- (1) Except as provided by this section and section 11K below and subject to the provisions of any other enactment, there is no implied term about the quality or fitness for any particular purpose of goods hired under a [^{F2}relevant contract for the hire of goods].
- (2) Where, under such a contract, the supplier hires goods in the course of a business, there is an implied term that the goods supplied under the contract are of satisfactory quality.
- (3) For the purposes of this section and section 11K below, goods are of satisfactory quality if they meet the standard that a reasonable person would regard as satisfactory, taking account of any description of the goods, the consideration for the hire (if relevant) and all the other relevant circumstances.

^{F3}(3A)

^{F3}(3B)

^{F3}(3C)

- (4) The term implied by subsection (2) above does not extend to any matter making the quality of goods unsatisfactory—
 - (a) which is specifically drawn to the attention of the person to whom the goods are hired before the contract is made, or

- (5) Subsection (6) below applies where, under a [^{F2}relevant contract for the hire of goods], the supplier hires goods in the course of a business and the person to whom the goods are hired, expressly or by implication, makes known—
- (a) to the supplier in the course of negotiations conducted by him in relation to the making of the contract; or
 - (b) to a credit-broker in the course of negotiations conducted by that broker in relation to goods sold by him to the supplier before forming the subject matter of the contract,
- any particular purpose for which the goods are being hired.
- (6) In that case there is (subject to subsection (7) below) an implied term that the goods supplied under the contract are reasonably fit for that purpose, whether or not that is a purpose for which such goods are commonly supplied.
- (7) Subsection (6) above does not apply where the circumstances show that the person to whom the goods are hired does not rely, or that it is unreasonable for him to rely, on the skill or judgment of the hirer or credit-broker.
- (8) An implied term about quality or fitness for a particular purpose may be annexed by usage to a [^{F2}relevant contract for the hire of goods].
- (9) The preceding provisions of this section apply to a hire by a person who in the course of a business is acting as agent for another as they apply to a hire by a principal in the course of a business, except where that other is not hiring in the course of a business and either the person to whom the goods are hired knows that fact or reasonable steps are taken to bring it to that person's notice before the contract concerned is made.
