

Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1978

1978 CHAPTER 5

An Act to consolidate, with certain exceptions, the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1973, the Northern Ireland (Young Persons) Act 1974 and the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) (Amendment) Act 1975. [23rd March 1978]

PART I

SCHEDULED OFFENCES

Preliminary enquiries, bail and young persons in custody

1 Preliminary enquiry into scheduled offences.

- (1) Where in any proceedings before a magistrates' court for a scheduled offence (not being an extra-territorial offence as defined in section 1(3) of the ^{M1}Criminal Jurisdiction Act 1975) the prosecutor requests the court to conduct a preliminary enquiry into the offence under the [^{F1M2}Magistrates' Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1981], the court shall, notwithstanding anything in [^{F2}Article 31 of that Order of 1981], conduct a preliminary enquiry into the offence unless the court is of opinion that in the interests of justice a preliminary investigation should be conducted into the offence under [^{F3}that Order of 1981].
- (2) Where in any proceedings a person charged with a scheduled offence is also charged with another offence which is not a scheduled offence, that other offence shall be treated as a scheduled offence for the purposes of subsection (1) above.

[^{F42} Limitation of power to grant bail in case of Scheduled offences.

- (1) Subject to subsection (7) below, a person to whom this section applies shall not be admitted to bail except—
 - (a) by a judge of the High Court or the Court of Appeal; or
 - (b) by the judge of the court of trial, on adjourning the trial of a person charged with a scheduled offence.
- (2) A judge may, in his discretion, admit to bail in pursuance of subsection (1) above a person to whom this section applies except where he is satisfied that there are substantial grounds for believing that that person, if released on bail (whether subject to conditions or not), would—
 - (a) fail to surrender to custody, or
 - (b) commit an offence while on bail, or
 - (c) interfere with any witness, or
 - (d) otherwise obstruct or attempt to obstruct the course of justice, whether in relation to himself or in relation to any other person, or, if released subject to conditions, would fail to comply with all or any of those conditions.
- (3) In exercising his discretion in accordance with subsection (2) above in relation to a person, a judge shall have regard to such of the following considerations as appear to him to be relevant, namely—
 - (a) the nature and seriousness of the offence with which the person is charged,
 - (b) the character, antecedents, associations and community ties of the person,
 - (c) the time which the person has already spent in custody and the time which he is likely to spend in custody if he is not admitted to bail, and
 - (d) the strength of the evidence of his having committed the offence, as well as to any others which appear to be relevant.
- (4) Without prejudice to any other power to impose conditions on admission to bail, a judge may impose such conditions on admitting a person to bail under this section as appear to him to be likely to result in that person's appearance at the time and place required, or to be necessary in the interests of justice or for the prevention of crime.
- (5) This section applies, subject to subsection (6) below, to any person—
 - (a) who is charged with a scheduled offence; and
 - (b) who has attained the age of fourteen.
- (6) This section does not apply to a person charged with a scheduled offence—
 - (a) which is being tried summarily, or
 - (b) which the Director of Public Prosecutions for Northern Ireland certifies is in his opinion suitable to be tried summarily.
- (7) Subsection (1) above shall not preclude a resident magistrate from admitting to bail a person to whom this section applies if—

3 Legal aid to applicants for bail in case of scheduled offences.

- (1) Where it appears to a judge [^{F5}of the High Court or the Court of Appeal]—
 - (a) that a person charged with a scheduled offence intends to apply to be admitted to bail; and
 - (b) that it is desirable in the interests of justice that that person should have legal aid but that he has not sufficient means to enable him to obtain that aid,the judge may assign to him a solicitor and counsel, or counsel only, in the application for bail.
- (2) If, on a question of granting a person free legal aid under this section, there is a doubt whether his means are sufficient to enable him to obtain legal aid or whether it is desirable in the interests of justice that he should have free legal aid, the doubt shall be resolved in favour of granting him free legal aid.
- (3) [^{F6}Articles 32, 36 and 40 of the ^{M3}Legal Aid, Advice and Assistance (Northern Ireland) Order 1981] (statements, payments, rules and stamp duty) shall apply in relation to legal aid under this section as they apply in relation to legal aid under [^{F6}Part III of that Order] as if any legal aid under this section were given in pursuance of a criminal aid certificate under [^{F6}Article 29 of that Order].

4 Holding in custody of young persons charged with scheduled offences.

- (1) Where a person to whom this section applies has been remanded or committed for trial as respects a scheduled offence and is not released on bail, he may—
 - (a) notwithstanding the provisions of any enactment, and
 - (b) whether or not he was remanded or committed for trial at a time when this section was not in force, be held in custody in such prison or other place as may be specified in a direction given by the Secretary of State under this section (in this section and section 5 below referred to as “a direction”).
- (2) The Secretary of State may give a direction in respect of a person to whom this section applies if he considers that it is necessary, in order to prevent his escape or to ensure his safety or the safety of others, to make special arrangements as to the place at which that person is to be held in custody while on remand or while committed for trial.
- (3) A direction may be given by the Secretary of State at any time after the young person to whom it relates has been charged with a scheduled offence, and may be varied or revoked by a further direction.
- (4) This section applies to any young person charged with a scheduled offence.
- (5) In this section “young person” means a person who has attained the age of 14 and is under the age of 17.

5 Directions under s. 4.

- (1) A direction shall, if it has not previously ceased to have effect, cease to have effect at the expiration of such period as may be specified in the direction (being a period not exceeding two months beginning with the date of the direction), unless continued in force by a further direction.
- (2) Where, by virtue of a direction, a young person is held in custody in a prison or other place and the direction ceases to have effect (whether or not by reason of the expiry or cesser of section 4 above) it shall be lawful for him to continue to be held in custody in that prison or place until arrangements can be made for him to be held in custody in accordance with the law then applicable to his case.
- (3) Nothing in subsection (2) above shall be taken to make lawful the holding in custody of any person who would, disregarding that subsection, be entitled to be released from custody.

[^{F8} Time limits on preliminary proceedings]

Textual Amendments

F8 S. 5A inserted by Northern Ireland \(Emergency Provisions\) Act 1987 \(c. 30, SIF 39:1\), s. 3

5A Power of Secretary of State to set time limits in relation to preliminary proceedings for scheduled offences.

- (1) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision, with respect to any specified preliminary stage of proceedings for a Scheduled offence, as to the maximum period—
- (a) to be allowed to the prosecution to complete that stage;
 - (b) during which the accused may, while awaiting completion of that stage, be—
 - (i) in the custody of a magistrates, court; or
 - (ii) in the custody of the Crown Court,in relation to that offence.
- (2) The regulations may, in particular—
- (a) provide for—
 - (i) the ^{M5}Magistrates' Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1981,
 - (ii) section 2 above, or
 - (iii) any other enactment, or any rule of law, relating to bail,to apply in relation to cases to which custody or overall time limits apply subject to such modifications as may be specified (being modifications which the Secretary of State considers necessary in consequence of any provision made by the regulations);
 - (b) provide for time limits imposed by the regulations to cease to have effect in cases where, after the institution of proceedings for a scheduled offence, the Attorney General for Northern Ireland has certified that the offence in question is not to be treated as a scheduled offence;
 - (c) makes such provision with respect to the procedure to be followed in criminal proceedings as the Secretary of State considers appropriate in consequence of any other provision of the regulations; and
 - (d) make such transitional provision in relation to proceedings instituted before the commencement of any provision of the regulations as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.
- (3) Where separate counts of an indictment allege a scheduled offence and an offence which is not a scheduled offence, then (subject to, and in accordance with, the provisions of the regulations) the regulations shall have effect in relation to the latter offence as if it were a scheduled offence.
- (4) The Crown Court may, at any time before the expiry of a time limit imposed by the regulations, extend, or further extend, that limit if it is satisfied—
- (a) that there is good and sufficient cause for doing so; and
 - (b) that the prosecution has acted with all due expedition.
- (5) Where, in relation to any proceedings for a relevant offence, an overall time limit has expired before the completion of the stage of the proceedings to which the limit applies, the accused shall be treated, for all purposes, as having been acquitted of that offence.

(6) Where—

- (a) a person escapes from the custody of a magistrates' court or of the Crown Court before the expiry of a custody time limit which applies in his case; or
- (b) a person who has been released on bail in consequence of the expiry of a custody time limit—
 - (i) fails to surrender himself into the custody of the court at the appointed time; or
 - (ii) is arrested by a constable in connection with any breach, or apprehended breach, of any condition of his bail, the regulations shall, so far as they provide for any custody time limit in relation to the preliminary stage in question, be disregarded.

(7) Where—

- (a) a person escapes from the custody of a magistrates' court or of the Crown Court; or
- (b) a person who has been released on bail fails to surrender himself into the custody of the court at the appointed time, the overall time limit which applies in his case in relation to the stage which the proceedings have reached at the time of the escape or, as the case may be, at the appointed time shall, so far as the relevant offence in question is concerned, cease to have effect.

(8) Where a person is convicted of a relevant offence in any proceedings, the exercise, in relation to any preliminary stage of those proceedings, of the power conferred by subsection (4) above shall not be called into question on any appeal against that conviction.

(9) In this section—

“custody of the Crown Court” includes custody to which a person is committed in pursuance of—

- (a) Article 37 or 40(4) of the ^{M6}Magistrates' Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1981 (magistrates' court committing accused for trial); or
- (b) section 51(8) of the ^{M7}Judicature (Northern Ireland) Act 1978 (magistrates' court dealing with a person brought before it following his arrest in pursuance of a warrant issued by the Crown Court);

“custody of a magistrates' court” means custody to which a person is committed in pursuance of Article 47 or 49 of the Magistrates' Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1981 (remand);

“custody time limit” means a time limit imposed by the regulations in pursuance of subsection (1)(b) above or, where any such limit has been extended by the Crown Court under subsection (4) above, the limit as so extended;

“preliminary stage”, in relation to any proceedings, does not include any stage of the proceedings after the accused has been arraigned in the Crown Court or, in the case of a summary trial, the magistrates' court has begun to hear evidence for the prosecution at the trial;

“overall time limit” means a time limit imposed by the regulations in pursuance of subsection (1)(a) above or, where any such limit has been extended by the Crown Court under subsection (4) above, the limit as so extended;

“relevant offence” means—

- (a) a scheduled offence, or
- (b) an offence in relation to which the regulations have effect in accordance with subsection (3) above; and “specified” means specified in the regulations.

(10) For the purposes of the application of any custody time limit in relation to a person who is in the custody of a magistrates’ court or of the Crown Court—

- (a) all periods during which he is in the custody of the magistrates’ court in respect of the same offence shall be aggregated and treated as a single continuous period; and
- (b) all periods during which he is in the custody of the Crown Court in respect of the same offence shall be aggregated and treated similarly.

Court and mode of trial

[^{F9}6 Court for trial of scheduled offences.

(1) A trial on indictment of a scheduled offence shall be held only at the Crown Court sitting in Belfast, unless the Lord Chancellor after consultation with the Lord Chief Justice of Northern Ireland directs in any particular case that such a trial shall be held at the Crown Court sitting elsewhere.

(2) A person committed for trial for a scheduled offence, or for two or more offences at least one of which is a scheduled offence, shall be committed—

- (a) to the Crown Court sitting in Belfast, or
- (b) where the Lord Chancellor has given a direction under subsection (1) above with respect to the trial, to the Crown Court sitting at the place specified in the direction; and section 48 of the ^{M8}Judicature (Northern Ireland) Act 1978 (committal for trial on indictment) shall have effect accordingly.

(3) Where—

- (a) in accordance with subsection (2) above any person is committed for trial to the Crown Court sitting in Belfast, and
- (b) a direction is subsequently given by the Lord Chancellor under subsection (1) above altering the place of trial, that person shall be treated as having been committed for trial to the Crown Court sitting at the place specified in the direction.]

7 Mode of trial on indictment of scheduled offences.

- (1) A trial on indictment of a scheduled offence shall be conducted by the court without a jury.
- (2) The court trying a scheduled offence on indictment under this section shall have all the powers, authorities and jurisdiction which the court would have had if it had been sitting with a jury, including power to determine any question and to make any finding which would, apart from this section, be required to be determined or made by a jury, and references in any enactment to a jury or the verdict or finding of a jury shall be construed accordingly in relation to a trial under this section.
- (3) Where separate counts of an indictment allege a scheduled offence and an offence which is not a scheduled offence, the trial on indictment shall, without prejudice to section 5 of the ^{M9}Indictments Act (Northern Ireland) 1945 (orders for amendment of indictment, separate trial and postponement of trial), be conducted as if all the offences alleged in the indictment were scheduled offences.
- (4) Without prejudice to subsection (2) above, where the court trying a scheduled offence on indictment—
 - (a) is not satisfied that the accused is guilty of that offence, but
 - (b) is satisfied that he is guilty of some other offence which is not a scheduled offence, but of which a jury could have found him guilty on a trial for the scheduled offence, the court may convict him of that other offence.
- (5) Where the court trying a scheduled offence convicts the accused of that or some other offence, then, without prejudice to its power apart from this subsection to give a judgment, it shall, at the time of conviction or as soon as practicable thereafter, give a judgment stating the reasons for the conviction.
- (6) A person convicted of any offence on a trial under this section without a jury may, notwithstanding anything in [^{F10}sections 1 and 10(1) of the ^{M10}Criminal Appeal (Northern Ireland) Act 1980 appeal to the Court of Appeal under Part I of that Act]—
 - (a) against his conviction, on any ground, without the leave of the [^{F11}Court of Appeal] or a certificate of the judge of the court of trial; and
 - (b) against sentence passed on conviction, without that leave, unless the sentence is one fixed by law.
- (7) Where a person is so convicted, the time for giving notice of appeal under subsection (1) of [^{F12}section 16 of that Act of 1980] shall run from the date of judgment, if later than the date from which it would run under that subsection.

Evidence, onus of proof and treatment of convicted young persons

[^{F13}8 Admissions by persons charged with scheduled offences.

- (1) In any criminal proceedings for a scheduled offence, or for two or more offences at least one of which is a scheduled offence, a statement made by the accused may be given in evidence by the prosecution in so far as—
- it is relevant to any matter in issue in the proceedings, and
 - it is not excluded by the court in pursuance of subsection (2) below or in the exercise of its discretion referred to in subsection (3) below (and has not been rendered inadmissible by virtue of such a direction as is mentioned in subsection (2)(iii) below.)
- (2) Where in any such proceedings—
- the prosecution proposes to give, or (as the case may be) has given, in evidence a statement made by the accused, and
 - prima facie evidence is adduced that the accused was subjected to torture, to inhuman or degrading treatment, or to any violence or threat of violence (whether or not amounting to torture), in order to induce him to make the statement,
- then, unless the prosecution satisfies the court that the statement was not obtained by so subjecting the accused in the manner indicated by that evidence, the court shall do one of the the following things, namely—
- in the case of a statement proposed in evidence, exclude the statement;
 - in the case of a statement already received in evidence, continue the trial disregarding the statement; or
 - in either case, direct that the trial shall be restarted before a differently constituted court (before which the statement in question shall be inadmissible).
- (3) It is hereby declared that, in the case of any statement made by the accused and not obtained by so subjecting him as mentioned in subsection (2)(b) above, the court in any such proceedings as are mentioned in subsection (1) above has a discretion to do one of the things mentioned in subsection (2)(i) to (iii) above if it appears to the court that it is appropriate to do so in order to avoid unfairness to the accused or otherwise in the interests of justice.

- (3) In subsection (2) above “the relevant date”, in relation to any such act as is there mentioned, means—
 - (a) where the act was done before the date of the coming into force of section 12 of the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1987, that date, and
 - (b) in any other case, the date when the act was done.
- (4) Where the Secretary of State refuses any request made to him for the purposes of subsection (2)(b) above, he shall serve a notice of his refusal on the person who made the request, and that person may, within the period of six weeks beginning with the date of service of the notice, appeal to the county court against that refusal.
- (5) Where the Secretary of State has determined any application for compensation made in accordance with subsection (2) above, he shall serve on the applicant either—
 - (a) a notice stating that he has decided to award the applicant compensation in pursuance of his application and specifying the amount of the award, or
 - (b) a notice stating that he has decided to refuse the application;and the applicant may within the period of six weeks beginning with the date of service of the notice appeal to the county court against the decision of the Secretary of State to pay the amount of compensation specified in the notice or (as the case may be) to refuse the application (and unless he so appeals within that period that decision shall become in all respects final and binding).

- (6) Any notice served under subsection (4) or (5) above shall contain particulars of the right to make an appeal under that subsection and, in the case of a notice served under subsection (5), of the consequences of a failure to exercise that right.
- (7) Where—
- (a) a person having a right to compensation under this section has made an application in accordance with subsection (2) above, and
 - (b) by virtue of any assignment or operation of law that right has passed to any other person,
- that other person (or, if he is subject to any legal disability, the person appearing to the Secretary of State to be entitled to act on his behalf) may be treated by the Secretary of State as the applicant for the purposes of any provision of this section.
- (8) Where—
- (a) a person has a right to compensation in respect of any act falling within subsection (1) above, and
 - (b) the act was done in connection with, or revealed evidence of the commission of—
 - (i) a scheduled offence, or
 - (ii) an offence under this Act (other than a scheduled offence), and
 - (c) proceedings for that offence are brought against that person,
- his right to such compensation shall not be enforceable at any time when any such proceedings have not been concluded, or if he is convicted of the offence.]

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C8 Sch. 1 expired with 24.7.1980 by virtue of s. 33(2) and S.I. 1979/1683: Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1987 (c. 30, SIF 39:2), s.13(5)

Advisers

- 1 The Secretary of State shall for the purposes of this Act appoint such number of Advisers as he may determine to advise him on matters concerning the detention and release of terrorists.
- 2 An Adviser shall be a person who holds or has held judicial office in any part of the United Kingdom or is a barrister, advocate or solicitor, in each case of not less than ten years' standing in any part of the United Kingdom.
 - (1) An Adviser shall hold and vacate his office in accordance with the terms of his appointment and shall, on ceasing to hold office, be eligible for reappointment.
 - (2) An Adviser may at any time by notice in writing to the Secretary of State resign his office.
 - (3) The Secretary of State may pay to the Advisers such remuneration and allowances as he may determine.

Interim Custody Orders

 - (1) Where it appears to the Secretary of State that there are grounds for suspecting that a person has been concerned—
 - (a) in the commission or attempted commission of any act of terrorism; or
 - (b) in directing, organising or training persons for the purpose of terrorism,the Secretary of State may make an interim custody order for the temporary detention of that person.
 - (2) An interim custody order shall be signed by the Secretary of State or a Minister of State or Under Secretary of State.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1978 (Repealed 27.8.1991). (See end of Document for details)

- 5
- (1) The Secretary of State may, at any time before the expiration of the period of fourteen days following the date of an interim custody order, refer the case to an Adviser and, unless the case is so referred, the order shall cease to have effect at the expiration of that period.
 - (2) A reference to an Adviser under this paragraph shall be by notice in writing signed on behalf of the Secretary of State and a copy of the notice shall be sent to the person detained.

Reference to an Adviser

- (1) As soon as possible after a case is referred to an Adviser under paragraph 5 above, the person detained shall be served with a statement in writing as to the nature of the terrorist activities of which he is suspected.
 - (2) A person detained may, within seven days following the date on which he receives any such statement as is mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) above, send to the Secretary of State—
 - (a) written representations concerning his case; and
 - (b) a written request that he be seen personally by an Adviser;and the Secretary of State shall send a copy of such representations or request to the Adviser concerned.
 - (3) The Secretary of State may pay any reasonable costs or expenses incurred by a person detained in obtaining legal advice or legal assistance in connection with the preparation of any representations he may make concerning his case.
- 7
- (1) Where the case of a person detained under an interim custody order is referred to an Adviser, he shall consider it and report to the Secretary of State whether or not in his opinion—
 - (a) the person detained has been concerned in terrorist activities; and
 - (b) the detention of that person is necessary for the protection of the public.
 - (2) In considering any case referred to him an Adviser shall have regard to any information (whether oral or in writing) which is made available to, or obtained by, him and to any representations (whether oral or in writing) made by the person detained.
 - (3) No person shall be present during the consideration by an Adviser of the case of any person referred to him, except—
 - (a) any person who for the time being is being seen by the Adviser;
 - (b) any assistant to the Adviser; and
 - (c) any person who is present in the interests of security.
 - (4) The Secretary of State may, at the request of an Adviser, pay any reasonable expenses incurred by any person in connection with a reference to the Adviser.

Detention Orders

- 8 (1) After receiving a report made by an Adviser under paragraph 7(1) above, the Secretary of State shall consider the case of the person to whom it relates and, if he is satisfied—
- (a) that that person has been concerned in the commission or attempted commission of any act of terrorism, or in directing, organising or training persons for the purpose of terrorism; and
 - (b) that the detention of that person is necessary for the protection of the public, the Secretary of State may make a detention order for the detention of that person.
- (2) If, on considering any case under sub-paragraph (1) above, the Secretary of State is not satisfied as mentioned in that sub-paragraph, he shall direct the release of the person concerned.
- (3) Subject to sub-paragraphs (4) and (5) below, where—
- (a) a person is detained under an interim custody order; and
 - (b) a detention order is not made in respect of that person within the period of seven weeks following the date of the interim custody order,
- the interim custody order shall cease to have effect.
- (4) The Secretary of State may, where a person is required to be detained under an interim custody order, give a direction in writing extending the period of seven weeks mentioned in sub-paragraph (3) above (or that period as extended under this sub-paragraph) for a further period of one week if it is stated in the direction that the report of the Adviser in relation to that person's case has not been received before the sixth day immediately preceding the day on which the interim custody order would, but for the direction, cease to have effect.
- (5) Not more than three directions under sub-paragraph (4) above shall be given in respect of any one interim custody order.
- (6) A detention order shall be signed by the Secretary of State, and a direction under sub-paragraph (4) above shall be signed by the Secretary of State or a Minister of State or Under Secretary of State.

Supplemental

- 9 (1) The Secretary of State may at any time refer the case of a person detained under a detention order to an Adviser and if so requested in writing in accordance with sub-paragraph (2) below by a person so detained, shall do so within fourteen days beginning with the receipt of the request.
- (2) A person detained under a detention order shall not be entitled to make a request for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) above—
- (a) before the expiration of the period of one year beginning with the date of the detention order; or
 - (b) within a period of six months from the date of the last notification under sub-paragraph (5) below.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1978 (Repealed 27.8.1991). (See end of Document for details)

- (3) On any reference under this paragraph, an Adviser shall consider the case and report to the Secretary of State whether or not the person's continued detention is necessary for the protection of the public.
- (4) Paragraphs 6(3) and 7(2) to (4) above shall apply for the purposes of a reference under this paragraph as they apply for the purposes of a reference under paragraph 5 above.
- (5) Where a case is referred to an Adviser in consequence of a request made in accordance with this paragraph, the Secretary of State shall, after receiving the report of the Adviser, reconsider the case of the person to whom it relates and, if he decides not to release that person, shall notify him of his decision.
- (6) A notification under sub-paragraph (5) above shall be by notice in writing and signed by the Secretary of State.
- 10 (1) The Secretary of State may, as respects a person detained under an interim custody order—
- (a) direct his discharge unconditionally; or
 - (b) direct his release (whether or not subject to conditions) for a specified period.
- (2) The Secretary of State may, as respects a person detained under a detention order,—
- (a) direct his discharge unconditionally; or
 - (b) direct his release subject to conditions or for a specified period, or both.
- (3) The Secretary of State may recall to detention a person released under sub-paragraph (1)(b) or (2)(b) above and a person so recalled may be detained under the original interim custody or detention order, as the case may be.
- (4) Where a person is released under sub-paragraph (1)(b) above, any period during which he is not in detention shall be left out of account for the purposes of paragraphs 5(1), 6(2) and 8(3) above.
- 11 (1) A person required to be detained under an interim custody order or a detention order may be detained in a prison or in some other place approved for the purposes of this paragraph by the Secretary of State.
- (2) A person for the time being having custody of a person required to be detained as aforesaid shall have all the powers, authorities, protection and privileges of a constable.
- (3) Subject to any directions of the Secretary of State, a person required to be detained as aforesaid shall be treated as nearly as may be as if he were a prisoner detained in a prison on remand and any power of temporary removal for judicial, medical or other purposes shall apply accordingly.
- (4) A person required to be detained as aforesaid who is unlawfully at large may be arrested without warrant by any constable or any member of Her Majesty's forces on duty.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Northern Ireland (Emergency Provisions) Act 1978 (Repealed 27.8.1991). (See end of Document for details)

- 12 Where a person required to be detained under an interim custody order is unlawfully at large, the interim custody order shall not cease to have effect under paragraph 5 or 8 above while he remains at large; and, upon his being taken again into custody, those paragraphs shall have effect as if the date of the interim custody order were that of his being taken again into custody.
- 13 Any person who—
- (a) being detained under an interim custody order or detention order, escapes;
 - (b) rescues any person detained as aforesaid, or assists a person so detained in escaping or attempting to escape;
 - (c) fails to return to detention at the expiration of a period for which he was released under paragraph 10(1)(b) or (2)(b) above; or
 - (d) knowingly harbours any person required to be detained under an interim custody order or detention order, or gives him any assistance with intent to prevent, hinder or interfere with his being taken into custody,
- shall be liable on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to a fine, or to both.
