

Social Security Act 1980

1980 CHAPTER 30

Commissioners

12 Change of title of National Insurance Commissioners.

National Insurance Commissioners shall, instead of being so called, be called Social Security Commissioners; and accordingly—

- (a) any enactment or instrument passed or made before the coming into force of this section shall have effect, so far as may be necessary in consequence of the change of title made by this section, as if for any reference to a Chief or other National Insurance Commissioner there were substituted respectively a reference to a Chief or other Social Security Commissioner; and
- (b) documents and forms printed or duplicated for use in connection with functions of National Insurance Commissioners may be used notwithstanding that they contain references to such Commissioners and those references shall be construed as references to Social Security Commissioners.
