

Salmon and Freshwater Fisheries Act 1975

1975 CHAPTER 51

PART I

PROHIBITION OF CERTAIN MODES OF TAKING OR DESTROYING FISH, ETC.

1 Prohibited implements.

- (1) ^{F1}... no person shall—
- (a) use any of the following instruments, that is to say—
 - (i) a firearm within the meaning of the ^{M1}Firearms Act 1968;
 - (ii) an otter lath or jack, wire or snare;
 - (iii) a crossline or setline;
 - (iv) a spear, gaff, ^{F2}tailer,] stroke-haul, snatch or other like instrument;
 - (v) a light;for the purpose of taking or killing ^{F3}salmon, trout, eels, lampreys, smelt, shad, freshwater fish and any specified fish in any waters];
 - (b) have in his possession any instrument mentioned in paragraph (a) above intending to use it to take or kill ^{F4}any such fish in any waters];
 - (c) throw or discharge any stone or other missile for the purpose of taking or killing, or facilitating the taking or killing of ^{F5}any such fish in any waters].

^{F6}(1A) In this section “ specified fish ” means fish of such description as may be specified for the purposes of this section by order under section 40A below.

(1B) The appropriate national authority may by order amend subsection (1)(a) above so as to—

- (a) add any instrument to it; or
- (b) remove any instrument for the time being specified in it.]

- (2) If any person contravenes this section, he shall be guilty of an offence unless he proves to the satisfaction of the court that the act was done for the purpose of the preservation or development of a private fishery and with the previous permission in writing of ^{F7}the appropriate agency].

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Salmon and Freshwater Fisheries Act 1975. (See end of Document for details)

(3) In this section—

“crossline” means a fishing line reaching from bank to bank across water and having attached to it one or more lures or baited hooks;

“otter lath or jack” includes any small boat or vessel, board, stick or other instrument, whether used with a hand line, or as auxiliary to a rod and line, or otherwise for the purpose of running out lures, artificial or otherwise;

“setline” means a fishing line left unattended in water and having attached to it one or more lures or baited hooks;

“stroke-haul or snatch” includes any instrument or device, whether used with a rod and line or otherwise, for the purpose of foul hooking any fish.

[^{F8}(3A) References in this section to any waters include waters adjoining the coast of England and Wales to a distance of six nautical miles measured from the baselines from which the breadth of the territorial sea is measured.]

9 Duty to make and maintain fish passes.

- (1) Where in any waters frequented by salmon or migratory trout—
 - (a) a new dam is constructed or an existing dam is raised or otherwise altered so as to create increased obstruction to the passage of salmon or migratory trout, or any other obstruction to the passage of salmon or migratory trout is created, increased or caused; or
 - (b) a dam which from any cause has been destroyed or taken down to the extent of one-half of its length is rebuilt or reinstated, the owner or occupier for the time being of the dam or obstruction shall, if so required by notice [^{F35}given by the appropriate agency and within] such reasonable time as may be specified in the notice, make a fish pass for salmon or migratory trout of such form and dimensions [^{F36}as the appropriate agency may] approve as part of the structure of, or in connection with, the dam or obstruction, and shall thereafter maintain it in an efficient state.
- (2) If any such owner or occupier fails to make such a fish pass, or to maintain such a fish pass in an efficient state, he shall be guilty of an offence.
- (3) [^{F37}The appropriate agency] may cause to be done any work required by this section to be done, and for that purpose may enter on the dam or obstruction or any land adjoining it, and may recover the expenses of doing the work in a summary manner from any person in default.
- (4) Nothing in this section—
 - (a) shall authorise the doing of anything that may injuriously affect any public waterworks or navigable river, canal, or inland navigation, or any dock, the supply of water to which is obtained from any navigable river, canal or inland navigation, under any Act of Parliament; or
 - (b) shall prevent any person from removing a fish pass for the purpose of repairing or altering a dam or other obstruction, provided that the fish pass is restored to its former state of efficiency within a reasonable time; or
 - (c) shall apply to any alteration of a dam or other obstruction, unless—
 - (i) the alteration consists of a rebuilding or reinstatement of a dam or other obstruction destroyed or taken down to the extent of one-half of its length, or
 - (ii) the dam or obstruction as altered causes more obstruction to the passage of salmon or migratory trout than was caused by it as lawfully constructed or maintained at any previous date.

11 Minister's consents and approvals for fish passes.

- ^{F46}(1) Any approval given by the ^{F47}[appropriate agency] to or in relation to a fish pass may, if in giving it the ^{F47}[appropriate agency] indicates that fact, be provisional until the ^{F47}[appropriate agency] notifies the applicant for approval that the pass is functioning to its satisfaction.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Salmon and Freshwater Fisheries Act 1975. (See end of Document for details)

- (1A) The applicant for any such approval—
- (a) shall be liable to meet any costs incurred (whether by him or by the [F47 appropriate agency] or any other person) for the purposes of, or otherwise in connection with, the performance of the [F47 appropriate agency's] function of determining for the purposes of subsection (1) above whether or not the fish pass in question is functioning to its satisfaction; and
 - (b) shall provide the [F47 appropriate agency] with such information or assistance as it may require for the purpose of performing that function.]
- (2) While any such approval [F48: is provisional, the [F47 appropriate agency]] may, after giving the applicant not less than 90 days' notice of [F49: its intention to do so, revoke the approval].
- (3) Where [F50 the [F47 appropriate agency]] revokes a provisional approval given to a fish pass forming part of or in connection with a dam or other obstruction, [F51 it] may extend the period within which a fish pass is to be made as part of or in connection with the obstruction.
- (4) [F52 The [F47 appropriate agency]] may approve and certify any fish pass if [F53 it] is of opinion that it is efficient in all respects and for all purposes, whether it was constructed under this Act or not.
- (5) Where a fish pass has received the approval of [F54 the [F47 appropriate agency]], and the approval has not been revoked, it shall be deemed to be a fish pass in conformity with this Act, notwithstanding that it was not constructed in the manner and by the person specified in this Act.

12 Penalty for injuring or obstructing fish pass or free gap.

- (1) If any person—
- (a) wilfully alters or injures a fish pass; or

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Salmon and Freshwater Fisheries Act 1975. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) does any act whereby salmon or trout are obstructed or liable to be obstructed in using a fish pass or whereby a fish pass is rendered less efficient; or
 - (c) alters a dam or the bed or banks of the river so as to render a fish pass less efficient; or
 - (d) uses any contrivance or does any act whereby salmon or trout are in any way liable to be scared, hindered or prevented from passing through a fish pass,
- he shall be guilty of an offence, and shall also in every case pay any expenses which may be incurred in restoring the fish pass to its former state of efficiency; and any such expenses may be recovered in a summary manner.
- (2) The owner or occupier of a dam shall be deemed to have altered it if it is damaged, destroyed or allowed to fall into a state of disrepair, and if after notice is served on him [^{F55}by the appropriate agency he] fails to repair or reconstruct it within a reasonable time so as to render the fish pass as efficient as before the damage or destruction.
- (3) If any person—
- (a) does any act for the purpose of preventing salmon or trout from passing through a fish pass, or takes, or attempts to take, any salmon or trout in its passage through a fish pass; or
 - (b) places any obstruction, uses any contrivance or does any act whereby salmon or trout may be scared, deterred or in any way prevented from freely entering and passing up and down a free gap at all periods of the year,
- he shall be guilty of an offence.
- (4) This section shall not apply to a temporary bridge or board used for crossing a free gap, and taken away immediately after the person using it has crossed.

^{F58}14 Screens.

- (1) This section applies in any case where—
 - (a) by means of any conduit or artificial channel, water is diverted from waters frequented by salmon or migratory trout; and
 - (b) any of the water so diverted is used for the purposes of a water or canal undertaking or for the purposes of any mill or fish farm;and in this section “ the responsible person ” means the owner of the water or canal undertaking or (as the case may be) the occupier of the mill or the owner or occupier of the fish farm.
- (2) Where this section applies, the responsible person shall, unless an exemption from the obligation is granted by the [^{F59}appropriate agency], ensure (at his own cost) that there is placed and maintained at the entrance of, or within, the conduit or channel a screen which—
 - (a) subject to subsection (4) below, prevents the descent of the salmon or migratory trout; and
 - (b) in a case where any of the water diverted is used for the purposes of a fish farm, prevents the egress of farmed fish from the fish farm by way of the conduit or channel.
- (3) Where this section applies, the responsible person shall also, unless an exemption from the obligation is granted by the [^{F60}appropriate agency], ensure (at his own cost) that there is placed and maintained across any outfall of the conduit or channel a screen which—
 - (a) prevents salmon or migratory trout from entering the outfall; and
 - (b) in a case where any of the water diverted is used for the purposes of a fish farm, prevents the egress of farmed fish from the fish farm by way of the outfall.
- (4) Where a screen is placed within any conduit or channel pursuant to subsection (2) above, the responsible person shall ensure that a continuous by-wash is provided immediately upstream of the screen, by means of which salmon or migratory trout may return by as direct a route as practicable to the waters from which they entered the conduit or channel (and accordingly nothing in subsection (2) or (3) above applies in relation to a by-wash provided for the purposes of this subsection).
- (5) Any screen placed, or by-wash provided, in pursuance of this section shall be so constructed and located as to ensure, so far as reasonably practicable, that salmon or migratory trout are not injured or damaged by it.
- (6) No such screen shall be so placed as to interfere with the passage of boats on any navigable canal.
- (7) Any exemption under subsection (2) or (3) above may be granted subject to conditions.
- (8) If any person who is required to do so by this section fails to ensure that a screen is placed or maintained, or that a by-wash is provided, in accordance with the provisions of this section, he shall be guilty of an offence.
- (9) In any proceedings for an offence under subsection (8) above, it shall, subject to subsection (10) below, be a defence for the person charged to prove that he took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid the commission of the offence by himself or a person under his control.

- (10) If in any case the defence provided by subsection (9) above involves the allegation that the commission of the offence was due to an act or default of another person, or to reliance on information supplied by another person, the person charged shall not, without leave of the court, be entitled to rely on that defence unless—
- (a) at least seven clear days before the hearing, and
 - (b) where he has previously appeared before a court in connection with the alleged offence, within one month of his first such appearance,
- he has served on the prosecutor a notice in writing giving such information identifying or assisting in the identification of that other person as was then in his possession.
- (11) Any reference in subsection (10) above to appearing before a court includes a reference to being brought before a court.
- (12) The obligations imposed by subsections (2) to (6) above, except so far as relating to farmed fish, shall not be in force during such period (if any) in each year as may be prescribed by byelaw.
- (13) The obligations imposed by subsections (2) to (6) above on the occupier of a mill shall apply only where the conduit or channel was constructed on or after 18th July 1923.
- (14) Any reference in this section to ensuring that a screen is placed and maintained includes, in a case where the screen takes the form of apparatus the operation of which prevents the passage of fish of the descriptions in question, a reference to ensuring that the apparatus is kept in continuous operation.
- (15) In this section “by-wash ” means a passage through which water flows.]

PART IV

FISHING LICENCES^{F82} AND AUTHORISATIONS]

Textual Amendments

F82 Words in Pt. IV heading inserted (1.1.2011) by Marine and Coastal Access Act 2009 (c. 23), ss. 219(1), 324(3); S.I. 2010/298, art. 2, Sch. para. 13

25 Licences to fish.

^{F83}(1) The [^{F84}appropriate agency] shall by means of a system of licensing regulate fishing by licensable means of fishing for—

- (a) salmon, trout, eels, lampreys, smelt and freshwater fish; and
- (b) fish of such other description as may be specified for the purposes of this section by order under section 40A below.

(1A) In this Act “ licensable means of fishing ” means any of the following—

- (a) rod and line;
- (b) an historic installation;
- (c) such other means of fishing as the appropriate national authority may by order specify.

(1B) In this Act “ historic installation ” means any of the following—

- (a) a fixed engine certified in pursuance of the Salmon Fishery Act 1865 to be a privileged fixed engine;
- (b) a fixed engine which was in use for taking salmon or migratory trout during the open season of 1861, in pursuance of an ancient right or mode of fishing as lawfully exercised during that open season, by virtue of any grant or charter or immemorial usage;
- (c) a fishing weir or fishing mill dam which was lawfully in use on 6th August 1861 by virtue of a grant or charter or immemorial usage.]

(2) Subject to the following provisions of this section, a licence granted for the purposes of this section (hereafter in this Act referred to as a “fishing licence”) shall entitle the person to whom it was granted and no others to use [^{F85}the means of fishing] specified in the licence to fish for any fish [^{F86}of a description, in an area and for a period][^{F86}of such a description, in such area or areas][^{F87}(or in waters of such description or descriptions)] and for such period as is] so specified.

(3) A fishing licence for the use of [^{F88}any means of fishing] other than a rod and line to fish for salmon or trout shall also authorise the use of [^{F89}that means of fishing] for that purpose by the duly authorised servants or agents of the person to whom it was granted, but [^{F90}not exceeding the number permitted by paragraph 13 of Schedule 2 to this Act][^{F90}subject to the provisions of paragraphs 9 to 13 of Schedule 2 to this Act].

(4) A fishing licence for the use of a rod and line shall entitle the licensee to use as ancillary to that use a ^{F91}... landing net.

^{F93}(6)

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Salmon and Freshwater Fisheries Act 1975. (See end of Document for details)

- (7) Any person or association entitled to an exclusive right of fishing in any inland waters may be granted a general licence to fish in those waters subject to any conditions agreed [^{F94}between the appropriate agency and the licensee], and the licence shall entitle the licensee and, subject to paragraph 9 of Schedule 4 below, any person authorised by him in writing, or in the case of an association, by its secretary so to fish.
- (8) Schedule 2 to this Act shall have effect with respect to fishing licences.
- (9) Any licence in force under any provision of section 61 of the ^{M3}Salmon and Freshwater Fisheries Act 1923 immediately before 29th June 1972 shall be treated as having been granted under the corresponding provision of this section.
- [^{F95}(10) For the purposes of this Part, the [^{F96}appropriate agency] may permit a person to take fish of any description in circumstances where he would for those purposes otherwise require a fishing licence.]
- [^{F95}(11) Permission under subsection (10) above—
- (a) must be in writing;
 - (b) may be given generally or specifically;
 - (c) may be given subject to conditions.]

26 Limitation of fishing licences.

- (1) [F97 Subject to this][F98 section, the appropriate agency may]in relation to any such area or areas as are specified in the order, by order confirmed by [F99 the appropriate national authority]—
- (a) limit for a period not exceeding ten years from the coming into operation of the order the number of fishing licences [F100 of any description to be issued pursuant to section 25 above in any year in relation to that area or those areas]; and
 - (b) provide for the selection of the applicants to whom such licences are to be issued where the number of applications exceeds the number of licences which may be granted.
- [F101(1A) The [F102 appropriate agency] may only make an order under subsection (1) above in relation to licences for fishing for fish of any description if it is satisfied that it is necessary to do so for the purposes of—
- (a) maintaining, improving or developing fisheries of any fish referred to in section 25(1) above; or
 - (b) protecting the marine or aquatic environment from significant harm.
- (1B) The [F102 appropriate agency] may not make an order under subsection (1) above in relation to licences for fishing for fish by—
- (a) rod and line; or
 - (b) an historic installation.]
- (2) Where [F103 the appropriate national authority] proposes to confirm an order under this section, [F104 that authority][F105 shall require the appropriate agency to publish] the order and notice of [F106 that authority's] intention to confirm it in such manner as [F104 that authority] may require, together with a notification that within a period specified in the requirement written objections to the order may be made to [F107 that authority].
- (3) [F108 The appropriate national authority] shall consider any such objections received by [F109 that authority] within the said period, and—
- (a) if the number of licences as proposed to be limited by the order is less than the number of licences issued in any of the three years preceding the year in which the order is to come into operation; and
 - (b) any such objection is made by any person who has during each of the two years preceding that year held a licence of the same description as the licences which it is proposed so to limit in number;

- [^{F110} that authority] [^{F111} may cause] a local inquiry to be held before confirming the order.
- [^{F112}(4) If it appears to the [^{F113} appropriate agency] that an order under this section would prevent a person from fishing in circumstances where that person is wholly dependent on the fishing for his livelihood, the [^{F113} appropriate agency] may pay that person such amount by way of compensation as it considers appropriate.]
- (6) [^{F114} The appropriate national authority] may with the [^{F115} consent of the appropriate agency vary] an order submitted to [^{F116} that authority] under this section before confirming it and may [^{F117} require the appropriate agency to publish] the terms of the proposed variation in such manner, if any, as [^{F118} that authority] may specify in the requirement.
- (7) An order under this section may be revoked by [^{F119} the appropriate national authority], or by an order [^{F120} made by the appropriate agency and] confirmed by [^{F121} that authority].
- [^{F122}(8) Any order limiting the number of licences in force in a water authority area under section 62 of the ^{M4} Salmon and Freshwater Fisheries Act 1923 immediately before 29th June 1972 shall be treated as having limited the number of licences in that area for a period of ten years from that date.]

 - (b) fish of such other description as may be specified for the purposes of this section by order under section 40A below.
- (2) An application for an authorisation under this section must be in such form as the [^{F128}appropriate agency] may specify.
- (3) An authorisation under this section must be in writing, but subject to that may be in such form as the [^{F128}appropriate agency] may determine.
- (4) An authorisation under this section—
 - (a) must be granted for a specified period of time;
 - (b) may be granted to more than one person;
 - (c) may be limited as to the waters in respect of which it is granted;
 - (d) may be subject to conditions.
- (5) The [^{F128}appropriate agency] may at any time, on application or on its own initiative—
 - (a) amend an authorisation under this section;
 - (b) revoke an authorisation under this section.
- (6) In determining whether to grant, amend or revoke an authorisation the [^{F128}appropriate agency] must consider the effect of doing so on—
 - (a) fisheries in the area to which the authorisation relates; and
 - (b) the aquatic or marine environment in that area.
- (7) An authorisation under this section granted to a body corporate—
 - (a) may, if the authorisation so specifies, apply in relation to any individual acting on behalf of that body (as well as to the body corporate); or
 - (b) may, if the authorisation so specifies, apply only in relation to individuals named in the authorisation when acting on behalf of the body (as well as to the body corporate).

- (8) The [^{F128}appropriate agency] may charge a fee for the grant of an authorisation under this section.
- (9) Where the [^{F128}appropriate agency] determines standard fees for the grant of authorisations of particular descriptions, it must publish them.
- (10) Where—
- (a) the [^{F128}appropriate agency] has determined a standard fee for the grant of an authorisation of a particular description, but
 - (b) the [^{F128}appropriate agency] considers, in any case, that special circumstances apply to the grant of an authorisation of that description,
- it may charge a fee of another amount.]

Offences

37 Prosecution etc. of offences.

Parts I and II of Schedule 4 to this Act shall have effect with regard to the prosecution and punishment of offences against this Act and the procedure on such prosecutions.

^{F166}[37A Fixed penalty notices for certain offences.

- (1) Where on any occasion a water bailiff or other officer of the [^{F167}appropriate agency] finds a person who he has reason to believe is committing, or has on that occasion committed, a fixed penalty offence, he may give to that person a notice (in this section referred to as a “ fixed penalty notice ”) offering him the opportunity of discharging any liability to conviction for that offence by payment of a fixed penalty.
 - (2) Where a person is given a fixed penalty notice in respect of a fixed penalty offence—
 - (a) no proceedings shall be instituted for that offence before the expiration of the period for paying the fixed penalty; and
 - (b) he shall not be convicted of that offence if the fixed penalty is paid before the expiration of that period.
 - (3) The [^{F167}appropriate agency] may extend the period for paying the fixed penalty in any particular case if it considers it appropriate to do so in all the circumstances of the case.
 - (4) If, in any particular case, the [^{F167}appropriate agency] considers that a fixed penalty notice which has been given ought not to have been given, it may give to the person to whom the fixed penalty notice was given a notice withdrawing the fixed penalty notice; and where notice under this subsection is given—
 - (a) the [^{F167}appropriate agency] shall repay any amount which has been paid by way of fixed penalty in pursuance of the fixed penalty notice; and
 - (b) no proceedings shall be instituted or continued against that person for the offence in question.
 - (5) The amount by which the sums received by the Agency by way of fixed penalties exceed the sums repaid by it under subsection (4)(a) above shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund.
- [The amount by which the sums received by the Natural Resources Body for Wales
- ^{F168}(5A) by way of fixed penalties exceed the sums repaid by it under subsection (4)(a) above shall be paid into the Welsh Consolidated Fund.]
- (6) In any proceedings, a certificate purporting to be signed by or on behalf of the Chief Executive of the [^{F167}appropriate agency] and stating either—
 - (a) that payment of a fixed penalty was, or (as the case may be) was not, received by the [^{F167}appropriate agency] on or before a date specified in the certificate, or
 - (b) that an envelope containing an amount sent by post in payment of a fixed penalty was marked as posted on a date specified in the certificate, shall be received as evidence of the matters so stated and shall be treated, without further proof, as being so signed unless the contrary is shown.
 - (7) A fixed penalty notice shall give such reasonable particulars of the circumstances alleged to constitute the fixed penalty offence to which the notice relates as are necessary for giving reasonable information of the offence and shall state—

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Salmon and Freshwater Fisheries Act 1975. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the monetary amount of the fixed penalty which may be paid;
 - (b) the person to whom and the address at which—
 - (i) the fixed penalty may be paid, and
 - (ii) any correspondence relating to the fixed penalty notice may be sent;
 - (c) the method or methods by which payment of the fixed penalty may be made;
 - (d) the period for paying the fixed penalty;
 - (e) the consequences of the fixed penalty not being paid before the expiration of that period.
- (8) A fixed penalty notice may also contain such other information relating to, or for the purpose of facilitating, the administration of the fixed penalty system as the [F167appropriate agency] considers necessary or desirable.
- (9) Regulations may—
- (a) make provision with respect to the giving of fixed penalty notices, including, in particular, provision with respect to—
 - (i) the methods by which,
 - (ii) the officers, servants or agents by, to or on whom, and
 - (iii) the places at which,fixed penalty notices may be given by, or served on behalf of, a water bailiff or other officer of the [F167appropriate agency];
 - (b) prescribe the method or methods by which fixed penalties may be paid;
 - (c) make provision for or with respect to the issue of prescribed documents to persons to whom fixed penalty notices are or have been given.
- (10) In this section—
- “ fixed penalty ” means a penalty of such amount as may be prescribed (whether by being specified in, or made calculable under, regulations);
 - “ fixed penalty offence ” means, subject to subsection (11) below, any offence—
 - (a) under this Act,
 - (b) under the ^{M5}Salmon Act 1986,
 - (c) under or by virtue of regulations or orders made under section 115, 116 or 142 of the ^{M6}Water Resources Act 1991, or
 - (d) under section 211(3) of that Act, so far as relating to byelaws made by virtue of paragraph 6 of Schedule 25 to that Act,which is for the time being prescribed for the purpose;
 - “ the fixed penalty system ” means the system implementing this section and regulations made under it;
 - “ the Ministers ” means the Secretary of State and the Minister;
 - “ notice ” means notice in writing;
 - “ the period for paying ”, in relation to any fixed penalty, means such period as may be prescribed for the purpose;
 - “ prescribed ” means prescribed by regulations;
 - “ regulations ” means regulations made under this section by the Ministers.
- (11) The provision that may be made by regulations prescribing fixed penalty offences includes provision for an offence to be a fixed penalty offence—

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Salmon and Freshwater Fisheries Act 1975. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) only if it is committed in such circumstances or manner as may be prescribed; or
 - (b) except if it is committed in such circumstances or manner as may be prescribed.
- (12) Regulations may provide for any offence which is a fixed penalty offence to cease to be such an offence.
- (13) An offence which, in consequence of regulations made by virtue of subsection (12) above, has ceased to be a fixed penalty offence shall be eligible to be prescribed as such an offence again.
- (14) Regulations may—
- (a) make different provision in relation to different cases or classes of case; or
 - (b) provide for such exceptions, limitations and conditions, or make such incidental, supplemental, consequential or transitional provision, as the Ministers consider necessary or expedient.
- (15) Any power to make regulations under this section shall be exercisable by statutory instrument made by the Ministers; and a statutory instrument containing any such regulations shall be subject to annulment pursuant to a resolution of either House of Parliament.]
