SCHEDULES

SCHEDULE 1

ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS AS TO “FORMER EMPLOYER”

- 1 Where—
- (a) a person who has entered on a period of whole-time service was last employed within the period of four weeks immediately preceding the beginning of that service in any undertaking, and
  - (b) any change (whether before or after the commencement of this Act) takes place in the person carrying on that undertaking or that undertaking becomes comprised in any other undertaking,
- references in this Act to the former employer of that person shall be construed as references to the person for the time being carrying on that undertaking or that other undertaking, as the case may be.
- 2 Where the person in question was last employed as mentioned above in a branch or part of an undertaking which (whether before or after the commencement of this Act) becomes, or becomes part of, some other undertaking, and either—
- (a) he has as a consequence become employed in that other undertaking; or
  - (b) it is reasonable to suppose that he would as a consequence have become employed in that other undertaking if his employment had not been interrupted by his whole-time service,
- paragraph 1 has effect as if that branch or part were itself an undertaking.
- 3 Where—
- (a) by virtue of any provision made by or under any Act, employers of any class are required, in taking persons of any class into their employment (whether in all cases or not and whether absolutely or subject to exceptions), to restrict themselves to, or to give preference to, persons for the time being included in a specified pool or register, and
  - (b) under that provision, all persons included in that pool or register are in the employment of a specified body when not otherwise employed, and
  - (c) the occupation in which a person who has entered on a period of whole-time service was last employed before the beginning of that service is such that the taking of him into employment by the person who, but for the provisions of this paragraph, would be his former employer is affected by that provision,
- that body shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be the former employer of that person.

SCHEDULE 2

REINSTATEMENT COMMITTEES AND UMPIRES

- 1 The Secretary of State shall appoint such number of committees (“Reinstatement Committees”) as he may decide for the determination of the questions and the making of the orders specified in section 8.
- 2 <sup>F1</sup>[(1)] Every Reinstatement Committee shall consist of—
- (a) a chairman selected by the Secretary of State from a panel of persons appointed by the Lord Chancellor, and
  - (b) one person selected by the Secretary of State from a panel constituted by him for the purposes of this provision of persons chosen to represent employers, and
  - (c) one person selected by the Secretary of State from a panel so constituted of persons chosen to represent employed persons,
- but where a Reinstatement Committee sits in Scotland the panel of persons referred to in paragraph (a) shall be appointed by the Lord President of the Court of Session, and in Northern Ireland, by the [<sup>F2</sup>Northern Ireland Judicial Appointments Commission].
- <sup>F3</sup>[(2)] A member of the panel of persons referred to in sub-paragraph (1)(a) shall vacate his office on the day on which he attains the age of [<sup>F4</sup>75].]

SCHEDULE 3

Section 8.

ORDERS OF REINSTATEMENT COMMITTEES

Orders requiring employment to be made available

- 1 An order requiring that employment shall be made available to the applicant by his former employer may be made notwithstanding—
- (a) that more than six months have elapsed since the end of the applicant's whole-time service; and
  - (b) that the date on which the employment is to be made available to the applicant is more than six months after the end of the applicant's whole-time service.
- 2 Any such order shall be made against the person who is the applicant's former employer at the time of the making of the order, and accordingly it is his duty to secure compliance with that order.
- 3 (1) Where the applicant is taken into the employment of his former employer in pursuance of any such order, the provisions of this Act have effect in relation to the applicant as if he had been taken into employment in pursuance of the obligation imposed on his former employer by section 1.
- (2) Where the applicant has already been in the employment of his former employer for any period since the end of his whole-time service, the period of 26, 52 or 13 weeks for which, under section 7 as applied by this paragraph, the applicant has to be employed shall be correspondingly reduced.
- 4 (1) Where—

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Reserve Forces (Safeguard of Employment) Act 1985. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) in pursuance of any such order the applicant’s former employer makes employment available to the applicant on the date specified in the order, but
  - (b) the applicant is prevented from taking it by sickness or other reasonable cause, the former employer is under the like obligation as he would have been under if the employment had been made available in pursuance of the obligation imposed by section 1.
- (2) Where the date specified in the order as the date on which employment is to be made available is more than six months from the end of the applicant’s whole-time service, so much of section 1 as provides that in no case shall the former employer be under an obligation to take the applicant into his employment after six months after the end of the applicant’s whole-time service shall have effect as if for the reference to the end of the applicant’s whole-time service there were substituted a reference to the date so specified.

Orders for compensation

- 5 An order for the payment of money by way of compensation shall—
- (a) in so far as the compensation is in respect of a period subsequent to the order, be made against the person who is the applicant’s former employer at the date of the order, and
  - (b) in so far as the compensation is in respect of a period before the order, be made against the person who was the former employer during the period of default by reason of which the order was made,
- and where different persons have been at different times the applicant’s former employer, the sum payable under the order shall be apportioned by the order between those persons, and references in this Act to the person against whom such an order is made shall be construed accordingly.
