Act: functions of local authority not to be responsibility of an executive of the authority (E.)
(16.11.2000) by virtue of S.I. 2000/2853, reg. 2\(1\), Sch. 1 Table B26

1 †Safety certificates for large sports stadia.

(1) The Secretary of State may by order designate as [^{F1}a sports ground] requiring a certificate under this Act (in this Act referred to as a “safety certificate”) [^{F1}any sports ground] which in his opinion has accommodation for more than 10,000 spectators.

[^{F2}(1A) The Secretary of State may by order substitute, for the number for the time being specified in subsection (1) above, such other number as he considers appropriate; but no order made under this subsection shall affect the validity of any designation previously made.

(1B) An order under subsection (1A) above may make different substitutions for different classes of sports ground.]

(2) The Secretary of State—

- (a) may estimate, by any means which he considers appropriate, for how many spectators a sports [^{F3}ground] has accommodation; and
- (b) may require any person concerned with the organisation or management of a sports [^{F3}ground] to furnish him within such reasonable time as he may specify with such information as he considers necessary for the purpose of making such an estimate.

(3) A safety certificate may be either—

- (a) a certificate issued by the local authority for the area in which a [^{F1}sports ground] is situated in respect of the use of the [^{F1}sports ground] for an activity or a number of activities specified in the certificate during an indefinite period commencing with a date so specified; or
- (b) a certificate issued by that authority in respect of the use of the [^{F1}sports ground] for an activity or a number of activities specified in the certificate on an occasion or series of occasions so specified.
- (4) In this Act—
- [^{F1}“designated sports ground”] means [^{F1}a sports ground] in respect of which a designation order is in operation;
- “designation order” means an order under this section;
- “general safety certificate” means such a safety certificate as is mentioned in subsection (3)(a) above; and
- “special safety certificate” means such a safety certificate as is mentioned in subsection (3)(b) above.

2 Contents of safety certificates.

- (1) A safety certificate shall contain such terms and conditions as the local authority consider necessary or expedient to secure reasonable safety at the [^{F4}sports ground] when it is in use for the specified activity or activities, and the terms and conditions may be such as to involve alterations or additions to the [^{F4}sports ground].
- [^{F5}(2) In so far as an order under section 15A below so requires as respects any class of sports ground, a safety certificate shall include such terms and conditions as may be provided for in the order.]
- [^{F6}(2A) No condition of a safety certificate shall require the provision of the services at the ground of any members of a police force unless the extent of the provision of their services is reserved for the determination of the chief officer of police of the force.]
- (3) Without prejudice to subsection (1) above, a safety certificate may include a condition that the following records shall be kept—
- (a) records of the attendance of spectators at the [^{F4}sports ground]; and
- (b) records relating to the maintenance of safety at the [^{F4}sports ground].
- (4) A general safety certificate shall contain or have attached to it a plan of the [^{F4}sports ground], and the terms and conditions in the certificate, or in any special safety

3 Applications for certificates.

- (1) If a local authority receive an application for a safety certificate for a designated [^{F7}sports ground] in their area, it shall be their duty to determine whether the applicant is a person likely to be in a position to prevent contravention of the terms and conditions of a certificate; and such a person is referred to in this Act as a “qualified person”.
- (2) If a local authority determine that an applicant is a qualified person—
 - (a) where no general safety certificate for the [^{F7}sports ground] is in operation, they shall issue such a certificate for it to him; and
 - (b) where a general safety certificate for the [^{F7}sports ground] is in operation, they may issue a special safety certificate for it to him.
- (3) The local authority shall send a copy of an application for a safety certificate for a [^{F7}sports ground] to the chief officer of police and [^{F8}where the local authority is in Greater London or a metropolitan county, the fire authority or, in any other case,] the building authority for the area in which it is situated, and shall consult them about the terms and conditions to be included in the certificate.
- (4) The local authority may by notice in writing require an applicant for a safety certificate to furnish them within such reasonable time as they may specify in the notice with such information and such plans as they consider necessary to enable them to determine the terms and conditions which ought to be included in any certificate issued in response to his application.
- (5) If an applicant for a safety certificate fails to comply with a requirement under subsection (4) above within the time specified by the local authority, or within such further time as they may allow, he shall be deemed to have withdrawn his application.

4 Amendment etc. of certificates.

- (1) The local authority may, in any case in which it appears appropriate to them to do so—
 - (a) amend a safety certificate by notice in writing to its holder; or
 - (b) replace a safety certificate.
- (2) A safety certificate may be amended or replaced either on the application of the holder or without such an application.
- (3) Section 2 above shall apply on the amendment or replacement of a safety certificate.
- (4) A notice under subsection (1)(a) above amending a general safety certificate shall specify the date on which the amendment to which it relates is to come into operation, and the date so specified may be a date later than the date of issue of the notice.
- (5) If the local authority receive an application for the transfer of a safety certificate from the holder to some other person, it shall be their duty to determine whether that person is a qualified person; and if they so determine, they may transfer the certificate to him.
- (6) An application under subsection (5) above may be made either by the holder of a safety certificate or by a person to whom it is proposed that it should be transferred.
- (7) The local authority shall send a copy of an application for the transfer of a safety certificate for a [^{F9}sports ground] to the chief officer of police and [^{F10}where the local authority is in Greater London or a metropolitan county, the fire authority or, in any other case,] the building authority for the area in which it is situated.
- (8) The local authority shall consult the chief officer of police and [^{F10}where the local authority is in Greater London or a metropolitan county, the fire authority or, in any other case,] the building authority about any proposal to amend, replace or transfer a safety certificate.
- (9) The holder of a safety certificate may surrender it to the local authority, and it shall thereupon cease to have effect.
- (10) The local authority may cancel a safety certificate if the holder dies or (if a body corporate) is dissolved.

[^{F28}10] Special procedure in case of serious risk: prohibition notices.

- (1) If the local authority are of the opinion that the admission of spectators to a sports ground or any part of a sports ground involves or will involve a risk to them so serious that, until steps have been taken to reduce it to a reasonable level, admission of spectators to the ground or that part of the ground ought to be prohibited or restricted, the authority may serve a notice (in this Act referred to as a “prohibition notice”) on such persons as are specified in subsection (6) below.
- (2) A prohibition notice shall—
- (a) state that the local authority are of that opinion;
 - (b) specify the matters which in their opinion give or, as the case may be, will give rise to that risk; and
 - (c) direct that no, or no more than a specified number of, spectators shall be admitted to, or to a specified part of, the sports ground until the specified matters have been remedied.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Safety of Sports Grounds Act 1975. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) A prohibition notice may prohibit or restrict the admission of spectators generally or on a specified occasion.
- (4) A prohibition notice may include directions as to the steps which will have to be taken to reduce the risk to a reasonable level and these may require alterations or additions to the ground or things to be done or omitted which would contravene the terms or conditions of a safety certificate for the ground or for any stand at the ground.
- (5) No prohibition notice shall include directions compliance with which would require the provision of the services at the sports ground of any members of a police force unless the chief officer of police of the force has consented to their inclusion and the extent of the provision of their services is reserved for his determination.
- (6) A prohibition notice shall be served on the persons specified in the following paragraphs in the circumstances specified in those paragraphs, that is to say—
 - (a) if a general safety certificate is in operation for the ground, on the holder of it;
 - (b) if the prohibition or restriction applies to an occasion in respect of which a special safety certificate for the ground is in operation, on the holder of it;
 - (c) if no safety certificate is in operation for the ground, on the person who appears to the local authority to be responsible for the management of the ground;
 - (d) if the prohibition or restriction applies to an occasion and no safety certificate is in operation for the ground, on each person who appears to the local authority to be responsible for organising an activity at the ground on that occasion;
 - (e) if a general safety certificate is in operation for a stand at the ground, on the holder of it;
 - (f) if the prohibition or restriction applies to an occasion in respect of which a special safety certificate for a stand at the ground is in operation, on the holder of it;but the validity of a prohibition notice served on any person under any of the foregoing provisions shall not be affected by a failure to serve another person required to be served with such a notice under those provisions.
- (7) A prohibition or restriction contained in a prohibition notice shall take effect immediately it is served if the authority are of the opinion, and so state in the notice, that the risk to spectators is or, as the case may be, will be imminent, and in any other case shall take effect at the end of a period specified in the notice.
- (8) A copy of any prohibition notice shall be sent by the local authority to each of the following, namely—
 - (a) the chief officer of police; and
 - (b) where the local authority is in Greater London or a metropolitan county, the fire authority, or, in any other case, the building authority.
- (9) The local authority who have served a prohibition notice may, in any case where it appears appropriate to them to do so, amend the prohibition notice by notice served on the persons specified in subsection (6) above (subject to the saving in that subsection), and copies shall be sent to the officer and authorities specified in subsection (8) above.
- (10) A notice under subsection (9) above amending a prohibition notice shall specify the date on which the amendment is to come into operation.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Safety of Sports Grounds Act 1975. (See end of Document for details)

- (11) Where a notice has been served under subsection (1) or (9) above the local authority may withdraw the notice at any time.]
