for cash.

If an advertisement to which this Part applies indicates that the advertiser is willing to provide credit under a restricted-use credit agreement relating to goods or services to be supplied by any person, but at the time when the advertisement is published that person is not holding himself out as prepared to sell the goods or provide the services (as the case may be) for cash, the advertiser commits an offence.

46 False or misleading advertisements.

- (1) If an advertisement to which this Part applies conveys information which in a material respect is false or misleading the advertiser commits an offence.
- (2) Information stating or implying an intention on the advertiser's part which he has not got is false.

47 Advertising infringements.

- (1) Where an advertiser commits an offence against regulations made under section 44 or against section 45 or 46 or would be taken to commit such an offence but for the defence provided by section 168, a like offence is committed by—
- (a) the publisher of the advertisement, and
 - (b) any person who, in the course of a business carried on by him, devised the advertisement, or a part of it relevant to the first-mentioned offence, and
 - (c) where the advertiser did not procure the publication of the advertisement, the person who did procure it.

Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) In proceedings for an offence under subsection (1)(a) it is a defence for the person charged to prove that—
- (a) the advertisement was published in the course of a business carried on by him, and
 - (b) he received the advertisement in the course of that business, and did not know and had no reason to suspect that its publication would be an offence under this Part.

Canvassing etc.

48 Definition of canvassing off trade premises (regulated agreements).

- (1) An individual (the “canvasser”) canvasses a regulated agreement off trade premises if he solicits the entry (as debtor or hirer) of another individual (the “consumer”) into the agreement by making oral representations to the consumer, or any other individual, during a visit by the canvasser to any place (not excluded by subsection (2)) where the consumer, or that other individual, as the case may be, is, being a visit—
- (a) carried out for the purpose of making such oral representations to individuals who are at that place, but
 - (b) not carried out in response to a request made on a previous occasion.
- (2) A place is excluded from subsection (1) if it is a place where a business is carried on (whether on a permanent or temporary basis) by—
- (a) the creditor or owner, or
 - (b) a supplier, or
 - (c) the canvasser, or the person whose employee or agent the canvasser is, or
 - (d) the consumer.

49 Prohibition of canvassing debtor-creditor agreements off trade premises.

- (1) It is an offence to canvass debtor-creditor agreements off trade premises.
- (2) It is also an offence to solicit the entry of an individual (as debtor) into a debtor-creditor agreement during a visit carried out in response to a request made on a previous occasion, where—
- (a) the request was not in writing signed by or on behalf of the person making it, and
 - (b) if no request for the visit had been made, the soliciting would have constituted the canvassing of a debtor-creditor agreement off trade premises.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to any soliciting for an agreement enabling the debtor to overdraw on a current account of any description kept with the creditor, where—

- (a) the Director has determined that current accounts of that description kept with the creditor are excluded from subsections (1) and (2), and
 - (b) the debtor already keeps an account with the creditor (whether a current account or not).
- (4) A determination under subsection (3)(a)—
- (a) may be made subject to such conditions as the Director thinks fit, and
 - (b) shall be made only where the Director is of opinion that it is not against the interests of debtors.
- (5) If soliciting is done in breach of a condition imposed under subsection (4)(a), the determination under subsection (3)(a) does not apply to it.

50 Circulars to minors.

- (1) A person commits an offence, who, with a view to financial gain, sends to a minor any document inviting him to—
- (a) borrow money, or
 - (b) obtain goods on credit or hire, or
 - (c) obtain services on credit, or
 - (d) apply for information or advice on borrowing money or otherwise obtaining credit, or hiring goods.
- (2) In proceedings under subsection (1) in respect of the sending of a document to a minor, it is a defence for the person charged to prove that he did not know, and had no reasonable cause to suspect, that he was a minor.
- (3) Where a document is received by a minor at any school or other educational establishment for minors, a person sending it to him at that establishment knowing or suspecting it to be such an establishment shall be taken to have reasonable cause to suspect that he is a minor.

51 Prohibition of unsolicited credit-tokens.

- (1) It is an offence to give a person a credit-token if he has not asked for it.
- (2) To comply with subsection (1) a request must be contained in a document signed by the person making the request, unless the credit-token agreement is a small debtor-creditor-supplier agreement.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to the giving of a credit-token to a person—
- (a) for use under a credit-token agreement already made, or
 - (b) in renewal or replacement of a credit-token previously accepted by him under a credit-token agreement which continues in force, whether or not varied.

Miscellaneous

52 Quotations.

- (1) Regulations may be made—
 - (a) as to the form and content of any document (a “quotation”) by which a person who carries on a consumer credit business or consumer hire business, or a business in the course of which he provides credit to individuals secured on land, gives prospective customers information about the terms on which he is prepared to do business;
 - (b) requiring a person carrying on such a business to provide quotations to such persons and in such circumstances as are prescribed.
- (2) Regulations under subsection (1)(a) may in particular contain provisions relating to quotations such as are set out in relation to advertisements in section 44.

- (d) advise the debtor how to ask the creditor for further information and explanation.
- (2) The matters referred to in subsection (1)(a) are—
- (a) the features of the agreement which may make the credit to be provided under the agreement unsuitable for particular types of use,
 - (b) how much the debtor will have to pay periodically and, where the amount can be determined, in total under the agreement,
 - (c) the features of the agreement which may operate in a manner which would have a significant adverse effect on the debtor in a way which the debtor is unlikely to foresee,
 - (d) the principal consequences for the debtor arising from a failure to make payments under the agreement at the times required by the agreement including legal proceedings and, where this is a possibility, repossession of the debtor's home, and
 - (e) the effect of the exercise of any right to withdraw from the agreement and how and when this right may be exercised.
- (3) The advice and explanation may be given orally or in writing except as provided in subsection (4).
- (4) Where the explanation of the matters specified in paragraphs (a), (b) or (e) of subsection (2) is given orally or in person to a debtor, the explanation of the matters specified in paragraphs (c) and (d) of that subsection, and the advice required to be given by subsection (1)(b), must be given orally to him.
- (5) Subsections (1) to (4) do not apply to a creditor if a credit intermediary (see section 160A) has complied with those subsections in respect of the agreement.
- (6) For the purposes of this section an agreement is an excluded agreement if it is—
- (a) an agreement under which the creditor provides the debtor with credit which exceeds £60, 260, or
 - (b) an agreement secured on land.
- (7) Where the regulated consumer credit agreement is an agreement under which a person takes an article in pawn—
- (a) the obligation in subsection (1)(a) only relates to the matters listed in paragraphs (d) and (e) of subsection (2), and
 - (b) the obligations in subsection (1)(b) and (d) do not apply.]

56 Antecedent negotiations.

- (1) In this Act “antecedent negotiations ” means any negotiations with the debtor or hirer—
- (a) conducted by the creditor or owner in relation to the making of any regulated agreement, or
 - (b) conducted by a credit-broker in relation to goods sold or proposed to be sold by the credit-broker to the creditor before forming the subject-matter of a debtor-creditor-supplier agreement within section 12(a), or
 - (c) conducted by the supplier in relation to a transaction financed or proposed to be financed by a debtor-creditor-supplier agreement within section 12(b) or (c),
- and “negotiator ” means the person by whom negotiations are so conducted with the debtor or hirer.
- (2) Negotiations with the debtor in a case falling within subsection (1)(b) or (c) shall be deemed to be conducted by the negotiator in the capacity of agent of the creditor as well as in his actual capacity.
- (3) An agreement is void if, and to the extent that, it purports in relation to an actual or prospective regulated agreement—
- (a) to provide that a person acting as, or on behalf of, a negotiator is to be treated as the agent of the debtor or hirer, or
 - (b) to relieve a person from liability for acts or omissions of any person acting as, or on behalf of, a negotiator.
- (4) For the purposes of this Act, antecedent negotiations shall be taken to begin when the negotiator and the debtor or hirer first enter into communication (including communication by advertisement), and to include any representations made by the negotiator to the debtor or hirer and any other dealings between them.

57 Withdrawal from prospective agreement.

- (1) The withdrawal of a party from a prospective regulated agreement shall operate to apply this Part to the agreement, any linked transaction and any other thing done in anticipation of the making of the agreement as it would apply if the agreement were made and then cancelled under section 69.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Consumer Credit Act 1974 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 21 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The giving to a party of a written or oral notice which, however expressed, indicates the intention of the other party to withdraw from a prospective regulated agreement operates as a withdrawal from it.
- (3) Each of the following shall be deemed to be the agent of the creditor or owner for the purpose of receiving a notice under subsection (2)—
 - (a) a credit-broker or supplier who is the negotiator in antecedent negotiations, and
 - (b) any person who, in the course of a business carried on by him, acts on behalf of the debtor or hirer in any negotiations for the agreement.
- (4) Where the agreement, if made, would not be a cancellable agreement, subsection (1) shall nevertheless apply as if the contrary were the case.

58 Opportunity for withdrawal from prospective land mortgage.

- (1) Before sending to the debtor or hirer, for his signature, an unexecuted agreement in a case where the prospective regulated agreement is to be secured on land (the “mortgaged land”), the creditor or owner shall give the debtor or hirer a copy of the unexecuted agreement which contains a notice in the prescribed form indicating the right of the debtor or hirer to withdraw from the prospective agreement, and how and when the right is exercisable, together with a copy of any other document referred to in the unexecuted agreement.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to—
 - (a) a restricted-use credit agreement to finance the purchase of the mortgaged land, or
 - (b) an agreement for a bridging loan in connection with the purchase of the mortgaged land or other land.

59 Agreement to enter future agreement void.

- (1) An agreement is void if, and to the extent that, it purports to bind a person to enter as debtor or hirer into a prospective regulated agreement.
- (2) Regulations may exclude from the operation of subsection (1) agreements such as are described in the regulations.

Making the agreement

60 Form and content of agreements.

- (1) The Secretary of State shall make regulations as to the form and content of documents embodying regulated agreements, and the regulations shall contain such provisions as appear to him appropriate with a view to ensuring that the debtor or hirer is made aware of—
 - (a) the rights and duties conferred or imposed on him by the agreement,
 - (b) the amount and rate of the total charge for credit (in the case of a consumer credit agreement),
 - (c) the protection and remedies available to him under this Act, and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Consumer Credit Act 1974 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 21 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (d) any other matters which, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, it is desirable for him to know about in connection with the agreement.
- (2) Regulations under subsection (1) may in particular—
- (a) require specified information to be included in the prescribed manner in documents, and other specified material to be excluded;
 - (b) contain requirements to ensure that specified information is clearly brought to the attention of the debtor or hirer, and that one part of a document is not given insufficient or excessive prominence compared with another.
- (3) If, on an application made to the Director by a person carrying on a consumer credit business or a consumer hire business, it appears to the Director impracticable for the applicant to comply with any requirement of regulations under subsection (1) in a particular case, he may, by notice to the applicant direct that the requirement be waived or varied in relation to such agreements, and subject to such conditions (if any), as he may specify, and this Act and the regulations shall have effect accordingly.
- (4) The Director shall give a notice under subsection (3) only if he is satisfied that to do so would not prejudice the interests of debtors or hirers.

61 Signing of agreement.

- (1) A regulated agreement is not properly executed unless—
- (a) a document in the prescribed form itself containing all the prescribed terms and conforming to regulations under section 60(1) is signed in the prescribed manner both by the debtor or hirer and by or on behalf of the creditor or owner, and
 - (b) the document embodies all the terms of the agreement, other than implied terms, and
 - (c) the document is, when presented or sent to the debtor or hirer for signature, in such a state that all its terms are readily legible.
- (2) In addition, where the agreement is one to which section 58(1) applies, it is not properly executed unless—
- (a) the requirements of section 58(1) were complied with, and
 - (b) the unexecuted agreement was sent, for his signature, to the debtor or hirer by post not less than seven days after a copy of it was given to him under section 58(1), and
 - (c) during the consideration period, the creditor or owner refrained from approaching the debtor or hirer (whether in person, by telephone or letter, or in any other way) except in response to a specific request made by the debtor or hirer after the beginning of the consideration period, and
 - (d) no notice of withdrawal by the debtor or hirer was received by the creditor or owner before the sending of the unexecuted agreement.
- (3) In subsection (2)(c), “the consideration period” means the period beginning with the giving of the copy under section 58(1) and ending—
- (a) at the expiry of seven days after the day on which the unexecuted agreement is sent, for his signature, to the debtor or hirer, or
 - (b) on its return by the debtor or hirer after signature by him,
- whichever first occurs.

[^{F55}61A Duty to supply copy of executed consumer credit agreement

- (1) Where a regulated consumer credit agreement, other than an excluded agreement, has been made, the creditor must give a copy of the executed agreement, and any other document referred to in it, to the debtor.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if—
- (a) a copy of the unexecuted agreement (and of any other document referred to in it) has already been given to the debtor, and
 - (b) the unexecuted agreement is in identical terms to the executed agreement.
- (3) In a case referred to in subsection (2), the creditor must inform the debtor in writing—
- (a) that the agreement has been executed,
 - (b) that the executed agreement is in identical terms to the unexecuted agreement a copy of which has already been given to the debtor, and
 - (c) that the debtor has the right to receive a copy of the executed agreement if the debtor makes a request for it at any time before the end of the period referred to in section 66A(2).
- (4) Where a request is made under subsection (3)(c) the creditor must give a copy of the executed agreement to the debtor without delay.
- (5) If the requirements of this section are not observed, the agreement is not properly executed.
- (6) For the purposes of this section, an agreement is an excluded agreement if it is—
- (a) a cancellable agreement, or
 - (b) an agreement—
 - (i) secured on land,
 - (ii) under which the creditor provides the debtor with credit which exceeds £60,260, or
 - (iii) entered into by the debtor wholly or predominantly for the purposes of a business carried on, or intended to be carried on, by him, unless the creditor or a credit intermediary has complied with or purported to comply with regulation 3(2) of the Consumer Credit (Disclosure of Information) Regulations 2010.
- (7) Subsections (2) to (5) of section 16B (declaration by the debtor as to the purposes of the agreement) apply for the purposes of subsection (6)(b)(iii).]

- (2) A copy of the executed agreement, and of any other document referred to in it, must be given to the debtor or hirer within the seven days following the making of the agreement unless—
 - (a) subsection (1) applies, or
 - (b) the unexecuted agreement was sent to the debtor or hirer for his signature and, on the occasion of his signing it, the document became an executed agreement.
- (3) In the case of a cancellable agreement, a copy under subsection (2) must be sent by post.
- (4) In the case of a credit-token agreement, a copy under subsection (2) need not be given within the seven days following the making of the agreement if it is given before or at the time when the credit-token is given to the debtor.
- (5) A regulated agreement is not properly executed if the requirements of this section are not observed.

64 Duty to give notice of cancellation rights.

- (1) In the case of a cancellable agreement, a notice in the prescribed form indicating the right of the debtor or hirer to cancel the agreement, how and when that right is exercisable, and the name and address of a person to whom notice of cancellation may be given,—
 - (a) must be included in every copy given to the debtor or hirer under section 62 or 63, and
 - (b) except where section 63(2) applied, must also be sent by post to the debtor or hirer within the seven days following the making of the agreement.
- (2) In the case of a credit-token agreement, a notice under subsection (1)(b) need not be sent by post within the seven days following the making of the agreement if either—
 - (a) it is sent by post to the debtor or hirer before the credit-token is given to him, or
 - (b) it is sent by post to him together with the credit-token.
- (3) Regulations may provide that except where section 63(2) applied a notice sent under subsection (1)(b) shall be accompanied by a further copy of the executed agreement, and of any other document referred to in it.
- (4) Regulations may provide that subsection (1)(b) is not to apply in the case of agreements such as are described in the regulations, being agreements made by a particular person, if—
 - (a) on an application by that person to the Director, the Director has determined that, having regard to—
 - (i) the manner in which antecedent negotiations for agreements with the applicant of that description are conducted, and
 - (ii) the information provided to debtors or hirers before such agreements are made, the requirement imposed by subsection (1)(b) can be dispensed with without prejudicing the interests of debtors or hirers; and
 - (b) any conditions imposed by the Director in making the determination are complied with.

- (5) A cancellable agreement is not properly executed if the requirements of this section are not observed.

65 Consequences of improper execution.

- (1) An improperly-executed regulated agreement is enforceable against the debtor or hirer on an order of the court only.
- (2) A retaking of goods or land to which a regulated agreement relates is an enforcement of the agreement.

66 Acceptance of credit-tokens.

- (1) The debtor shall not be liable under a credit-token agreement for use made of the credit-token by any person unless the debtor had previously accepted the credit-token, or the use constituted an acceptance of it by him.
- (2) The debtor accepts a credit-token when—
- (a) it is signed, or
 - (b) a receipt for it is signed, or
 - (c) it is first used,
- either by the debtor himself or by a person who, pursuant to the agreement, is authorised by him to use it.

66A Withdrawal from consumer credit agreement

- (1) The debtor under a regulated consumer credit agreement, other than an excluded agreement, may withdraw from the agreement, without giving any reason, in accordance with this section.
- (2) To withdraw from an agreement under this section the debtor must give oral or written notice of the withdrawal to the creditor before the end of the period of 14 days beginning with the day after the relevant day.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Consumer Credit Act 1974 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 21 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2) the relevant day is whichever is the latest of the following—
 - (a) the day on which the agreement is made;
 - (b) where the creditor is required to inform the debtor of the credit limit under the agreement, the day on which the creditor first does so;
 - (c) in the case of an agreement to which section 61A (duty to supply copy of executed consumer credit agreement) applies, the day on which the debtor receives a copy of the agreement under that section or on which the debtor is informed as specified in subsection (3) of that section;
 - (d) in the case of an agreement to which section 63 (duty to supply copy of executed agreement: excluded agreements) applies, the day on which the debtor receives a copy of the agreement under that section.
- (4) Where oral notice under this section is given to the creditor it must be given in a manner specified in the agreement.
- (5) Where written notice under this section is given by facsimile transmission or electronically—
 - (a) it must be sent to the number or electronic address specified for the purpose in the agreement, and
 - (b) where it is so sent, it is to be regarded as having been received by the creditor at the time it is sent (and section 176A does not apply).
- (6) Where written notice under this section is given in any other form—
 - (a) it must be sent by post to, or left at, the postal address specified for the purpose in the agreement, and
 - (b) where it is sent by post to that address, it is to be regarded as having been received by the creditor at the time of posting (and section 176 does not apply).
- (7) Subject as follows, where the debtor withdraws from a regulated consumer credit agreement under this section—
 - (a) the agreement shall be treated as if it had never been entered into, and
 - (b) where an ancillary service relating to the agreement is or is to be provided by the creditor, or by a third party on the basis of an agreement between the third party and the creditor, the ancillary service contract shall be treated as if it had never been entered into.
- (8) In the case referred to in subsection (7)(b) the creditor must without delay notify any third party of the fact that the debtor has withdrawn from the agreement.
- (9) Where the debtor withdraws from an agreement under this section—
 - (a) the debtor must repay to the creditor any credit provided and the interest accrued on it (at the rate provided for under the agreement), but
 - (b) the debtor is not liable to pay to the creditor any compensation, fees or charges except any non-returnable charges paid by the creditor to a public administrative body.
- (10) An amount payable under subsection (9) must be paid without undue delay and no later than the end of the period of 30 days beginning with the day after the day on which the notice of withdrawal was given (and if not paid by the end of that period may be recovered by the creditor as a debt).

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

- (11) Where a regulated consumer credit agreement is a conditional sale, hire-purchase or credit-sale agreement and—
- (a) the debtor withdraws from the agreement under this section after the credit has been provided, and
 - (b) the sum payable under subsection (9)(a) is paid in full by the debtor, title to the goods purchased or supplied under the agreement is to pass to the debtor on the same terms as would have applied had the debtor not withdrawn from the agreement.
- (12) In subsections (2), (4), (5), (6) and (9)(a) references to the creditor include a person specified by the creditor in the agreement.
- (13) In subsection (7)(b) the reference to an ancillary service means a service that relates to the provision of credit under the agreement and includes in particular an insurance or payment protection policy.
- (14) For the purposes of this section, an agreement is an excluded agreement if it is—
- (a) an agreement for credit exceeding £60, 260,
 - (b) an agreement secured on land,
 - (c) a restricted-use credit agreement to finance the purchase of land, or
 - (d) an agreement for a bridging loan in connection with the purchase of land.]

Cancellation of certain agreements within cooling-off period

67 Cancellable agreements.

A regulated agreement may be cancelled by the debtor or hirer in accordance with this Part if the antecedent negotiations included oral representations made when in the presence of the debtor or hirer by an individual acting as, or on behalf of, the negotiator, unless—

- (a) the agreement is secured on land, or is a restricted-use credit agreement to finance the purchase of land or is an agreement for a bridging loan in connection with the purchase of land, or
- (b) the unexecuted agreement is signed by the debtor or hirer at premises at which any of the following is carrying on any business (whether on a permanent or temporary basis)—
 - (i) the creditor or owner;
 - (ii) any party to a linked transaction (other than the debtor or hirer or a relative of his);
 - (iii) the negotiator in any antecedent negotiations.

68 Cooling-off period.

The debtor or hirer may serve notice of cancellation of a cancellable agreement between his signing of the unexecuted agreement and—

- (a) the end of the fifth day following the day on which he received a copy under section 63(2) or a notice under section 64(1)(b), or

- (b) if (by virtue of regulations made under section 64(4)) section 64(1)(b) does not apply, the end of the fourteenth day following the day on which he signed the unexecuted agreement.

69 Notice of cancellation.

- (1) If within the period specified in section 68 the debtor or hirer under a cancellable agreement serves on—

- (a) the creditor or owner, or
- (b) the person specified in the notice under section 64(1), or
- (c) a person who (whether by virtue of subsection (6) or otherwise) is the agent of the creditor or owner, a notice (a “notice of cancellation”) which, however expressed and whether or not conforming to the notice given under section 64(1), indicates the intention of the debtor or hirer to withdraw from the agreement, the notice shall operate—

- (i) to cancel the agreement, and any linked transaction, and
- (ii) to withdraw any offer by the debtor or hirer, or his relative, to enter into a linked transaction.

- (2) In the case of a debtor-creditor-supplier agreement for restricted-use credit financing—

- (a) the doing of work or supply of goods to meet an emergency, or
- (b) the supply of goods which, before service of the notice of cancellation, had by the act of the debtor or his relative become incorporated in any land or thing not comprised in the agreement or any linked transaction, subsection (1) shall apply with the substitution of the following for paragraph (i)—

“(i) to cancel only such provisions of the agreement and any linked transaction as—

- (aa) relate to the provision of credit, or
- (bb) require the debtor to pay an item in the total charge for credit, or
- (cc) subject the debtor to any obligation other than to pay for the doing of the said work, or the supply of the said goods”.

- (3) Except so far as is otherwise provided, references in this Act to the cancellation of an agreement or transaction do not include a case within subsection (2).
- (4) Except as otherwise provided by or under this Act, an agreement or transaction cancelled under subsection (1) shall be treated as if it had never been entered into.
- (5) Regulations may exclude linked transactions of the prescribed description from subsection (1)(i) or (ii).
- (6) Each of the following shall be deemed to be the agent of the creditor or owner for the purpose of receiving a notice of cancellation—
 - (a) a credit-broker or supplier who is the negotiator in antecedent negotiations, and
 - (b) any person who, in the course of a business carried on by him, acts on behalf of the debtor or hirer in any negotiations for the agreement.
- (7) Whether or not it is actually received by him, a notice of cancellation sent by post to a person shall be deemed to be served on him at the time of posting.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Consumer Credit Act 1974 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 21 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

70 Cancellation: recovery of money paid by debtor or hirer.

- (1) On the cancellation of a regulated agreement, and of any linked transaction,—
 - (a) any sum paid by the debtor or hirer, or his relative, under or in contemplation of the agreement or transaction, including any item in the total charge for credit, shall become repayable, and
 - (b) any sum, including any item in the total charge for credit, which but for the cancellation is, or would or might become, payable by the debtor or hirer, or his relative, under the agreement or transaction shall cease to be, or shall not become, so payable, and
 - (c) in the case of a debtor-creditor-supplier agreement falling within section 12(b), any sum paid on the debtor's behalf by the creditor to the supplier shall become repayable to the creditor.
- (2) If, under the terms of a cancelled agreement or transaction, the debtor or hirer, or his relative, is in possession of any goods, he shall have a lien on them for any sum repayable to him under subsection (1) in respect of that agreement or transaction, or any other linked transaction.
- (3) A sum repayable under subsection (1) is repayable by the person to whom it was originally paid, but in the case of a debtor-creditor-supplier agreement falling within section 12(b) the creditor and the supplier shall be under a joint and several liability to repay sums paid by the debtor, or his relative, under the agreement or under a linked transaction falling within section 19(1)(b) and accordingly, in such a case, the creditor shall be entitled, in accordance with rules of court, to have the supplier made a party to any proceedings brought against the creditor to recover any such sums.
- (4) Subject to any agreement between them, the creditor shall be entitled to be indemnified by the supplier for loss suffered by the creditor in satisfying his liability under subsection (3), including costs reasonably incurred by him in defending proceedings instituted by the debtor.
- (5) Subsection (1) does not apply to any sum which, if not paid by a debtor, would be payable by virtue of section 71, and applies to a sum paid or payable by a debtor for the issue of a credit-token only where the credit-token has been returned to the creditor or surrendered to a supplier.
- (6) If the total charge for credit includes an item in respect of a fee or commission charged by a credit-broker, the amount repayable under subsection (1) in respect of that item shall be the excess over [^{F58}£3] of the fee or commission.
- (7) If the total charge for credit includes any sum payable or paid by the debtor to a credit-broker otherwise than in respect of a fee or commission charged by him, that sum shall for the purposes of subsection (6) be treated as if it were such a fee or commission.
- (8) So far only as is necessary to give effect to section 69(2), this section applies to an agreement or transaction within that subsection as it applies to a cancelled agreement or transaction.

71 Cancellation: repayment of credit.

- (1) Notwithstanding the cancellation of a regulated consumer credit agreement, other than a debtor-creditor-supplier agreement for restricted-use credit, the agreement shall continue in force so far as it relates to repayment of credit and payment of interest.
- (2) If, following the cancellation of a regulated consumer credit agreement, the debtor repays the whole or a portion of the credit—
 - (a) before the expiry of one month following service of the notice of cancellation, or
 - (b) in the case of a credit repayable by instalments, before the date on which the first instalment is due, no interest shall be payable on the amount repaid.
- (3) If the whole of a credit repayable by instalments is not repaid on or before the date specified in subsection (2)(b), the debtor shall not be liable to repay any of the credit except on receipt of a request in writing in the prescribed form, signed by or on behalf of the creditor, stating the amounts of the remaining instalments (recalculated by the creditor as nearly as may be in accordance with the agreement and without extending the repayment period), but excluding any sum other than principal and interest.
- (4) Repayment of a credit, or payment of interest, under a cancelled agreement shall be treated as duly made if it is made to any person on whom, under section 69, a notice of cancellation could have been served, other than a person referred to in section 69(6)(b).

72 Cancellation: return of goods.

- (1) This section applies where any agreement or transaction relating to goods, being—
 - (a) a restricted-use debtor-creditor-supplier agreement, a consumer hire agreement, or a linked transaction to which the debtor or hirer under any regulated agreement is a party, or
 - (b) a linked transaction to which a relative of the debtor or hirer under any regulated agreement is a party, is cancelled after the debtor or hirer (in a case within paragraph (a)) or the relative (in a case within paragraph (b)) has acquired possession of the goods by virtue of the agreement or transaction.
- (2) In this section—
 - (a) “the possessor ” means the person who has acquired possession of the goods as mentioned in subsection (1),
 - (b) “the other party ” means the person from whom the possessor acquired possession, and
 - (c) “the pre-cancellation period ” means the period beginning when the possessor acquired possession and ending with the cancellation.
- (3) The possessor shall be treated as having been under a duty throughout the pre-cancellation period—
 - (a) to retain possession of the goods, and
 - (b) to take reasonable care of them.
- (4) On the cancellation, the possessor shall be under a duty, subject to any lien, to restore the goods to the other party in accordance with this section, and meanwhile to retain possession of the goods and take reasonable care of them.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Consumer Credit Act 1974 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 21 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) The possessor shall not be under any duty to deliver the goods except at his own premises and in pursuance of a request in writing signed by or on behalf of the other party and served on the possessor either before, or at the time when, the goods are collected from those premises.
- (6) If the possessor—
 - (a) delivers the goods (whether at his own premises or elsewhere) to any person on whom, under section 69, a notice of cancellation could have been served (other than a person referred to in section 69(6)(b)), or
 - (b) sends the goods at his own expense to such a person,he shall be discharged from any duty to retain the goods or deliver them to any person.
- (7) Where the possessor delivers the goods as mentioned in subsection (6)(a), his obligation to take care of the goods shall cease; and if he sends the goods as mentioned in subsection (6)(b), he shall be under a duty to take reasonable care to see that they are received by the other party and not damaged in transit, but in other respects his duty to take care of the goods shall cease.
- (8) Where, at any time during the period of 21 days following the cancellation, the possessor receives such a request as is mentioned in subsection (5), and unreasonably refuses or unreasonably fails to comply with it, his duty to take reasonable care of the goods shall continue until he delivers or sends the goods as mentioned in subsection (6), but if within that period he does not receive such a request his duty to take reasonable care of the goods shall cease at the end of that period.
- (9) The preceding provisions of this section do not apply to—
 - (a) perishable goods, or
 - (b) goods which by their nature are consumed by use and which, before the cancellation, were so consumed, or
 - (c) goods supplied to meet an emergency, or
 - (d) goods which, before the cancellation, had become incorporated in any land or thing not comprised in the cancelled agreement or a linked transaction.
- (10) Where the address of the possessor is specified in the executed agreement, references in this section to his own premises are to that address and no other.
- (11) Breach of a duty imposed by this section is actionable as a breach of statutory duty.

73 Cancellation: goods given in part-exchange.

- (1) This section applies on the cancellation of a regulated agreement where, in antecedent negotiations, the negotiator agreed to take goods in part-exchange (the “part-exchange goods”) and those goods have been delivered to him.
- (2) Unless, before the end of the period of ten days beginning with the date of cancellation, the part-exchange goods are returned to the debtor or hirer in a condition substantially as good as when they were delivered to the negotiator, the debtor or hirer shall be entitled to recover from the negotiator a sum equal to the part-exchange allowance (as defined in subsection (7)(b)).
- (3) In the case of a debtor-creditor-supplier agreement within section 12(b), the negotiator and the creditor shall be under a joint and several liability to pay to the debtor a sum recoverable under subsection (2).

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Consumer Credit Act 1974 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 21 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Subject to any agreement between them, the creditor shall be entitled to be indemnified by the negotiator for loss suffered by the creditor in satisfying his liability under subsection (3), including costs reasonably incurred by him in defending proceedings instituted by the debtor.
- (5) During the period of ten days beginning with the date of cancellation, the debtor or hirer, if he is in possession of goods to which the cancelled agreement relates, shall have a lien on them for—
 - (a) delivery of the part-exchange goods, in a condition substantially as good as when they were delivered to the negotiator, or
 - (b) a sum equal to the part-exchange allowance; and if the lien continues to the end of that period it shall thereafter subsist only as a lien for a sum equal to the part-exchange allowance.
- (6) Where the debtor or hirer recovers from the negotiator or creditor, or both of them jointly, a sum equal to the part-exchange allowance, then, if the title of the debtor or hirer to the part-exchange goods has not vested in the negotiator, it shall so vest on the recovery of that sum.
- (7) For the purposes of this section—
 - (a) the negotiator shall be treated as having agreed to take goods in part-exchange if, in pursuance of the antecedent negotiations, he either purchased or agreed to purchase those goods or accepted or agreed to accept them as part of the consideration for the cancelled agreement, and
 - (b) the part-exchange allowance shall be the sum agreed as such in the antecedent negotiations or, if no such agreement was arrived at, such sum as it would have been reasonable to allow in respect of the part-exchange goods if no notice of cancellation had been served.
- (8) In an action brought against the creditor for a sum recoverable under subsection (2), he shall be entitled, in accordance with rules of court, to have the negotiator made a party to the proceedings.

Exclusion of certain agreements from Part V

74 Exclusion of certain agreements from Part V.

- (1) This Part (except section 56) does not apply to—
 - (a) a non-commercial agreement, or
 - (b) a debtor-creditor agreement enabling the debtor to overdraw on a current account, or
 - (c) a debtor-creditor agreement to finance the making of such payments arising on, or connected with, the death of a person as may be prescribed.
- (2) This Part (except sections 55 and 56) does not apply to a small debtor-creditor-supplier agreement for restricted-use credit.

[^{F59}(2A) In the case of an agreement to which the Consumer Protection (Cancellation of Contracts Concluded away from Business Premises) Regulations 1987 apply the reference in subsection (2) to a small agreement shall be construed as if in section 17(1) (a) and (b) “£35 ” were substituted for “£50 ”.]

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

- (3) Subsection (1)(b) or (c) applies only where the Director so determines, and such a determination—
- (a) may be made subject to such conditions as the Director thinks fit, and
 - (b) shall be made only if the Director is of the opinion that it is not against the interests of debtors.
- [^{F60}(3A) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (3)(b) above, in relation to a debtor-creditor agreement under which the creditor is the Bank of England or a bank within the meaning of the Bankers' Books Evidence Act 1879, the Director shall make a determination that subsection (1)(b) above applies unless he considers that it would be against the public interest to do so]
- (4) If any term of an agreement falling within subsection [^{F61}(1)(c)] or (2) is expressed in writing, regulations under section 60(1) shall apply to that term (subject to section 60(3)) as if the agreement were a regulated agreement not falling within subsection [^{F61}(1)(c)] or (2).

CURRENT ACCOUNT OVERDRAFTS

Textual Amendments

F62 Pt. VA inserted (1.2.2011) by The Consumer Credit (EU Directive) Regulations 2010 (S.I. 2010/1010), regs. 21, 99(1) (with regs. 100, 101) (as substituted by The Consumer Credit (Amendment) Regulations 2010 (S.I. 2010/1969), reg. 9)

74A Information to be provided on a current account agreement

- (1) This section applies to a current account agreement where—
- (a) there is the possibility that the account-holder may be allowed to overdraw on the current account without a pre-arranged overdraft or exceed a pre-arranged overdraft limit, and
 - (b) if the account-holder did so, this would be a regulated consumer credit agreement.
- (2) The current account agreement must include the following information at the time it is made—
- (a) the rate of interest charged on the amount by which an account-holder overdraws on the current account or exceeds the pre-arranged overdraft limit,

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

- (b) any conditions applicable to that rate,
 - (c) any reference rate on which that rate is based,
 - (d) information on any changes to the rate of interest (including the periods that the rate applies and any conditions or procedure applicable to changing that rate), and
 - (e) any other charges payable by the debtor under the agreement (and the conditions under which those charges may be varied).
- (3) The account-holder must be informed in writing at least annually of the information in subsection (2).
- (4) For the purposes of subsections (2) and (3) where different rates of interest are charged in different circumstances, the creditor must provide the information in subsection (2)(a) to (d) in respect of each rate.
- (5) Subsection (3) does not apply where the overdraft or excess would be secured on land.

Information to be provided on significant overdrawing without prior arrangement

F63-74B

- (1) Where—
- (a) the holder of a current account overdraws on the account without a pre-arranged overdraft, or exceeds a pre-arranged overdraft limit, for a period exceeding one month,
 - (b) the amount of that overdraft or excess is significant throughout that period,
 - (c) that overdraft or excess is a regulated consumer credit agreement, and
 - (d) the account-holder has not been informed in writing of the matters mentioned in subsection (2) within that period,
- the account-holder must be informed in writing of those matters without delay.
- (2) The matters referred to in subsection (1) are—
- (a) the fact that the current account is overdrawn or the overdraft limit has been exceeded,
 - (b) the amount of that overdraft or excess,
 - (c) the rate of interest charged on it, and
 - (d) any other charges payable by the debtor in relation to it (including any penalties and any interest on those charges).
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b) the amount of the overdraft or excess is to be treated as significant if—
- (a) the account-holder is liable to pay a charge for which he would not otherwise be liable,
 - (b) the overdraft or excess is likely to have an adverse effect on the debtor's ability to receive further credit (including any effect on the information about the debtor held by a credit reference agency), or
 - (c) it otherwise appears significant, having regard to all the circumstances.
- (4) Where the overdraft or excess is secured on land, subsection (1)(a) is to be read as if the reference to one month were a reference to three months.]]

PART VI

MATTERS ARISING DURING CURRENCY OF CREDIT OR HIRE AGREEMENTS

75 Liability of creditor for breaches by supplier.

- (1) If the debtor under a debtor-creditor-supplier agreement falling within section 12(b) or (c) has, in relation to a transaction financed by the agreement, any claim against the supplier in respect of a misrepresentation or breach of contract, he shall have a like claim against the creditor, who, with the supplier, shall accordingly be jointly and severally liable to the debtor.
- (2) Subject to any agreement between them, the creditor shall be entitled to be indemnified by the supplier for loss suffered by the creditor in satisfying his liability under subsection (1), including costs reasonably incurred by him in defending proceedings instituted by the debtor.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to a claim—
 - (a) under a non-commercial agreement, or
 - (b) so far as the claim relates to any single item to which the supplier has attached a cash price not exceeding [^{F64}£100] or more than [^{F65}£30,000].
- (4) This section applies notwithstanding that the debtor, in entering into the transaction, exceeded the credit limit or otherwise contravened any term of the agreement.
- (5) In an action brought against the creditor under subsection (1) he shall be entitled, in accordance with rules of court, to have the supplier made a party to the proceedings.

- (b) that the debtor has contacted the supplier but the supplier has not responded,
 - (c) that the supplier is insolvent, or
 - (d) that the debtor has taken reasonable steps to pursue his claim against the supplier but has not obtained satisfaction for his claim.
- (3) The steps referred to in subsection (2)(d) need not include litigation.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (2)(d) a debtor is to be deemed to have obtained satisfaction where he has accepted a replacement product or service or other compensation from the supplier in settlement of his claim.
- (5) In this section “linked credit agreement” means a regulated consumer credit agreement which serves exclusively to finance an agreement for the supply of specific goods or the provision of a specific service and where—
- (a) the creditor uses the services of the supplier in connection with the preparation or making of the credit agreement, or
 - (b) the specific goods or provision of a specific service are explicitly specified in the credit agreement.
- (6) This section does not apply where—
- (a) the cash value of the goods or service is £30, 000 or less,
 - (b) the linked credit agreement is for credit which exceeds £60, 260, or
 - (c) the linked credit agreement is entered into by the debtor wholly or predominantly for the purposes of a business carried on, or intended to be carried on, by him.
- (7) Subsections (2) to (5) of section 16B (declaration by the debtor as to the purposes of the agreement) apply for the purposes of subsection (6)(c).
- (8) This section does not apply to an agreement secured on land.]

- (1) The creditor under a regulated agreement for fixed-sum credit, within the prescribed period after receiving a request in writing to that effect from the debtor and payment of a fee of [^{F67}50p], shall give the debtor a copy of the executed agreement (if any) and of any other document referred to in it, together with a statement signed by or on behalf of the creditor showing, according to the information to which it is practicable for him to refer,—
 - (a) the total sum paid under the agreement by the debtor;
 - (b) the total sum which has become payable under the agreement by the debtor but remains unpaid, and the various amounts comprised in that total sum, with the date when each became due; and
 - (c) the total sum which is to become payable under the agreement by the debtor, and the various amounts comprised in that total sum, with the date, or mode of determining the date, when each becomes due.
- (2) If the creditor possesses insufficient information to enable him to ascertain the amounts and dates mentioned in subsection (1)(c), he shall be taken to comply with that paragraph if his statement under subsection (1) gives the basis on which, under the regulated agreement, they would fall to be ascertained.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to—
 - (a) an agreement under which no sum is, or will or may become, payable by the debtor, or
 - (b) a request made less than one month after a previous request under that subsection relating to the same agreement was complied with.
- (4) If the creditor under an agreement fails to comply with subsection (1)—
 - (a) he is not entitled, while the default continues, to enforce the agreement; and
 - (b) if the default continues for one month he commits an offence.
- (5) This section does not apply to a non-commercial agreement.

- (2) Regulations may make provision about the form and content of statements under this section.
- (3) The debtor shall have no liability to pay any sum in connection with the preparation or the giving to him of a statement under this section.
- (4) The creditor is not required to give the debtor any statement under this section once the following conditions are satisfied—
 - (a) that there is no sum payable under the agreement by the debtor; and
 - (b) that there is no sum which will or may become so payable.
- (5) Subsection (6) applies if at a time before the conditions mentioned in subsection (4) are satisfied the creditor fails to give the debtor—
 - (a) a statement under this section within the period mentioned in subsection (1) (a); or
 - (b) such a statement within the period of one year beginning with the day after the day on which such a statement was last given to him.
- (6) Where this subsection applies in relation to a failure to give a statement under this section to the debtor—
 - (a) the creditor shall not be entitled to enforce the agreement during the period of non-compliance;
 - (b) the debtor shall have no liability to pay any sum of interest to the extent calculated by reference to the period of non-compliance or to any part of it; and
 - (c) the debtor shall have no liability to pay any default sum which (apart from this paragraph)—
 - (i) would have become payable during the period of non-compliance; or
 - (ii) would have become payable after the end of that period in connection with a breach of the agreement which occurs during that period (whether or not the breach continues after the end of that period).

[^{F69}77B Fixed-sum credit agreement: statement of account to be provided on request

- (1) This section applies to a regulated consumer credit agreement—
- (a) which is for fixed-sum credit,
 - (b) which is of fixed duration,
 - (c) where the credit is repayable in instalments by the debtor, and
 - (d) which is not an excluded agreement.
- (2) Upon a request from the debtor, the creditor must as soon as reasonably practicable give to the debtor a statement in writing which complies with subsections (3) to (5).
- (3) The statement must include a table showing the details of each instalment owing under the agreement as at the date of the request.
- (4) Details to be provided under subsection (3) must include—
- (a) the date on which the instalment is due,
 - (b) the amount of the instalment,
 - (c) any conditions relating to payment of the instalment, and
 - (d) a breakdown of the instalment showing how much of it is made up of capital repayment, interest payment and other charges.
- (5) Where the rate of interest is variable or the charges under the agreement may be varied, the statement must also indicate clearly and concisely that the information in the table is valid only until the rate of interest or charges are varied.
- (6) The debtor may make a request under subsection (2) at any time that the agreement is in force unless a previous request has been made less than a month before and has been complied with.
- (7) The debtor shall have no liability to pay any sum in connection with the preparation or the giving of a statement under this section.

78 Duty to give information to debtor under running-account credit agreement.

- (1) The creditor under a regulated agreement for running-account credit, within the prescribed period after receiving a request in writing to that effect from the debtor and payment of a fee of [^{F70}50p], shall give the debtor a copy of the executed agreement (if any) and of any other document referred to in it, together with a statement signed by or on behalf of the creditor showing, according to the information to which it is practicable for him to refer,—
- (a) the state of the account, and
 - (b) the amount, if any currently payable under the agreement by the debtor to the creditor, and
 - (c) the amounts and due dates of any payments which, if the debtor does not draw further on the account, will later become payable under the agreement by the debtor to the creditor.
- (2) If the creditor possesses insufficient information to enable him to ascertain the amounts and dates mentioned in subsection (1)(c), he shall be taken to comply with that paragraph if his statement under subsection (1) gives the basis on which, under the regulated agreement, they would fall to be ascertained.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to—
- (a) an agreement under which no sum is, or will or may become, payable by the debtor, or
 - (b) a request made less than one month after a previous request under that subsection relating to the same agreement was complied with.
- (4) Where running-account credit is provided under a regulated agreement, the creditor shall give the debtor statements in the prescribed form, and with the prescribed contents—
- (a) showing according to the information to which it is practicable for him to refer, the state of the account at regular intervals of not more than twelve months, and

- (b) where the agreement provides, in relation to specified periods, for the making of payments by the debtor, or the charging against him of interest or any other sum, showing according to the information to which it is practicable for him to refer the state of the account at the end of each of those periods during which there is any movement in the account.
- (5) A statement under subsection (4) shall be given within the prescribed period after the end of the period to which the statement relates.
- (6) If the creditor under an agreement fails to comply with subsection (1)—
 - (a) he is not entitled, while the default continues, to enforce the agreement; and
 - (b) if the default continues for one month he commits an offence.
- (7) This section does not apply to a non-commercial agreement, and subsections (4) and (5) do not apply to a small agreement.

[^{F71}78A Duty to give information to debtor on change of rate of interest

- (1) Where the rate of interest charged under a regulated consumer credit agreement, other than an excluded agreement, is to be varied, the creditor must inform the debtor in writing of the matters mentioned in subsection (3) before the variation can take effect.
- (2) But subsection (1) does not apply where—
 - (a) the agreement provides that the creditor is to inform the debtor in writing periodically of the matters mentioned in subsection (3) in relation to any variation, at such times as may be provided for in the agreement,
 - (b) the agreement provides that the rate of interest is to vary according to a reference rate,
 - (c) the reference rate is publicly available,
 - (d) information about the reference rate is available on the premises of the creditor, and
 - (e) the variation of the rate of interest results from a change to the reference rate.
- (3) The matters referred to in subsections (1) and (2)(a) are—
 - (a) the variation in the rate of interest,
 - (b) the amount of any payments that are to be made after the variation has effect, if different, expressed as a sum of money where practicable, and
 - (c) if the number or frequency of payments changes as a result of the variation, the new number or frequency.
- (4) In the case of an agreement mentioned in subsection (5) this section applies as follows—
 - (a) the obligation in subsection (1) only applies if the rate of interest increases, and

- (b) subsection (3) is to be read as if paragraphs (b) and (c) were omitted.
- (5) The agreements referred to in subsection (4) are—
 - (a) an authorised business overdraft agreement,
 - (b) an authorised non-business overdraft agreement, or
 - (c) an agreement which would be an authorised non-business overdraft agreement but for the fact that the credit is not repayable on demand or within three months.
- (6) For the purposes of this section an agreement is an excluded agreement if it is—
 - (a) a debtor-creditor agreement arising where the holder of a current account overdraws on the account without a pre-arranged overdraft or exceeds a pre-arranged overdraft limit, or
 - (b) an agreement secured on land.]

80 Debtor or hirer to give information about goods.

- (1) Where a regulated agreement, other than a non-commercial agreement, requires the debtor or hirer to keep goods to which the agreement relates in his possession or control, he shall, within seven working days after he has received a request in writing to that effect from the creditor or owner, tell the creditor or owner where the goods are.
- (2) If the debtor or hirer fails to comply with subsection (1), and the default continues for 14 days, he commits an offence.

81 Appropriation of payments.

- (1) Where a debtor or hirer is liable to make to the same person payments in respect of two or more regulated agreements, he shall be entitled, on making any payment in respect of the agreements which is not sufficient to discharge the total amount then due under all the agreements, to appropriate the sum so paid by him—
 - (a) in or towards the satisfaction of the sum due under any one of the agreements, or
 - (b) in or towards the satisfaction of the sums due under any two or more of the agreements in such proportions as he thinks fit.
- (2) If the debtor or hirer fails to make any such appropriation where one or more of the agreements is—
 - (a) a hire-purchase agreement or conditional sale agreement, or
 - (b) a consumer hire agreement, or
 - (c) an agreement in relation to which any security is provided,the payment shall be appropriated towards the satisfaction of the sums due under the several agreements respectively in the proportions which those sums bear to one another.

82 Variation of agreements.

- (1) Where, under a power contained in a regulated agreement, the creditor or owner varies the agreement, the variation shall not take effect before notice of it is given to the debtor or hirer in the prescribed manner.
- (2) Where an agreement (a “modifying agreement”) varies or supplements an earlier agreement, the modifying agreement shall for the purposes of this Act be treated as—
 - (a) revoking the earlier agreement, and
 - (b) containing provisions reproducing the combined effect of the two agreements, and obligations outstanding in relation to the earlier agreement shall accordingly be treated as outstanding instead in relation to the modifying agreement.
- (3) If the earlier agreement is a regulated agreement but (apart from this subsection) the modifying agreement is not then, unless the modifying agreement is for running-account credit, it shall be treated as a regulated agreement.
- (4) If the earlier agreement is a regulated agreement for running-account credit, and by the modifying agreement the creditor allows the credit limit to be exceeded but intends the excess to be merely temporary, Part V (except section 56) shall not apply to the modifying agreement.

84 Misuse of credit-tokens.

- (1) Section 83 does not prevent the debtor under a credit-token agreement from being made liable to the extent of [^{F74}£50] (or the credit limit if lower) for loss to the creditor arising from use of the credit-token by other persons during a period beginning when the credit-token ceases to be in the possession of any authorised person and ending when the credit-token is once more in the possession of an authorised person.
- (2) Section 83 does not prevent the debtor under a credit-token agreement from being made liable to any extent for loss to the creditor from use of the credit-token by a person who acquired possession of it with the debtor's consent.
- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) shall not apply to any use of the credit-token after the creditor has been given oral or written notice that it is lost or stolen, or is for any other reason liable to misuse.
- (4) Subsections (1) and (2) shall not apply unless there are contained in the credit-token agreement in the prescribed manner particulars of the name, address and telephone number of a person stated to be the person to whom notice is to be given under subsection (3).
- (5) Notice under subsection (3) takes effect when received, but where it is given orally, and the agreement so requires, it shall be treated as not taking effect if not confirmed in writing within seven days.
- (6) Any sum paid by the debtor for the issue of the credit-token, to the extent (if any) that it has not been previously offset by use made of the credit-token, shall be treated as paid towards satisfaction of any liability under subsection (1) or (2).
- (7) The debtor, the creditor, and any person authorised by the debtor to use the credit-token, shall be authorised persons for the purposes of subsection (1).
- (8) Where two or more credit-tokens are given under one credit-token agreement, the preceding provisions of this section apply to each credit-token separately.

86 Death of debtor or hirer.

- (1) The creditor or owner under a regulated agreement is not entitled, by reason of the death of the debtor or hirer, to do an act specified in paragraphs (a) to (e) of section 87(1) if at the death the agreement is fully secured.
- (2) If at the death of the debtor or hirer a regulated agreement is only partly secured or is unsecured, the creditor or owner is entitled, by reason of the death of the debtor or hirer, to do an act specified in paragraphs (a) to (e) of section 87(1) on an order of the court only.
- (3) This section applies in relation to the termination of an agreement only where—
 - (a) a period for its duration is specified in the agreement, and
 - (b) that period has not ended when the creditor or owner purports to terminate the agreement, but so applies notwithstanding that, under the agreement, any party is entitled to terminate it before the end of the period so specified.
- (4) This section does not prevent the creditor from treating the right to draw on any credit as restricted or deferred, and taking such steps as may be necessary to make the restriction or deferment effective.
- (5) This section does not affect the operation of any agreement providing for payment of sums—
 - (a) due under the regulated agreement, or
 - (b) becoming due under it on the death of the debtor or hirer, out of the proceeds of a policy of assurance on his life.
- (6) For the purposes of this section an act is done by reason of the death of the debtor or hirer if it is done under a power conferred by the agreement which is—
 - (a) exercisable on his death, or
 - (b) exercisable at will and exercised at any time after his death.

PART VII

DEFAULT AND TERMINATION

Default notices

87 Need for default notice.

- (1) Service of a notice on the debtor or hirer in accordance with section 88 (a “default notice”) is necessary before the creditor or owner can become entitled, by reason of any breach by the debtor or hirer of a regulated agreement,—
 - (a) to terminate the agreement, or
 - (b) to demand earlier payment of any sum, or
 - (c) to recover possession of any goods or land, or
 - (d) to treat any right conferred on the debtor or hirer by the agreement as terminated, restricted or deferred, or
 - (e) to enforce any security.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not prevent the creditor from treating the right to draw upon any credit as restricted or deferred, and taking such steps as may be necessary to make the restriction or deferment effective.
- (3) The doing of an act by which a floating charge becomes fixed is not enforcement of a security.
- (4) Regulations may provide that subsection (1) is not to apply to agreements described by the regulations.

88 Contents and effect of default notice.

- (1) The default notice must be in the prescribed form and specify—
 - (a) the nature of the alleged breach;
 - (b) if the breach is capable of remedy, what action is required to remedy it and the date before which that action is to be taken;
 - (c) if the breach is not capable of remedy, the sum (if any) required to be paid as compensation for the breach, and the date before which it is to be paid.
- (2) A date specified under subsection (1) must not be less than seven days after the date of service of the default notice, and the creditor or owner shall not take action such as is mentioned in section 87(1) before the date so specified or (if no requirement is made under subsection (1)) before those seven days have elapsed.
- (3) The default notice must not treat as a breach failure to comply with a provision of the agreement which becomes operative only on breach of some other provision, but if the breach of that other provision is not duly remedied or compensation demanded under subsection (1) is not duly paid, or (where no requirement is made under subsection (1)) if the seven days mentioned in subsection (2) have elapsed, the creditor or owner may treat the failure as a breach and section 87(1) shall not apply to it.
- (4) The default notice must contain information in the prescribed terms about the consequences of failure to comply with it.
- (5) A default notice making a requirement under subsection (1) may include a provision for the taking of action such as is mentioned in section 87(1) at any time after the restriction imposed by subsection (2) will cease, together with a statement that the provision will be ineffective if the breach is duly remedied or the compensation duly paid.

89 Compliance with default notice.

If before the date specified for that purpose in the default notice the debtor or hirer takes the action specified under section 88(1)(b) or (c) the breach shall be treated as not having occurred.

Further restriction of remedies for default

90 Retaking of protected hire-purchase etc. goods.

- (1) At any time when—
- (a) the debtor is in breach of a regulated hire-purchase or a regulated conditional sale agreement relating to goods, and
 - (b) the debtor has paid to the creditor one-third or more of the total price of the goods, and
 - (c) the property in the goods remains in the creditor,
- the creditor is not entitled to recover possession of the goods from the debtor except on an order of the court.
- (2) Where under a hire-purchase or conditional sale agreement the creditor is required to carry out any installation and the agreement specifies, as part of the total price, the amount to be paid in respect of the installation (the “installation charge”) the reference in subsection (1)(b) to one-third of the total price shall be construed as a reference to the aggregate of the installation charge and one-third of the remainder of the total price.
- (3) In a case where—
- (a) subsection (1)(a) is satisfied, but not subsection (1)(b), and
 - (b) subsection (1)(b) was satisfied on a previous occasion in relation to an earlier agreement, being a regulated hire-purchase or regulated conditional sale agreement, between the same parties, and relating to any of the goods comprised in the later agreement (whether or not other goods were also included),
- subsection (1) shall apply to the later agreement with the omission of paragraph (b).
- (4) If the later agreement is a modifying agreement, subsection (3) shall apply with the substitution, for the second reference to the later agreement, of a reference to the modifying agreement.
- (5) Subsection (1) shall not apply, or shall cease to apply, to an agreement if the debtor has terminated, or terminates, the agreement.
- (6) Where subsection (1) applies to an agreement at the death of the debtor, it shall continue to apply (in relation to the possessor of the goods) until the grant of probate or administration, or (in Scotland) confirmation (on which the personal representative would fall to be treated as the debtor).
- (7) Goods falling within this section are in this Act referred to as “protected goods”.

91 Consequences of breach of s. 90.

If goods are recovered by the creditor in contravention of section 90—

- (a) the regulated agreement, if not previously terminated, shall terminate, and
- (b) the debtor shall be released from all liability under the agreement, and shall be entitled to recover from the creditor all sums paid by the debtor under the agreement.

92 Recovery of possession of goods or land.

- (1) Except under an order of the court, the creditor or owner shall not be entitled to enter any premises to take possession of goods subject to a regulated hire-purchase agreement, regulated conditional sale agreement or regulated consumer hire agreement.
- (2) At any time when the debtor is in breach of a regulated conditional sale agreement relating to land, the creditor is entitled to recover possession of the land from the debtor, or any person claiming under him, on an order of the court only.
- (3) An entry in contravention of subsection (1) or (2) is actionable as a breach of statutory duty.

93 Interest not to be increased on default.

The debtor under a regulated consumer credit agreement shall not be obliged to pay interest on sums which, in breach of the agreement, are unpaid by him at a rate—

- (a) where the total charge for credit includes an item in respect of interest, exceeding the rate of that interest, or
- (b) in any other case, exceeding what would be the rate of the total charge for credit if any items included in the total charge for credit by virtue of section 20(2) were disregarded.

[^{F75}93A Summary diligence not competent in Scotland.

Summary diligence shall not be competent in Scotland to enforce payment of a debt due under a regulated agreement or under any security related thereto.]

 - (b) the agreement is a green deal plan (within the meaning of section 1 of the Energy Act 2011) which is of a duration specified for the purposes of this section in regulations, and
 - (c) under section 94 the debtor discharges all or part of his indebtedness during the fixed rate period.
- (2) The creditor may claim an amount equal to the cost which the creditor has incurred as a result only of the debtor's indebtedness being discharged during the fixed rate period if—
 - (a) the amount of the payment under section 94 is not paid from the proceeds of a contract of payment protection insurance, and
 - (b) such other conditions as may be specified for the purposes of this section in regulations are satisfied.
- (3) The amount in subsection (2)—
 - (a) must be fair,
 - (b) must be objectively justified,
 - (c) must be calculated by the creditor in accordance with provision made for the purposes of this section in regulations, and
 - (d) must not exceed the total amount of interest that would have been paid by the debtor under the agreement in the period from the date on which the debtor makes the payment under section 94 to the date fixed by the agreement for the discharge of the indebtedness of the debtor.
- (4) If a creditor could claim under either section 95A or this section, the creditor may choose under which section to claim.]

Termination of agreements

98 Duty to give notice of termination (non-default cases).

- (1) The creditor or owner is not entitled to terminate a regulated agreement except by or after giving the debtor or hirer not less than seven days' notice of the termination.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies only where—
 - (a) a period for the duration of the agreement is specified in the agreement, and
 - (b) that period has not ended when the creditor or owner does an act mentioned in subsection (1),but so applies notwithstanding that, under the agreement, any party is entitled to terminate it before the end of the period so specified.
- (3) A notice under subsection (1) is ineffective if not in the prescribed form.
- (4) Subsection (1) does not prevent a creditor from treating the right to draw on any credit as restricted or deferred and taking such steps as may be necessary to make the restriction or deferment effective.
- (5) Regulations may provide that subsection (1) is not to apply to agreements described by the regulations.
- (6) Subsection (1) does not apply to the termination of a regulated agreement by reason of any breach by the debtor or hirer of the agreement.

[^{F79}98A Termination etc of open-end consumer credit agreements

- (1) The debtor under a regulated open-end consumer credit agreement, other than an excluded agreement, may by notice terminate the agreement, free of charge, at any time, subject to any period of notice not exceeding one month provided for by the agreement.
- (2) Notice under subsection (1) need not be in writing unless the creditor so requires.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Consumer Credit Act 1974 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 21 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) Where a regulated open-end consumer credit agreement, other than an excluded agreement, provides for termination of the agreement by the creditor—
 - (a) the termination must be by notice served on the debtor, and
 - (b) the termination may not take effect until after the end of the period of two months, or such longer period as the agreement may provide, beginning with the day after the day on which notice is served.
- (4) Where a regulated open-end consumer credit agreement, other than an excluded agreement, provides for termination or suspension by the creditor of the debtor's right to draw on credit—
 - (a) to terminate or suspend the right to draw on credit the creditor must serve a notice on the debtor before the termination or suspension or, if that is not practicable, immediately afterwards,
 - (b) the notice must give reasons for the termination or suspension, and
 - (c) the reasons must be objectively justified.
- (5) Subsection (4)(a) and (b) does not apply where giving the notice—
 - (a) is prohibited by an EU obligation, or
 - (b) would, or would be likely to, prejudice—
 - (i) the prevention or detection of crime,
 - (ii) the apprehension or prosecution of offenders, or
 - (iii) the administration of justice.
- (6) An objectively justified reason under subsection (4)(c) may, for example, relate to—
 - (a) the unauthorised or fraudulent use of credit, or
 - (b) a significantly increased risk of the debtor being unable to fulfil his obligation to repay the credit.
- (7) Subsections (1) and (3) do not affect any right to terminate an agreement for breach of contract.
- (8) For the purposes of this section an agreement is an excluded agreement if it is—
 - (a) an authorised non-business overdraft agreement,
 - (b) an authorised business overdraft agreement,
 - (c) a debtor-creditor agreement arising where the holder of a current account overdraws on the account without a pre-arranged overdraft or exceeds a pre-arranged overdraft limit, or
 - (d) an agreement secured on land.]

99 Right to terminate hire-purchase etc. agreements.

- (1) At any time before the final payment by the debtor under a regulated hire-purchase or regulated conditional sale agreement falls due, the debtor shall be entitled to terminate the agreement by giving notice to any person entitled or authorised to receive the sums payable under the agreement.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Termination of an agreement under subsection (1) does not affect any liability under the agreement which has accrued before the termination.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to a conditional sale agreement relating to land after the title to the land has passed to the debtor.
- (4) In the case of a conditional sale agreement relating to goods, where the property in the goods, having become vested in the debtor, is transferred to a person who does not become the debtor under the agreement, the debtor shall not thereafter be entitled to terminate the agreement under subsection (1).
- (5) Subject to subsection (4), where a debtor under a conditional sale agreement relating to goods terminates the agreement under this section after the property in the goods has become vested in him, the property in the goods shall thereupon vest in the person (the “previous owner”) in whom it was vested immediately before it became vested in the debtor:

Provided that if the previous owner has died, or any other event has occurred whereby that property, if vested in him immediately before that event, would thereupon have vested in some other person, the property shall be treated as having devolved as if it had been vested in the previous owner immediately before his death or immediately before that event, as the case may be.

100 Liability of debtor on termination of hire-purchase etc. agreement.

- (1) Where a regulated hire-purchase or regulated conditional sale agreement is terminated under section 99 the debtor shall be liable, unless the agreement provides for a smaller payment, or does not provide for any payment, to pay to the creditor the amount (if any) by which one-half of the total price exceeds the aggregate of the sums paid and the sums due in respect of the total price immediately before the termination.
- (2) Where under a hire-purchase or conditional sale agreement the creditor is required to carry out any installation and the agreement specifies, as part of the total price, the amount to be paid in respect of the installation (the “installation charge”) the reference in subsection (1) to one-half of the total price shall be construed as a reference to the aggregate of the installation charge and one-half of the remainder of the total price.
- (3) If in any action the court is satisfied that a sum less than the amount specified in subsection (1) would be equal to the loss sustained by the creditor in consequence of the termination of the agreement by the debtor, the court may make an order for the payment of that sum in lieu of the amount specified in subsection (1).
- (4) If the debtor has contravened an obligation to take reasonable care of the goods or land, the amount arrived at under subsection (1) shall be increased by the sum required to recompense the creditor for that contravention, and subsection (2) shall have effect accordingly.
- (5) Where the debtor, on the termination of the agreement, wrongfully retains possession of goods to which the agreement relates, then, in any action brought by the creditor to recover possession of the goods from the debtor, the court, unless it is satisfied that having regard to the circumstances it would not be just to do so, shall order the goods to be delivered to the creditor without giving the debtor an option to pay the value of the goods.

101 Right to terminate hire agreement.

- (1) The hirer under a regulated consumer hire agreement is entitled to terminate the agreement by giving notice to any person entitled or authorised to receive the sums payable under the agreement.
- (2) Termination of an agreement under subsection (1) does not affect any liability under the agreement which has accrued before the termination.
- (3) A notice under subsection (1) shall not expire earlier than eighteen months after the making of the agreement, but apart from that the minimum period of notice to be given under subsection (1), unless the agreement provides for a shorter period, is as follows.
- (4) If the agreement provides for the making of payments by the hirer to the owner at equal intervals, the minimum period of notice is the length of one interval or three months, whichever is less.
- (5) If the agreement provides for the making of such payments at differing intervals, the minimum period of notice is the length of the shortest interval or three months, whichever is less.
- (6) In any other case, the minimum period of notice is three months.
- (7) This section does not apply to—
 - (a) any agreement which provides for the making by the hirer of payments which in total (and without breach of the agreement) exceed [^{F80}£900] in any year, or
 - (b) any agreement where—
 - (i) goods are bailed or (in Scotland) hired to the hirer for the purposes of a business carried on by him, or the hirer holds himself out as requiring the goods for those purposes, and
 - (ii) the goods are selected by the hirer, and acquired by the owner for the purposes of the agreement at the request of the hirer from any person other than the owner’s associate, or
 - (c) any agreement where the hirer requires, or holds himself out as requiring, the goods for the purpose of bailing or hiring them to other persons in the course of a business carried on by him.
- (8) If, on an application made to the Director by a person carrying on a consumer hire business, it appears to the Director that it would be in the interest of hirers to do so, he may by notice to the applicant direct that this section shall not apply to consumer hire agreements made by the applicant, and subject to such conditions (if any) as the Director may specify, this Act shall have effect accordingly.
- (9) In the case of a modifying agreement, subsection (3) shall apply with the substitution, for “the making of the agreement ” of “the making of the original agreement ”.

102 Agency for receiving notice of rescission.

- (1) Where the debtor or hirer under a regulated agreement claims to have a right to rescind the agreement, each of the following shall be deemed to be the agent of the creditor or owner for the purpose of receiving any notice rescinding the agreement which is served by the debtor or hirer—
 - (a) a credit-broker or supplier who was the negotiator in antecedent negotiations, and
 - (b) any person who, in the course of a business carried on by him, acted on behalf of the debtor or hirer in any negotiations for the agreement.
- (2) In subsection (1) “rescind” does not include—
 - (a) service of a notice of cancellation, or
 - (b) termination of an agreement under section 99 or 101 or by the exercise of a right or power in that behalf expressly conferred by the agreement.

103 Termination statements.

- (1) If an individual (the “customer”) serves on any person (the “trader”) a notice—
 - (a) stating that—
 - (i) the customer was the debtor or hirer under a regulated agreement described in the notice, and the trader was the creditor or owner under the agreement, and
 - (ii) the customer has discharged his indebtedness to the trader under the agreement, and
 - (iii) the agreement has ceased to have any operation; and
 - (b) requiring the trader to give the customer a notice, signed by or on behalf of the trader, confirming that those statements are correct, the trader shall, within the prescribed period after receiving the notice, either comply with it or serve on the customer a counter-notice stating that, as the case may be, he disputes the correctness of the notice or asserts that the customer is not indebted to him under the agreement.

- (2) Where the trader disputes the correctness of the notice he shall give particulars of the way in which he alleges it to be wrong.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to any agreement if the trader has previously complied with that subsection on the service of a notice under it with respect to that agreement.
- (4) Subsection (1) does not apply to a non-commercial agreement.
- (5) If the trader fails to comply with subsection (1), and the default continues for one month, he commits an offence.

104 Goods not to be treated as subject to landlord’s hypothec in Scotland.

Goods comprised in a hire-purchase agreement or goods comprised in a conditional sale agreement which have not become vested in the debtor shall not be treated in Scotland as subject to the landlord’s hypothec—

- (a) during the period between the service of a default notice in respect of the goods and the date on which the notice expires or is earlier complied with; or

- (b) if the agreement is enforceable on an order of the court only, during the period between the commencement and termination of an action by the creditor to enforce the agreement.

PART VIII

SECURITY

General

105 Form and content of securities.

- (1) Any security provided in relation to a regulated agreement shall be expressed in writing.
- (2) Regulations may prescribe the form and content of documents (“security instruments ”) to be made in compliance with subsection (1).
- (3) Regulations under subsection (2) may in particular—
 - (a) require specified information to be included in the pre-scribed manner in documents, and other specified material to be excluded;
 - (b) contain requirements to ensure that specified information is clearly brought to the attention of the surety, and that one part of a document is not given insufficient or excessive prominence compared with another.
- (4) A security instrument is not properly executed unless—
 - (a) a document in the prescribed form, itself containing all the prescribed terms and conforming to regulations under subsection (2), is signed in the prescribed manner by or on behalf of the surety, and
 - (b) the document embodies all the terms of the security, other than implied terms, and
 - (c) the document, when presented or sent for the purpose of being signed by or on behalf of the surety, is in such state that its terms are readily legible, and
 - (d) when the document is presented or sent for the purpose of being signed by or on behalf of the surety there is also presented or sent a copy of the document.
- (5) A security instrument is not properly executed unless—
 - (a) where the security is provided after, or at the time when, the regulated agreement is made, a copy of the executed agreement, together with a copy of any other document referred to in it, is given to the surety at the time the security is provided, or
 - (b) where the security is provided before the regulated agreement is made, a copy of the executed agreement, together with a copy of any other document referred to in it, is given to the surety within seven days after the regulated agreement is made.
- (6) Subsection (1) does not apply to a security provided by the debtor or hirer.
- (7) If—
 - (a) in contravention of subsection (1) a security is not expressed in writing, or
 - (b) a security instrument is improperly executed, the security, so far as provided in relation to a regulated agreement, is enforceable against the surety on an order of the court only.

- (8) If an application for an order under subsection (7) is dismissed (except on technical grounds only) section 106 (ineffective securities) shall apply to the security.
- (9) Regulations under section 60(1) shall include provision requiring documents embodying regulated agreements also to embody any security provided in relation to a regulated agreement by the debtor or hirer.

106 Ineffective securities.

Where, under any provision of this Act, this section is applied to any security provided in relation to a regulated agreement, then, subject to section 177 (saving for registered charges)—

- (a) the security, so far as it is so provided, shall be treated as never having effect;
- (b) any property lodged with the creditor or owner solely for the purposes of the security as so provided shall be returned by him forthwith;
- (c) the creditor or owner shall take any necessary action to remove or cancel an entry in any register, so far as the entry relates to the security as so provided; and
- (d) any amount received by the creditor or owner on realisation of the security shall, so far as it is referable to the agreement, be repaid to the surety.

107 Duty to give information to surety under fixed-sum credit agreement.

- (1) The creditor under a regulated agreement for fixed-sum credit in relation to which security is provided, within the prescribed period after receiving a request in writing to that effect from the surety and payment of a fee of [^{F81}50p], shall give to the surety (if a different person from the debtor)—
 - (a) a copy of the executed agreement (if any) and of any other document referred to in it;
 - (b) a copy of the security instrument (if any); and
 - (c) a statement signed by or on behalf of the creditor showing, according to the information to which it is practicable for him to refer,—
 - (i) the total sum paid under the agreement by the debtor,
 - (ii) the total sum which has become payable under the agreement by the debtor but remains unpaid, and the various amounts comprised in that total sum, with the date when each became due, and
 - (iii) the total sum which is to become payable under the agreement by the debtor, and the various amounts comprised in that total sum, with the date, or mode of determining the date, when each becomes due.
- (2) If the creditor possesses insufficient information to enable him to ascertain the amounts and dates mentioned in subsection (1)(c)(iii), he shall be taken to comply with that sub-paragraph if his statement under subsection (1)(c) gives the basis on which, under the regulated agreement, they would fall to be ascertained.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to—
 - (a) an agreement under which no sum is, or will or may become, payable by the debtor, or 108 Duty to give information to surety under running-account credit agreement.

- (1) The creditor under a regulated agreement for running-account credit in relation to which security is provided, within the prescribed period after receiving a request in writing to that effect from the surety and payment of a fee of [^{F82}50p], shall give to the surety (if a different person from the debtor)—
 - (a) a copy of the executed agreement (if any) and of any other document referred to in it;
 - (b) a copy of the security instrument (if any); and
 - (c) a statement signed by or on behalf of the creditor showing, according to the information to which it is practicable for him to refer,—
 - (i) the state of the account, and
 - (ii) the amount, if any, currently payable under the agreement by the debtor to the creditor, and
 - (iii) the amounts and due dates of any payments which, if the debtor does not draw further on the account, will later become payable under the agreement by the debtor to the creditor.
- (2) If the creditor possesses insufficient information to enable him to ascertain the amounts and dates mentioned in subsection (1)(c)(iii), he shall be taken to comply with that sub-paragraph if his statement under subsection (1)(c) gives the basis on which, under the regulated agreement, they would fall to be ascertained.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to—
 - (a) an agreement under which no sum is, or will or may become, payable by the debtor, or
 - (b) a request made less than one month after a previous request under that subsection relating to the same agreement was complied with.

F84 Amount “50p” substituted by S.I. 1983/1571, art. 3, Sch. (which S.I. was revoked (1.5.1998) by S.I. 1998/997, art. 2)

111 Duty to give surety copy of default etc. notice.

- (1) When a default notice or a notice under section 76(1) or 98(1) is served on a debtor or hirer, a copy of the notice shall be served by the creditor or owner on any surety (if a different person from the debtor or hirer).
- (2) If the creditor or owner fails to comply with subsection (1) in the case of any surety, the security is enforceable against the surety (in respect of the breach or other matter to which the notice relates) on an order of the court only.

112 Realisation of securities.

Subject to section 121, regulations may provide for any matters relating to the sale or other realisation, by the creditor or owner, of property over which any right has been provided by way of security in relation to an actual or prospective regulated agreement, other than a non-commercial agreement.

113 Act not to be evaded by use of security.

- (1) Where a security is provided in relation to an actual or prospective regulated agreement, the security shall not be enforced so as to benefit the creditor or owner, directly or indirectly, to an extent greater (whether as respects the amount of any payment or the time or manner of its being made) than would be the case if the security were not provided and any obligations of the debtor or hirer, or his relative, under or in relation to the agreement were carried out to the extent (if any) to which they would be enforced under this Act.
- (2) In accordance with subsection (1), where a regulated agreement is enforceable on an order of the court or the Director only, any security provided in relation to the agreement is enforceable (so far as provided in relation to the agreement) where such an order has been made in relation to the agreement, but not otherwise.
- (3) Where—
 - (a) a regulated agreement is cancelled under section 69(1) or becomes subject to section 69(2), or
 - (b) a regulated agreement is terminated under section 91, or
 - (c) in relation to any agreement an application for an order under section 40(2), 65(1), 124(1) or 149(2) is dismissed (except on technical grounds only), or
 - (d) a declaration is made by the court under section 142(1) (refusal of enforcement order) as respects any regulated agreement, section 106 shall apply to any security provided in relation to the agreement.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

- (4) Where subsection (3)(d) applies and the declaration relates to a part only of the regulated agreement, section 106 shall apply to the security only so far as it concerns that part.
- (5) In the case of a cancelled agreement, the duty imposed on the debtor or hirer by section 71 or 72 shall not be enforceable before the creditor or owner has discharged any duty imposed on him by section 106 (as applied by subsection (3)(a)).
- (6) If the security is provided in relation to a prospective agreement or transaction, the security shall be enforceable in relation to the agreement or transaction only after the time (if any) when the agreement is made; and until that time the person providing the security shall be entitled, by notice to the creditor or owner, to require that section 106 shall thereupon apply to the security.
- (7) Where an indemnity [^{F85}or guarantee] is given in a case where the debtor or hirer is a minor, or [^{F86}an indemnity is given in a case where he] is otherwise not of full capacity, the reference in subsection (1) to the extent to which his obligations would be enforced shall be read in relation to the indemnity [^{F85}or guarantee] as a reference to the extent to which [^{F87}they][^{F87}those obligations] would be enforced if he were of full capacity.
- (8) Subsections (1) to (3) also apply where a security is provided in relation to an actual or prospective linked transaction, and in that case—
 - (a) references to the agreement shall be read as references to the linked transaction, and
 - (b) references to the creditor or owner shall be read as references to any person (other than the debtor or hirer, or his relative) who is a party, or prospective party, to the linked transaction.

JUDICIAL CONTROL

Enforcement of certain regulated agreements and securities

127 Enforcement orders in cases of infringement.

- (1) In the case of an application for an enforcement order under—
 - (a) section 65(1) (improperly executed agreements), or
 - (b) section 105(7)(a) or (b) (improperly executed security instruments), or
 - (c) section 111(2) (failure to serve copy of notice on surety), or
 - (d) section 124(1) or (2) (taking of negotiable instrument in contravention of section 123),the court shall dismiss the application if, but (subject to subsections (3) and (4)) only if, it considers it just to do so having regard to—
 - (i) prejudice caused to any person by the contravention in question, and the degree of culpability for it; and
 - (ii) the powers conferred on the court by subsection (2) and sections 135 and 136.
- (2) If it appears to the court just to do so, it may in an enforcement order reduce or discharge any sum payable by the debtor or hirer, or any surety, so as to compensate him for prejudice suffered as a result of the contravention in question.
- (3) The court shall not make an enforcement order under section 65(1) if section 61(1)
 - (a) (signing of agreements) was not complied with unless a document (whether or not in the prescribed form and complying with regulations under section 60(1)) itself containing all the prescribed terms of the agreement was signed by the debtor or hirer (whether or not in the prescribed manner).
- (4) The court shall not make an enforcement order under section 65(1) in the case of a cancellable agreement if—
 - (a) a provision of section 62 or 63 was not complied with, and the creditor or owner did not give a copy of the executed agreement, and of any other document referred to in it, to the debtor or hirer before the commencement of the proceedings in which the order is sought, or
 - (b) section 64(1) was not complied with.
- (5) Where an enforcement order is made in a case to which subsection (3) applies, the order may direct that the regulated agreement is to have effect as if it did not include a term omitted from the document signed by the debtor or hirer.

130A Interest payable on judgment debts etc.

- (1) If the creditor or owner under a regulated agreement wants to be able to recover from the debtor or hirer post-judgment interest in connection with a sum that is required to be paid under a judgment given in relation to the agreement (the ‘judgment sum’), he—
 - (a) after the giving of that judgment, shall give the debtor or hirer a notice under this section (the ‘first required notice’); and
 - (b) after the giving of the first required notice, shall give the debtor or hirer further notices under this section at intervals of not more than six months.
- (2) The debtor or hirer shall have no liability to pay post-judgment interest in connection with the judgment sum to the extent that the interest is calculated by reference to a period occurring before the day on which he is given the first required notice.
- (3) If the creditor or owner fails to give the debtor or hirer a notice under this section within the period of six months beginning with the day after the day on which such a notice was last given to the debtor or hirer, the debtor or hirer shall have no liability to pay post-judgment interest in connection with the judgment sum to the extent that the interest is calculated by reference to the whole or to a part of the period which—
 - (a) begins immediately after the end of that period of six months; and
 - (b) ends at the end of the day on which the notice is given to the debtor or hirer.
- (4) The debtor or hirer shall have no liability to pay any sum in connection with the preparation or the giving to him of a notice under this section.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

- (5) A notice under this section may be incorporated in a statement or other notice which the creditor or owner gives the debtor or hirer in relation to the agreement by virtue of another provision of this Act.
- (6) Regulations may make provision about the form and content of notices under this section.
- (7) This section does not apply in relation to post-judgment interest which is required to be paid by virtue of any of the following—
 - (a) section 4 of the Administration of Justice (Scotland) Act 1972;
 - (b) Article 127 of the Judgments Enforcement (Northern Ireland) Order 1981;
 - (c) section 74 of the County Courts Act 1984.
- (8) This section does not apply in relation to a non-commercial agreement or to a small agreement.
- (9) In this section ‘post-judgment interest’ means interest to the extent calculated by reference to a period occurring after the giving of the judgment under which the judgment sum is required to be paid.]

Protection of property pending proceedings

131 Protection orders.

The court, on the application of the creditor or owner under a regulated agreement, may make such orders as it thinks just for protecting any property of the creditor or owner, or property subject to any security, from damage or depreciation pending the determination of any proceedings under this Act, including orders restricting or prohibiting use of the property or giving directions as to its custody.

Hire and hire-purchase etc. agreements

132 Financial relief for hirer.

- (1) Where the owner under a regulated consumer hire agreement recovers possession of goods to which the agreement relates otherwise than by action, the hirer may apply to the court for an order that—
 - (a) the whole or part of any sum paid by the hirer to the owner in respect of the goods shall be repaid, and
 - (b) the obligation to pay the whole or part of any sum owed by the hirer to the owner in respect of the goods shall cease,and if it appears to the court just to do so, having regard to the extent of the enjoyment of the goods by the hirer, the court shall grant the application in full or in part.
- (2) Where in proceedings relating to a regulated consumer hire agreement the court makes an order for the delivery to the owner of goods to which the agreement relates the court may include in the order the like provision as may be made in an order under subsection (1).

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

133 Hire-purchase etc. agreements: special powers of court.

- (1) If, in relation to a regulated hire-purchase or conditional sale agreement, it appears to the court just to do so—
 - (a) on an application for an enforcement order or time order; or
 - (b) in an action brought by the creditor to recover possession of goods to which the agreement relates, the court may—
 - (i) make an order (a “return order”) for the return to the creditor of goods to which the agreement relates;
 - (ii) make an order (a “transfer order”) for the transfer to the debtor of the creditor’s title to certain goods to which the agreement relates (“the transferred goods”), and the return to the creditor of the remainder of the goods.
- (2) In determining for the purposes of this section how much of the total price has been paid (“the paid-up sum”), the court may—
 - (a) treat any sum paid by the debtor, or owed by the creditor, in relation to the goods as part of the paid-up sum;
 - (b) deduct any sum owed by the debtor in relation to the goods (otherwise than as part of the total price) from the paid-up sum, and make corresponding reductions in amounts so owed.
- (3) Where a transfer order is made, the transferred goods shall be such of the goods to which the agreement relates as the court thinks just; but a transfer order shall be made only where the paid-up sum exceeds the part of the total price referable to the transferred goods by an amount equal to at least one-third of the unpaid balance of the total price.
- (4) Notwithstanding the making of a return order or transfer order, the debtor may at any time before the goods enter the possession of the creditor, on payment of the balance of the total price and the fulfilment of any other necessary conditions, claim the goods ordered to be returned to the creditor.
- (5) When, in pursuance of a time order or under this section, the total price of goods under a regulated hire-purchase agreement or regulated conditional sale agreement is paid and any other necessary conditions are fulfilled, the creditor’s title to the goods vests in the debtor.
- (6) If, in contravention of a return order or transfer order, any goods to which the order relates are not returned to the creditor, the court, on the application of the creditor, may—
 - (a) revoke so much of the order as relates to those goods, and
 - (b) order the debtor to pay the creditor the unpaid portion of so much of the total price as is referable to those goods.
- (7) For the purposes of this section, the part of the total price referable to any goods is the part assigned to those goods by the agreement or (if no such assignment is made) the part determined by the court to be reasonable.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

134 Evidence of adverse detention in hire-purchase etc. cases.

- (1) Where goods are comprised in a regulated hire-purchase agreement, regulated conditional sale agreement or regulated consumer hire agreement, and the creditor or owner—
 - (a) brings an action or makes an application to enforce a right to recover possession of the goods from the debtor or hirer, and
 - (b) proves that a demand for the delivery of the goods was included in the default notice under section 88(5), or that, after the right to recover possession of the goods accrued but before the action was begun or the application was made, he made a request in writing to the debtor or hirer to surrender the goods,then, for the purposes of the claim of the creditor or owner to recover possession of the goods, the possession of them by the debtor or hirer shall be deemed to be adverse to the creditor or owner.
- (2) In subsection (1) “the debtor or hirer ” includes a person in possession of the goods at any time between the debtor’s or hirer’s death and the grant of probate or administration, or (in Scotland) confirmation.
- (3) Nothing in this section affects a claim for damages for conversion or (in Scotland) for delict.

Supplemental provisions as to orders

135 Power to impose conditions, or suspend operation of order.

- (1) If it considers it just to do so, the court may in an order made by it in relation to a regulated agreement include provisions—
 - (a) making the operation of any term of the order conditional on the doing of specified acts by any party to the proceedings;
 - (b) suspending the operation of any term of the order either—
 - (i) until such time as the court subsequently directs, or
 - (ii) until the occurrence of a specified act or omission.
- (2) The court shall not suspend the operation of a term requiring the delivery up of goods by any person unless satisfied that the goods are in his possession or control.
- (3) In the case of a consumer hire agreement, the court shall not so use its powers under subsection (1)(b) as to extend the period for which, under the terms of the agreement, the hirer is entitled to possession of the goods to which the agreement relates.
- (4) On the application of any person affected by a provision included under subsection (1), the court may vary the provision.

136 Power to vary agreements and securities.

The court may in an order made by it under this Act include such provision as it considers just for amending any agreement or security in consequence of a term of the order.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Extortionate credit bargains

137 Extortionate credit bargains.

- (1) If the court finds a credit bargain extortionate it may reopen the credit agreement so as to do justice between the parties.
- (2) In this section and sections 138 to 140,—
 - (a) “credit agreement” means any agreement between an individual (the “debtor”) and any other person (the “creditor”) by which the creditor provides the debtor with credit of any amount, and
 - (b) “credit bargain”—
 - (i) where no transaction other than the credit agreement is to be taken into account in computing the total charge for credit, means the credit agreement, or
 - (ii) where one or more other transactions are to be so taken into account, means the credit agreement and those other transactions, taken together.

138 When bargains are extortionate.

- (1) A credit bargain is extortionate if it—
 - (a) requires the debtor or a relative of his to make payments (whether unconditionally, or on certain contingencies) which are grossly exorbitant, or
 - (b) otherwise grossly contravenes ordinary principles of fair dealing.
- (2) In determining whether a credit bargain is extortionate, regard shall be had to such evidence as is adduced concerning—
 - (a) interest rates prevailing at the time it was made,
 - (b) the factors mentioned in subsection (3) to (5), and
 - (c) any other relevant considerations.
- (3) Factors applicable under subsection (2) in relation to the debtor include—
 - (a) his age, experience, business capacity and state of health; and
 - (b) the degree to which, at the time of making the credit bargain, he was under financial pressure, and the nature of that pressure.
- (4) Factors applicable under subsection (2) in relation to the creditor include—
 - (a) the degree of risk accepted by him, having regard to the value of any security provided;
 - (b) his relationship to the debtor; and
 - (c) whether or not a colourable cash price was quoted for any goods or services included in the credit bargain.
- (5) Factors applicable under subsection (2) in relation to a linked transaction include the question how far the transaction was reasonably required for the protection of debtor or creditor, or was in the interest of the debtor.

139 Reopening of extortionate agreements.

- (1) A credit agreement may, if the court thinks just, be reopened on the ground that the credit bargain is extortionate—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Consumer Credit Act 1974 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 21 January 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. - (a) on an application for the purpose made by the debtor or any surety to the High Court, county court or sheriff court; or
 - (b) at the instance of the debtor or a surety in any proceedings to which the debtor and creditor are parties, being proceedings to enforce the credit agreement, any security relating to it, or any linked transaction; or
 - (c) at the instance of the debtor or a surety in other proceedings in any court where the amount paid or payable under the credit agreement is relevant.
- (2) In reopening the agreement, the court may, for the purpose of relieving the debtor or a surety from payment of any sum in excess of that fairly due and reasonable, by order—
- (a) direct accounts to be taken, or (in Scotland) an accounting to be made, between any persons,
 - (b) set aside the whole or part of any obligation imposed on the debtor or a surety by the credit bargain or any related agreement,
 - (c) require the creditor to repay the whole or part of any sum paid under the credit bargain or any related agreement by the debtor or a surety, whether paid to the creditor or any other person,
 - (d) direct the return to the surety of any property provided for the purposes of the security, or
 - (e) alter the terms of the credit agreement or any security instrument.
- (3) An order may be made under subsection (2) notwithstanding that its effect is to place a burden on the creditor in respect of an advantage unfairly enjoyed by another person who is a party to a linked transaction.
- (4) An order under subsection (2) shall not alter the effect of any judgment.
- (5) In England and Wales an application under subsection (1)(a) shall be brought only in the county court in the case of—
- (a) a regulated agreement, or
 - (b) an agreement (not being a regulated agreement) under which the creditor provides the debtor with fixed-sum credit^{F95} . . . or running-account credit^{F95} . . .
- ^{F96}(5A)
- (6) In Scotland an application under subsection (1)(a) may be brought in the sheriff court for the district in which the debtor or surety resides or carries on business.
- (7) In Northern Ireland an application under subsection (1)(a) may be brought in the county court in the case of—
- (a) a regulated agreement, or
 - (b) an agreement (not being a regulated agreement) under which the creditor provides the debtor with fixed-sum credit not exceeding [^{F97}£15,000] or running-account credit on which the credit limit does not exceed [^{F97}£15,000].

140A Unfair relationships between creditors and debtors

- (1) The court may make an order under section 140B in connection with a credit agreement if it determines that the relationship between the creditor and the debtor arising out of the agreement (or the agreement taken with any related agreement) is unfair to the debtor because of one or more of the following—
 - (a) any of the terms of the agreement or of any related agreement;
 - (b) the way in which the creditor has exercised or enforced any of his rights under the agreement or any related agreement;
 - (c) any other thing done (or not done) by, or on behalf of, the creditor (either before or after the making of the agreement or any related agreement).
- (2) In deciding whether to make a determination under this section the court shall have regard to all matters it thinks relevant (including matters relating to the creditor and matters relating to the debtor).
- (3) For the purposes of this section the court shall (except to the extent that it is not appropriate to do so) treat anything done (or not done) by, or on behalf of, or in relation to, an associate or a former associate of the creditor as if done (or not done) by, or on behalf of, or in relation to, the creditor.
- (4) A determination may be made under this section in relation to a relationship notwithstanding that the relationship may have ended.
- (5) An order under section 140B shall not be made in connection with a credit agreement which is an exempt agreement by virtue of section 16(6C).

Powers of court in relation to unfair relationships

F99 140B

- (1) An order under this section in connection with a credit agreement may do one or more of the following—
 - (a) require the creditor, or any associate or former associate of his, to repay (in whole or in part) any sum paid by the debtor or by a surety by virtue of the agreement or any related agreement (whether paid to the creditor, the associate or the former associate or to any other person);
 - (b) require the creditor, or any associate or former associate of his, to do or not to do (or to cease doing) anything specified in the order in connection with the agreement or any related agreement;
 - (c) reduce or discharge any sum payable by the debtor or by a surety by virtue of the agreement or any related agreement;
 - (d) direct the return to a surety of any property provided by him for the purposes of a security;
 - (e) otherwise set aside (in whole or in part) any duty imposed on the debtor or on a surety by virtue of the agreement or any related agreement;
 - (f) alter the terms of the agreement or of any related agreement;
 - (g) direct accounts to be taken, or (in Scotland) an accounting to be made, between any persons.
- (2) An order under this section may be made in connection with a credit agreement only—
 - (a) on an application made by the debtor or by a surety;
 - (b) at the instance of the debtor or a surety in any proceedings in any court to which the debtor and the creditor are parties, being proceedings to enforce the agreement or any related agreement; or
 - (c) at the instance of the debtor or a surety in any other proceedings in any court where the amount paid or payable under the agreement or any related agreement is relevant.
- (3) An order under this section may be made notwithstanding that its effect is to place on the creditor, or any associate or former associate of his, a burden in respect of an advantage enjoyed by another person.
- (4) An application under subsection (2)(a) may only be made—
 - (a) in England and Wales, to the county court;
 - (b) in Scotland, to the sheriff court;
 - (c) in Northern Ireland, to the High Court (subject to subsection (6)).
- (5) In Scotland such an application may be made in the sheriff court for the district in which the debtor or surety resides or carries on business.
- (6) In Northern Ireland such an application may be made to the county court if the credit agreement is an agreement under which the creditor provides the debtor with—
 - (a) fixed-sum credit not exceeding £15,000; or
 - (b) running-account credit on which the credit limit does not exceed £15,000.
- (7) Without prejudice to any provision which may be made by rules of court made in relation to county courts in Northern Ireland, such rules may provide that an application made by virtue of subsection (6) may be made in the county court for the division in which the debtor or surety resides or carries on business.

Interpretation of ss. 140A and 140B

F100

- 140C
- (1) In this section and in sections 140A and 140B ‘credit agreement’ means any agreement between an individual (the ‘debtor’) and any other person (the ‘creditor’) by which the creditor provides the debtor with credit of any amount.
- (2) References in this section and in sections 140A and 140B to the creditor or to the debtor under a credit agreement include—
- references to the person to whom his rights and duties under the agreement have passed by assignment or operation of law;
 - where two or more persons are the creditor or the debtor, references to any one or more of those persons.
- (3) The definition of ‘court’ in section 189(1) does not apply for the purposes of sections 140A and 140B.
- (4) References in sections 140A and 140B to an agreement related to a credit agreement (the ‘main agreement’) are references to—
- a credit agreement consolidated by the main agreement;
 - a linked transaction in relation to the main agreement or to a credit agreement within paragraph (a);
 - a security provided in relation to the main agreement, to a credit agreement within paragraph (a) or to a linked transaction within paragraph (b).
- (5) In the case of a credit agreement which is not a regulated consumer credit agreement, for the purposes of subsection (4) a transaction shall be treated as being a linked transaction in relation to that agreement if it would have been such a transaction had that agreement been a regulated consumer credit agreement.
- (6) For the purposes of this section and section 140B the definitions of ‘security’ and ‘surety’ in section 189(1) apply (with any appropriate changes) in relation to—
- a credit agreement which is not a consumer credit agreement as if it were a consumer credit agreement; and
 - a transaction which is a linked transaction by virtue of subsection (5).
- (7) For the purposes of this section a credit agreement (the ‘earlier agreement’) is consolidated by another credit agreement (the ‘later agreement’) if—
- the later agreement is entered into by the debtor (in whole or in part) for purposes connected with debts owed by virtue of the earlier agreement; and

Seeking business

151 Advertisements.

- (1) Sections 44 to 47 apply to an advertisement published for the purposes of a business of credit brokerage carried on by any person, whether it advertises the services of that person or the services of persons to whom he effects introductions, as they apply to an advertisement to which Part IV applies.
- (2) Sections 44, 46 and 47 apply to an advertisement, published for the purposes of a business carried on by the advertiser, indicating that he is willing to advise on debts, or engage in transactions concerned with the liquidation of debts, as they apply to an advertisement to which Part IV applies.
- (3) The Secretary of State may by order provide that an advertisement published for the purposes of a business of credit brokerage, debt adjusting or debt counselling shall not fall within subsection (1) or (2) if it is of a description specified in the order.
- (4) An advertisement does not fall within subsection (2) if it indicates that the advertiser is not willing to act in relation to consumer credit agreements and consumer hire agreements.
- (5) In subsections (1) and (3) “credit brokerage” includes the effecting of introductions of individuals desiring to obtain credit to any person carrying on a business in the course of which he provides credit secured on land.

152 Application of sections 52 to 54 to credit brokerage etc.

- (1) Sections 52 to 54 apply to a business of credit brokerage, debt-adjusting or debt-counselling as they apply to a consumer credit business.
- (2) In their application to a business of credit brokerage, sections 52 and 53 shall apply to the giving of quotations and information about the business of any person to whom the credit-broker effects introductions as well as to the giving of quotations and information about his own business.

153 Definition of canvassing off trade premises (agreements for ancillary credit services).

- (1) An individual (the “canvasser”) canvasses off trade premises the services of a person carrying on an ancillary credit business if he solicits the entry of another individual (the “consumer”) into an agreement for the provision to the consumer of those services by making oral representations to the consumer, or any other individual, during a visit by the canvasser to any place (not excluded by subsection (2)) where the consumer, or that other individual as the case may be, is, being a visit—

- (a) carried out for the purpose of making such oral representations to individuals who are at that place, but
 - (b) not carried out in response to a request made on a previous occasion.
- (2) A place is excluded from subsection (1) if it is a place where (whether on a permanent or temporary basis)—
- (a) the ancillary credit business is carried on, or
 - (b) any business is carried on by the canvasser or the person whose employee or agent the canvasser is, or by the consumer.

154 Prohibition of canvassing certain ancillary credit services off trade premises.

It is an offence to canvass off trade premises the services of a person carrying on a business of credit-brokerage, debt-adjusting or debt-counselling.

155 Right to recover brokerage fees.

- (1) The excess over [^{F106}£3] of a fee or commission for his services charged by a credit-broker to an individual to whom this subsection applies shall cease to be payable or, as the case may be, shall be recoverable by the individual if the introduction does not result in his entering into a relevant agreement within the six months following the introduction (disregarding any agreement which is cancelled under section 69(1) or becomes subject to section 69(2)).
- (2) Subsection (1) applies to an individual who sought an introduction for a purpose which would have been fulfilled by his entry into—
 - (a) a regulated agreement, or
 - (b) in the case of an individual such as is referred to in section 145(2)(a)(ii), an agreement for credit secured on land, or
 - (c) an agreement such as is referred to in section 145(3)(b) or (c) or (4)(b).
- (3) An agreement is a relevant agreement for the purposes of subsection (1) in relation to an individual if it is an agreement such as is referred to in subsection (2) in relation to that individual.
- (4) In the case of an individual desiring to obtain credit under a consumer credit agreement, any sum payable or paid by him to a credit-broker otherwise than as a fee or commission for the credit-broker's services shall for the purposes of subsection (1) be treated as such a fee or commission if it enters, or would enter, into the total charge for credit.

156 Entry into agreements.

Regulations may make provision, in relation to agreements entered into in the course of a business of credit brokerage, debt-adjusting or debt-counselling, corresponding, with such modifications as the Secretary of State thinks fit, to the provision which is or may be made by or under sections 55, 60, 61, 62, 63, 65, 127, 179 or 180 in relation to agreements to which those sections apply.

Credit reference agencies

157 Duty to disclose name etc. of agency.

- (1) A creditor, owner or negotiator, within the prescribed period after receiving a request in writing to that effect from the debtor or hirer, shall give him notice of the name and address of any credit reference agency from which the creditor, owner or negotiator has, during the antecedent negotiations, applied for information about his financial standing.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a request received more than 28 days after the termination of the antecedent negotiations, whether on the making of the regulated agreement or otherwise.
- (3) If the creditor, owner or negotiator fails to comply with subsection (1) he commits an offence.

158 Duty of agency to disclose filed information.

- (1) A credit reference agency, within the prescribed period after receiving,—
 - (a) a request in writing to that effect from any individual (the “consumer”), and
 - (b) such particulars as the agency may reasonably require to enable them to identify the file, and
 - (c) a fee of [^{F107}£1], shall give the consumer a copy of the file relating to him kept by the agency.
- (2) When giving a copy of the file under subsection (1), the agency shall also give the consumer a statement in the prescribed form of his rights under section 159.
- (3) If the agency does not keep a file relating to the consumer it shall give him notice of that fact, but need not return any money paid.
- (4) If the agency contravenes any provision of this section it commits an offence.
- (5) In this Act “file”, in relation to an individual, means all the information about him kept by a credit reference agency, regardless of how the information is stored, and “copy of the file”, as respects information not in plain English, means a transcript reduced into plain English.

159 Correction of wrong information.

- (1) A consumer given information under section 158 who considers that an entry in his file is incorrect, and that if it is not corrected he is likely to be prejudiced, may give notice to the agency requiring it either to remove the entry from the file or amend it.
- (2) Within 28 days after receiving a notice under subsection (1), the agency shall by notice inform the consumer that it has—
 - (a) removed the entry from the file, or
 - (b) amended the entry, or
 - (c) taken no action,and if the notice states that the agency has amended the entry it shall include a copy of the file so far as it comprises the amended entry.
- (3) Within 28 days after receiving a notice under subsection (2), or where no such notice was given, within 28 days after the expiry of the period mentioned in subsection (2), the consumer may, unless he has been informed by the agency that it has removed the entry from his file, serve a further notice on the agency requiring it to add to the file an accompanying notice of correction (not exceeding 200 words) drawn up by the consumer, and include a copy of it when furnishing information included in or based on that entry.
- (4) Within 28 days after receiving a notice under subsection (3), the agency, unless it intends to apply to the Director under subsection (5), shall by notice inform the consumer that it has received the notice under subsection (3) and intends to comply with it.
- (5) If—
 - (a) the consumer has not received a notice under subsection (4) within the time required, or
 - (b) it appears to the agency that it would be improper for it to publish a notice of correction because it is incorrect, or unjustly defames any person, or is frivolous or scandalous, or is for any other reason unsuitable,the consumer or, as the case may be, the agency may, in the prescribed manner and on payment of the specified fee, apply to the Director, who may make such order on the application as he thinks fit.
- (6) If a person to whom an order under this section is directed fails to comply with it within the period specified in the order he commits an offence.

160 Alternative procedure for business consumers.

- (1) The Director, on an application made by a credit reference agency, may direct that this section shall apply to the agency if he is satisfied—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) that compliance with section 158 in the case of consumers who carry on a business would adversely affect the service provided to its customers by the agency, and
 - (b) that, having regard to the methods employed by the agency and to any other relevant factors, it is probable that consumers carrying on a business would not be prejudiced by the making of the direction.
- (2) Where an agency to which this section applies receives a request, particulars and a fee under section 158(1) from a consumer who carries on a business, and section 158(3) does not apply, the agency, instead of complying with section 158, may elect to deal with the matter under the following subsections.
- (3) Instead of giving the consumer a copy of the file, the agency shall within the prescribed period give notice to the consumer that it is proceeding under this section, and by notice give the consumer such information included in or based on entries in the file as the Director may direct, together with a statement in the prescribed form of the consumer's rights under subsections (4) and (5).
- (4) If within 28 days after receiving the information given him under subsection (3), or such longer period as the Director may allow, the consumer—
- (a) gives notice to the Director that he is dissatisfied with the information, and
 - (b) satisfies the Director that he has taken such steps in relation to the agency as may be reasonable with a view to removing the cause of his dissatisfaction, and
 - (c) pays the Director the specified fee,
- the Director may direct the agency to give the Director a copy of the file, and the Director may disclose to the consumer such of the information on the file as the Director thinks fit.
- (5) Section 159 applies with any necessary modifications to information given to the consumer under this section as it applies to information given under section 158.
- (6) If an agency making an election under subsection (2) fails to comply with subsection (3) or (4) it commits an offence.

- (b) the Director has notified them of receipt of the notice and summary.
- (3) Every local weights and measures authority shall, whenever the Director requires, report to him in such form and with such particulars as he requires on the exercise of their functions under this Act.
- (4) F109

Textual Amendments
F109 S. 161(4)–(6) repealed by Local Government, Planning and Land Act 1980 \(c. 65, SIF 81:1, 2\), s. 1(4), Sch. 34 Pt. IV

162 Powers of entry and inspection.

- (1) A duly authorised officer of an enforcement authority, at all reasonable hours and on production, if required, of his credentials, may—
 - (a) in order to ascertain whether a breach of any provision of or under this Act has been committed, inspect any goods and enter any premises (other than premises used only as a dwelling);
 - (b) if he has reasonable cause to suspect that a breach of any provision of or under this Act has been committed, in order to ascertain whether it has been committed, require any person—
 - (i) carrying on, or employed in connection with, a business to produce any books or documents relating to it; or
 - (ii) having control of any information relating to a business recorded otherwise than in a legible form to provide a document containing a legible reproduction of the whole or any part of the information, and take copies of, or of any entry in, the books or documents;
 - (c) if he has reasonable cause to believe that a breach of any provision of or under this Act has been committed, seize and detain any goods in order to ascertain (by testing or otherwise) whether such a breach has been committed;
 - (d) seize and detain any goods, books or documents which he has reason to believe may be required as evidence in proceedings for an offence under this Act;
 - (e) for the purpose of exercising his powers under this subsection to seize goods, books or documents, but only if and to the extent that it is reasonably necessary for securing that the provisions of this Act and of any regulations made under it are duly observed, require any person having authority to do so to break open any container and, if that person does not comply, break it open himself.
- (2) An officer seizing goods, books or documents in exercise of his powers under this section shall not do so without informing the person he seizes them from.
- (3) If a justice of the peace, on sworn information in writing, or, in Scotland, a sheriff or a magistrate or justice of the peace, on evidence on oath,—
 - (a) is satisfied that there is reasonable ground to believe either—
 - (i) that any goods, books or documents which a duly authorised officer has power to inspect under this section are on any premises and their inspection is likely to disclose evidence of a breach of any provision of or under this Act; or

- (ii) that a breach of any provision of or under this Act has been, is being or is about to be committed on any premises; and
- (b) is also satisfied either—
 - (i) that admission to the premises has been or is likely to be refused and that notice of intention to apply for a warrant under this subsection has been given to the occupier; or
 - (ii) that an application for admission, or the giving of such a notice, would defeat the object of the entry or that the premises are unoccupied or that the occupier is temporarily absent and it might defeat the object of the entry to wait for his return,the justice or, as the case may be, the sheriff or magistrate may by warrant under his hand, which shall continue in force for a period of one month, authorise an officer of an enforcement authority to enter the premises (by force if need be).
- (4) An officer entering premises by virtue of this section may take such other persons and equipment with him as he thinks necessary; and on leaving premises entered by virtue of a warrant under subsection (3) shall, if they are unoccupied or the occupier is temporarily absent, leave them as effectively secured against tres-passers as he found them.
- (5) Regulations may provide that, in cases described by the regulations, an officer of a local weights and measures authority is not to be taken to be duly authorised for the purposes of this section unless he is authorised by the Director.
- (6) A person who is not a duly authorised officer of an enforcement authority, but purports to act as such under this section, commits an offence.
- (7) Nothing in this section compels a barrister, advocate or solicitor to produce a document containing a privileged communication made by or to him in that capacity or authorises the seizing of any such document in his possession.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C43 S. 162(1)(c)(d): powers of seizure extended (1.4.2003) by 2001 c. 16, ss. 50, 52-54, 68, 138, Sch. 1 Pt. 1 para. 19; S.I. 2003/708, art. 2

163 Compensation for loss.

- (1) Where, in exercising his powers under section 162, an officer of an enforcement authority seizes and detains goods and their owner suffers loss by reason of—
 - (a) that seizure, or
 - (b) the loss, damage or deterioration of the goods during detention,then, unless the owner is convicted of an offence under this Act committed in relation to the goods, the authority shall compensate him for the loss so suffered.
- (2) Any dispute as to the right to or amount of any compensation under subsection (1) shall be determined by arbitration.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C44 S. 163 applied (1.4.2003) by 2001 c. 16, ss. 70, 138, Sch. 2 Pt. 1 para. 7; S.I. 2003/708, art. 2

164 Power to make test purchases etc.

- (1) An enforcement authority may—
 - (a) make, or authorise any of their officers to make on their behalf, such purchases of goods; and
 - (b) authorise any of their officers to procure the provision of such services or facilities or to enter into such agreements or other transactions, as may appear to them expedient for determining whether any provisions made by or under this Act are being complied with.
- (2) Any act done by an officer authorised to do it under subsection (1) shall be treated for the purposes of this Act as done by him as an individual on his own behalf.
- (3) Any goods seized by an officer under this Act may be tested, and in the event of such a test he shall inform the person mentioned in section 162(2) of the test results.
- (4) Where any test leads to proceedings under this Act, the enforcement authority shall—
 - (a) if the goods were purchased, inform the person they were purchased from of the test results, and
 - (b) allow any person against whom the proceedings are taken to have the goods tested on his behalf if it is reasonably practicable to do so.

165 Obstruction of authorised officers.

- (1) Any person who—
 - (a) wilfully obstructs an officer of an enforcement authority acting in pursuance of this Act; or
 - (b) wilfully fails to comply with any requirement properly made to him by such an officer under section 162; or
 - (c) without reasonable cause fails to give such an officer (so acting) other assistance or information he may reasonably require in performing his functions under this Act, commits an offence.
- (2) If any person, in giving such information as is mentioned in subsection (1)(c), makes any statement which he knows to be false, he commits an offence.
- (3) Nothing in this section requires a person to answer any question or give any information if to do so might incriminate that person or (where that person is married) the husband or wife of that person.

166 Notification of convictions and judgments to Director.

Where a person is convicted of an offence or has a judgment given against him by or before any court in the United Kingdom and it appears to the court—

- (a) having regard to the functions of the Director under this Act, that the conviction or judgment should be brought to the Director's attention, and
- (b) that it may not be brought to his attention unless arrangements for that purpose are made by the court, the court may make such arrangements notwithstanding that the proceedings have been finally disposed of.

168 Defences.

- (1) In any proceedings for an offence under this Act it is a defence for the person charged to prove—
 - (a) that his act or omission was due to a mistake, or to reliance on information supplied to him, or to an act or omission by another person, or to an accident or some other cause beyond his control, and
 - (b) that he took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid such an act or omission by himself or any person under his control.
- (2) If in any case the defence provided by subsection (1) involves the allegation that the act or omission was due to an act or omission by another person or to reliance on information supplied by another person, the person charged shall not, without leave of the court, be entitled to rely on that defence unless, within a period ending seven clear days before the hearing, he has served on the prosecutor a notice giving such information identifying or assisting in the identification of that other person as was then in his possession.

169 Offences by bodies corporate.

Where at any time a body corporate commits an offence under this Act with the consent or connivance of, or because of neglect by, any individual, the individual commits the like offence if at that time—

- (a) he is a director, manager, secretary or similar officer of the body corporate, or
- (b) he is purporting to act as such an officer, or
- (c) the body corporate is managed by its members of whom he is one.

170 No further sanctions for breach of Act.

- (1) A breach of any requirement made (otherwise than by any court) by or under this Act shall incur no civil or criminal sanction as being such a breach, except to the extent (if any) expressly provided by or under this Act.

171 Onus of proof in various proceedings.

- (1) If an agreement contains a term signifying that in the opinion of the parties section 10(3)(b)(iii) does not apply to the agreement, it shall be taken not to apply unless the contrary is proved.
- (2) It shall be assumed in any proceedings, unless the contrary is proved, that when a person initiated a transaction as mentioned in section 19(1)(c) he knew the principal agreement had been made, or contemplated that it might be made.
- (3) Regulations under section 44 or 52 may make provision as to the onus of proof in any proceedings to enforce the regulations.
- (4) In proceedings brought by the creditor under a credit-token agreement—
 - (a) it is for the creditor to prove that the credit-token was lawfully supplied to the debtor, and was accepted by him, and
 - (b) if the debtor alleges that any use made of the credit-token was not authorised by him, it is for the creditor to prove either—
 - (i) that the use was so authorised, or
 - (ii) that the use occurred before the creditor had been given notice under section 84(3).
- (5) In proceedings under section 50(1) in respect of a document received by a minor at any school or other educational establishment for minors, it is for the person sending it to him at that establishment to prove that he did not know or suspect it to be such an establishment.
- (6) In proceedings under section 119(1) it is for the pawnee to prove that he had reasonable cause to refuse to allow the pawn to be redeemed.
- (7) If, in proceedings referred to in section 139(1), the debtor or any surety alleges that the credit bargain is extortionate it is for the creditor to prove the contrary.

172 Statements by creditor or owner to be binding.

- (1) A statement by a creditor or owner is binding on him if given under—
 - section 77(1),
 - section 78(1),

178 Local Acts.

The Secretary of State or the Department of Commerce for Northern Ireland may by order make such amendments or repeals of any provision of any local Act as appears to the Secretary of State or, as the case may be, the Department, necessary or expedient in consequence of the replacement by this Act of the enactments relating to pawnbrokers and moneylenders.

Regulations, orders, etc.

179 Power to prescribe form etc. of secondary documents.

- (1) Regulations may be made as to the form and content of credit-cards, trading-checks, receipts, vouchers and other documents or things issued by creditors, owners or suppliers under or in connection with regulated agreements or by other persons in connection with linked transactions, and may in particular—
 - (a) require specified information to be included in the pre-scribed manner in documents, and other specified material to be excluded;
 - (b) contain requirements to ensure that specified information is clearly brought to the attention of the debtor or hirer, or his relative, and that one part of a document is not given insufficient or excessive prominence compared with another.
- (2) If a person issues any document or thing in contravention of regulations under subsection (1) then, as from the time of the contravention but without prejudice to anything done before it, this Act shall apply as if the regulated agreement had been impropely executed by reason of a contravention of regulations under section 60(1).

180 Power to prescribe form etc. of copies.

- (1) Regulations may be made as to the form and content of documents to be issued as copies of any executed agreement, security instrument or other document referred to in this Act, and may in particular—
 - (a) require specified information to be included in the prescribed manner in any copy, and contain requirements to ensure that such information is clearly brought to the attention of a reader of the copy;
 - (b) authorise the omission from a copy of certain material contained in the original, or the inclusion of such material in condensed form.

- (2) A duty imposed by any provision of this Act (except section 35) to supply a copy of any document—
- (a) is not satisfied unless the copy supplied is in the prescribed form and conforms to the prescribed requirements;
 - (b) is not infringed by the omission of any material, or its inclusion in condensed form, if that is authorised by regulations;
- and references in this Act to copies shall be construed accordingly.
- (3) Regulations may provide that a duty imposed by this Act to supply a copy of a document referred to in an unexecuted agreement or an executed agreement shall not apply to documents of a kind specified in the regulations.

181 Power to alter monetary limits etc.

- (1) The Secretary of State may by order made by statutory instrument amend, or further amend, any of the following provisions of this Act so as to reduce or increase a sum mentioned in that provision, namely, sections 8(2), 15(1)(c), 17(1), 43(3)(a), 70(6), 75(3)(b), 77(1), 78(1), 79(1), 84(1), 101(7)(a), 107(1), 108(1), 109(1), 110(1), 118(1)(b), 120(1)(a), 139(5) and (7), 155(1) and 158(1).
- (2) An order under subsection (1) amending section 8(2), 15(1)(c), 17(1), 43(3)(a), 75(3)(b) or 139(5) or (7) shall be of no effect unless a draft of the order has been laid before and approved by each House of Parliament.

182 Regulations and orders.

- (1) Any power of the Secretary of State to make regulations or orders under this Act, except the power conferred by sections 2(1)(a), 181 and 192 shall be exercisable by statutory instrument subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (2) Where a power to make regulations or orders is exercisable by the Secretary of State by virtue of this Act, regulations or orders made in the exercise of that power may—
- (a) make different provision in relation to different cases or classes of case, and
 - (b) exclude certain cases or classes of case, and
 - (c) contain such transitional provisions as the Secretary of State thinks fit.
- (3) Regulations may provide that specified expressions, when used as described by the regulations, are to be given the prescribed meaning, notwithstanding that another meaning is intended by the person using them.
- (4) Any power conferred on the Secretary of State by this Act to make orders includes power to vary or revoke an order so made.

183 Determinations etc. by Director.

The Director may vary or revoke any determination or direction made or given by him under this Act (other than Part III, or Part III as applied by section 147).

Interpretation

184 Associates.

- (1) A person is an associate of an individual if that person is the individual's husband or wife, or is a relative, or the husband or wife of a relative, of the individual or of the individual's husband or wife.
- (2) A person is an associate of any person with whom he is in partnership, and of the husband or wife or a relative of any individual with whom he is in partnership.
- (3) A body corporate is an associate of another body corporate—
 - (a) if the same person is a controller of both, or a person is a controller of one and persons who are his associates, or he and persons who are his associates, are controllers of the other; or
 - (b) if a group of two or more persons is a controller of each company, and the groups either consist of the same persons or could be regarded as consisting of the same persons by treating (in one or more cases) a member of either group as replaced by a person of whom he is an associate.
- (4) A body corporate is an associate of another person if that person is a controller of it or if that person and persons who are his associates together are controllers of it.
- (5) In this section “relative ” means brother, sister, uncle, aunt, nephew, niece, lineal ancestor or lineal descendant, and references to a husband or wife include a former husband or wife and a reputed husband or wife; and for the purposes of this subsection a relationship shall be established as if any illegitimate child, step-child or adopted child of a person had been a child born to him in wedlock.

185 Agreement with more than one debtor or hirer.

- (1) Where an actual or prospective regulated agreement has two or more debtors or hirers (not being a partnership or an unincorporated body of persons)—
 - (a) anything required by or under this Act to be done to or in relation to the debtor or hirer shall be done to or in relation to each of them; and
 - (b) anything done under this Act by or on behalf of one of them shall have effect as if done by or on behalf of all of them.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1)(a), where running-account credit is provided to two or more debtors jointly, any of them may by a notice signed by him (a “dispensing notice ”) authorise the creditor not to comply in his case with section 78(4) (giving of periodical statement of account); and the dispensing notice shall have effect accordingly until revoked by a further notice given by the debtor to the creditor:

Provided that:

- (a) a dispensing notice shall not take effect if previous dispensing notices are operative in the case of the other debtor, or each of the other debtors, as the case may be;
- (b) any dispensing notices operative in relation to an agreement shall cease to have effect if any of the debtors dies.
- [^{F130}(c) a dispensing notice which is operative in relation to an agreement shall be operative also in relation to any subsequent agreement which, in relation to the earlier agreement, is a modifying agreement]

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1994. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

- (3) Subsection (1)(b) does not apply for the purposes of section 61(1)(a) or 127(3).
- (4) Where a regulated agreement has two or more debtors or hirers (not being a partnership or an unincorporated body of persons), section 86 applies to the death of any of them.
- (5) An agreement for the provision of credit, or the bailment or (in Scotland) the hiring of goods, to two or more persons jointly where—
 - (a) one or more of those persons is an individual, and
 - (b) one or more of them is a body corporate, is a consumer credit agreement or consumer hire agreement if it would have been one had they all been individuals; and the body corporate or bodies corporate shall accordingly be included among the debtors or hirers under the agreement.
- (6) Where subsection (5) applies, references in this Act to the signing of any document by the debtor or hirer shall be construed in relation to a body corporate as referring to a signing on behalf of the body corporate.
