

Children Act 1975

1975 CHAPTER 72

PART II

CUSTODY

Custody in Scotland

50 Payments towards maintenance of children

Without prejudice to any existing powers and duties to make payments in respect of the maintenance of children, where custody of a child has been awarded to a person other than a parent of the child any local authority may make to that person payments for or towards the maintenance of the child.