

Patents Act 1977

1977 CHAPTER 37

PART I

NEW DOMESTIC LAW

Licences of right and compulsory licences

46 Patentee's application for entry in register that licences are available as of right.

- (1) At any time after the grant of a patent its proprietor may apply to the comptroller for an entry to be made in the register to the effect that licences under the patent are to be available as of right.
- (2) Where such an application is made, the comptroller shall give notice of the application to any person registered as having a right in or under the patent and, if satisfied that the proprietor of the patent is not precluded by contract from granting licences under the patent, shall make that entry.
- (3) Where such an entry is made in respect of a patent—
  - (a) any person shall, at any time after the entry is made, be entitled as of right to a licence under the patent on such terms as may be settled by agreement or, in default of agreement, by the comptroller on the application of the proprietor of the patent or the person requiring the licence;
  - (b) the comptroller may, on the application of the holder of any licence granted under the patent before the entry was made, order the licence to be exchanged for a licence of right on terms so settled;
  - (c) if in proceedings for infringement of the patent (otherwise than by the importation of any article [<sup>F1</sup>from a country which is not a member State of the European Economic Community]) the defendant or defender undertakes to take a licence on such terms, no injunction or interdict shall be granted against him and the amount (if any) recoverable against him by way of damages shall not exceed double the amount which would have been payable by him as licensee if such a licence on those terms had been granted before the earliest infringement;

Status: Point in time view as at 29/07/1999. This version of this cross heading contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: Patents Act 1977, Cross Heading: Licences of right and compulsory licences is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 09 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (d) the renewal fee payable in respect of the patent after the date of the entry shall be half the fee which would be payable if the entry had not been made.

[<sup>F2</sup>(3A) An undertaking under subsection (3)(c) above may be given at any time before final order in the proceedings, without any admission of liability.]

- (4) The licensee under a licence of right may (unless, in the case of a licence the terms of which are settled by agreement, the licence otherwise expressly provides) request the proprietor of the patent to take proceedings to prevent any infringement of the patent; and if the proprietor refuses or neglects to do so within two months after being so requested, the licensee may institute proceedings for the infringement in his own name as if he were proprietor, making the proprietor a defendant or defender.
- (5) A proprietor so added as defendant or defender shall not be liable for any costs or expenses unless he enters an appearance and takes part in the proceedings.

47 Cancellation of entry made under s. 46.

- (1) At any time after an entry has been made under section 46 above in respect of a patent, the proprietor of the patent may apply to the comptroller for cancellation of the entry.
- (2) Where such an application is made and the balance paid of all renewal fees which would have been payable if the entry had not been made, the comptroller may cancel the entry, if satisfied that there is no existing licence under the patent or that all licensees under the patent consent to the application.
- (3) Within the prescribed period after an entry has been made under section 46 above in respect of a patent, any person who claims that the proprietor of the patent is, and was at the time of the entry, precluded by a contract in which the claimant is interested from granting licences under the patent may apply to the comptroller for cancellation of the entry.
- (4) Where the comptroller is satisfied, on an application under subsection (3) above, that the proprietor of the patent is and was so precluded, he shall cancel the entry; and the proprietor shall then be liable to pay, within a period specified by the comptroller, a sum equal to the balance of all renewal fees which would have been payable if the entry had not been made, and the patent shall cease to have effect at the expiration of that period if that sum is not so paid.
- (5) Where an entry is cancelled under this section, the rights and liabilities of the proprietor of the patent shall afterwards be the same as if the entry had not been made.
- (6) Where an application has been made under this section, then—
- (a) in the case of an application under subsection (1) above, any person, and
  - (b) in the case of an application under subsection (3) above, the proprietor of the patent,

Status: Point in time view as at 29/07/1999. This version of this cross heading contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

*Changes to legislation: Patents Act 1977, Cross Heading: Licences of right and compulsory licences is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 09 June 2024. may within the prescribed period give notice to the comptroller of opposition to the cancellation; and the comptroller shall, in considering the application, determine whether the opposition is justified.

[48 F<sup>3</sup> Compulsory licences: general.

- (1) At any time after the expiration of three years, or of such other period as may be prescribed, from the date of the grant of a patent, any person may apply to the comptroller on one or more of the relevant grounds—
  - (a) for a licence under the patent;
  - (b) for an entry to be made in the register to the effect that licences under the patent are to be available as of right; or
  - (c) where the applicant is a government department, for the grant to any person specified in the application of a licence under the patent.
- (2) Subject to sections 48A and 48B below, if he is satisfied that any of the relevant grounds are established, the comptroller may—
  - (a) where the application is under subsection (1)(a) above, order the grant of a licence to the applicant on such terms as the comptroller thinks fit;
  - (b) where the application is under subsection (1)(b) above, make such an entry as is there mentioned;
  - (c) where the application is under subsection (1)(c) above, order the grant of a licence to the person specified in the application on such terms as the comptroller thinks fit.
- (3) An application may be made under this section in respect of a patent even though the applicant is already the holder of a licence under the patent; and no person shall be estopped or barred from alleging any of the matters specified in the relevant grounds by reason of any admission made by him, whether in such a licence or otherwise, or by reason of his having accepted a licence.
- (4) In this section “the relevant grounds” means—
  - (a) in the case of an application made in respect of a patent whose proprietor is a WTO proprietor, the grounds set out in section 48A(1) below;
  - (b) in any other case, the grounds set out in section 48B(1) below.
- (5) A proprietor is a WTO proprietor for the purposes of this section and sections 48A, 48B, 50 and 52 below if—
  - (a) he is a national of, or is domiciled in, a country which is a member of the World Trade Organisation; or
  - (b) he has a real and effective industrial or commercial establishment in such a country.
- (6) A rule prescribing any such other period under subsection (1) above shall not be made unless a draft of the rule has been laid before, and approved by resolution of, each House of Parliament.]

[48A <sup>F4</sup>Compulsory licences: WTO proprietors.

- (1) In the case of an application made under section 48 above in respect of a patent whose proprietor is a WTO proprietor, the relevant grounds are–
  - (a) where the patented invention is a product, that a demand in the United Kingdom for that product is not being met on reasonable terms;
  - (b) that by reason of the refusal of the proprietor of the patent concerned to grant a licence or licences on reasonable terms–
    - (i) the exploitation in the United Kingdom of any other patented invention which involves an important technical advance of considerable economic significance in relation to the invention for which the patent concerned was granted is prevented or hindered, or
    - (ii) the establishment or development of commercial or industrial activities in the United Kingdom is unfairly prejudiced;
  - (c) that by reason of conditions imposed by the proprietor of the patent concerned on the grant of licences under the patent, or on the disposal or use of the patented product or on the use of the patented process, the manufacture, use or disposal of materials not protected by the patent, or the establishment or development of commercial or industrial activities in the United Kingdom, is unfairly prejudiced.
- (2) No order or entry shall be made under section 48 above in respect of a patent whose proprietor is a WTO proprietor unless–
  - (a) the applicant has made efforts to obtain a licence from the proprietor on reasonable commercial terms and conditions; and
  - (b) his efforts have not been successful within a reasonable period.
- (3) No order or entry shall be so made if the patented invention is in the field of semiconductor technology.
- (4) No order or entry shall be made under section 48 above in respect of a patent on the ground mentioned in subsection (1)(b)(i) above unless the comptroller is satisfied that the proprietor of the patent for the other invention is able and willing to grant the proprietor of the patent concerned and his licensees a licence under the patent for the other invention on reasonable terms.
- (5) A licence granted in pursuance of an order or entry so made shall not be assigned except to a person to whom the patent for the other invention is also assigned.
- (6) A licence granted in pursuance of an order or entry made under section 48 above in respect of a patent whose proprietor is a WTO proprietor–
  - (a) shall not be exclusive;
  - (b) shall not be assigned except to a person to whom there is also assigned the part of the enterprise that enjoys the use of the patented invention, or the part of the goodwill that belongs to that part;
  - (c) shall be predominantly for the supply of the market in the United Kingdom;
  - (d) shall include conditions entitling the proprietor of the patent concerned to remuneration adequate in the circumstances of the case, taking into account the economic value of the licence; and
  - (e) shall be limited in scope and in duration to the purpose for which the licence was granted.]

F4 S. 48A inserted (29.7.1999) by S.I. 1999/1899, reg. 4

[48B] <sup>F5</sup>Compulsory licences: other cases.

- (1) In the case of an application made under section 48 above in respect of a patent whose proprietor is not a WTO proprietor, the relevant grounds are—
- (a) where the patented invention is capable of being commercially worked in the United Kingdom, that it is not being so worked or is not being so worked to the fullest extent that is reasonably practicable;
  - (b) where the patented invention is a product, that a demand for the product in the United Kingdom—
    - (i) is not being met on reasonable terms, or
    - (ii) is being met to a substantial extent by importation from a country which is not a member State;
  - (c) where the patented invention is capable of being commercially worked in the United Kingdom, that it is being prevented or hindered from being so worked—
    - (i) where the invention is a product, by the importation of the product from a country which is not a member State,
    - (ii) where the invention is a process, by the importation from such a country of a product obtained directly by means of the process or to which the process has been applied;
  - (d) that by reason of the refusal of the proprietor of the patent to grant a licence or licences on reasonable terms—
    - (i) a market for the export of any patented product made in the United Kingdom is not being supplied, or
    - (ii) the working or efficient working in the United Kingdom of any other patented invention which makes a substantial contribution to the art is prevented or hindered, or
    - (iii) the establishment or development of commercial or industrial activities in the United Kingdom is unfairly prejudiced;
  - (e) that by reason of conditions imposed by the proprietor of the patent on the grant of licences under the patent, or on the disposal or use of the patented product or on the use of the patented process, the manufacture, use or disposal of materials not protected by the patent, or the establishment or development of commercial or industrial activities in the United Kingdom, is unfairly prejudiced.
- (2) Where—
- (a) an application is made on the ground that the patented invention is not being commercially worked in the United Kingdom or is not being so worked to the fullest extent that is reasonably practicable; and
  - (b) it appears to the comptroller that the time which has elapsed since the publication in the journal of a notice of the grant of the patent has for any reason been insufficient to enable the invention to be so worked,
- he may by order adjourn the application for such period as will in his opinion give sufficient time for the invention to be so worked.

- (3) No order or entry shall be made under section 48 above in respect of a patent on the ground mentioned in subsection (1)(a) above if–
  - (a) the patented invention is being commercially worked in a country which is a member State; and
  - (b) demand in the United Kingdom is being met by importation from that country.
- (4) No entry shall be made in the register under section 48 above on the ground mentioned in subsection (1)(d)(i) above, and any licence granted under section 48 above on that ground shall contain such provisions as appear to the comptroller to be expedient for restricting the countries in which any product concerned may be disposed of or used by the licensee.
- (5) No order or entry shall be made under section 48 above in respect of a patent on the ground mentioned in subsection (1)(d)(ii) above unless the comptroller is satisfied that the proprietor of the patent for the other invention is able and willing to grant to the proprietor of the patent concerned and his licensees a licence under the patent for the other invention on reasonable terms.]

49 Provisions about licences under s. 48.

- (1) Where the comptroller is satisfied, on an application made under section 48 above in respect of a patent, that the manufacture, use or disposal of materials not protected by the patent is unfairly prejudiced by reason of conditions imposed by the proprietor of the patent on the grant of licences under the patent, or on the disposal or use of the patented product or the use of the patented process, he may (subject to the provisions of that section) order the grant of licences under the patent to such customers of the applicant as he thinks fit as well as to the applicant.
- (2) Where an application under section 48 above is made in respect of a patent by a person who holds a licence under the patent, the comptroller—
  - (a) may, if he orders the grant of a licence to the applicant, order the existing licence to be cancelled, or
  - (b) may, instead of ordering the grant of a licence to the applicant, order the existing licence to be amended.
- (3) ..... <sup>F6</sup>
- (4) Section 46(4) and (5) above shall apply to a licence granted in pursuance of an order under section 48 above and to a licence granted by virtue of an entry under that section as it applies to a licence granted by virtue of an entry under section 46 above.

50 Exercise of powers on applications under s. 48.

- (1) The powers of the comptroller on an application under section 48 above in respect of a patent [<sup>F7</sup>whose proprietor is not a WTO proprietor] shall be exercised with a view to securing the following general purposes:—
- (a) that inventions which can be worked on a commercial scale in the United Kingdom and which should in the public interest be so worked shall be worked there without undue delay and to the fullest extent that is reasonably practicable;
  - (b) that the inventor or other person beneficially entitled to a patent shall receive reasonable remuneration having regard to the nature of the invention;
  - (c) that the interests of any person for the time being working or developing an invention in the United Kingdom under the protection of a patent shall not be unfairly prejudiced.
- (2) Subject to subsection (1) above, the comptroller shall, in determining whether to make an order or entry in pursuance of [<sup>F8</sup>any application under section 48 above], take account of the following matters, that is to say—
- (a) the nature of the invention, the time which has elapsed since the publication in the journal of a notice of the grant of the patent and the measures already taken by the proprietor of the patent or any licensee to make full use of the invention;
  - (b) the ability of any person to whom a licence would be granted under the order concerned to work the invention to the public advantage; and
  - (c) the risks to be undertaken by that person in providing capital and working the invention if the application for an order is granted,
- but shall not be required to take account of matters subsequent to the making of the application.
