18 (1) When determining the amount of the new pitch fee particular regard shall be had to—

    - (a) any sums expended by the owner since the last review date on improvements—
      - (i) which are for the benefit of the occupiers of mobile homes on the protected site;
      - (ii) which were the subject of consultation in accordance with paragraph 22(e) and (f) below; and
      - (iii) to which a majority of the occupiers have not disagreed in writing or which, in the case of such disagreement, the [<sup>F103</sup>appropriate judicial body], on the application of the owner, has ordered should be taken into account when determining the amount of the new pitch fee;
    - [ <sup>F104</sup>(aa) in the case of a protected site in England, any deterioration in the condition, and any decrease in the amenity, of the site or any adjoining land which is occupied or controlled by the owner since the date on which this paragraph

- (ab) in the case of a protected site in England, any reduction in the services that the owner supplies to the site, pitch or mobile home, and any deterioration in the quality of those services, since the date on which this paragraph came into force (in so far as regard has not previously been had to that reduction or deterioration for the purposes of this sub-paragraph);]
- (b) [<sup>F105</sup>in the case of a protected site in Wales,] any decrease in the amenity of the protected site since the last review date; <sup>F106</sup> ...

- (c) [<sup>F108</sup>in the case of a protected site in Wales,] the effect of any enactment, other than an order made under paragraph 8(2) above, which has come into force since the last review date.

<sup>F109</sup>(1A) [ But, in the case of a pitch in England, no regard shall be had, when determining the amount of the new pitch fee, to any costs incurred by the owner since the last review date for the purpose of compliance with the amendments made to this Act by the Mobile Homes Act 2013.]

- (2) When calculating what constitutes a majority of the occupiers for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1)(b)(iii) each mobile home is to be taken to have only one occupier and, in the event of there being more than one occupier of a mobile home, its occupier is to be taken to be the occupier whose name first appears on the agreement.
- (3) In a case where the pitch fee has not been previously reviewed, references in this paragraph to the last review date are to be read as references to the date when the agreement commenced.

19 <sup>F110</sup>(1) [ When determining the amount of the new pitch fee, any costs incurred by the owner in connection with expanding the protected site shall not be taken into account.

- (b) the owner being convicted of an offence under section 9B of that Act (failure to comply with compliance notice).]

20 <sup>F114</sup>(A1) [ In the case of a protected site in England, unless this would be unreasonable having regard to paragraph 18(1), there is a presumption that the pitch fee shall increase or decrease by a percentage which is no more than any percentage increase or decrease in the retail prices index calculated by reference only to—

- (a) the latest index, and

- (1) [<sup>F115</sup>In the case of a protected site in Wales,] there is a presumption that the pitch fee shall increase or decrease by a percentage which is no more than any percentage increase or decrease in the retail prices index since the last review date, unless this would be unreasonable having regard to paragraph 18(1) above.

  - (d) works or repairs in connection with restoration following flood, landslide or other natural disaster.
9. Unless the occupier has agreed otherwise, the owner may enter the pitch for a reason other than one specified in paragraph 7 or 8 only if the owner has given the occupier at least 14 clear days' written notice of the date, time and reason for the owner's visit.
10. The rights conferred by paragraphs 7 to 9 do not extend to the mobile home.

- (2) If the owner fails to comply with sub-paragraph (1), then any amount otherwise due from the occupier to the owner in respect of the pitch fee is to be treated for all purposes as not being due from the occupier to the owner at any time before the owner does so comply.
- (3) Where in accordance with the agreement the owner gives any written notice to the occupier the notice must contain the name and address of the owner.
- (4) Where—
- (a) the occupier receives such a notice, but
  - (b) it does not contain the information required to be contained in it by virtue of sub-paragraph (3),
- the notice is to be treated as not having been given until such time as the owner gives the information to the occupier in respect of the notice.
- (5) Nothing in sub-paragraphs (3) and (4) applies to any notice containing a demand to which paragraph 12(1) applies.
12. (1) Where the owner makes any demand for payment by the occupier of the pitch fee, or in respect of services supplied or other charges, the demand must contain the name and address of the owner.
- (2) Where—
- (a) the occupier receives such a demand, but
  - (b) it does not contain the information required to be contained in it by virtue of sub-paragraph (1),
- the amount demanded is to be treated for all purposes as not being due from the occupier to the owner at any time before the owner gives that information to the occupier in respect of the demand.

Application in relation to assignment in Wales

- 6B
- (1) The occupier may serve on the owner a request to approve, for the purposes of paragraph 6A, an assignment to a person named in the request (“the proposed occupier”).
  - (2) Where the request relates to an assignment under paragraph 6A(2)(a) the request must include satisfactory evidence that the proposed occupier is a member of the occupier’s family.
  - (3) Where the owner receives a request under sub-paragraph (1), the owner must, within 28 days beginning with the date on which the request is received—

  - (4) If the approval is withheld, the decision notice must specify the reasons for withholding it.
  - (5) Where a fee lawfully due from the occupier has not been paid or any term of the agreement has been broken or not performed, the approval required for the purpose of paragraph 6A may be given subject to a condition requiring the occupier to pay the outstanding fee, remedy the breach or perform the obligation.
  - (6) Except as provided by sub-paragraph (5), the approval required for the purpose of paragraph 6A cannot be given subject to a condition and a condition imposed otherwise than as so provided is to be disregarded.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Mobile Homes Act 1983. (See end of Document for details)

- (8) If the question arises as to whether the notice required by sub-paragraph (3)(b) was served within the required period of 28 days, it is for an owner to show that the notice was so served.
- (9) If the owner did not approve the assignment and the question arises whether it was reasonable for the owner not to do so, it is for the owner to show that it was reasonable.
- (10) A request or notice under this paragraph—
  - (a) must be in writing, and
  - (b) may be served by post.
- (11) Subject to sub-paragraph (12), an application to the tribunal under sub-paragraph (7) by an occupier must be made—

  - (b) where the occupier receives no decision notice, within the period of three months beginning with the date which is 29 days after the date upon which the occupier served the request under sub-paragraph (1).
- (12) A tribunal may permit an application under sub-paragraph (7) to be made to the tribunal after the applicable period specified in sub-paragraph (11) if it is satisfied that, in all the circumstances, there are good reasons for the failure to apply before the end of that period and for any delay since then in applying for permission to make the application out of time.]
