

Licensing (Scotland) Act 1976 (repealed)

1976 CHAPTER 66

PART VIII

MISCELLANEOUS, TRANSITIONAL & GENERAL

119 Trading hours for off-sale premises and off-sale parts of public houses and hotels.

- (1) The provisions of this Act relating to the permitted hours shall not apply to off-sale premises, but the provisions of this section shall apply.
- (2) On granting or transferring a public house or a hotel licence in respect of any premises a licensing board shall, if the applicant so requests and if the board is satisfied—
 - (a) that a part of the premises (in this section referred to as “the off-sale part”) is structurally adapted for the sale and supply of alcoholic liquor for consumption off the premises; and
 - (b) that there is no internal communication to which customers have access connecting the off-sale part with a part of the premises used, or intended to be used, for the sale and supply of alcoholic liquor for consumption on the premises, or that any such internal communication is capable of being closed to customers; insert in the licence the following conditions—

- (i) a condition that the off-sale part (which shall be specified in the condition) shall not be used for the sale or supply of alcoholic liquor for consumption on the premises;
- (ii) a condition that any internal communication to which customers have access connecting the off-sale part with a part of the premises used for the sale and supply of alcoholic liquor for consumption on the premises shall be closed to customers during any time when customers are present in any part of the premises; and
- (iii) a condition that no customers shall be permitted to use any internal communication for the purpose of passing from one part of the premises to another part thereof;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/10/2006.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Licensing (Scotland) Act 1976 (repealed), Part VIII. (See end of Document for details) and, so long as the licence is subject to the said conditions, the provisions of this Act relating to the permitted hours shall not apply to the off-sale part, but the provisions of this section shall apply.

- [^{F1}(3) Off-sale premises and the off-sale part of premises shall not be opened for the serving of customers with alcoholic liquor—
- (a) on a day other than a Sunday, earlier than eight in the morning, and
 - (b) on a Sunday, earlier than half past twelve in the afternoon,
- and shall be closed for the serving of customers with such liquor not later than ten in the evening.]
- (4) The holder of the licence or his employee or agent shall be guilty of an offence if he contravenes this section or any condition attached to a licence by virtue of subsection (2) above.

Textual Amendments

F1 S. 119(3) substituted (1.12.1994) by 1994 c. 40, s. 22; S.I. 1994/3037, arts. 2, 3

120 Liquor in unregistered clubs.

- (1) If any person sells or supplies alcoholic liquor in the premises of an unregistered club, or authorises the sale or supply of alcoholic liquor in any such premises, to a member or other person, or if any person pays for alcoholic liquor so sold or supplied, he shall be guilty of an offence.
- (2) If alcoholic liquor is kept in any such premises for sale or supply in those premises, every officer and member of the club shall be guilty of an offence.
- (3) A person shall not be guilty of an offence under subsection (2) above if he proves that the liquor was kept as mentioned in that subsection without his knowledge or consent.
- (4) If a justice of the peace is satisfied by evidence on oath that there are reasonable grounds for believing that alcoholic liquor is being sold or supplied in the premises of an unregistered club or is being kept in any such premises for the purpose of being sold or supplied there, he may by warrant authorise a constable to enter those premises at any time, if need be by force, and to search the premises and seize any documents relating to the business of the club and to take the names and addresses of any persons found in the premises.
- (5) If a justice of the peace is satisfied by evidence on oath that there are reasonable grounds for believing that alcoholic liquor is being kept in the premises of an unregistered club for the purposes of being sold or supplied there, he may by warrant authorise a constable to seize and remove any such liquor which the constable has reasonable grounds for supposing to be in the premises for the purpose of being sold or supplied there, together with the vessels containing the liquor.
- (6) If any of the officers or members of a club from the premises of which any alcoholic liquor has been removed under subsection (5) above is convicted of an offence under subsection (2) above in respect of such liquor or any part thereof, that liquor or such part thereof, as the case may be, and the vessels containing it shall be forfeited and sold and the proceeds thereof paid into the general fund of the [^{F2}council within whose area] the said premises are situated.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/10/2006.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Licensing (Scotland) Act 1976 (repealed), Part VIII. (See end of Document for details)

- (7) If any person found in the premises of a club refuses to give his name and address on being requested to do so by a constable acting under a warrant granted in pursuance of subsection (4) above, or gives a false name or address on being so requested, he shall be guilty of an offence.

Textual Amendments

F2 Words in s. 120(6) substituted (1.4.1996) by 1994 c. 39, s. 180(1), Sch. 13 para. 106(8)

121 Sale or supply of alcoholic liquor in certain theatres.

A theatre erected before 1st January 1904 shall be treated for the purposes of the sale or supply of alcoholic liquor in the theatre as if an entertainment licence were in force in respect of the theatre.

122 Proof of trafficking in alcoholic liquor without licence.

It shall be sufficient evidence that a person was trafficking in any alcoholic liquor in any premises or place without holding a licence in that behalf if it is proved—

- (a) that a person other than the owner or occupier of such premises or place was at the time charged found therein drunk or drinking, or having had drink supplied to him therein; and
- (b) either that such premises are or such place is, by repute, kept for the illegal sale of alcoholic liquor or that at the time charged such premises or place contained drinking utensils and fittings usually found in licensed premises.

123 Alcoholic liquor in confectionery.

- (1) No provision of this Act as to the sale, supply, purchase, delivery or consumption of alcoholic liquor, except subsection (2) below, and no enactment requiring the authority of a wholesaler's excise licence for the sale or supply of alcoholic liquor, shall have effect in relation to alcoholic liquor in confectionery which—

- (a) does not contain alcoholic liquor in a proportion greater than 200 millilitres of liquor [^{F3}of a strength of 57% of ethyl alcohol by volume (at a temperature of 20 degrees Celsius)] per kilogramme of the confectionery, and
- (b) either consists of separate pieces weighing not more than 50 grammes or is designed to be broken into such pieces for the purpose of consumption.

- (2) Alcoholic liquor in confectionery shall not be sold to a person under 16, and if any person knowingly contravenes this subsection he shall be guilty of an offence.

M1 1973 c. 65(81:2).

125 Supply of alcoholic liquor on order by certain officials and others.

- (1) The holder of a licence in respect of any premises may supply alcoholic liquor from those premises during any time when such supply would, apart from this section, be prohibited by or under this Act, on an order stating why the liquor is required and signed—
 - (a) by a constable of or above the rank of inspector or by a constable in charge of a police station; or
 - (b) by the procurator fiscal, or
 - (c) by a medical official; or
 - (d) in case of sickness, accident or emergency, by a duly qualified medical practitioner.
- (2) Any such order shall be a sufficient defence in any prosecution in respect of the supply of the alcoholic liquor to which it relates if within 48 hours after the supply of such liquor the order is sent by post to the procurator fiscal together with a note of the description and quantity of the liquor supplied and the name and address of the person to whom the liquor was supplied.
- (3) The procurator fiscal shall, not later than seven days before the quarterly meeting of any licensing board having jurisdiction in the district for which he acts or any part thereof, transmit to the clerk of such board a list of orders received by him under subsection (2) above during the current quarter, being orders received from persons holding licences from that board, and the said list shall contain a note of the names and designations of all persons signing such orders.

126 Burden of proof in case of drunkenness in licensed premises.

If the holder of a licence in respect of any premises is charged with knowingly permitting drunkenness in those premises, and it is proved that any person was drunk in the premises it shall lie on the holder of the licence to prove that he and the persons employed by him took all reasonable steps to prevent drunkenness in the premises.

127 Presumption as to contents of containers.

- (1) For the purposes of any trial in connection with an alleged contravention of any provision of this Act, the following provisions of this section shall apply.
- ^{F4}(2) Any liquid found in a container (sealed or open) shall, subject to the provisions of this section, be presumed to conform to the description of the liquid on the container.
- (3) An open container which is found to contain—
 - (a) no liquid; or
 - (b) insufficient liquid to permit analysis,
