1980 CHAPTER 44

PART III

ADMINISTRATION AND FINANCE

Central administration

66 Inspection of educational establishments.

(1) The Secretary of State shall have power to cause inspection to be made of every [^{F1}school] at such intervals as appear to him to be appropriate, and to cause a special inspection of any [^{F2}school] to be made whenever he considers such an inspection to be desirable, and he may from time to time cause inspection to be made of any other educational establishment [^{F3}(other than a designated institution within the meaning of Part II of the Further and Higher Education (Scotland) Act 1992)], and such inspections shall be made by Her Majesty's Inspectors or other persons appointed by the Secretary of State for the purpose.

[^{F4}(1A) Without prejudice to subsection (1) above, the Secretary of State shall have power to cause inspection to be made at premises where education is provided or proposed to be provided by a person to whom the Secretary of State has power to make a grant in pursuance of section 23 of the Education (Scotland) Act 1996, and such inspections shall be made by Her Majesty's Inspectors or other persons appointed by the Secretary of State for the purpose.]

[^{F5}(1B) Notwithstanding subsection (1) above, the Secretary of State shall have power to cause inspection to be made of the education and training, wherever it is carried out, provided by institutions within the higher education sector (within the meaning of the ^{M1}Further and Higher Education (Scotland) Act 1992) wholly or mainly for persons preparing to be, or persons who are, teachers in schools, and such inspections shall be made by Her Majesty's Inspectors or other persons appointed by the Secretary of State for the purpose.]

[^{F26}75A Assisted places at grant-aided and independent schools.

- (1) [^{F27}The Secretary of State shall, subject to subsections (1A) and (1B) below,] operate a scheme whereby—
- (a) participating schools remit fees that would otherwise be chargeable in respect of pupils admitted to assisted places under the scheme; and
 - (b) the Secretary of State reimburses the schools for the fees that are remitted.

[^{F28}(1A) The Secretary of State shall operate a scheme such as is described in subsection (1) above only in relation to any pupil admitted to an assisted place under such a scheme prior to the beginning of the first term of the 1997-98 school year where the pupil will be in attendance at the school concerned—

- (a) at the beginning of that term; or
- (b) after the beginning of that term but before the end of that school year, and where it appears to the Secretary of State that it is reasonable, in view of any particular circumstances relating to that pupil, that he should be permitted to take advantage of that place after the beginning of that term, and, for the purposes of this section, “1997-98 school year” means the period of twelve months beginning on 1st August 1997.

- (1B) A pupil holding an assisted place who is receiving primary education during the 1997-98 school year shall cease to hold that place—
- (a) at the end of the school year in which he completes his primary education; or
 - (b) if the Secretary of State, where he is satisfied that it is reasonable to do so in view of any particular circumstances relating to that pupil, decides that he should continue to hold that place for a further period during which he receives secondary education, at the end of that period.]

[In this section references to a participating school are references to any grant-aided^{F29}(2) or independent school providing secondary education which the Secretary of State has determined, prior to the coming into force of this subsection, to be a participating school for the purposes of the scheme.]

(3) A determination under subsection (2) above—

- (a) shall state the maximum annual amount allocated by the Secretary of State to the school under the scheme including the maximum annual amount so allocated for the purposes of section 75B of this Act; and
- (b) may contain such conditions as the Secretary of State thinks fit in addition to those prescribed under subsection (9) below.

[The Secretary of State may alter—

^{F30}(4) (a) the maximum annual amount referred to in subsection (3)(a) above; or
(b) the conditions referred to in subsection (3)(b) above,
by written notification to the school concerned.]

(5) A participating school shall comply with any conditions contained in a determination under subsection (2) above and with any condition or obligation prescribed under subsection (9) below.

^{F31}(6)

(7) The fees in relation to which the scheme is to have effect shall be—

- (a) tuition and other fees the payment of which is a condition of attendance at a participating school but excluding—
 - (i) boarding fees; and
 - (ii) such other charges, if any, as may be prescribed by regulations; and
- (b) entrance fees for public examinations paid by a participating school in respect of candidates from the school.

(8) If the Secretary of State is of the opinion that any fee which falls to be remitted in whole or in part under a scheme established and operated under this section is excessive, he may substitute for such fee such other amount as he considers appropriate.

(9) The Secretary of State shall by regulations prescribe—

- ^{F32}(a)
- ^{F32}(b)
- (c) the conditions subject to which, the extent to which, and the arrangements in accordance with which, fees are to be remitted by participating schools;
- (d) the time and manner in which participating schools are to claim and receive reimbursements from the Secretary of State;
- (e) conditions to be complied with by participating schools with respect to^{F33} . . . the fees to be charged, the keeping and auditing of accounts and the furnishing of information to the Secretary of State; and
- (f) such other matters as appear to him to be requisite for the purposes of the scheme.

Local administration

79 Education authorities may receive and administer bequests.

Every education authority shall be at liberty to accept any bequest or gift of property or funds for behoof of any school or other educational establishment under their management, whether generally or for the promotion of any particular branch or branches of education or instruction, or for increasing the income of any teacher, and it shall be the duty of the authority to administer such property, funds or money according to the wishes and intentions of the donors, and in such manner as to raise the standard of education and otherwise increase the educational efficiency of the school or other educational establishment intended to be benefitted.

80 Funds for behalf of public schools etc., to be transferred to education authorities.

- (1) Where property or money has been or shall be vested in any persons as trustees for behoof of a public school or other educational establishment under the management of an education authority, or for the promotion of any branch of education in such school or educational establishment, or to increase the income of any teacher therein, the free income of such property or money shall be accounted for and paid to the education authority, and shall be applied and administered by the education authority according to the trusts attaching thereto.
- (2) It shall be lawful for the education authority, with the approval of the Secretary of State, to vary or depart from the said trusts, with a view to increasing the efficiency of the school or educational establishment by raising the standard of education therein or by other means.

81 Trust funds to be kept separate.

The amount of every property or fund held by an education authority on a separate trust shall be kept separate.

82 Reports by education authorities.

Every education authority shall make such reports and returns and give such information to the Secretary of State as he may from time to time require.

83 Returns by registrars of births, deaths, and marriages to education authorities.

Every registrar of births, deaths, and marriages shall make to an education authority on a form to be provided by the authority such returns of particulars with regard to the births and deaths of children registered by him as may be required by the authority with the approval of the Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages in Scotland.

84 Certificates of birth.

- (1) Where the age of any person is required to be ascertained or proved for the purposes of this Act or of any enactment relating to the employment of children or young persons, the registrar of births, deaths and marriages having the custody of the register of births containing the entry relating to the birth of that person shall, upon being presented by any person with a written requisition in such form and containing such particulars as
