

International Transport Conventions Act 1983

1983 CHAPTER 14

Other international transport conventions

9 Power to make amendments consequential on revision of other international transport conventions.

The Acts mentioned in Schedule 2 to this Act (which give effect to other international transport conventions) shall have effect with the amendments there specified, being amendments making further provision for enabling those Acts to be modified so as to take account of revisions of the conventions to which they give effect.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the International Transport Conventions Act 1983, Cross Heading: Other international transport conventions.