

Trade Union Act 1984

^{F1}(repealed 16.10.1992)

CHAPTER 49

TRADE UNION ACT 1984 (REPEALED 16.10.1992)

PART I

SECRET BALLOTS FOR TRADE UNION ELECTIONS

- 1 Duty of trade union to hold elections for certain positions.
- 2 Requirements to be satisfied in relation to elections.
- 3
- 4 Register of members' names and addresses.
- 5 Remedy for failure to comply with Part I.
- 6 Proceedings before Certification Officer: supplementary provisions.
- 7 Exemption for certain trade unions.
- 8 Exemption for certain persons nearing retirement.
- 9 Interpretation of Part I and transitional provision.

PART II

SECRET BALLOTS BEFORE INDUSTRIAL ACTION

- 10 Industrial action authorised or endorsed by trade union without support of a ballot.
- 11 Requirements to be satisfied in relation to ballots.

PART III

POLITICAL FUNDS AND OBJECTS

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Trade Union Act 1984 (repealed 16.10.1992). (See end of Document for details)

Resolutions under 1913 Act

- 12 Political fund resolutions: periodical ballots.
- 13 Ballots: supplementary provisions.
- 14 Assets and liabilities of political fund.
- 15 Position where resolution has ceased to have effect.
- 16 Remedy for failure to comply with s. 15(3)(a).

Political objects

- 17 Political objects.

Union dues

- 18 Collection of union dues by employers.

Interpretation

- 19 Interpretation of Part III.

PART IV

SUPPLEMENTARY

- 20 Amendment of ss. 1 and 2 of the Employment Act 1980.
- 21 Expenses.
- 22 Short title, commencement and extent.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Trade Union Act 1984 (repealed 16.10.1992).