the age of five years on or before the next following appropriate latest date fixed in respect of the school commencement date, has attained the age of five years on the school commencement date; but nothing in this subsection or in subsection (4) above shall, in respect of a child under school age,—

- (a) impose any duty on his parent; or
- (b) require an education authority to take any action under section 36 or 37 of this Act.

- (7) The period between an appropriate latest date applicable to a school and the next following school commencement date applicable to that school (whether or not the school commencement date is that in respect of which the appropriate latest date is fixed) shall not, except with the approval of the Secretary of State on an application to him by the education authority, exceed six months by more than seven days:

Provided that no such application shall be made, nor approval given, in respect of any such period which commences after 31st December 1979.

- (8) In relation to any child, “school commencement date”—

- (a) in subsection (3) above—
 - (i) means, where the child is a pupil in attendance at a primary school, a school commencement date of that school;
 - (ii) in any other case has the same meaning as in subsection (6) above;
- (b) in subsection (6) above means a school commencement date of the public primary school to which a child of his religious denomination and from his place of residence would normally be admitted.

- (9) In this section, “primary school” does not include a nursery school or a nursery class.

33 School leaving dates.

- (1) The last day of May (hereinafter referred to as the “summer leaving date”) and the appropriate day in December (hereinafter referred to as the “winter leaving date”) shall be the school leaving dates in each year.

- (2) Subject to subsection (4) below, for the purposes of section 31 of this Act a person shall, if the date of his attaining the age of sixteen years is—

- (a) on or after 1st March but before the next summer leaving date, be deemed not to have attained that age until the summer leaving date;
- (b) after the summer leaving date but before 1st October next following that date, be deemed to have attained that age on the summer leaving date;
- (c) on or after 1st October but before the next winter leaving date, be deemed not to have attained that age until the winter leaving date;
- (d) after the winter leaving date but before 1st March next following that date, be deemed to have attained that age on the winter leaving date.

- (3) In subsection (1) above, “the appropriate day in December” means—

- (a) in the case of a person who is a pupil in attendance at a school, the first day of the Christmas holiday period;
- (b) in any other case, 21st December, and in paragraph (a) of this subsection, “Christmas holiday period” means a period of consecutive days which includes 25th December and in which the school does not meet for the purpose of providing school education.
