EXCEPTIONS TO RIGHT TO BUY

PART II

CIRCUMSTANCES IN WHICH RIGHT CANNOT BE EXERCISED

- 1 The tenant is obliged to give up possession of the dwelling-house in pursuance of an order of the court, or will be so obliged at a date specified in such an order.
- 2 A bankruptcy petition is pending or a receiving order is in force against the person or one of the persons to whom the right to buy belongs or he is an undischarged bankrupt or has made a composition or arrangement with his creditors the terms of which remain to be fulfilled.
