

Solicitors (Scotland) Act 1980

1980 CHAPTER 46

PART III

PROFESSIONAL PRACTICE, CONDUCT AND DISCIPLINE OF SOLICITORS

Practice Rules

34 Rules as to professional practice, conduct and discipline.

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the Council may, if they think fit, make rules for regulating in respect of any matter the professional practice, conduct and discipline of solicitors [^{F1}and incorporated practices].

[^{F2}(1A) Rules made under this section may—

- (a) provide as to the management and control by—
 - (i) solicitors holding practicing certificates or their executors;
 - (ii) other incorporated practices.of bodies corporate carrying on businesses consisting of the provision of professional services such as are provided by individuals and firms practicing as solicitors being bodies the membership of which is restricted to such solicitors, executors and other incorporated practices;
- (b) prescribe the circumstances in which such bodies may be recognised by the Council as being suitable to undertake the provision of any such services;
- (c) prescribe the conditions which (subject to any exceptions provided by the rules) must at all times be satisfied by bodies corporate so recognised if they are to remain so recognised (which bodies, when and for so long as so recognised, are in this Act referred to as “incorporated practices”);
- (d) regulate the conduct of the affairs of incorporated practices; and
- (e) provide—
 - (i) for the manner and form in which applications for recognition under this section are to be made, and for the payment of fees in connection with such applications for recognition under this section

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2005. This version of this part contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: *Solicitors (Scotland) Act 1980, Part III is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 25 May 2024. are to be made, and for the payment of fees in connection with such applications;

- (ii) for regulating the names that may be used by incorporated practices;
- (iii) as to the period for which any recognition granted under this section shall (subject to the provisions of this Act) remain in force;
- (iv) for the revocation of any such recognition on the grounds that it was granted as a result of any error or fraud;
- (v) for the keeping by the Society of a list containing the names and places of business of all incorporated practices and for the information contained in any such list to be available for inspection;
- (vi) for rules made under any provision of this Act to have effect in relation to incorporated practices with such additions, omissions or other modifications as appear to the Council to be necessary or expedient;
- (vii) for empowering the Council to take such steps as they consider necessary or expedient to ascertain whether or not any rules applicable to incorporated practices by virtue of this section are being complied with.]

[^{F3}and

- (f) make such additional or different provision as the Council think fit in relation to solicitors who, or incorporated practices which, are partners in or directors of multi-disciplinary practices.]

[^{F4}(1B) Rules made under this section may—

- (a) prevent a solicitor from entering a multi-national practice without the approval of the Council; and
- (b) make different provision for the regulation of solicitors and registered foreign lawyers in a multi-national practice in the following different cases—
 - (i) where the principal place of business of the practice is outside Scotland and it has a place of business in Scotland;
 - (ii) where the principal place of business of the practice is in Scotland and it has a place of business outside Scotland;
 - (iii) where the principal place of business of the practice is in Scotland and it has no place of business outside Scotland.

(1C) For the purposes of subsection (1B)(b), the principal place of business of a multi-national practice shall be determined by the Council who shall take into account factors set out in rules which may be made under this section.]

(2) The Council shall, before making any rules under this section or section 35—

- (a) send to each member of the Society a draft of the rules; and
- (b) thereafter submit the draft rules to a meeting of the Society; and
- (c) take into consideration any resolution passed at that meeting relating to amendments to the draft rules.

(3) Rules made under this section or section 35 shall not have effect unless the Lord President after considering any objections he thinks relevant has approved the rules so made.

[^{F5}(3A) Without prejudice to subsection (3), any rule made, whether before or after the coming into force of this subsection, by the Council under this section or section 35 which has

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2005. This version of this part contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

F61 Ss. 42ZC, 42ZD inserted (1.10.2008) by Legal Profession and Legal Aid \(Scotland\) Act 2007 \(asp 5\), ss. 53(2), 82 (with s. 77); S.S.I. 2008/311, art. 2

[^{F62}42A Powers where inadequate professional services alleged.

- (1) Where—
 - (a) the Council receive, from any person having an interest, a complaint that professional services provided by a solicitor in connection with any matter in which he has been instructed by a client were inadequate; and
 - (b) the Council, after inquiry and after giving the solicitor an opportunity to make representations, uphold the complaint, they may take such of the steps mentioned in subsection (2) as they think fit.
- (2) The steps referred to in subsection (1) are—
 - (a) to determine that the amount of the fees and outlays to which the solicitor shall be entitled for the services shall be—
 - (i) nil; or
 - (ii) such amount as the Council may specify in the determination, and to direct the solicitor to comply, or secure compliance, with such of the requirements set out in subsection (3) as appear to them to be necessary to give effect to the determination;
 - (b) to direct the solicitor to secure the rectification at his own expense of any such error, omission or other deficiency arising in connection with the services as the Council may specify;
 - (c) to direct the solicitor to take, at his own expense, such other action in the interests of the client as the Council may specify.

- [to direct the solicitor to pay to the client by way of compensation such sum, ^{F63}(d) not exceeding [^{F64}£5,000], as the Council may specify.]
- (3) The requirements referred to in subsection (2)(a) are—
- (a) to refund, whether wholly or to any specified extent, any amount already paid by or on behalf of the client in respect of the fees and outlays of the solicitor in connection with the services;
 - (b) to waive, whether wholly or to any specified extent, the right to recover those fees and outlays.
- (4) Before making a determination in accordance with subsection (2)(a) the Council may submit the solicitor's account for the fees and outlays to the Auditor of the Court of Session for taxation.
- (5) Where a solicitor in respect of whom a complaint of inadequate professional services is made was, at the time when the services were provided, an employee of another solicitor, a direction under this section shall specify and apply to that other solicitor as well as the solicitor in respect of whom the complaint is made.
- (6) The Council shall intimate a determination or direction made under this section to every solicitor specified in it by sending a copy of the determination or direction to him.
- (7) A solicitor in respect of whom a determination or direction has been made under this section may, within 21 days of the date on which the determination or direction is intimated to him, appeal to the Tribunal against the determination or direction.
- (8) In the foregoing provisions of this section—
- “client”, in relation to any matter in which a solicitor has been instructed, includes any person on whose behalf the person who gave the instructions was acting;
 - “complaint” includes a complaint of provision of inadequate professional services remitted to the Council by the Tribunal under paragraph 8A of Schedule 4; and
 - “solicitor” includes—
- (a) any solicitor, whether or not he had a practising certificate in force at the time of provision of the professional services which are alleged to be inadequate, and notwithstanding that subsequent to that time he has had his name removed from or struck off the roll, ceased to practise or been suspended from practice;
 - (b) a firm of solicitors, whether or not, since the provision of the professional services which are alleged to be inadequate—
 - (i) there has been any change in the firm by the addition of a new partner or the death or resignation of an existing partner; or
 - (ii) the firm has ceased to practise; and
 - (c) an incorporated practice, whether or not, since the provision of the professional services which are alleged to be inadequate—
 - (i) there has been any change in the persons exercising the management and control of the practice; or
 - (ii) the practice has ceased to be recognised by virtue of section 34(1A) or has been wound up.]

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C18 S. 45 applied in part (with modifications) (1.10.2004) by The Solicitors (Scotland) Act 1980 (Foreign Lawyers and Multi-national Practices) Regulations (S.S.I. 2004/383), {reg. 13}

46 Safeguarding interests of clients in certain other cases.

- (1) Where the Council are satisfied that a sole solicitor is incapacitated by illness or accident to such an extent as to be unable to operate on, or otherwise deal with, any client account in the name of the solicitor, or his firm, and that no other arrangements acceptable to the Council have been made, the right to operate on, or otherwise deal with, that account shall vest in the Society (notwithstanding any enactment or rule of law to the contrary) to the exclusion of any other person so long, but only so long, as the Council are satisfied that such incapacity and absence of other acceptable arrangements continues.
- (2) Where a sole solicitor ceases to practise for any reason other than that his name has been struck off the roll or that he has been suspended from practice, and the Council are not satisfied that suitable arrangements have been made for making available to his clients or to some other solicitor or solicitors instructed by his clients or on their behalf—
 - (a) all deed, wills, securities, papers, books of accounts, records, vouchers and other documents in his or his firm's possession or control which are held on behalf of his clients or which relate to any trust of which he is the sole trustee, or a co-trustee only with one or more of his employees, and
 - (b) all sums of money due from him or his firm or held by him or his firm on behalf of his clients or subject to any such trust as aforesaid,the provision of section 38 shall apply in relation to that solicitor, notwithstanding that the Council may not have reasonable cause to believe that he has been guilty of any such dishonesty as is mentioned in section 43(2).
- (3) Where the sole solicitor dies—
 - (a) the right to operate on or otherwise deal with any client account in the name of the solicitor or his firm shall vest in the Society (notwithstanding any enactment or rule of law to the contrary) to the exclusion of any personal representatives of the solicitor, and shall be exercisable as from the death of the solicitor; and
 - (b) if the Council are not satisfied that suitable arrangements have been made for making available to the solicitor's clients or to some other solicitor or solicitors instructed by his clients or on their behalf—
 - (i) all deeds, wills, securities, papers, books of accounts, records, vouchers and other documents which were in his or his firm's possession or control which were held on behalf of his clients or which relate to any trust of which he was the sole trustee, or a co-trustee only with one or more of his employees, and
 - (ii) all sums of money which were due from him or his firm or were held by him or his firm on behalf of his clients or subject to any such trust as aforesaid,the provisions of section 38 shall apply in relation to that solicitor notwithstanding that the Council may not have reasonable cause to believe that he had been guilty of any such dishonesty as is mentioned in section 43(2).

- (4) In a case where the Society have operated on or otherwise dealt with a client account by virtue of subsection (3) the Society shall be entitled to recover from the estate of the solicitor who has died such reasonable expenses as the Society have thereby incurred.
- (5) In this section “sole solicitor” has the same meaning as in section 45.

47 Restriction on employing solicitor struck off or suspended.

- (1) Unless he has the written permission of the Council to do so, a solicitor shall not, in connection with his [^{F88}or, as the case may be, its] practice as a solicitor, employ or remunerate any person who to his knowledge is disqualified from practising as a solicitor [^{F88}and, unless it has such permission, an incorporated practice shall not] by reason of the fact that his name has been struck off the roll or that he is suspended from practice as a solicitor.
- (2) Any permission given by the Council for the purposes of subsection (1) may be given for such period and subject to such conditions as the Council think fit.
- (3) A solicitor [^{F89}or, as the case may be, incorporated practice] aggrieved by the refusal of the Council to grant any such permission as aforesaid, or by any conditions attached by the Council to the grant thereof, may appeal to the Court; and on any such appeal the Court may give such directions in the matter as it thinks fit.
- (4) If any solicitor acts in contravention of this section or of any condition subject to which any permission has been given thereunder, his name shall be struck off the roll or he shall be suspended from practice as a solicitor for such period as the Tribunal, or, in the case of an appeal, the Court, may think fit [^{F90}and if any incorporated practice so acts its recognition under section 34(1A) shall be revoked.]
