PART I

FINANCE

Valuation

1 The valuation roll and revaluation.

- (1) The assessor for each valuation area shall, in respect of each year of revaluation, make up a valuation roll in the prescribed form which shall come into force on the first day of the year of revaluation.
- (2) Subject to any alterations to the valuation roll made under this section and section 2 of this Act, every valuation roll ^{F1} . . . shall remain in force until it is superseded by a new valuation roll.
- (3) The assessor for each valuation area shall—
 - (a) make such arrangements as may be necessary to secure the valuation or revaluation of all lands and heritages in the area in respect of each year of revaluation in accordance with the Valuation Acts; . . . ^{F2}
 - (b) submit such arrangements to the Secretary of State who may ^{F3} . . . approve the same with or without modifications; and
 - ^{F4}(c)
- (4) Subject to section 35 of the ^{M1}Lands Valuation (Scotland) Act 1854, the assessor for each valuation area shall retain the valuation roll and shall deliver sufficient copies thereof to the rating authority for the area.
- (5) Every rating authority shall, when copies of the valuation roll have been delivered to them, cause copies to be open to inspection until the roll ceases to be in force during ordinary business hours at their office or at such other convenient place or places as they may appoint.
- (6) The assessor for any valuation area may as respects that area, at any time after the valuation roll has been made up and before the roll has come into force, alter the roll—
 - (a) by entering therein any lands and heritages which were in existence at the time when the roll was made up and which, owing to error, were not included therein;
 - (b) by entering therein any lands and heritages which have come into existence or occupancy since the roll was made up;
 - (c) to give effect to any alteration in the value of any lands and heritages which is due to a material change of circumstances;
 - (d) to correct any error of measurement, survey or classification or any clerical or arithmetical error in any entry therein;
 - ^{F5}(e)
- (6A) ^{F6}
- ^{F7}(7)

2 Alterations to valuation roll which is in force.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) below, the assessor for any valuation area shall, as respects that area, at any time while the valuation roll is in force, alter the roll—
 - (a) by entering therein any lands and heritages which were in existence at the time when the roll was made up and which, owing to error, were not included therein [^{F8}or which, being still in existence, have been erroneously deleted from the roll under paragraph (h) below];
 - (b) by entering therein any lands and heritages which have come into existence or occupancy since the roll was made up;
 - (c) by entering therein any lands and heritages—
 - ^{F9}(i)
 - (ii) upon their coming within the assessor’s valuation area as a result of a change of the boundaries of valuation areas;
 - [^{F10}(iii) upon their ceasing to be lands and heritages within the class of lands and heritages prescribed in the Water Undertakings (Rateable Values) (Scotland) Order 2003 (hereinafter in this Act referred to as “the 2003 Order”);]
 - (d) to give effect to any alteration in the value of any lands and heritages [^{F11}(other than lands and heritages within the class of lands and heritages prescribed in the 2003 Order)] which is due to a material change of circumstances;
 - (e) to give effect to any alteration in the net annual value or the rateable value of any lands and heritages in consequence of [^{F12}—
 - (i) the making of an order ^{F13}. . . , [^{F14}under] section 1(1) of the ^{M2}Valuation for Rating (Scotland) Act 1970; [^{F12}or
 - (ii) the making of regulations under section 42 of the ^{M3}Lands Valuation (Scotland) Act 1854;]
 - ^{F15}(ee)
 - (f) to correct any error of measurement, survey or classification or any clerical or arithmetical error in any entry therein;

Status: Point in time view as at 23/10/2002.

[^{F16}(ff) by entering therein, in relation to Scottish Water, any lands and heritages within the class of lands and heritages prescribed in the 2003 Order together with the rateable values prescribed and apportioned in accordance with that Order;]

^{F17}(g)

(h) by deleting therefrom, with effect from such date as the assessor thinks fit, any lands and heritages which cease to exist or which, for any other reason, are no longer appropriate for inclusion in the roll

[^{F18}and may so alter the roll to give effect to any change in the proprietorship, tenancy or occupancy of any lands and heritages.]

[^{F19}(1A) Subject to subsection (2)(cc) below, the assessor for any valuation area shall, as respects that area, alter the roll to give effect to any decision following an appeal or complaint under the Valuation Acts to a court, tribunal or valuation appeal committee and such alteration shall have effect from such date as shall be determined by the court, tribunal or committee.]

(2) Any alteration to the roll—

(a) consisting of an entry made under subsection (1)(a) [^{F20}or (ff)] above, shall have effect only as from the beginning of the year in which the entry is made;

(b) consisting of an entry made under subsection (1)(b) above, shall have effect only as from the date when the lands and heritages to which the entry relates came into existence or occupancy, or as from the beginning of the year in which the entry is made, whichever is the later;

(c) made under subsection (1)(d) above, shall ^{F21}... have effect only as from the date of the event by reason of which the alteration is made or as from the beginning of the year in which the alteration is made, whichever is the later:

Provided that if the proprietor, tenant or occupier of the lands and heritages has intimated in writing to the assessor ^{F22}... , the alteration in the roll shall have effect as from the date of the event or as from the beginning of the year in which intimation of the event is made, whichever is the later, ^{F22}...

[^{F23}(cc) made under [^{F24}subsection (1A)] above following upon an appeal by virtue of section 3(2A) of this Act by a person who has become the proprietor, tenant or occupier of lands and heritages shall have effect only as from the date when he became such proprietor, tenant or occupier;]

(d) consisting of such a correction as is referred to in subsection (1)(f) above shall [^{F25}, subject to section 20 of the ^{M4}Local Government (Financial Provisions) (Scotland) Act 1963,] have effect only as from the date when the erroneous entry which is so corrected was made in the role or as from the beginning of the year in which the correction is made, whichever is the later; and the date on which any alteration in the roll made under this section comes into effect shall be stated in the roll.

(3) Where, at any time before an appeal or complaint against an entry in the valuation roll is determined by a valuation appeal committee [^{F26}or by the Lands Tribunal for Scotland], the parties reach agreement as to what should be done about the entry, the assessor may without further procedure make such alteration in the roll as is necessary to give effect to the agreement.

3 Provisions supplementary to sections 1 and 2.

- (1) The assessor shall, upon making an alteration in the valuation roll under section 1(6) or 2(1) [^{F28}(1A)] or (3) of this Act [^{F29}or upon deleting lands and heritages therefrom in pursuance of section 1(2) of the ^{M5}Valuation and Rating (Exempted Classes) (Scotland) Act 1976], send to the rating authority a copy of the relevant entry in the roll or, as the case may be, notification of deletion of the relevant lands and heritages from the roll.
- (2) The assessor for each valuation area shall send to each person who is a proprietor, tenant or occupier of lands and heritages which are included in the valuation roll a notice in the prescribed form setting forth the details of the relevant entry in the roll (including such an entry as is referred to in subsection (1) above ^{F30}. . .); and any such person, not being a person who has reached agreement with the assessor as mentioned in section 2(3) of this Act as to what should be done about the entry, if he considers himself aggrieved by the entry, may appeal to the valuation appeal committee for the area in which the lands and heritages are situated or may obtain redress without the necessity of such appeal by satisfying the assessor that he has a well founded ground of complaint.

- [^{F31}(2A) Where a person becomes the proprietor, tenant or occupier of lands and heritages which are included in the valuation roll he shall thereupon have the same right of appeal under subsection (2) above as he would have had if there had been sent to him the notice referred to in that subsection, except that the last date for lodging an appeal by virtue of this subsection shall be the last day of a period of six months beginning with the day upon which the person became the proprietor, tenant or occupier and all other time limits prescribed under the Valuation Acts in that regard shall have effect accordingly.
- (2B) The right of appeal conferred by subsection (2A) above may be exercised whether or not any previous proprietor, tenant or occupier of the lands and heritages had reached agreement with the assessor as mentioned in section 2(3) of this Act or had appealed or obtained redress under subsection (2) above.]
- (3) The assessor shall, upon altering the valuation roll by deleting lands and heritages therefrom, notify each person named in the roll as proprietor, tenant or occupier of those lands and heritages of the deletion.
- (4) Without prejudice to subsection (2) above, the proprietor, tenant or occupier of lands and heritages [^{F32}(other than lands and heritages within the class of lands and heritages prescribed in the 2003 Order)] which are included in the valuation roll may ^{F33} . . . appeal against the relevant entry but only on the ground that there has been a material change of circumstances since the entry was made or that there is such an error in the entry as is referred to in section 2(1)(f) of this Act; and, notwithstanding the definition of “material change of circumstances” as set out in section 37(1) of this Act, if in an appeal under this subsection on the ground of a material change of circumstances it is proved that there has been a change of circumstances which has materially reduced the extent to which beneficial occupation of the lands and heritages can be enjoyed, the appeal shall not be refused by reason only that the change of circumstances has not been proved to have affected the value of the lands and heritages to any specific extent.
- [^{F34}(4A) An appeal under subsection (4) above shall be made—
- (a) on the ground that there has been a material change of circumstances since the entry was made, not more than six months after the roll ceases to be in force;
 - (b) on the ground that there has been such an error in the entry as is referred to in section 2(1)(f) of this Act, at any time while the roll is in force.]

(5) Any person interested may at all reasonable times, free of charge, inspect and take copies of and extracts from any valuation roll prepared under the Valuation Acts and in the possession of the assessor; and an assessor shall, on an application made to him by any interested person, inform that person whether any entry in the valuation roll is subject to a pending appeal or complaint.

34 Transference of social workers of Health Boards to local authority employment.

- (1) The Secretary of State may by order make provision for the transfer to the employment of local authorities of persons of descriptions specified in the order who are for the time being employed in social work by Health Boards; and the order may include provision—
 - (a) for transfers in pursuance of the order to be made on such days as may be determined by or under the order; and
 - (b) as to the manner of determining whether an individual is a person liable to be transferred by virtue of this subsection and which authority is the authority to whose employment such a person is to be transferred.
- (2) A person transferred by virtue of subsection (1) above to the employment of a local authority shall not be required in the course of that employment to perform duties otherwise than at or in connection with a hospital or other health service establishment unless he has consented to perform such duties.
- (3) It shall be the duty of the Secretary of State by order to make provision for securing, in the case of a person transferred to the employment of a local authority by virtue of subsection (1) above—
 - (a) that, while he is in the employment of that authority and has not been served with a notice in writing stating that it is served for the purposes of this subsection and specifying such new terms and conditions of employment as are mentioned in paragraph (b) below, the scale of his remuneration and, taken as a whole, the other terms and conditions of his employment by that authority are not less favourable to him than were immediately before the transfer those of the employment by the Health Board;
 - (b) that any new terms and conditions determined by that authority for his employment by them are such that—
 - (i) so long as he is engaged in duties reasonably comparable to the duties in which immediately before the transfer he was engaged in the employment by the Health Board, the scale of his remuneration and, taken as a whole, the other terms and conditions of his employment by that authority are not less favourable to him than were, immediately before the transfer, those of the employment by the Health Board, and
 - (ii) so long as he is engaged in duties not so comparable, the terms and conditions of his employment by that authority (excluding terms as to remuneration) are, taken as a whole, not less favourable than as mentioned in sub-paragraph (i) above;
 - (c) that for the purposes of any enactment specified in the order the employments from which and to which he was transferred by virtue of subsection (1) above are treated as one continuous employment;and an order made in pursuance of this subsection may contain provision for the determination of questions arising with respect to the effect in relation to any person of provision made by virtue of paragraphs (a) to (c) above.
- (4) A statutory instrument containing any order under this section shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

AMENDMENT OF PROVISIONS OF LOCAL GOVERNMENT (SCOTLAND) ACT 1966 RELATING TO RATE SUPPORT GRANTS

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C47 The text of Sch. 2 is in the form in which it was originally enacted: it was not reproduced in Statutes in Force and does not reflect any amendments or repeals which may have been made prior to 1.2.1991.

1 For section 2 (rate support grants), there shall be substituted the following section—

“2 Rate support grants.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Part of this Act, the Secretary of State shall, for each year, make grants to the local authorities in Scotland in accordance with this section ; and any grants made in pursuance of this subsection shall be known as “rate support grants”.
- (2) For the purpose of fixing the estimated aggregate amount of the rate support grants for any year the Secretary of State shall determine—
 - (a) the aggregate amount which he estimates is to be available for the payment out of moneys provided by Parliament of grants (other than housing subsidies) to local authorities in respect of their relevant expenditure for that year ; and
 - (b) the portion of that amount which the Secretary of State estimates will be allocated of grants in respect of such services as the Secretary of State may determine ; and the amount remaining after deducting that portion from the aggregate amount aforesaid shall, subject to section 4 of this Act, be the estimated aggregate amount of the rate support grants for that year.
- (3) Before determining the amount and the portion mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (2) above, the Secretary of State shall consult with such associations of local authorities as appear to him to be concerned and shall take into consideration—

- (a) the latest information available to him as to the rate of relevant expenditure ;
 - (b) any probable fluctuation in the demand for services giving rise to relevant expenditure so far as the fluctuation is attributable to circumstances prevailing in Scotland as a whole which are not under the control of local authorities ;
 - (c) the need for developing those services and the extent to which, having regard to general economic conditions, it is reasonable to develop those services ; and
 - (d) the current level of prices, costs and remuneration and any future variation in that level which in the opinion of the Secretary of State will result from decisions which appear to him to be final and which will have the effect of increasing or decreasing any particular prices, costs or remuneration.
- (4) After consultation with such associations of local authorities as appear to the Secretary of State to be concerned, the estimated aggregate amount of the rate support grants for any year shall be divided by the Secretary of State into three parts (to be known respectively as “the needs element”, “the resources element” and “the domestic element”) and the amounts of the needs element and the domestic element and the estimated amount of the resources element shall be as such as may be prescribed ; and the provisions of Schedule 1 to this Act shall, subject to sections 4 and 5 of this Act, have effect with respect to the determination of the amounts payable to any local authority in respect of those elements for any year and with respect to the other matters there mentioned.
- (5) Payments in respect of elements of rate support grants shall be made to any local authority at such times as the Secretary of State may, with the consent of the Treasury, determine and shall be made in aid of the revenues of the authority generally.
- (6) Subject to subsection (7) below, the Secretary of State may—
- (a) defray any expenditure incurred in any year in the provision of services for local authorities by any body specified in regulations made by the Secretary of State ; and
 - (b) deduct from the aggregate amount of the needs element for that year such amount, not exceeding the total of the expenditure so defrayed, as appears to him to be appropriate.
- (7) Before exercising his powers under subsection (6) above, the Secretary of State shall consult with such associations of local authorities as appear to him to be concerned.
- (8) In this section—
- “housing subsidies” means such grants to local authorities out of moneys provided by Parliament for housing as may be determined by the Secretary of State to be housing subsidies for the purposes of this section ;
- “relevant expenditure”, in relation to any year, means the sum of the following amounts as estimated by the Secretary of State—

 - (b) an amount equal to the amount receivable by the local authority for that year as grants (within the meaning of section 2(2)(a) of this Act) and as payments under Part V of the Local Government Act 1948, reduced by the amount estimated as aforesaid, in whole or in part, of such payments relating to housing and of such payments of other descriptions falling to be made for that year as the Secretary of State may determine.”.
- 2 In section 3(1) (rate support grant orders), for the words “The aggregate” there shall be substituted the words “ The estimated aggregate ”.
- 3 For section 4 (variation of orders, etc.), there shall be substituted the following section—

“4 Variation of orders.

- (1) If it appears to the Secretary of State that, after the time when the amount mentioned in section 2(2)(a) of this Act was determined for any year, the relevant expenditure of local authorities for that year has been or is likely to be substantially increased by reason of—
- (a) an increase which has taken place in the level of prices, costs or remuneration, or
 - (b) the coming into operation of a provision of an enactment passed after this Act,
- and that no account was taken of that increase or, as the case may be, the effect of that provision when the amount mentioned as aforesaid was so determined, he may at any time redetermine for that year the amount and portion mentioned in section 2(2)(a) and (b) of this Act and, by an order made in the like manner and subject to the like provisions as a rate support grant order, may increase the amount fixed by the relevant rate support grant order as the estimated aggregate amount of the rate support grants and any element of the grants for that year.
- (2) The provisions of sections 2 and 3 of this Act relating to consultation and to a report of the considerations leading to a determination under the said section 2 shall apply to a redetermination under this section as they apply to a determination under that section ; and the Secretary of State may, if he considers it practicable, incorporate an order under this section in a rate support grant order.
- (3) In redetermining under this section the amount and portion mentioned in section 2(2)(a) and (b) of this Act, the Secretary of State—
- (a) shall take into account not only the effect of the increase referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) above or, as the case may be, the provision referred to in paragraph (b) of that subsection, but also any future variation in the level of prices and remuneration current at the time of the redetermination which in his opinion will result from any decisions as are referred to in section 2(3)(d) of this Act, and
 - (b) except in the case of a change resulting from the coming into operation of any enactment passed after this Act, shall take no account of any change, as compared with the situation at the time that amount and that portion were determined for the purposes of the relevant rate support grant order, in the demand for services giving rise to relevant expenditure, in the need for developing those services or in the extent to which those services have been developed.

- (4) An order made under subsection (1) above in respect of any year shall specify the actual (and not the estimated) aggregate amount of the resources element for that year.
- (5) If, in the case where the Secretary of State proposes to make an order under subsection (1) above in respect of any year, it appears to him that, apart from any provision made by virtue of this subsection, the effect of the order and of any other order under subsection (1) above which he considers likely to be made in respect of that year would be that the ratio between the actual aggregate amount of the resources element for that year and the aggregate amount of the needs element for that year would be significantly different from the ratio (in this subsection referred to as “the expected ratio”) between the estimated aggregate amount of the resources element for that year, as fixed by the relevant rate support grant order, and the aggregate amount of the needs element, as so fixed, he may in the order under subsection (1) above—
- (a) specify as the aggregate amount of the resources element for that year such amount as, in his estimation, will secure that (taking account of the effect of any further orders likely to be made under subsection (1) above in respect of that year) the ratio which the amount so specified will bear to the aggregate amount of the needs element for that year will be the expected ratio; and
 - (b) in order to secure that the total amount paid in respect of the resources element to local authorities entitled to payments in respect of that element does not exceed the amount specified as mentioned in paragraph (a) above, make provision varying the amount payable to each such authority in respect of that element.
- (6) Without prejudice to subsection (5) above, an order made under subsection (1) above with respect to any year may, as respects that year, vary the matters prescribed by the relevant rate support grant order.
- (7) In this section “relevant expenditure” has the same meaning as in section 2 of this Act.”.
- 4 In section 7(1) (reduction of rates on dwellings by reference to the domestic element), after the words “that year” there shall be inserted the words “ for their area ”.
- 5 In Part I of Schedule 1 (the needs element)—
- (a) after paragraph 1 there shall be inserted the following paragraph—
 - “2 (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 1 above, the Secretary of State may, as respects any year, make provision for the apportionment of a prescribed part of the needs element among authorities incurring extraordinary expenses, by reference to so much of the estimated extraordinary expenses of each such authority as he may determine to be appropriate to be taken into account for the purposes of this paragraph.

(2) In this paragraph “extraordinary expenses” means expenses of such categories and for such purposes as the Secretary of State, after consultation with such associations of local authorities as appear to him to be concerned, may determine should be supported by an apportionment under this paragraph ; and in determining the amount of the estimated extraordinary expenses of an authority to be taken into account for any year, the Secretary of State—

- (a) shall have regard to the expected income of that authority for that year ; and
 - (b) may have regard to the extent by which the extraordinary expenses for a previous year exceeded or fell short of the estimated extraordinary expenses of the authority for that year.” ;
- (b) in paragraph 3, for the words “the foregoing paragraphs” there shall be substituted the words “ paragraph 1 above ” and at the end there shall be added the words “ or of a prescribed amount of the needs element to such class of authorities or to any such authority as may be prescribed. ”.

6 For Part II of Schedule 1 there shall be substituted the following Part—

“PART II

THE RESOURCES ELEMENT

- 1 No payment in respect of the resources element shall be made to a local authority for any year unless in that year the product of a rate of one penny in the pound for the authority’s area is less than the standard penny rate product for the area.
- 2 Subject to any provision made by virtue of section 4(5) of this Act and to paragraph 3 below, the amount of the resources element payable to a local authority for any year shall be the product of—
 - (a) the number of pence in the pound of the regional, general or district rate, as the case may be or, where the Secretary of State is of the opinion that the local authority have fixed an unnecessarily high rate, such lesser number of pence in the pound of that rate as the Secretary of State considers appropriate, and
 - (b) the difference between the rate products mentioned in paragraph 1 above.
- 3 (1) If, after the amount of the resources element payable to a local authority for any year has been determined under paragraph 2 above—
 - (a) the rateable values of lands and heritages in the authority’s area are reduced with effect from a date on or before that which is relevant for determining the product of a rate of one penny in the pound for the authority’s area for that year ; and
 - (b) the effect of the reduction is to produce a reduction in the said product which is of such a magnitude that, expressed as a percentage of the initially ascertained figure, it exceeds such percentage as may be specified for the purposes of this paragraph in regulations made by the Secretary of State ; and

- (c) the authority by notice in writing request the Secretary of State to give a direction under this paragraph ;

the Secretary of State shall direct that the amount of the resources element payable to the authority for that year shall be recalculated in accordance with the following provisions of this paragraph and a further payment on account of that element shall be made to the local authority accordingly.

- (2) Where sub-paragraph (1) above applies—

- (a) the product of a rate of one penny in the pound for the local authority's area for the year concerned shall be recalculated by treating the initially ascertained figure as reduced by the amount of the excess referred to in sub-paragraph (1)(b) above ;
- (b) subject to any provisions made by virtue of section 4(5) of this Act, paragraph 2 above shall have effect accordingly for the purposes of determining the amount which, on the basis of that recalculation, would have been payable to the authority for that year.

- (3) The further payment referred to in sub-paragraph (1) above shall be an amount equal to the difference between the amount previously paid to the authority for the year concerned on account of the resources element and the amount determined as mentioned in sub-paragraph (2)(b) above.

- (4) In this paragraph “the initially ascertained figure”, in relation to any year, means the product of a rate of one penny in the pound ascertained for the purposes of paragraph 2 above.

- (5) The provisions of this paragraph shall have effect notwithstanding that the actual aggregate amount of the resources element for the year concerned may have been specified in an order under section 4(1) of this Act, and if any amount has been so specified it shall be treated as having been increased to such amount as may be necessary to provide for any further payment made to a local authority under this paragraph.”

- 7 In paragraph 1 of Part III of Schedule 1 (the domestic element), at the end there shall be added the words “ and different amounts in the pound may be so prescribed for the areas of different rating authorities ”.

SCHEDULE 3

- the authority may, subject to the consent of the Secretary of State, suspend in whole or in part any annual provision required under paragraph 15 above for the repayment from the borrowing account or by the relevant authority of the sum so advanced for such period (not being a period longer than the period during which the expenditure remains unremunerative or the period of five years from the commencement of the year next after that in which the expenditure commences to be incurred, whichever is the shorter) and subject to such conditions as the Secretary of State may determine.
- (2) Where any annual provision required to be made for the repayment of any sum has been suspended under sub-paragraph (1) above, a local authority may borrow for the purpose of payment, during the period of the suspension, of interest on that sum.
- (3) Where by virtue of paragraph 15 above a local authority are required to debit a sum to the borrowing account or charge a sum to a relevant authority and they suspend, in whole or in part, any annual provision for the repayment of the principal, they may refrain from debiting to that account or charging to the relevant authority an amount equal to the amount of the annual provision so suspended.
- (4) In this paragraph “prescribed” means prescribed by regulations made by the Secretary of State.
- 17 (1) The authority shall at the time an advance is made under paragraph 14 above determine—
- (a) the period within which the advance is to be repaid to the loans fund, being a period not exceeding the fixed period; and
- (b) the amount of each of the periodical payments required to repay the advance within the period so determined, and the date on which the first of the said payments is to be made.
- (2) The periodical payments shall be either equal yearly or half-yearly instalments of principal or, where the advance is to be repaid on the annuity system, equal yearly or half-yearly instalments of principal and interest combined, the amount of principal included in each instalment being separately stated.
- (3) The periodical payments shall so far as practicable be so adjusted as to be expressed in complete pounds.
- (4) This paragraph shall apply with the necessary modifications in the case of advances from the loans fund to a relevant authority.
- 18 In the event of it appearing at any time from a report by the Controller of Audit or otherwise that the authority specified therein have failed duly to make payment of interest or of the appropriate periodical sums required to be set aside for the repayment of advances made from the loans fund as aforesaid, or that the provisions of this Schedule or any regulations made thereunder have otherwise not been duly complied with, the Secretary of State may apply by petition to the Court of Session to have the authority ordained to make such payment and to comply in such other manner with the provisions of this Schedule or such regulations as may be necessary in the circumstances, and the Court are hereby authorised to do therein as shall appear to be just.
