PART I

ASSISTED AREAS

1 Development areas, special development areas and intermediate areas.

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, and of any other enactment referring to development areas or intermediate areas under this Act, the Secretary of State may by order specify any area of Great Britain as—
 - (a) a development area; or
 - (b) an intermediate area.
- (2) For the purposes of Part II of this Act the Secretary of State may by order designate a development area or any part of it as a special development area.
- (3) In exercising his powers under the preceding provisions of this section the Secretary of State shall have regard to all the circumstances actual and expected, including the state

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/1996.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Industrial Development Act 1982. (See end of Document for details) of employment and unemployment, population changes, migration and the objectives of regional policies.

[^{F1}(4) An order under this section may describe a development area, intermediate area or, as the case may be, special development area by reference to any of the following kinds of area or any combination of those areas, that is to say—

- (a) wards;
- (b) travel to work areas (being areas by reference to which the Secretary of State publishes unemployment statistics);
- (c) any other area which has been created by, or exists or existed for the purposes of, any Act or statutory instrument (whenever passed or made);

and any order under this section may provide for any reference in the order to any named area or combination of areas to be construed as a reference to that area or combination of areas as it or they existed on a date specified in the order.]

(5) An order under this section may contain such transitional provisions as respects grant under Part II of this Act as appear to the Secretary of State to be appropriate in connection with any [^{F2}variation] effected by the order in the areas which are assisted areas of any particular category [^{F3}but no provision shall be made having the effect of reducing the amount of grant payable on current projects except in the case of anticipatory projects (as defined in section 5(1) and (6) below).]

[^{F4}(6) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (5) above the transitional provisions as respects grant under Part II of this Act may include provision for the attribution of part of an anticipatory project to the period before the variation takes effect and its approval in accordance with the attribution.]

(7) An order under this section shall be contained in a statutory instrument which, subject to subsection (8) below, shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament, and an order made under subsection (2) above may contain such incidental and supplemental provisions as appear to the Secretary of State to be appropriate.

(8) A statutory instrument shall not, by reason of its designating any area as a special development area, be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament if, by reason of its other provisions, a draft of the order contained in the instrument is required to be approved in pursuance of [^{F5}section 5(8)(b)] below by a resolution of each House.

2 Grants for projects of investment in development areas.

- (1) The Secretary of State may, in accordance with this Part of this Act, make a grant to a person in respect of the carrying out of a project of investment in the productive capacity or productive processes of an undertaking in a development area.
- (2) Productive capacity and productive processes include respectively both the capacity to produce and the process of producing goods and the capacity to provide and the process of providing services, and the investment may be investment in a new or in an existing undertaking.
- (3) Grant is payable both in respect of capital expenditure on the provision of assets and in respect of the provision of jobs comprised in a project, and the assets or jobs may be provided in more than one development area.
- (4) A project is not eligible for grant unless or except to the extent the Secretary of State approves the project for grant, but his approval may be given where the project has been wholly or partly carried out as well as where the project is to be carried out.
- (5) An application for approval of a project for grant shall be made in such form or manner, and shall contain such particulars and be accompanied by such documents, as the Secretary of State may direct and, in the case of a project which has been wholly or partly carried out, shall be made within such time as the Secretary of State may direct.
- (6) Where the Secretary of State decides to make a grant in respect of an approved project, grant shall be payable in accordance with the terms of the approval notified to the applicant and the provisions made by or under Part I or this Part of this Act unaffected (except as provided by any transitional provision of the order) by any changes effected by an order under section 1 above or section 5 below after the date which is for the purposes of section 3 below the qualifying date for the project.

(7) In this Part of this Act—

“asset” means machinery, plant, buildings or works and “machinery”, “plant”, “building” and “works” include part of any machinery, plant building or works respectively;

“expenditure”, in relation to an asset provided by being manufactured, constructed or devised by any person, includes such sum as appears to the Secretary of State to be properly attributable to its provision by that person in that manner, and the sum so attributed shall be treated as having been paid at such time as the Secretary of State may direct;

“jobs”, subject to sections 3(5) and 5(9)(e) below, means full-time jobs;

“produce”, “product” and “productive” are to be construed in accordance with subsection (2) above;

“provision” or “provide”—

- (a) in relation to jobs, includes provision by way of maintaining or safeguarding jobs;
- (b) in relation to machinery or plant, means the provision of unused machinery or plant; and
- (c) in relation to a building, includes provision by the adaptation of an existing one, or by the purchase of a new one, that is to say one not previously occupied, or, if previously occupied then only by the purchaser, and only as part of arrangements made in contemplation of purchase;

“undertaking” includes an undertaking carried on otherwise than for profit.

3 Approval of projects by Secretary of State.

(1) The Secretary of State may approve a project for grant if, in his opinion, the project satisfies or, as the case may be, satisfied the following conditions at the qualifying date, that is to say—

- (a) its purposes are to create new or expand existing productive capacity or to effect a change in the product or in the process of producing it;
- (b) the activities to which it relates are to be qualifying activities; and
- (c) the assets or jobs to be provided are to be, in the case of assets, situated or used in a development area or, in the case of jobs, carried out in a development area.

(2) If, as regards any project—

- (a) most but not all the activities to which it relates are to be qualifying activities, or
- (b) most but not all the assets or jobs are to be, in the case of assets, situated or used or, in the case of jobs, carried out in a development area, the Secretary of State may approve for grant so much of the project as, in his opinion, satisfies or, as the case may be, satisfied the conditions specified in subsection (1) above at the qualifying date except that he may, to such extent as he thinks fit, treat as qualifying activities those which are not and give his approval accordingly.

(3) For the purposes of this section the qualifying date as at which a project is required to satisfy the said conditions is—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/1996.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Industrial Development Act 1982. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) in the case of a project the whole of which, at the date of the application for approval, is to be carried out, the date of the receipt of the application;
 - (b) in the case of a project which has been wholly carried out at the date of the application for approval, the date when the first asset or job was provided under the project or, if earlier, the date when expenditure was first defrayed on the provision of any asset comprised in the project;
 - (c) in the case of a project which has been partly carried out at the date of the application for approval, the date when the first asset or job was provided under the project or, if earlier, the date when expenditure was first defrayed on the provision of any asset comprised in the project.
- (4) In approving a project for grant the Secretary of State shall determine as the basis for the payment of grant what, in his opinion, is—
- (a) the amount of capital expenditure on assets to be provided by the project;
 - (b) the number of jobs to be provided by the project.
- (5) In making a determination under subsection (4) above the Secretary of State may—
- (a) in the case of a determination under paragraph (a), take account of the provision of assets of some classes or descriptions but not others; and
 - (b) in the case of a determination under paragraph (b), take account of the provision of jobs in one way but not another, aggregate jobs which are less than full-time and make such other allowance for the effects of the project on employment in any development area or intermediate area or in any part of Northern Ireland as he considers appropriate.
- (6) Except in the case of a project which has been wholly carried out, the Secretary of State may, in determining under subsection (4) above the amount of capital expenditure on assets or the number of jobs, direct that his approval will extend, if he so determines at any time, to such additional assets or jobs as he indicates in the direction.
- (7) It shall be a term of any approval for grant of a project which includes the provision of assets that the amount of capital expenditure approved by the Secretary of State shall be subject to revision as the project is carried out.

C9 S. 3(6)(7) restricted by Regional Development Grants \(Termination\) Act 1988 \(c. 11, SIF 64\), s. 2(6)

4 Amount and payment of grants.

- (1) Subject to any transitional provision under section 1 above or section 5 below and to any reduction in any of the following amounts required to give effect to any Community obligation, the amount of grant payable in respect of an approved project shall be—
- (a) in the case of a project which is eligible for grant in respect of both capital expenditure on assets and jobs provided, the higher of—
 - (i) the amount which represents the prescribed percentage of the approved amount of capital expenditure reduced, where a prescribed limit for capital expenditure is applicable, by such amount as is required to be deducted to give effect to that limit; and

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/1996.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Industrial Development Act 1982. (See end of Document for details)

- (ii) the amount produced by multiplying the approved number of jobs by the prescribed amount;
- (b) in the case of a project which is eligible for grant only in respect of capital expenditure, the amount which represents the prescribed percentage of the approved amount of capital expenditure reduced, where a prescribed limit for capital expenditure is applicable, by such amount as is required to be deducted to give effect to that limit;
- (c) in the case of a project which is eligible for grant only in respect of jobs provided, the amount produced by multiplying the approved number of jobs by the prescribed amount.
- (2) Where the Secretary of State approves for grant a project which has been wholly or partly carried out the amount of grant payable in respect of the project or so much of it as has been carried out shall be such amount as is produced by applying subsection (1) above as at the date which is for the purposes of section 3 above the qualifying date for the project and making such adjustments (if any) as would have been required to be made by any transitional provision made applicable to current projects.
- (3) Except in the case of a project which has been wholly carried out, grant shall be paid, subject to sub-section (4) below, at such times as the Secretary of State determines.
- (4) Grant in respect of capital expenditure on the provision of any asset may be paid at any time after the time when, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, the asset is provided or the expenditure is defrayed and grant in respect of any job may be paid at any time after the time when, in his opinion, the job is provided.
- (5) At any time at which subsection (1) above falls to be applied to determine the amount of grant payable at that time in respect of the carrying out of an approved project—
- (a) “the approved amount of capital expenditure” is the amount determined by the Secretary of State under section 3(4) above in approving the project for grant subject, as respects a project the whole or any part of which, at the date of approval, is to be carried out, to any adjustment falling to be made at that time under either or both of subsections (6) and (7) of that section;
- (b) “the approved number of jobs” is the number determined by the Secretary of State under section 3(4) above in approving the project for grant subject, as respects a project the whole or any part of which, at the date of approval, is to be carried out, to any adjustment falling to be made at that time under subsection (6) of that section;
- and paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of subsection (1) above (with any increase or reduction required by any transitional provision and any reduction to give effect to any Community obligation then in force) shall be applied accordingly subject to any adjustments falling to be made to take account of any previous payments of grant and to any final adjustment which is required to give effect to that subsection.

5 Provisions supplementary to ss. 3 and 4.

- (1) For the purposes of sections 3 and 4 above—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/1996.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Industrial Development Act 1982. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) “qualifying activities” are such activities as are specified by order of the Secretary of State made with the consent of the Treasury;
- (b) “the prescribed percentage” for capital expenditure on the provision of assets is such percentage as is prescribed by order of the Secretary of State made with the consent of the Treasury;
- (c) “the prescribed amount” for jobs provided is such amount as is prescribed by order of the Secretary of State made with the consent of the Treasury; and
- (d) a “prescribed limit” for capital expenditure is such amount as is prescribed by order of the Secretary of State made with the consent of the Treasury in relation to any specified class of undertaking in any specified circumstances as a limit on the amount of grant payable in respect of capital expenditure on the provision of assets; and “anticipatory project”, in relation to a variation of the qualifying activities, the prescribed percentage, the prescribed amount or a prescribed limit, means a project whose qualifying date falls in the period beginning with the making or, as the case may be, the laying in draft of the order and ending with the date on which the variation takes effect, with a corresponding meaning in relation to a variation under section 1 above in the areas which are assisted areas of any particular category.

- (2) An order under subsection (1)(a) above may—
 - (a) specify the activities which are to be qualifying activities by reference to any specified edition or amended edition of the publication known as the Standard Industrial Classification or any other like publication of any government department and with or without modifications specified in the order;
 - (b) if it varies any qualifying activities, contain such transitional provisions as respects grant as appear to the Secretary of State to be appropriate in connection with the change.
- (3) An order under subsection (1)(b) above may—
 - (a) prescribe different percentages for different classes of asset;
 - (b) prescribe different percentages for assets situated or used in development areas and for assets situated or used in special development areas;
 - (c) if it varies the percentage prescribed by a previous order, contain such transitional provisions as respects grant as appear to the Secretary of State to be appropriate in connection with the change.
- (4) An order under subsection (1)(c) above may—
 - (a) prescribe different amounts for jobs carried out in development areas and for jobs carried out in special development areas;
 - (b) if it varies the amount prescribed by a previous order, contain such transitional provisions as respects grant as appear to the Secretary of State to be appropriate in connection with the change.
- (5) An order under subsection (1)(d) above may—
 - (a) prescribe different amounts for different classes of undertaking;
 - (b) contain such incidental and supplemental provisions as appear to the Secretary of State to be appropriate;
 - (c) if it varies any amount prescribed by a previous order, contain such transitional provisions as respects grant as appear to the Secretary of State to be appropriate in connection with the change.
- (6) Transitional provisions under subsection (2)(b), (3)(c), (4)(b) or (5)(c) may—

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/1996.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Industrial Development Act 1982. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) provide for the attribution of part of an anticipatory project to the period before the variation takes effect and its approval in accordance with the attribution; and
 - (b) apply increases or, in the case of anticipatory projects, reductions in a percentage, amount or limit to current projects, that is to say, projects for which applications for approval for grant have been received or which are in the process of being carried out.
- (7) Different transitional provisions as respects grant may be made under subsection (2) (b), (3)(c), (4)(b) or (5)(c) above in relation to projects in different circumstances.
- (8) An order of the Secretary of State under any provision of subsection (1) above shall be made by statutory instrument and—
- (a) in the case of an order under paragraph (a), the instrument containing it shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament; and
 - (b) in the case of an order under paragraph (b), (c) or (d), the order shall not be made unless a draft of it has been approved by resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (9) The Secretary of State may give directions, which may be general directions or directions concerning a particular case, as respects the determination of—
- (a) any question as to the classification of an asset as between the following three classes, that is to say—
 - machinery or plant;
 - buildings;
 - works;
 - (b) any question as to the area in which an asset is to be treated as situated or used;
 - (c) any question as to the area in which a job is to be treated as carried out;
 - (d) any question whether and in what circumstances a project is to be treated as providing an asset or a job;
 - (e) the number of jobs a project is to be treated as providing where some of them are less than full-time.

PART III

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE FOR INDUSTRY

7 Selective financial assistance for industry in assisted areas.

- (1) For the purposes set out in the following provisions of this section the Secretary of State may, with the consent of the Treasury, provide financial assistance where, in his opinion—
- (a) the financial assistance is likely to provide, maintain or safeguard employment in any part of the assisted areas; and
 - (b) the undertakings for which the assistance is provided are or will be wholly or mainly in the assisted areas.
- (2) The purposes mentioned in subsection (1) above are—
- (a) to promote the development or modernisation of an industry;
 - (b) to promote the efficiency of an industry;
 - (c) to create, expand or sustain productive capacity in an industry, or in undertakings in an industry;
 - (d) to promote the reconstruction, reorganisation or conversion of an industry or of undertakings in an industry;
 - (e) to encourage the growth of, or the proper distribution of undertakings in, an industry;
 - (f) to encourage arrangements for ensuring that any contraction of an industry proceeds in an orderly way.
- (3) Subject to the following provisions of this section, financial assistance under this section may be given on any terms or conditions, and by any description of investment or lending or guarantee, or by making grants, and may, in particular, be—
- (a) investment by acquisition of loan or share capital in any company, including an acquisition effected by the Secretary of State through another company, being a company formed for the purpose of giving financial assistance under this Part of this Act or Part II of the ^{M1}Industry Act 1972,
 - (b) investment by the acquisition of any undertaking or of any assets,
 - (c) a loan, whether secured or unsecured, and whether or not carrying interest, or interest at a commercial rate,
 - (d) any form of insurance or guarantee to meet any contingency, and in particular to meet default on payment of a loan, or of interest on a loan, or non-fulfilment of a contract.
- (4) Financial assistance shall not be given under this section in the way described in subsection (3)(a) above unless the Secretary of State is satisfied that it cannot, or cannot appropriately, be so given in any other way; and the Secretary of State, in giving financial assistance in the way so described, shall not acquire any shares or stock in a company without the consent of that company.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/1996.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Industrial Development Act 1982. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) In this section “industry”, unless the context otherwise requires, includes any description of commercial activity, and references to an industry include references to any section of an industry.
- (6) In this section “the assisted areas” means the development areas, the intermediate areas and Northern Ireland.

8 Selective financial assistance: general powers.

- (1) For the purposes set out in subsection (2) of section 7 above the Secretary of State may, with the consent of the Treasury, provide financial assistance where, in his opinion—
- the financial assistance is likely to benefit the economy of the United Kingdom, or of any part or area of the United Kingdom; and
 - it is in the national interest that the financial assistance should be provided on the scale, and in the form and manner, proposed; and
 - the financial assistance cannot, or cannot appropriately, be so provided otherwise than by the Secretary of State.
- (2) Financial assistance under this section may, subject to the following provisions of this section, be given in any of the ways set out in subsection (3) of section 7 above; but the Secretary of State shall not under this section use any money for the acquisition or assistance of banks or insurance companies.
- (3) Financial assistance shall not be given under this section in the way described in subsection (3)(a) of section 7 above unless the Secretary of State is satisfied that it cannot, or cannot appropriately, be so given in any other way; and the Secretary of State, in giving financial assistance in the way so described, shall not acquire any shares or stock in a company without the consent of that company.
- (4) The aggregate of—
- the sums paid by the Secretary of State under this section or section 8 of the ^{M2}Industry Act 1972, other than sums paid in respect of foreign currency guarantees, and
 - the liabilities of the Secretary of State under any guarantees given by him under this section or that section, (exclusive of any liability in respect of interest on a principal sum so guaranteed and of any liability under a foreign currency guarantee),
- less any sum received by the Secretary of State by way of repayment of loans under this section or that section, or repayment of principal sums paid to meet a guarantee

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/1996.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Industrial Development Act 1982. (See end of Document for details) under this section or that section (other than a foreign currency guarantee), shall not at any time exceed the limit specified in subsection (5) below.

- (5) The said limit shall be [^{F7}£2,100] million, but the Secretary of State may, on not more than four occasions, by order made with the consent of the Treasury increase or further increase that limit by a sum specified in the order, being a sum not exceeding £200 million.
- (6) Subject to section 9 below, the aggregate of—
- (a) the liabilities of the Secretary of State under foreign currency guarantees (exclusive of any liability in respect of interest on a principal sum guaranteed by him under this section or section 8 of the ^{M3}Industry Act 1972), and
 - (b) any sums paid by the Secretary of State in respect of foreign currency guarantees,
- less any sums received by the Secretary of State by way of repayment of principal sums paid to meet foreign currency guarantees, shall not at any time exceed the limit specified in subsection (7) below.
- (7) The said limit shall be 1,000 million special drawing rights, but the Secretary of State may, on not more than four occasions, by order made with the consent of the Treasury increase or further increase that limit by an amount specified in the order, being an amount not exceeding 500 million special drawing rights.
- (8) Subject to subsection (9) below, the sums which the Secretary of State pays or undertakes to pay by way of financial assistance under this section in respect of any one project, excluding sums paid or to be paid in respect of foreign currency guarantees, shall not exceed £10 million, except so far as any excess over the said sum of £10 million has been authorised by a resolution of the Commons House of Parliament.
- (9) Subsection (8) above shall not apply where the Secretary of State is satisfied that the payment or undertaking is urgently needed at a time when it is impracticable to obtain the approval of the Commons House of Parliament; and in that case the Secretary of State shall lay a statement concerning the financial assistance before each House of Parliament.
- (10) An order under subsection (5) or (7) above shall be contained in a statutory instrument; and such an order shall not be made unless a draft of the order has been approved by a resolution of the Commons House of Parliament.

- (11) In this section—

“foreign currency” means any currency other than sterling, including special drawing rights;

“foreign currency guarantee” means a guarantee given under that section or section 8 of the ^{M4}Industry Act 1972 by the Secretary of State under which his liability is measured in a foreign currency, whether or not it is to be discharged in a foreign currency, and for this purpose—

- (a) a liability measured in sterling but expressed to be subject to a limit in a foreign currency shall be taken to be measured in foreign currency, and 9 Limit on foreign currency liabilities: supplementary provisions.

- (1) The amount to be taken into account under section 8(6) above at any time in respect of a liability of the Secretary of State shall, if the amount of the liability is not expressed in special drawing rights, be the equivalent at that time in special drawing rights of the amount of the liability.
- (2) The equivalent in special drawing rights of the amount of a liability shall be determined by the Secretary of State—
 - (a) by reference to the day on which the guarantee is given, and
 - (b) by reference to the last day of each quarter at the end of which the guarantee remains in force, and shall be so determined having regard to what appears to him to be the appropriate rate of exchange.
- (3) A determination made under subsection (2)(a) above shall take effect as from the day by reference to which it is made and (unless it ceases to be required at an earlier date) shall remain in force until the end of the quarter in which the guarantee is given.
- (4) A determination made by reference to the last day of the quarter under subsection (2)(b) above shall take effect as from the end of that quarter and (unless it ceases to be required at an earlier date) shall remain in force throughout the next succeeding quarter.
- (5) The amount to be taken into account under section 8(6) above in respect of a sum paid or received by the Secretary of State otherwise than in special drawing rights shall be an amount determined by him, by reference to the day of payment or receipt and having regard to what appears to him to be the appropriate rate of exchange, as being the equivalent in special drawing rights of that sum.
- (6) The limit imposed by section 8(6) above may be exceeded if the excess is attributable only to, or to a combination of—
 - (a) a quarterly revaluation;
 - (b) the Secretary of State's liability under a guarantee given in pursuance of a previous undertaking of his, so far as the amount to be taken into account for the purposes of the limit in respect of the liability exceeds what it would

- (2) The Secretary of State shall not acquire under subsection (1) above any buildings other than industrial buildings (as defined in ^{F8}section 14A of this Act]) except for redevelopment or as part of a larger property which in the opinion of the Secretary of State would be incomplete without them.
- (3) The Secretary of State may modernise, adapt or reconstruct any buildings or other works on land acquired by him under this section or the ^{M7}Local Employment Act 1972 and, where the execution of that work will interrupt the use of the buildings or works by any undertaking, acquire other land by agreement, and erect buildings and carry out works on that other land, or on land previously acquired by the Secretary of State as aforesaid, for the purpose of providing premises for the occupation of that undertaking or of otherwise meeting its requirements.
- (4) Where land acquired by the Secretary of State under this section or the ^{M8}Local Employment Act 1972 is situated in a locality which is not a development area or intermediate area, the Secretary of State may exercise in relation to the land the following powers, that is to say—
- (a) power to preserve and maintain the land and any buildings or works on it, and to erect buildings and carry out works on it;
 - (b) where there are buildings on the land, power to acquire by agreement other land contiguous or adjacent to it for the purpose of erecting thereon extensions to those buildings or of erecting thereon other buildings to be used with the first-mentioned buildings as part of a single undertaking;
 - (c) power to provide means of access, services and other facilities for meeting the requirements of undertakings carried on, or to be carried on, on the land (including requirements arising from the needs of persons employed or to be employed therein).
- (5) The ^{M9}Acquisition of Land Act 1981 shall apply in relation to the compulsory purchase of land by the Secretary of State under this section; but, notwithstanding anything in this section, where at the time of publication in accordance with the provisions of that Act of notice of the preparation of a draft of a compulsory purchase order—
- (a) land is in use for the purposes of any undertaking, and
 - (b) that undertaking provides employment which is substantial having regard to the extent of the land used for its purposes and the nature of the undertaking,
- the Secretary of State shall not be authorised to acquire compulsorily the interest of the person carrying on the undertaking.
- (6) Any person duly authorised in writing by the Secretary of State may, at any reasonable time, enter any land for the purpose of surveying it in connection with the exercise of the Secretary of State's powers under this section to acquire land; and ^{F9}subsection (8) of section 324 and subsections (1) to (6), (8) and (9) of section 325 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990] (which contain supplemental provision with respect to powers of entry) shall apply in relation to this subsection as they apply in relation to ^{F9}the said section 324].

[^{F10}14A Meaning of “industrial buildings”.

(1) In section 14(2) of this Act “industrial building” means a building which is used or designed for use for carrying on, in the course of a trade or business, a process for or incidental to any of the following purposes—

- (a) the making of any article or part of any article,
- (b) the altering, repairing, ornamenting, finishing, cleaning, washing, freezing, packing or canning, or adapting for sale, or breaking up or demolition, of any article, or
- (c) the getting, dressing or preparation for sale of minerals or the extraction or preparation for sale of oil or brine, or which is used or designed for use for carrying on, in the course of a trade or business, scientific research.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) premises which—

- (a) are used or designed for use for providing services or facilities ancillary to the use of other premises for the carrying on of any such process or research as is mentioned in that subsection, and
- (b) are or are to be comprised in the same building or the same curtilage as those other premises, shall themselves be treated as used or designed for use for the carrying on of such a process or, as the case may be, of such research.

(3) In this section—

“article” means an article of any description, including a ship or vessel;

“building” includes part of a building;

“minerals” includes all minerals and substances in or under land of a kind ordinarily worked for removal by underground or surface working, except that it does not include peat cut for purposes other than sale;

SCHEDULE 2

Section 19.

CONSEQUENTIAL AMENDMENTS, TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS AND SAVINGS

PART I

OLD CASES ETC.

- 1 The enactments repealed by this Act and the instruments made under those enactments shall continue to have effect after the commencement of this Act for the purpose of the making of grants under Part I of the Industry Act 1972 in respect of expenditure incurred in providing an asset as part of, or on or for use in any premises if—
- the asset was provided before 1st August 1980; or
 - the expenditure was defrayed before 18th July 1979; or
 - the asset consists of a building or works provided in a derelict land clearance area and the construction of the building or the carrying out of the works was begun before 22nd March 1974.
- 2 (1) In Articles 5, 5A, 5B, 5C and 5D of the ^{M19}Assisted Areas Order 1979 (which contain transitional provisions in connection with changes in the categories of the assisted areas) references to Part I of the Industry Act 1972 shall have effect on and after the commencement of this Act as if they included references to Part II of this Act.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/1996.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Industrial Development Act 1982. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Where apart from this sub-paragraph the amount of a grant under Part II of this Act towards expenditure falling within sub-paragraph (3) below would be less than 20 per cent. of the expenditure, the amount shall instead be 20 per cent. of the expenditure.
- (3) The expenditure falling within this sub-paragraph is expenditure incurred—
- (a) in providing an asset as part of, or on or for use in, qualifying premises in a relevant special development area in such circumstances that, by reason of Article 5(1) and (4)(d) or Article 5A(2) and (5)(b) of the ^{M20}Assisted Areas Order 1979 (as amended by sub-paragraph (1) above), any grant under Part II of this Act towards the expenditure is to be made at the rate appropriate to a development area which is not a special development area, or
 - (b) in providing a building or works at any time as part of or on qualifying premises in a relevant development area in such circumstances that, by reason of Article 5(2) and (4)(d) of that order (as so amended), no grant may be made under Part II of this Act towards any expenditure incurred in providing machinery or plant at that time for use in those premises.
- (4) In sub-paragraph (3) above—
- (a) “relevant special development area” means an area which became a special development area on the coming into operation of the ^{M21}Assisted Areas Order 1977, the ^{M22}Assisted Areas Order 1979 or the ^{M23}Assisted Areas (Amendment) Order 1979, and
 - (b) “relevant development area” means an area which became a development area on the coming into operation of the ^{M24}Assisted Areas Order 1977, the Assisted Areas (No. 2) Order 1977 or the Assisted Areas Order 1979.
- (5) The preceding provisions of this paragraph are without prejudice to the provisions of an order made after the commencement of this Act under section 1 of this Act, and such an order may amend or repeal sub-paragraph (1) above.
- (6) Notwithstanding its enactment by this Act, sub-paragraph (1) above shall have effect subject to any question arising as to the validity of the provisions in the Articles mentioned in that sub-paragraph referring to Part I of the ^{M25}Industry Act 1972.
