

Parliamentary And Other Pensions And Salaries Act 1976

1976 CHAPTER 48

An Act to amend the Parliamentary and other Pensions Act 1972; to make further provision with respect to the salaries and pensions payable to or in respect of the Comptroller and Auditor General, the Parliamentary Commissioner for Administration and the Health Service Commissioners; and for connected purposes. [12th October 1976]

Pensions of Members and office-holders

[^{F1}1 Member's pensionable salary.

(1) For section 3(6) (meaning of “a Member’s ordinary salary”) of the ^{M1} Parliamentary and other Pensions Act 1972 (“the Act of 1972”) there shall be substituted the following subsections—

“(6) In this Part of this Act “a Member’s pensionable salary”, in relation to a resolution of the House of Commons relating to the remuneration of Members, means a Member’s ordinary salary or, if the resolution provides for a Members’ ordinary salary to be regarded for pension purposes as being at a higher rate, a notional yearly salary at that higher rate ; and for this purpose “a Member’s ordinary salary”—

- (a) if the resolution provides for salary to be paid at a rate higher than one or more other rates specified in the resolution to Members other than those who are holders of an office, or in receipt of a salary as holders of an office, or in receipt of a pension as former holders of an office, of a kind specified or described in the resolution, means a Member’s yearly salary at that higher rate, and
- (b) in any other case, means a Member’s yearly salary at the rate specified in the resolution.

(7) Any reference in this Part of this Act to a resolution of the House of Commons relating to the remuneration of Members shall be construed, where there are
