

Farriers (Registration) Act 1975

1975 CHAPTER 35

An Act to prevent and avoid suffering by and cruelty to horses arising from the shoeing of horses by unskilled persons; to promote the proper shoeing of horses; to promote the training of farriers and shoeing smiths; to provide for the establishment of a Farriers Registration Council to register persons engaged in farriery and the shoeing of horses; to prohibit the shoeing of horses by unqualified persons; and for purposes connected therewith. [22nd May 1975]

1 Functions of Farriers Company.

The Worshipful Company of Farriers (hereinafter referred to as “the Company”) shall have the general function of securing adequate standards of competence and conduct among persons engaged in the shoeing of horses (hereinafter referred to as “farriers”) and shall promote, encourage and advance the art and science of farriery and education in connection with the said art and science.

2 Farriers Registration Council.

- (1) There shall be established a body called the Farriers Registration Council (hereinafter referred to as “the Council”) which shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal and shall have the general function of carrying out the powers and duties conferred upon it by this Act.
- (2) The provisions of Schedule 1 to this Act shall have effect for determining the constitution and powers of the Council and for regulating its proceedings.

3 Register of farriers.

- (1) The registrar appointed by the Council in accordance with the provisions of Schedule 1 to this Act shall establish and maintain a register which shall be divided into Parts as hereinafter provided.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Farriers (Registration) Act 1975. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) The registrar shall cause to be entered in the appropriate Part of the register the name and prescribed particulars of every person who, being qualified for registration, has applied in the prescribed manner for registration and has paid the prescribed fee.
- (3) The register shall be kept at the offices of the Council and shall be made available for public inspection at all reasonable times without charge.
- (4) The Council shall cause the register to be printed and published as often as it thinks fit.

4 Rules with respect to register.

- (1) The Council may make rules with respect to the form and keeping of the register, the making of entries therein and the removal of entries therefrom and, in particular—
 - (a) prescribing a fee to be charged on the entry of a name in the register or on the restoration of any entry to the register;
 - (b) prescribing a fee to be charged in respect of the retention in the register of the name of a person in any year subsequent to the year in which he was first registered;
 - (c) authorising the registrar, notwithstanding anything in this Act, to refuse to make in, or restore to, the register any entry until a fee prescribed by rules under this section has been paid.
- (2) Rules under this section may authorise the registrar to remove from the register the name of a person who, after such notices and warning as may be prescribed by the rules, fails to pay a fee prescribed under paragraph (b) of the foregoing subsection.
- (3) If, within such period as may be prescribed by rules under this section, any person whose name has been removed from the register in accordance with rules made by virtue of the last foregoing subsection pays the fee due from him, together with such additional sum (if any) as may be so prescribed, his name shall be restored to the register and, if the Council so directs, shall be deemed for all purposes not to have been removed therefrom.
- (4) Rules under this section prescribing fees may provide for the charging of different fees in different cases and may provide that fees shall not be chargeable in prescribed cases.

5 Fraudulent entries in the register.

If any person wilfully procures or attempts to procure the entry of his name in the register by making or producing or causing to be made or produced any false or fraudulent representation or declaration, either orally or in writing, he shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [^{F1}level 3 on the standard scale].

- (b) every person who has applied for his name to be removed; and
- (c) every person whose name has been ordered to be removed under section 15 of this Act.

[^{F27}] Qualifications for registration.

- (1) Subject to section 15 of this Act, a person shall be entitled to be registered in Part I of the register if he applies for registration and satisfies the Council—
 - (a) that on the 1st January 1976 his name was registered in the Register of Farriers kept by the Company; or
 - (b) that he has satisfied such conditions as to apprenticeship or training or both as the Council may prescribe and has passed a prescribed examination; or
 - (c) that he has completed a course of training as a farrier in Her Majesty's Army and has passed a prescribed examination; or
 - (d) that he has been registered in Part II or in Part IV of the register and has passed a prescribed examination; or
 - (e) that he holds a qualification granted outside the United Kingdom and for the time being accepted for the purposes of this subsection by the Council and that during any period of two years subsequent to the date when he obtained his qualification he has been regularly and gainfully engaged in the shoeing of horses.
- (2) Subject to section 15 of this Act, a person shall be entitled to be registered in Part II of the register if he applies for registration before such date as may be prescribed and satisfies the Council that during any period of two years before the date of his application or such shorter period as the Council may approve he was—
 - (a) otherwise than as an apprentice or while undergoing a course of training regularly engaged in the shoeing of horses in a business which consists exclusively of such shoeing or is the business of a blacksmith or general smith of which the shoeing of horses forms a part; or
 - (b) practising as a farrier in Her Majesty's Army.
- (3) Subject to section 15 of this Act, a person shall be entitled to be registered in Part III of the register if he applies for registration before such date as may be prescribed and satisfies the Council by means of a certificate by a practising veterinary surgeon, which shall be in the prescribed form, or by such other evidence as the Council may in his case consider appropriate, that during any period of two years before the date of his application for registration he has regularly and competently—
 - (a) carried out the shoeing of horses belonging to himself; or
 - (b) otherwise than by way of trade or for reward carried out the shoeing of horses belonging to other persons.
- (4) Subject to section 15 of this Act, a person shall be entitled to be registered in Part IV of the register if—
 - (a) being a person who is not otherwise entitled to be registered under this Act he applies for registration before such date as may be prescribed and satisfies the Council that during any period of two years before the date of his application for registration or such shorter period as the Council may approve he has been regularly and gainfully engaged in the shoeing of horses otherwise than as an apprentice or while undergoing a course of training; or

- (b) being a person who has not passed a prescribed examination he applies for registration before the said prescribed date and satisfies the Council that he has complied with—
- (i) the conditions as to apprenticeship or training prescribed by the Council in accordance with paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section and
 - (ii) such additional conditions, if any, as to further apprenticeship or training as the Council may require in his case.
- (5) In any case in which it appears to the Council that a person has for sufficient reason failed to make application under subsection (2), subsection (3), or subsection (4) of this section before such dates as the Council may have respectively prescribed for the purposes of those subsections the Council may direct that he shall be entitled to apply within such period as may be specified in that direction.]

VALID FROM 16/07/2002

[^{F3}7A Corresponding qualifications, etc

- (1) A person (“the applicant”) who—
- (a) holds any qualification in farriery obtained in another EEA State and intends to apply for registration under section 7(1)(ba) or (bb); or
 - (b) has experience in shoeing horses and intends to apply for registration under section 7(1)(bc); or
 - (c) has experience in shoeing horses and intends to apply for registration under section 7(1)(bd).
- shall, before applying for registration, apply to the Council for a determination under subsection (2).
- (2) On an application under sub-section (1), the Council shall determine whether—
- (a) (in the case of an applicant falling within subsection (1)(a)), the qualification demonstrates a level of knowledge and skill in farriery which substantially corresponds to that of a person falling within paragraph (b) of section 7(1); or
 - (b) (in the case of an applicant falling within subsection (1)(b) or (1)(c)), the applicant has appropriate experience.
- (3) If in the case of an applicant falling within subsection (1)(a) the Council determine that the qualification does not demonstrate a level of knowledge and skill in farriery which substantially corresponds to that of a person falling within section 7(1)(b), the Council may for the purposes of registration under section 7(1)(bb) require the applicant—
- (a) to acquire that level of knowledge and skill during a period of engagement in the shoeing of horses under the supervision of a person who is registered in Part 1 of the Register, in accordance with such rules as the Council may make from time to time as to the provision of training for persons intending to seek registration under section 7(1)(b); or

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

- (b) to demonstrate that level of knowledge and skill by passing such test or examination as the Council may require for the purpose.
- (4) An applicant to whom subsection (3) applies may choose to comply either with paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) of that subsection.
- (5) An applicant has “appropriate experience” in the shoeing of horses if—
 - (a) he has worked in that activity during a period ending not more than 10 years prior to his application under subsection (1), for at least six consecutive years in either a self-employed capacity or as a manager of a farriery undertaking; or
 - (b) he has worked in that activity for at least three consecutive years in a self-employed capacity or as a manager of an undertaking and he has received at least three years’ prior training in the shoeing of horses; or
 - (c) he has worked in that activity, during a period ending not more than 10 years prior to his application under subsection (1), for three consecutive years in a self-employed capacity and for at least five years in an employed capacity; or
 - (d) he has worked in that activity for at least five consecutive years in a managerial capacity of which at least three years were spent in technical posts with responsibility for one or more departments of the undertaking and he received at least three years’ prior training in shoeing horses.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5)(b) and (d), the training must be attested by a nationally recognised certificate or regarded by a competent professional or trade body as fully satisfying its requirements.
- (7) If an applicant has worked as mentioned in paragraph (b) or (d) of subsection (5), and has received at least two years but less than three years prior training, he falls within the paragraph if the time he has spent working and the time during which he has received training together equal—
 - (a) at least six years (in respect of paragraph(b));
 - (b) at least eight years (in respect of paragraph (d)).
- (8) For the purposes of this section, a certificate issued by a competent authority of an EEA State in accordance with Article 8 of the Directive 1999/42 of the European Parliament and of the Council is proof of the matter which it certifies.
- (9) The Directive referred to in subsection (8) is the Directive of 7 June 1999 establishing a mechanism for the recognition of qualifications in respect of the professional activities covered by Directives on liberalisation and transitional measures and supplementing the general systems for the recognition of qualifications.
- (10) A person shall be regarded as having pursued an activity as a manager of an undertaking within the meaning of this section if he has pursued such an activity in an undertaking engaged in the shoeing of horses—
 - (a) as a manager of an undertaking or a manager of a branch of an undertaking;
 - (b) as a deputy to the proprietor or the manager of an undertaking where that post involves responsibility equivalent to that of the proprietor or manager represented; or
 - (c) in a managerial post in the undertaking with duties of a commercial or technical nature and with responsibility for one or more departments of the undertaking.]

11 Approval of courses, qualifications and institutions.

(1) Subject to the provisions of this section the Council may approve for the purposes of this Act [^{F7} or of rules made by the Council thereunder]—

- (a) any course of training which the Council considers is designed to confer on persons completing it sufficient knowledge and skill for carrying out the shoeing of horses;
- (b) any qualification which, as the result of an examination taken in conjunction with a course of training approved by the Council under this section, is granted to candidates reaching a standard at the examination indicating, in the opinion of the Council, that they have sufficient knowledge and skill to carry out the shoeing of horses;
- (c) any qualification which, as a result of an examination taken by a person whose name has been registered in Part II of the register, is granted to candidates reaching such standards as is mentioned in paragraph (b) hereof;
- (d) any institution which the Council considers is properly organised and equipped for conducting the whole or any part of a course of training approved by the Council under this section;

and may refuse its approval under this section or withdraw such an approval previously given; and notice of the giving, refusal or withdrawal of such an approval shall be served by the Council on the body or person affected.

(2) ^{F8}

(3) The withdrawal of an approval under this section shall not prejudice the registration or entitlement to registration of any person who was registered or entitled to registration by virtue of that approval immediately before it was withdrawn.

(4) Any reference in this section to a body or person affected, in relation to an approval, is a reference to the body or person who applied for approval.

13 The Investigating Committee.

- (1) The Council shall set up a committee from among its members to be known as the Investigating Committee, for the preliminary investigation of cases (hereinafter referred to as “disciplinary cases”) in which it is alleged that a person is liable to have his name erased from the register on any grounds specified in section 15 of this Act.
- (2) It shall be the function of the Investigating Committee to decide whether a disciplinary case ought to be referred to the Disciplinary Committee, set up under the next following section, to be dealt with by it in accordance with the following provisions of this Act.
- (3) The provisions of Schedule 2 to this Act shall have effect with respect to the constitution of the Investigating Committee.

14 The Disciplinary Committee.

- (1) The Council shall set up a committee from among its members to be known as the Disciplinary Committee, for the consideration and determination of disciplinary cases referred to it under the last foregoing section and of any other cases of which they have cognizance under section 9 or any of the following provisions of this Act.
- (2) The provisions of Schedule 3 to this Act shall have effect with respect to the constitution and procedure of the Disciplinary Committee.

15 Removal of names from register.

- (1) Where—
 - (a) a person who is registered by the Council is judged by the Disciplinary Committee to be guilty of serious misconduct in any professional respect; or
 - (b) the Disciplinary Committee is satisfied that such a person was not qualified for registration at the time he was registered; or
 - (c) such a person has been convicted of an offence involving cruelty to animals, the Committee may, if it thinks fit, direct that the person’s name shall be removed from the register or that his registration therein shall be suspended, that is to say, it shall not have effect during a period specified in the direction:
Provided that, in any case falling within paragraph (b) of this subsection, where the application for registration was referred to the Disciplinary Committee under section 9 of this Act, the Committee shall not direct that a person’s name shall be removed from the register except upon evidence which was not before the Committee when it considered the application.
- (2) When the Disciplinary Committee directs that a person’s name shall be removed from the register, the Committee shall cause notice of the direction to be served on that person.
- (3) A person in respect of whom a direction is made under subsection (1) of this section may, within twenty-eight days after notice of the direction was given to him, appeal against the direction to the High Court, or, in Scotland, to the Court of Session.
- (4) The Council may appear as respondent on any such appeal, and for the purpose of enabling directions to be given as to costs of any such appeal the Council shall be deemed to be a party thereto, whether it appears on the hearing of the appeal or not.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Farriers (Registration) Act 1975. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) On the hearing of the appeal the Court may make such order as it thinks fit, and its order shall be final.
- (6) A direction made under subsection (1) of this section shall not take effect before the expiration of the time limited for appealing against it, and where an appeal is lodged the direction shall not take effect before the appeal is disposed of or withdrawn or fails for want of prosecution.
- (7) A person whose name is removed from the register in pursuance of a direction of the Disciplinary Committee under this section shall not be entitled to be registered in the register again except in pursuance of a direction in that behalf given by the Committee on the application of that person; and a direction under this section for the removal of a person's name from the register may prohibit an application under this subsection by that person until the expiration of such period from the date of the direction (and where he has duly made such an application, from the date of his last application) as may be specified in the direction.

[^{F9}15A Restriction on use of style.

- (1) It shall be unlawful for a person who is not registered in the register to use or adopt the style, title or description "farrier" or "shoeing smith" or any other style, title or description which is likely to cause any other person to believe that such first mentioned person is so registered:
Provided that this subsection shall not apply to a person—
 - (i) who, having had his name removed from the register, has not yet been given notice by the registrar of its removal; or
 - (ii) who, having applied for registration in the register, has not had his application finally determined.
- (2) A person who contravenes this section shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £100.]

- (b) The persons first to be appointed in pursuance of sub-paragraph (c) of the foregoing paragraph shall be appointed by the Association and shall be such persons as in the opinion of the Association have the necessary qualifications.
- 3 All the first appointments of the members of the Council shall so far as practicable be made before the appointed day in time to enable the persons nominated to assume membership on its establishment.
- 4 Appointments to the Council in pursuance of either of the said sub-paragraphs (b) or (c) of paragraph 1 of this Schedule shall be made with due regard to the desirability of securing that the Council includes persons representative of all parts of Great Britain.
- 5 (1) The offices of the members of the Council appointed under sub-paragraphs (b) and (c) of paragraph 1 of this Schedule shall be vacated at the expiration of the period of three years beginning with the appointed day and at the expiration of each successive period of three years thereafter, but this shall not preclude a person whose office is thus vacated from being nominated to fill the vacancy.
- (2) The office of any member shall also be vacated if at any time—
- (a) he would not qualify for appointment at that time under the provision in accordance with which he was appointed;
- (b) he resigns his office by notice given to the registrar.
- (3) A person appointed to fill a casual vacancy among the members of the Council shall hold office during the remainder of the term of office of the person in whose place he is appointed.
- (4) So far as is practicable an appointment to the Council shall be so made as to enable the person appointed to assume office at the time the vacancy in question arises.
- 6 Before the expiration of two years beginning with the appointed day the Council shall draw up a scheme providing for the appointment after the expiration of the period of office of the members first appointed of persons as members of the Council in pursuance of sub-paragraphs (b) and (c) of paragraph 1 of this Schedule under a procedure provided for by the scheme.

PART II

Supplementary provisions

- 7 The quorum at meetings of the Council shall be seven or such other number as the Council may determine.
- 8 The functions of the Council may be exercised notwithstanding vacancies in its membership, and its proceedings shall not be invalidated by any defect in the nomination of a member.
- 9 In addition to the Investigating Committee and the Disciplinary Committee authorised by this Act, the Council may set up one or more additional committees of the Council or one or more area councils for any particular part or parts of Great Britain to carry out, on behalf of the Council, such of its functions as the Council may determine, not being functions required by this Act to be carried out by the Council itself.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

- 10 The Council shall appoint a registrar of the Council and such other officers and servants as it may determine.
- 11 The Council shall keep proper accounts of all sums received or paid by it, and proper records in relation to those accounts.
- 12 (1) The Council shall appoint auditors of the Council and shall cause its accounts to be audited annually by them and as soon as is practicable after the accounts for any period have been audited the Council shall cause them to be published.
- (2) A person shall not be qualified to be an auditor of the Council, unless he is either a member of one or more of the following bodies—
- (a) the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales;
 - (b) the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Scotland;
 - (c) the Association of Certified Accountants;
 - (d) the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Ireland;
 - (e) any other body of accountants established in the United Kingdom and for the time being recognised for the purposes of [^{F17}section 389(1)(a) of the Companies Act 1985] by the Secretary of State,
- or a person who is for the time being authorised by the Secretary of State under section 161(1)(b) of that Act as being a person with similar qualifications obtained outside the United Kingdom.
- (3) None of the following persons shall be qualified to be an auditor of the Council—
- (a) an officer or servant of the Council;
 - (b) a person who is a partner of or in the employment of an officer or servant of the Council;
 - (c) a body corporate,
- but a Scottish firm may act as auditor of the Council if each partner of the firm is qualified so to act.
- References in this sub-paragraph to an officer or servant shall be construed as not including references to an auditor.
