

Pneumoconiosis etc. (Workers' Compensation) Act 1979

1979 CHAPTER 41

2 Conditions of entitlement.

- (1) In the case of a person who is disabled by a disease to which this Act applies, the conditions of entitlement are—
- (a) that disablement benefit is payable to him in respect of the disease [^{F1}or, subject to subsection (3A) below, would be payable to him in respect of it but for his disablement amounting to less than the appropriate percentage];
 - (b) that every relevant employer of his has ceased to carry on business;
 - [^{F2}(ba) that no application has been made for a payment under the Diffuse Mesothelioma Payment Scheme in respect of the disease (for the scheme, see the Mesothelioma Act 2014);] and
 - (c) that he has not brought any action, or compromised any claim, for damages in respect of the disablement.
- (2) In the case of the dependant of a person who, immediately before he died, was disabled by a disease to which this Act applies, the conditions of entitlement are—
- (a) that no payment under this Act has been made to the deceased in respect of the disease;
 - (b) that death benefit is payable to or in respect of the dependant by reason of the deceased's death as a result of the disease, or that disablement benefit was payable to the deceased in respect of the disease immediately before he died [^{F3}or, subject to subsection (3A) below, would have been so payable to him—
 - (i) but for his disablement amounting to less than the appropriate percentage; or
 - (ii) but for his not having claimed the benefit; or
 - (iii) but for his having died before he had suffered from the disease for the appropriate period];
 - (c) that every relevant employer of the deceased has ceased to carry on business;
