6 Duty of authority to provide supply.

- (1) It shall be the duty of [^{F4}Scottish Water] to provide a supply of wholesome water to every part of [^{F5}its] limits of supply where a supply of water is required for domestic purposes and can be provided at a reasonable cost.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), [^{F6}Scottish Water] shall provide a supply of wholesome water in pipes to every part of [^{F7}its] limits of supply where a supply of water is required for domestic purposes and shall take the pipes affording that supply to such point or points as will enable the buildings for which a supply is required for domestic purposes to be connected thereto at a reasonable cost; but this subsection shall not require [^{F8}Scottish Water] to do anything which is not practicable at a reasonable cost or to provide such a supply to any part of [^{F7}its] limits of supply where such a supply is already available at such point or points.
- (3) If any question arises under this section as to—
- whether a supply of water can be provided at a reasonable cost, or
 - whether anything is or is not practicable at a reasonable cost, or
 - the point or points to which pipes must be taken in order to enable buildings to be connected therewith at a reasonable cost,
- the Secretary of State, if requested to do so by [^{F9}any person aggrieved], shall, after [^{F9}consultation with that person and with [^{F10}Scottish Water]], determine that question and [^{F11}Scottish Water] shall give effect to his determination.
- (4) [^{F12}Scottish Water] shall also provide a supply of water for the purpose of complying with any other obligation imposed on [^{F13}it] by this Act and may, if [^{F14}it thinks] fit, provide a supply to enable [^{F15}it] to exercise any of the powers conferred on [^{F15}it] by this Act or for any other purpose which [^{F16}it considers] is in the interests of the area comprising [^{F17}its] limits of supply.
- [^{F18}(5) The duties imposed by subsections (1), (2) and (4) shall not require Scottish Water to do anything which is prejudicial to its compliance with—
- any directions given to it under section 56 of the Water Industry (Scotland) Act 2002 (asp 3) so far as setting objectives of a type referred to in section 56A of that Act, or
 - a statement of policy issued under section 29D of that Act.]

7 Supply of water for domestic purposes.

- (1) In this Act a supply of water for domestic purposes means a sufficient supply for drinking, washing, cooking, central heating and sanitary purposes but not for any bath having a capacity in excess of 100 gallons, and includes—
- a supply for the purposes of any profession carried on in any premises the greater part of which is used as a house; and
 - where the water is drawn from a tap inside a house and no hosepipe or similar apparatus is used, a supply for watering a garden, for horses kept for private use and for washing vehicles kept for private use.
- (2) A supply of water under subsection (1) does not include a supply of water for the business of a laundry, or any business of preparing food or beverages for consumption otherwise than on the premises.
- (3) “Domestic purposes” in any local enactment relating to the supply of water shall be construed in accordance with sub-sections (1) and (2).

8 Water supplied for domestic purposes to be wholesome.

[^{F19}Scottish Water] shall provide in [^{F20}its] mains and communication pipes a supply of wholesome water sufficient for the domestic purposes of all owners and occupiers of premises within [^{F20}its] limits of supply who are entitled to a supply for those purposes.

9 Supply of water for non-domestic purposes.

- (1) Subject to the following provisions of this Act, [^{F21}Scottish Water] shall give a supply of water on reasonable terms and conditions for purposes other than domestic purposes to the owner or occupier of any premises within [^{F22}its] limits of supply who requests [^{F23}it] to give such a supply to those premises.
- (2) [^{F24}Scottish Water] shall not be required to give a supply of water in accordance with subsection (1) if [^{F25}its] ability to meet existing obligations to supply water for any purposes or probable future requirements to supply water for domestic purposes, without having to incur unreasonable expenditure in constructing new waterworks for the purpose, would thereby be endangered.
- (3) [^{F26}Scottish Water] may require, as a condition of giving a supply of water under this section, that the person requesting the supply shall enter into an agreement undertaking to pay to [^{F27}it] in respect of each year a sum not exceeding one-eighth of the cost of providing and laying the necessary mains (less any amounts received by [^{F28}Scottish Water] in respect of water supplied whether for domestic or non-domestic purposes in that year from those mains) until the expiration of a period of 12 years or such lesser period as may appear to [^{F28}Scottish Water] to be appropriate.
- (4) Any question arising as to the terms and conditions on which water is to be supplied [^{F29}(not being a question as respect charges for the water which is to be supplied)] under this section and any question whether [^{F30}Scottish Water is] justified in refusing to give a supply shall in default of agreement, be referred to the Secretary of State and the Secretary of State may determine it himself or, if he thinks fit, refer it for determination by arbitration.
- (5) Where [^{F31}Scottish Water is] required to give a supply of water under this section, the powers of [^{F32}Scottish Water] and of persons supplied or proposed to be supplied by [^{F33}it] to lay mains and pipes for providing a supply of water for domestic purposes and to break open [^{F34}roads] for that purpose shall apply for the purpose of the provision of a supply under this section.

[[^{F38}Notwithstanding anything in section 9] of this Act, no charge may be made by ^{F37}(1) [^{F39}Scottish Water] in respect of—

- [
- ^{F40}(a) water taken for the purpose of extinguishing fires or taken by a fire authority for any other emergency purposes;
- (b) water taken for the purpose of testing apparatus installed or equipment used for extinguishing fires or for the purpose of training persons for fire-fighting; or
- (c) the availability of water for any purpose mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) above:]

Provided that nothing in this section shall prevent the making of charges in respect of work carried out at the request of or for the benefit of any person receiving a supply of water for the said purposes.]

[^{F41}(2) Subsection (1) above shall not have the effect, where any water is used or made available for any of the purposes mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) of that subsection, of requiring a reduction in the charges imposed in respect of the provision for other purposes of the supply from which the water is taken.]
